

IN A BAD MESS.

Democratic Troubles Get No Better.

EVERYBODY IS FIGHTING.

Clunie Comes In for a Share of Censure.

SAID TO BE BACKED BY BUCKLEY

Joseph Kelly is in an Awkward Predicament—Talk of a Compromise of the Factious.

Will Max Popper retire from the chairmanship of the Democratic General Committee? That is the question which was repeatedly asked yesterday, but it was almost invariably put by members of the Clunie-McNab faction.

But among the men who have been caucusing with Popper during the past week the resignation of the chairman is not considered even probable, and Mr. Popper's conversation does not indicate any such intention.

The effect of the Clunie onslaught has been to force upon the public facts which were as a rule known to many, but which were kept in the background for political reasons.

The controversy has brought out one piece of scandal which had before been known to only a few politicians. It was the fact that Popper had paid blackmail to Crimmins and Kelly in order to retain the street-cleaning contracts when the Republican Board of Supervisors went into office.

It is not improbable that the Grand Jury will be applied to by others to look into this affair. A good many people would like to have this thing sifted to the bottom, and Mr. Popper evinces no disposition to conceal anything in relation to it.

Chairman M. Taber of the Street Committee of the Crimmins and Kelly Board of Supervisors, a member of the Clunie-McNab faction, has been the subject of a severe attack by Popper.

Mr. Taber said that, as far as he knew, Clunie had had nothing to do with the contract in question, nor had he any knowledge of Crimmins and Kelly being mixed up in the alleged jobbery.

There were no caucuses of factions last night. Everybody was busy discussing the Popper-Clunie affair and its possibilities.

I said Mr. Crimmins any money, because I never saw it. I had not the slightest knowledge of that street-sweeping business, except that I drew from time to time money due from Mr. Popper to my mother.

Mr. Kelly declared that Popper's books would show what the monthly payments were for the street-cleaning contracts. He was accompanied during the evening by young Max Popper, a cousin of the head and front of the Popper-Buckley-Kelly firm.

CLUBS ORGANIZE.

Republican Meetings in the Districts.

AS A RULE PEACE REIGNED.

But Trouble Occurred in the Thirty-Eighth.

FACTIONS WRANGLE FOR HOURS

The City Organization Is Now Complete—Lists of the Club Officers Elected.

Permanent organization was effected by the various local Republican clubs last evening. With the exception of the Forty-fourth District, meetings were held in all the districts, and permanent officers elected.

An unusual amount of interest was manifested by the party-workers, and in several districts feeling ran high. In some districts, such as the Thirty-seventh, where there had been discordant elements, differences were patched up and things passed off smoothly.

In others there had been no peace-offers at work, and the contests were spirited and heated in the extreme. Officers of the law were present and preserved some kind of order, but loud talking and challenging were indulged in to such an extent that the participants will have hoarse voices for at least a week to come.

The regular ticket was elected in the Twenty-eighth Assembly District, the officers being as follows: Nelson H. Bannum, president; Ed P. Peterson, secretary; W. S. Russell, treasurer; E. F. Gill, Joseph Harrington, William M. De Stulmacker, Charles Franklin, J. M. Dean, George von Glahr, Thomas Bryant, Arthur Corlett, James Wilson, J. Durbin, John Larkin, George Blaisdell, James H. Daly, Samuel A. Smith, Frank Schuber, Philip Lanahan, Henry D. Miller, Joseph C. Trautman, vice-presidents.

There was no contest in the Twenty-ninth District and the regular ticket was elected without difficulty. The officers are: President, M. J. Dunn; secretary, Thomas Sands; treasurer, F. McManus; vice-presidents—Carl Bellamy, John McFarlane, Second, E. J. Brown, Third, John Hensley; Fourth, Frank Smith; Fifth, T. F. Barry; Sixth, Louis Meisinger; Seventh, John Archer; Eighth, William Lindop; Ninth, Phil Ryan; Tenth, H. G. George; Eleventh, George W. Sells; Twelfth, D. Coleman; Thirteenth, Luke Livingston; Fourteenth, William Crane; Fifteenth, W. F. Weyensky; Sixteenth, Hector Brody; Seventeenth, George Bryant; Eighteenth, M. Shaughnessy; Nineteenth, Joe O'Brien.

Seven big policemen were at the meeting in the Twentieth District. The Gilligan faction, which has organized a club of its own, was not present and but for the presence of the blues and the gathering of the big policemen the meeting would have been a riot.

The officers elected for the Twentieth District were as follows: President, James Gilligan; secretary, Daryl Davidson; treasurer, J. E. Wallace; vice-presidents—Carl Bellamy, John McFarlane, Second, E. J. Brown, Third, John Hensley; Fourth, Frank Smith; Fifth, T. F. Barry; Sixth, Louis Meisinger; Seventh, John Archer; Eighth, William Lindop; Ninth, Phil Ryan; Tenth, H. G. George; Eleventh, George W. Sells; Twelfth, D. OVER THE WATER.

Why Olympic Clubmen Are Dissatisfied.

Strong Reasons for the Opposition's Attitude Regarding New Officers to Be Elected.

The leaders of the opposition or "progressive" ticket now before the Olympic Club for its approval at its annual election next Tuesday issued a circular letter yesterday to the members. They are campaigning with a vim that portends success for their faction, and they are certainly making a very hot battle.

An advantage may be gained one day by the "regulars," but it is quickly followed by a flank movement of the opposition, which turns the tide of battle. And so in this condition the fight continues from day to day.

On Friday the "regulars" distributed a circular that went to all members, excepting the salt water faction that is agitating the club and really forms the main issue of this campaign. Presently the progressive party drafted a statement of facts and these were published yesterday. In the reply document the following reasons for naming an opposition ticket are given in no uncertain language.

It can be stated in relation to what has been urged as to the individual merits of the nominees that collectively they will, if elected, constitute a strong board of directors as the club has ever had. Every one of them has been a success in life, and each candidate's success will characterize their conduct of the club's affairs. The best interests of the organization in the broadest sense will be their special concern, and they will, if elected, do their duty conscientiously and harmoniously for success in every department of the club.

It is their conviction as well as ours that there can be no genuine success if the good-fellowship and harmony which are essential to the success of the club are not conserved at every turn.

A candid reference to the issues which have recently been the subject of considerable discussion in club circles, and which will require to be met by the incoming board, may not inappropriately be mentioned here.

We refer to the matter of the supplying of water to the club buildings. The water supply has been a matter of great concern to the club, and we have every confidence that the nominees whom we propose will be able to adjust this question without friction or delay.

The details of the water supply are not necessary to mention here, but it is sufficient to say that the water supply is a matter of great concern to the club, and we have every confidence that the nominees whom we propose will be able to adjust this question without friction or delay.

INDIGNATION IN THE FORTIETH.

In the Fortieth District there was considerable complaint among some of the members of the club at the manner in which the election was conducted.

When the doors of Short's Hall were thrown open last evening there were four policemen stationed there and only those who had cards could gain admission to vote.

The voters without cards could find their heels on the sidewalk and admired the muster of the stars on policemen's uniforms.
