

THE TIDAL WAVE.

Continued from Second Page.

year, Peck 1212, Upham 2255—a net Republican gain of 845. The Fourth Precinct of the Seventh Ward gives Upham 191, Peck 65.

SAME OLD STORY. Mississippi True to the Idols of Democracy. JACKSON, Miss., Nov. 6.—Dispatches from all quarters of the State indicate the election of the Democratic candidates for Congress in every district by a large majority.

RETURNS VERY SLOW. But Utah Seems to Have Gone With the Rest. SALT LAKE, Utah, Nov. 6.—The election passed off quietly to-day and a large vote was polled. The counting of the vote is progressing very slowly and it will be midnight before anything definite is known even as to the city vote. The Republicans estimate that Cannon (R) for Delegate to Congress will have 1100 majority in the city, but this is not conceded by the Democrats.

EVEN IN TEXAS The Democratic Majorities Have Been Reduced. GALVESTON, Nov. 6.—Particulars from various parts of the State show reduced Democratic majorities. Returns are coming in slowly.

WEEK IN VIRGINIA. The Democrats Afraid of Losing Several Congressmen There. RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 7.—At midnight the Democratic State chairman, J. Taylor Ellison, gave out the following: The returns at this hour seem to indicate that we have carried the first eight districts. The news from the Ninth and Tenth districts is not definite enough to warrant an opinion in this district, though we have a strong hope of carrying them both.

OKLAHOMA COMES IN. The Republican Delegate to Congress Probably Elected. GUTHRIE, O. T., Nov. 6.—Returns so far from counties on the railroad indicate that Flynn (R) for Congress is elected by 2500 plurality.

IDAHO IN DOUBT. The Chances In Favor of the Republicans. BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 6.—The election passed quietly in this State so far as heard from. Interest everywhere is great and it is thought a very large vote has been polled. There will be no figures obtainable until after midnight. During the day both Democrats and Republicans have claimed the governorship. The Democrats concede the rest of the State ticket, but the Populists have laid claim to the Congressmen. It is the opinion of the most conservative men that the State has gone Republican on the State ticket, Congressman and Legislature.

TELL THE SAME STORY. Republicans Elect a Full Ticket in Wyoming. CHEYENNE, Wyo., Nov. 6.—The weather throughout Wyoming to-day was fair and a full vote was polled. The indications at 8 P. M. are that the full Republican State and a majority of the Republican legislative ticket are elected, insuring the election of two Republican United States Senators.

FLORIDA SOLID. Democrats Elect Both Congressmen in the State. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Nov. 6.—An extremely light vote was cast in Florida. Both the Democratic Congressmen were elected.

JOSEPH GOES BACK. Democrats Claim a Victory in New Mexico. ALBUQUERQUE, N. Mex., Nov. 6.—Partial returns from the Territory indicate that Antonio Joseph (D) is elected delegate to Congress, although the Republicans claim that big majorities from Roswell, Edin, Lincoln and White Oaks, in Pecos Valley, will change the complexion of the returns. In this county a majority of the Republican ticket is elected.

THANKS ON HIGH. The New York Advertiser Grateful for the Result. NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—The Advertiser will say to-morrow: The battle is over. The enemy is routed. Republicanism has triumphed. Protection will still protect and Tammany is overthrown. The victory means that the great American people have been aroused and have shown themselves worthy of their glorious heritage. It means the death beyond all possibility of resurrection of that party which for forty years has never had power without showing an increased capacity for blundering and incompetence. Finally, the victory means that from the lakes to the gulf and from the Atlantic to the Pacific we should give thanks for the downfall of the Democratic party and all it stands for in the triumphs of protection, law, order, good government and all that makes the glory of the nation. The Democratic party is indeed dead. Praise God from whom all blessings flow.

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The World will say editorially: The result in New York and throughout the country was never more in the hands of the people than it is in America now. That was the moral of the overwhelming defeats sustained by the Harrison administration, and is the lesson now when popular discontent with existing administrations, local, State and national, has shown itself so emphatically. The Democratic party of the future will be a far better party, because of the action of the Democrats who, in behalf of party principles, arrayed themselves yesterday against party bosses who had betrayed or abandoned principles.

Every Democrat can feel gratified that regardless of temporary considerations of party, the people, animated by the Democratic instinct, have shown themselves the governing power in the country. For that they have made it once more apparent how much greater they are than any great man or any number of great men—than any autocrat, any Senate and any machine. These people are in power and they have shown it. That is what it means.

The Press administration. The Republican party has won the most sweeping triumph since 1872. The elections of yesterday secured to the Republicans the control of the next House of Representatives and have brought nearer the time when the Republicans will again have the reins of the government in their hands. The Atlantic States have given emphatic majorities to Republican candidates, and the Empire State of New York is once more in the Republican column by a vote that shows that a political revolution has taken place.

The most extraordinary and memorable triumph along the line is the rescue of the city of New York from the grasp of the Tammany rule. Yesterday night she was shackled in fetters of shame that held her in degrading subjection in the criminal conspiracy of Tammany Hall. To-day she stands erect and emancipated, the premier member of the free and independent States, no longer under the confederate symbol of free trade and the black flag of Tammany, but ranks henceforth with those loyal commonwealths that stand for American industrial independence in a phalanx under the stars and stripes.

TOLD TO GROVER. There is No Indication as to How He Was Affected. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Four members of the Cabinet, Private Secretary Thurber and half a dozen invited guests assembled at the White House tonight to hear the returns from the election. The members of the Cabinet were Secretaries Gresham, Carlisle, Smith and Herbert. They were late in arriving, reaching the White House about 9 o'clock and remaining several hours. The Western Union bulletins were received direct from the telegraph lines into the Executive Mansion, and additionally the party had the full returns of the Associated Press. The President left the White House for the day for his country home at Woodley about 5 o'clock and did not return. The special telephone wire between the White House and Woodley was utilized tonight and bulletins of importance and fuller details in cases in which the President took a particular interest were sent to him at the direction of Mr. Thurber.

WILL WORK TOGETHER. Several Nations Unite to Avenger Chinese Outrages. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A dispatch to the World from its London correspondent says: I have the statement from an authority in this place of utmost confidence that instructions have been telegraphed by the British Foreign Office to Admiral Fremantle, in charge of the British fleet in Chinese waters, to demand further and important concessions of territory to England in case of any outrages to English residents in China.

There is a special interest among the United States, since it is claimed here that by the terms of an agreement signed by the allied foreign Governments, the British allied in Chinese waters will be placed in supreme command of all the foreign squadrons, including that of the United States, to avenge any violence to foreigners.

Since France would, of course, be glad of the example set by England to demand concessions from China of territory on the south, contiguous to Tonquin, and Russia of territory on the north giving her ports free from ice, the Asiatic States, warlike on the Asiatic station, it is the above-mentioned contentions, correct, would be forced to aid England, France and Russia to compel China into concessions which would give the control of the Pacific to these three nations."

BENT ON VENGEANCE. Rebels Drive Several Governors Into Morocco City. NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—A special dispatch to the World from Tangiers, Morocco, says: The Governors of the southern provinces of the empire, pressed by the rebels in their respective districts, have sought refuge in Morocco city, fleeing from the advance of the rebels, long-suffering, oppressed and despoiled subjects. The Sultan has ordered them back to their districts. To obey means death at the hands of these people, who have laid siege to the southern capitals.

SPRINGER GONE. The Returns Indicate That He Has Been Beaten. CHICAGO, Nov. 6.—Congressman William Springer wires the Associated Press as follows: "I have received word from my district that I have been defeated."

FAULKNER DESPONDENT. Virtually Concedes That the Republicans Have the House. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Senator Faulkner, chairman of the Democratic Congressional Committee, made the following statement at midnight: "Indications seem to point to a Republican victory in the House. However, the information I have received does not justify me in giving up the organization of the House by the Democrats, nor does my information justify me in giving up the election of Mr. Wilson. I have men at every doubtful point who will telegraph me as soon as the returns are made. I have received word from any of them, and an certain the counts have not been completed."

"We have won in the Third and Fourth West Virginia districts, but the chairman of the first district admits the election of Dovernor (R) by 1500 to 1700. That district has undergone the most remarkable change ever known in the politics of the country, due mostly to the A. P. A. and partly to the manufacturing interests. It is supposed that Cummings is defeated by 100 votes in New York City, but that is not sure. I understand our friends in Michigan admit that the Republicans have carried the State in the politics of the Associated Congress. Tammany's election in Missouri seems to be in doubt. The A. P. A. has been active against him."

"In the South I know of no losses, but several gains, including the seat now held by Murray (colored Republican) of South Carolina. There seems to be no possibility of a loss of more than one district in Virginia. If the reports of the Associated Press are correct, it will be impossible for the Democrats to organize the House. The Republicans are claiming everything, but I pay very little attention to their claims. We expect to receive telegrams from every Democratic candidate for Congress, and

IN THE HOUSE.

Republicans Have a Majority.

WILL ORGANIZE IT.

With No More Tariff Tinkering.

FAULKNER GIVES IT UP.

Under Protest, but He Must Come to It.

WILSON ONE OF THE BEATEN.

President Cleveland Will Not Have the Support of His Former Strong Ally.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—At midnight Secretary McKee of the Republican Congressional Committee gave out the following estimate of Republican Congressmen elected, as far as heard from: Alabama 2, California 5, Colorado 1, Connecticut 4, Delaware 1, Idaho 1, Indiana 8, Illinois 16, Iowa 11, Kansas 8, Kentucky 3, Maine 4, Maryland 2, Massachusetts 13, Michigan 12, Minnesota 13, Missouri 4, Montana 1, Nebraska 3, Nevada 1, New Hampshire 2, New Jersey 5, New York 23, North Carolina 3, North Dakota 1, Ohio 17, Oregon 2, Pennsylvania 24, Rhode Island 2, South Carolina 1, South Dakota 2, Tennessee 3, Vermont 2, Virginia 3, Washington 2, West Virginia 3, perhaps 4, Wisconsin 8, Wyoming 1. The New York estimate does not include Brooklyn. The total claimed by the Republicans is 218.

A dispatch to the Republican headquarters from James Poe from Charleston, W. Va., says: Wilson loses heavily; Dayton's election almost certain.

Chairman Faulkner has a telegram from Martinsburg, his honor, saying the Republicans have carried the county by 84 majority, a net loss to Will on 97.

Among dispatches received by Chairman Faulkner at Congressional headquarters to-night were the following: H. N. Stewart wired from Kansas to that all the indications are that he will be defeated by a reduced majority by Barrows, the Republican incumbent.

Thomas E. Parke, from East Downingtown, Pa., thinks he is defeated in the Sixth District.

W. W. McFarlane, chairman of the Congressional committee, from Fort Smith, says that in the Second District the vote was light. Little is safe for 5000 majority. Representative James Maguire, from San Francisco, says that he is generally conceded to be elected.

M. A. Lynch, from Huron, S. D., says that both Republican Congressmen are elected by small pluralities.

P. T. Gordon from Duluth, Minn., says that indications point to the election of Baldwin, Democrat, by 2000.

A dispatch to Chairman Babcock from G. W. Murray, Republican, in the First District of South Carolina, says: "Have carried district by a large majority. Don't know what the machine will turn out."

Chairman Babcock has word from the Ninth North Carolina District that Pearson (R) is elected by 800 plurality.

Chairman Babcock has a dispatch from Monroe City, Mich., saying that Spaulding (R) is elected by 4000 plurality.

A telegram received at Republican headquarters from Chairman Faulkner of the New York Republican State Committee says the indications are "that we have carried twenty-four Congressmen at least."

NEW YORK, Nov. 7, 1 A. M.—Returns by the Associated Press up to this hour show that the next House of Representatives will be Republican. The returns show a gain for the Republicans of fifty-six. These gains are distributed as follows: West Virginia 3, New York 12, Massachusetts 4, Maryland 2, Kentucky 2, Pennsylvania 5, Illinois 5, New Jersey 3, Connecticut 3, Kansas 1, Ohio 6, Indiana 1, Michigan 3, Colorado 1, Wisconsin 1.

The entire Congressional delegation from Kansas City is Republican. Those elected are: Second, Dennis M. Hurley; Third, Francis H. Wilson; Fourth, Israel F. Fisher; Fifth, Charles D. Bennett; Sixth, James R. Howe.

Wisconsin—Seventh Congressional District, George M. Griffin (R) elected. Tenth District, John Jenkins (R) elected. Eighth District, Miner (R) elected. First District, Henry A. Cooper (R) elected.

Mississippi (First District), J. M. Allen (D), elected. Thomas Catchings (D) is elected in the Fourth Congressional District. John C. Kyle (D) is elected in the Second District.

Tennessee—First District elected Anderson (R). Third District elected Brown (R). Ninth District, James McDearman (D) elected. Tenth District, Josiah Palmer (D) elected.

Missouri—Eleventh Missouri District, Seth W. Cobb (D) elected. Tenth District, Richard M. Bartholdi (R) elected. Ninth District, Champ Clark (D) elected.

New York—First District, Richard McCormick, Republican, elected. Charles Daniels, Republican, is elected in the Third district, and R. B. Mahony, Republican, in the Thirty-second District.

Minnesota—First District, J. A. Tawney, re-elected; Second, McCleary (R) re-elected; Fourth, Koller, re-elected; Fifth, Fletcher, re-elected; Sixth, Minnesota District, Fletcher (R) elected.

Connecticut—The First District elects F. S. Henry, Second, N. D. Sperry. Third, Charles A. Russell, Fourth, E. J. Hill—all Republicans.

Georgia—The First District elects Lealia (D); Second District elects Russell (D); Third District elects Crisp (D); Seventh District elects Turner (D).

Louisiana—Congressmen were elected as follows: First District, Myers; Second, Buck; Third, Bruce; Fourth, Ogden; Fifth, Boatner, and Sixth, Robinson.

Arkansas—In the First Congressional district McCullough (D) is elected; Second, Little is elected; Third, Little is elected; Fourth, Terry is elected; Fifth, Moore is elected; Sixth, McClure is elected—all Democrats.

Virginia—Second District elects Tyler (D). Congressmen—Tenth District, Tucker (D), elected by 1800.

Colorado—First District, John F. Shaffner, elected. Michigan—Smith (R) elected from the Fifth District.

Pennsylvania.—In the Twenty-second Congressional District John Dalzel (R) is elected. In the Twenty-third District W. A. Stein (R) is elected.

North Dakota—M. N. Johnson (R) re-elected. West Virginia—First Congressional District, Governor R. re-elected.

FINAL PREPARATIONS. Czar's Funeral Will Be Attended by Members of Royal Families. LIVADIA, Nov. 6.—It is officially stated that the body of the late Czar, after lying in state in Neuchâtel Palace here will be taken to Yalta and from there conveyed to Sebastopol on the Russian cruiser, Pamv. On the funeral train to Moscow the escort will include the Czar Nicholas, the Czarina, the Czarowitz, the Grand Duke George, Princess Alex and other members of the imperial family, the Prince and Princess of Wales and members of the foreign royal families related to the imperial family of Russia.

At Moscow the body of Alexander III will lie in state several days at the Archangel Cathedral, and at St. Petersburg in the Cathedral of the St. Peter and St. Paul. At towns where the funeral train stops on the way to Moscow and St. Petersburg diners for the poor will be provided at the expense of the Czar and at each stopping place a requiem mass will be celebrated.

MEMORIAL EXERCISES. Will Be Held at the Russian Legation in Washington. WASHINGTON, Nov. 6.—Prince Cantacuzene, the Russian Ambassador, notified the State Department to-day that memorial exercises to the late Czar would be held at the Russian Legation at 1 o'clock on Friday morning. Invitations to President Cleveland, members of the Cabinet and other high officials have been issued.

DESOLATED HOMES

A Destructive Fire on Geary Street.

SEVERAL HOUSES GUTTED.

The Firemen Held Back by a Great Crowd.

ESTIMATED LOSS $25,000.

Dr. Cleveland, Ex-School Director, the Heaviest Loser—The Origin of the Blaze Unknown.

The northeast corner of Geary and Leavenworth streets was the scene of a destructive fire that raged for two hours last night and left several families and many lodgers homeless. Dr. Charles D. Cleveland, ex-school Director, was the heaviest loser. The fire broke out at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and gutted the buildings from 600 to 608 Leavenworth street.

Police were few and far between when the fire was discovered, and a great crowd gathered in front of the blazing carpenter's shop, from which the flames were darting across the sidewalk. The firemen, under chief Dougherty, fought the fire with great difficulty through the swaying throng of sightseers, and when they had established connection with Spring Valley much valuable time had been lost. The fire, which began at 10 o'clock in a carpenter-shop at 634 Geary street and after damaging several buildings on that thoroughfare burned at the corner and