

SACRAMENTO WINS

Secures the Republican State Convention.

LIVELY TRIANGULAR FIGHT.

Tuesday, June 19, the Day Selected.

TO BE A CAMPAIGN OF EDUCATION

The State Central Committee Was Puzzled Over the Identity of J. J. Green, and is Yet.

On the second ballot Sacramento was yesterday chosen by the Republican State Central Committee as the place in which to hold the State convention.

The result was somewhat of a surprise to many. Three cities were in the fight, Sacramento, Santa Cruz and Oakland, and before the meeting everything seemed in favor of Santa Cruz.

SCIPIO CRAIG. GROVE L. JOHNSON. CHAIRMAN MEYERS. JAKE STEPPACHER.

the capital city the choice for the convention by a vote of 61, the requisite number being 59.

So the margin was not very great, after all.

The Senatorial fight did not make itself manifest until the fall-end of the meeting.

The meeting of the State Central Committee was held in Pioneer Hall at 2 1/2 in the afternoon.

There were present 116 members in person or by proxy, and the hall was crowded to its full capacity.

The following speakers: Ex-officio committee—Charles F. Bassett, E. F. Preston, J. N. E. Wilson, F. C. Siebe, Colonel C. L. Taylor, J. W. H. Woodbury, Wendell Easton, E. S. Lillard, Isaac Chapman, Horace Davis, Jacob Lett, J. A. H. Vail, R. C. Meyers, W. R. Lawrence, E. W. Fog, Allen B. Lemmon, F. H. Meyers, E. S. Taylor, W. Wilson, R. E. Pond, L. W. Shippee, H. Z. Osborne, Thomas Flint Jr., Scipio Craig, George A. Nourse, O. A. Hale.

It was in the presence of calling the roll that a ludicrous incident took place. The name of J. J. Green was called. Promptly a young man on the right of the hall answered "Sacramento."

"Dan Burns at the front and I am J. J. Green," he cried dramatically. "I know J. J. Green, there many years, and you are not the man."

Every eye was turned in the direction of Green, who stood the picture of astonishment in the aisle. "But I am J. J. Green," he retorted.

"You are not," replied Burns. "I vote for Sacramento, but I don't want votes of that kind. You are not J. J. Green."

"But I am," began Green.

"I know J. J. Green, whom I know for twenty years."

"No, I ain't," replied Green. "I'm John J. Green, I tell you. Regularly elected at Stockton in May."

"It was held in Sacramento," cried C. L. Jones.

"It wasn't," cried half a dozen delegates. "Backslap! knows me," yelled the pseudo-Green above the din.

Chairman Meyers rapped for order. The roll was called.

"We will pass your vote for the present," said the chairman.

date for the State convention. Mr. Chairman, Santa Cruz County is a Republican county. It has been a Republican county and I hope it will always be a Republican county.

then Mayor Pardee of Oakland changed his vote to Sacramento. That finished it. When the secretary called the result the vote stood Sacramento 61, Santa Cruz 50, Oakland 7.

"Sacramento will have the next convention," said the chairman quietly, and a gale of cheers shook the building.

General Barnes—The convention ought to be held earlier than July. The Populists will hold theirs in May. It has often been said that the Republican party is going to have a walkover in this State, but that is not so.

Mr. Lemmon altered his motion to Tuesday, June 19, saying it could not be held too soon for the "quill-drivers."

C. L. Jones of Sacramento said that he spoke as a Republican and that Santa Cruz has a ball, but Oakland has three and all of them are welcome to the Republican convention.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

Mr. Jones of Sacramento said that the convention met it would meet not for pleasure but for good solid work.

DICK STEPS OUT.

Resigns as a Director at Last.

ONE OF THE VAULTS OPEN.

Five Dollars Found in the Bank Fund.

CRIMINAL ACTS ARE CHARGED.

What the Attorney for the Receiver of the People's Home Savings Bank Says.

Dick McDonald has resigned as a director and as vice-president of the People's Home Savings Bank.

The directors' room of the People's Home Savings Bank has been the scene of the most violent quarrels, in which the vilest epithets known to the English tongue have been applied to the real head of the bank, though nominally the man holding the second place.

Depositors within the last week entered the bank with the avowed intention of straining him up to the nearest lamp post.

Today, in all likelihood, proceedings will be instituted which may lead to his criminal prosecution.

The following letter was sent out by Dick McDonald last evening:

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3, 1894. To the President and Directors of the People's Home Savings Bank—GENTLEMEN:

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

DICK STEPS OUT.

Resigns as a Director at Last.

ONE OF THE VAULTS OPEN.

Five Dollars Found in the Bank Fund.

CRIMINAL ACTS ARE CHARGED.

What the Attorney for the Receiver of the People's Home Savings Bank Says.

Dick McDonald has resigned as a director and as vice-president of the People's Home Savings Bank.

The directors' room of the People's Home Savings Bank has been the scene of the most violent quarrels, in which the vilest epithets known to the English tongue have been applied to the real head of the bank, though nominally the man holding the second place.

Depositors within the last week entered the bank with the avowed intention of straining him up to the nearest lamp post.

Today, in all likelihood, proceedings will be instituted which may lead to his criminal prosecution.

The following letter was sent out by Dick McDonald last evening:

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3, 1894. To the President and Directors of the People's Home Savings Bank—GENTLEMEN:

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

DICK STEPS OUT.

Resigns as a Director at Last.

ONE OF THE VAULTS OPEN.

Five Dollars Found in the Bank Fund.

CRIMINAL ACTS ARE CHARGED.

What the Attorney for the Receiver of the People's Home Savings Bank Says.

Dick McDonald has resigned as a director and as vice-president of the People's Home Savings Bank.

The directors' room of the People's Home Savings Bank has been the scene of the most violent quarrels, in which the vilest epithets known to the English tongue have been applied to the real head of the bank, though nominally the man holding the second place.

Depositors within the last week entered the bank with the avowed intention of straining him up to the nearest lamp post.

Today, in all likelihood, proceedings will be instituted which may lead to his criminal prosecution.

The following letter was sent out by Dick McDonald last evening:

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3, 1894. To the President and Directors of the People's Home Savings Bank—GENTLEMEN:

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

DICK STEPS OUT.

Resigns as a Director at Last.

ONE OF THE VAULTS OPEN.

Five Dollars Found in the Bank Fund.

CRIMINAL ACTS ARE CHARGED.

What the Attorney for the Receiver of the People's Home Savings Bank Says.

Dick McDonald has resigned as a director and as vice-president of the People's Home Savings Bank.

The directors' room of the People's Home Savings Bank has been the scene of the most violent quarrels, in which the vilest epithets known to the English tongue have been applied to the real head of the bank, though nominally the man holding the second place.

Depositors within the last week entered the bank with the avowed intention of straining him up to the nearest lamp post.

Today, in all likelihood, proceedings will be instituted which may lead to his criminal prosecution.

The following letter was sent out by Dick McDonald last evening:

SAN FRANCISCO, May 3, 1894. To the President and Directors of the People's Home Savings Bank—GENTLEMEN:

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

Receiver Sheehan was in consultation with Judge Hebbard last evening. Legal steps will be taken to-day to recover the securities taken from the bank on Tuesday, June 19, 1894.

There is every probability that another big scandal will be developed to-day and that Dick McDonald and his associates will be asked to explain in plain language the financial and bank papers.

THE NEW SOROSIS.

Brilliant Reception in Its Honor.

BEAUTY AND ALL THE ARTS.

Mrs. Irving M. Scott Entertains the City's Fashion.

HER FINE HOME THROWN OPEN.

The Members of the Club Given the Freedom of Invitation—Names of Those Present.

A large and fashionable reception was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. Irving M. Scott to the officers and members of the newly organized Sorosis Club and their friends.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

The objects of "Sorosis" are the cultivation of a wider sympathy for art, literature, science and charity among women. The club just formed in San Francisco is affiliated with that of New York.

THROUGH RUSSIA.

Dr. de Kannel Describes the Customs of Its People.

Dr. Gregory de Kannel, the eminent Russian traveler, lectured before a large audience at Metropolitan Temple last evening on the manners and customs of the people in the land of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

The speaker dealt principally with the social condition of Russia, which he described as being divided into fourteen classes. The highest in the scale is the nobility, and the lowest is the pauper element to a great extent, as the application of the law of the Czar.

SCENE AT THE SOROSIS RECEPTION.

can't for a passport such as are issued in Russia must establish the fact of respectability and good citizenship by competent authority before leaving the country.

At the conclusion of his preliminary address the lights were turned out and by means of stereoscopic views Mr. de Kannel led the audience on a short trip through the heart of the Moscow and the surrounding provinces.

The idea for the work was suggested to General Booth by Explorer Stanley's book "In Darkest Africa." When the general read of the awful struggles of the party of explorers across the dark forest of the Congo and the hopeless lives of the brutal natives who lived in its depths he at once saw that their degradation was not as bad as that of the lower classes in England.

The truisms that General Booth tells the world are the result of his own life and the life of the poor, wandering and hungry through the streets are most vividly depicted. It is a book that every thinking person should read.

In comparison with the miseries of the hopeless poor General Booth shows the same people as a happy and contented people. He also recites the early struggles of the Salvation Army in its efforts to help the poor.

This wonderful work can be obtained by C. P. Stoney, 10 cents and one coupon at 710 Market street. The demand for it is very great, so order early if you want to be sure of getting it.

The Undaunted Libeled.

John D. Sprockels & Bros. Company have libeled the ship Undaunted for salvage services. The vessel went just beyond the bar on the morning of March 18 sprang a leak and was towed back to port by the tug Relief.

The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief. The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief. The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief.

The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief. The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief. The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief.

The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief. The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief. The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief.

The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief. The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief. The vessel was towed back to port by the tug Relief.

man's are adorned with rare art treasures. The effect of these was, if possible, heightened yesterday by magnificent floral decorations, consisting principally of masses of chrysanthemums. The interior drawing-room, where Rosenthal's famous painting of "Constance de