MR. QUAY IS ACQUITTED

On Announcement of Verdict, He Is Reappointed.

DEMONSTRATION WHEN CASE ENDS

A Crowd of Enthusiastic Friends Make Attempt to Carry Ex-Senator Out of Court Room on Their Shoulders, but He Resists, Claiming He Was Too Old for That.

PHILADELPHIA, April 22.—Matthew Stanley Quay was declared by a jury of his peers to be not guilty of the charge of conspiring to use for his own unlawful gain and profit the funds of the state of Pennsylvania deposited in the People's bank of this city. The verdict was announced by the foreman of the jury just as the hands of the court room time piece pointed to 11 o'clock.

There was an attempt at a demonstration, but this was sternly repressed by the court officers whose loud shouts of "Order!" "Silence!" was effective in silencing those jubilant spirits who wished to give vent to their satisfaction by cheering. The officers were unable, however, to keep back those who straggled to get to Senator Quay and congratulate him. Chairs were upset, tables were brushed aside and hats were smashed by the on-rushing crowd. Senator Quay, with a broad smile on his face, responded pleasantly to the greeting and congratulations of those who crowded around. A few of his political friends were there, and these men were loud and sincere in their expressions.

Although the court officers prevented the cheering in the court room, their jurisdiction did not extend to the corridors of the city hall and the first group of men who left the court room sent up a mighty shout, which was taken up and repeated by the crowds just outside the "dead line" drawn by the watchmen, beyond which only possessors of tickets were allowed to pass. As soon as Senator Quay could get away from those anxious to shake his hand and congratulate him, he made his way, accompanied by his counsel, to the elevator to descend to the street from the sixth floor of the Municipal building. Here the scenes in the court room were repeated. Everybody wanted to say something pleasant to him and crowds gathered near the elevator shaft on each floor to watch the car carrying the distinguished party as it descended to the street. The avenue surrounding the city hall is wide and smooth and the neighborhood is the stamping ground for the politicians of the town. A group of enthusiasts rushed forward and attempted to hoist him onto their shoulders, but the senator waved them back, saying: "Oh, no, oh, no, I'm too old a man for that."

Senator Quay walked with his friends one block down Broad street to the office of his counsel, where he made his escape from the surging crowd. It is understood that he will at once join his family in Washington and will probably go away for a long rest.

Previous to the announcement of the verdict the accused man sat in his accustomed seat in the court room and chatted with his counsel and a group of newspaper reporters. He was in good spirits, probably owing to the prevalent rumor that only one of the jurors was being out against him. When the jury had taken their seats in the box the senator turned and half faced them.

The stereotyped "How say you, gentlemen of the jury; do you find the prisoner at the bar guilty or not guilty?" brought promptly from the foreman's lips the words "Not guilty," and at this point Senator Quay's face flushed and he seemed momentarily as if about to be overcome by the feeling of emotion that was surging over him. This was only for an instant, however, and the great political leader was his imperturbable self again, as he smilingly responded to the congratulations that were being heaped upon him.

Senator Quay did not look at the jury at all, or in any way express his gratitude to it for its verdict in his favor. His friends, however, surrounded the jurors, patted them on the back and told them what heroes they were.

Senator Quay's only comment on the verdict was, "Well, I expected it." EARLESHURST, Pa., April 22.—Shortly after noon Governor Stone appointed Matthew Stanley Quay as senator to serve until the next session of the legislature. The appointment is addressed to the president of the senate and it is stated in the letter to be made under authority of clause 2 of section 3 of article 1 of the constitution of the United States.

Sheriff Killed in Ambush.
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 22.—Sheriff J. S. Dawson of Cook county was killed last night from ambush in the mountains near the North Carolina line, not far from Walkersville, N. C. The marshals walked into the ambush about 2 o'clock this morning. The first shot was aimed at chief Deputy J. D. Alton of this city. The bullet passed through his coat, striking Sheriff Dawson in the neck. The sheriff died almost instantly.

The scene of the ambush is in the mountains, twenty-five miles from the nearest telegraph office, and details are meager. It is said the moonshiners have gathered in considerable force and reinforcements will be sent to the deputies at once.

Schley to be in Omaha.
OMAHA, Neb., April 22.—Rear Admiral Schley, the hero of Santiago bay, will possibly be an Omaha visitor the early part of next month. The only contingency which may prevent the trip is his recent assignment to duty on a retiring board at Washington, the duties of which may require his continued presence there. If he comes it will be in the capacity of a private citizen, seeking rest from the whirl of events which have followed in quick succession since the day he sent the Spanish fleet to the bottom of the sea.

The difficulty of distinguishing between a waiter and anybody else was exemplified at the Croker dinner, in New York the other night. There was a shortage in cigars, and a well known and exceedingly rich youth of the metropolis who happened to be well supplied tendered one of his own to the celebrated Coogan, who didn't know him. The borough president produced 25 cents from his pocket and tipped him. The young man produced a 50 cent piece, and thrusting it into the astonished Coogan's hand with the words, "Keep the change," hurried away.

A Berlin dispatch says the recent demonstration on the part of the German societies of Chicago in condemnation of any attempt to cause trouble between Germany and the United States has been hailed with great satisfaction here. The semi-official Post expressed the belief that it proves the German emigrants who are finding homes in the new world are "not lost to the fatherland, but retain in their hearts a fidelity which is of greater worth than assurance of national sentiment on festive occasions, but which fall when needed."

Santiago Morphy, who is alleged to have robbed the National Bank of Mexico of $70,000, arrived in the City of Mexico under a strong police guard from the United States. A great crowd had assembled at the Mexican Central station to meet him, but the officers removed Morphy from the train at a suburban station and brought him in a coach to the city, where he was placed in prison, rigorously incriminated.

PAINFUL PERIODS NO MORE

MRS. GEORGE OSMUN, of Belvidere, Warren Co., N. J., writes: "Suffering as I had from weakness, irregularities and backache for several years, a release from this suffering was a blessing. Oh! how I wish more suffering women would accept your kind offer and be relieved. There is no need for women to suffer. Mrs. Pinkham's advice and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will relieve them."

MRS. IDA PETERS, Milan, Tenn., writes: "DEAR MRS. PINKHAM—When I wrote to you the first time asking your advice I was a great sufferer. Menstruations were irregular, sometimes a week too soon and then a week or two late, and when they appeared were very profuse; great pain and tenderness in the bowels, pain in back and limbs, leucorrhoea all the time. I was weak and nervous and had no appetite. Burning and choking sensation in my throat. I received your reply and followed all your instructions and now I am cured. I owe my recovery all to Mrs. Pinkham's advice and her wonderful remedies."

ELLA E. BRENNER, East Rochester, Ohio, writes:

"I have been thankful a thousand times since I wrote to you for what your Vegetable Compound has done for me. I followed your advice carefully and now I feel like a different person. My troubles were backache, headache, nervous tired feeling, painful menstruation and leucorrhoea. I took four bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, one box of Pills, one package of Sanative Wash and am now well."

MRS. MAGGIE P. STINE, New Berlin, Pa., writes:

"I have suffered with terrible backache in the small of my back for about seven years, and could never get anything to help me. I tried several physicians, but found no help. I have now taken three bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and feel like a different woman."

MRS. H. A., 124 S. Cedar Street, Owosso, Mich., writes: "Nearly three years ago I wrote to you asking advice in regard to my health. I was so miserable; suffered from painful menstruation and backache, was nervous, dizzy and faint. I received such a kind letter from you, telling me just what to do. I followed your advice and I now am recommending Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I thank God for this pain destroyer."

Public opinion is never far wrong

You can cheat it for a time, but only for a time. The average life of a patent medicine is less than two years. They are pretty well advertised, some of them, but it isn't what is said of them, but what they are able to do which carries them through the years.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla

(which made Sarsaparilla famous)

has never recommended itself to do what it knew of itself it could not do. It has never been known as a cure-all in order to catch all. For half a century it has been the one true, safe blood purifier, made in the best way out of the best ingredients. Thousands of families are using it where their fathers and grandfathers used it before, and its record is equaled by no other medicine.

Is the best any too good for you?

The Natural Cure for Indigestion.

Do you have pain in the stomach after eating? Do you have a yellow tongue? Wind on the stomach? Constipation? These things arise from Indigestion and Dyspepsia.

Digestion depends on digestive fluids or "ferments" secreted by certain glands. When the secretion becomes insufficient, indigestion results. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People cause these glands to resume their normal action and good digestion follows.

Artificial ferments (of which most so-called Dyspepsia cures are composed) may give temporary relief, but Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People afford a permanent cure.

Poor digestion often causes irregularity of the heart's action. This irregularity may be mistaken for real, organic heart disease. A case in point: Mrs. Ellen Colson, Newport, Ind., had suffered for four years with stomach trouble. The gases generated by the indigestion pressed on the heart, and caused an irregularity of its action. She had much pain in her stomach and heart, and was subject to frequent and severe choking spells which were most severe at night. Doctors were tried in vain; the patient became worse, despondent, and feared impending death. She noticed that in intervals in which her stomach did not annoy her, her heart's action became normal. Reasoning correctly that her digestion was at fault she procured the proper medicine to treat that trouble and with immediate good results. Her appetite came back, the choking spells became less frequent and finally ceased. Her weight, which had been greatly reduced, was restored and she now weighs more than for years.

That others may know the means of cure we give the name of the medicine used—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. These pills contain all the elements necessary to give new life and richness to the blood and restore shattered nerves.

ALABASTINE

ALABASTINE is the original and only durable wall coating, entirely different from all other wall coatings. Ready for use in white or twelve beautiful tints by adding cold water.

ADIES naturally prefer ALABASTINE for wall and ceiling coatings, because it is pure, clean, durable. Put up in dry powder form, in five-pound packages, with full directions.

LL Kalsomines are cheap, temporary preparations made from whitening, chalks, clays, etc., and stuck on walls with a sticky animal glue. ALABASTINE is not a kalsomine.

EWARE of the dealer who says he can sell you the "same thing" as ALABASTINE or "something just as good." He is either not posted or is trying to deceive you.

ND IN OFFERING something he has bought cheap and tries to sell on ALABASTINE'S demands, he may not realize the damage you will suffer by a kalsomine on your walls.

ENSIBLE dealers will not buy a lawsuit. Dealers risk one by selling and consumers by using infringing. Alabastine Co. own right to make wall coating to mix with cold water.

HE INTERIOR WALLS of every schoolhouse should be coated only with pure, durable ALABASTINE. It safeguards health. Hundreds of tons are used annually for this work.

N BUYING ALABASTINE, see that packages are properly labeled. Leave of large four-pound package light kalsomine, offers to customers as a 5-cent refund package.

ISSANCE of wall paper is obviated by ALABASTINE. It can be used on plastered walls, wood ceilings, brick or canvas. A child can brush it on. It does not rub or scale off.
