

News of a Local Nature

James Dare of Gates was a city visitor yesterday.

Sam Weaver of Mason was transacting business in the city Saturday.

J. L. Hollandsworth went to Brownlee Monday and spent Christmas with his mother.

J. S. McGraw went to Omaha last Thursday on a business proposition and remained three days.

P. H. Munk is building a story and half frame house on East Broadway for Mr. Blair recently from Aurora.

Say! you fellows who only have one wife and are broke—since Christmas—how'd you like to be a Mormon?

W. H. Cox, formerly of Broken Bow, who now resides near Twin Falls, Idaho, is visiting in the city with his daughter Mrs. E. R. Purcell.

"Chic" Bruce, who is with the Dierks Lumber and Coal company, in Lincoln, came to Broken Bow last week and spent Christmas with the folks at home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. McBride, of Mullen, were in the city last Friday laying in a stock of supplies so they could properly perform the Santa Claus act.

J. H. Shadden, of Weissert, was a visitor to Broken Bow last Friday. He has just completed a roomy, modern residence and was selecting some inside fixin's.

The Broken Bow Equality club will meet at the home of Mrs. W. A. George, Friday evening, January 4th at 8 o'clock. Members are earnestly requested to be present.

Ralph Cox, telegraph operator in the "Burlington" office at Seneca, came home the latter part of last week and spent Christmas with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Cox.

Mr. A. B. Cornish and family came over from Lodi to spend Xmas with the home folks, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fodge, Mrs. Cornish and children remaining over to spend the week.

E. H. Nixon, special Government land inspector, spent last Saturday in the city. He had been at Omaha for a month as a witness in the case of the Government against Richard Comstock.

Miss Stella Moody, who was operated on for appendicitis at the Broken Bow hospital a week ago is recovering rapidly, being able to sit up and will return to her home, Mason City, in a short time.

It is always at this season of the year when you discover what a surprising number of relatives and dear friends you have who are very profuse with words of cheer by wishing you a happy New Year.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Govier, of Weissert, were interested spectators at the basket ball games last Friday evening. Their sons, Fred and Claude, who are student at Custer College, accompanied them home to spend the vacation.

There was an unusually large number of Christmas packages sent and received at Broken Bow both by mail and express and they were handled by the regular office force without delay, but necessitated their working overtime and they were pleasant and courteous all the time.

Christmas day 1906 in Broken Bow will be remembered throughout the lives of all who were able to be out and thereby realize what a perfectly beautiful day it was, with the sun shining brightly, the air balmy and spring-like and no snow on the ground.

John Gillings came down from Sheridan last Friday night to spend the holidays with his parents. He informs us that Ed. Alexander formerly local reporter for the REPUBLICAN is editor of the Sheridan Express and is getting out a good paper.

The REPUBLICAN is desirous of publishing all the news and everyone in Custer county can aid very materially. Don't be backward about informing us if any of your friends or relatives are visiting you or have gone from home to visit or on business or pleasure. Or if there's a birth, death or marriage, tell us. Don't take it for granted that we already know it or will hear of it, but do it—yourself. Please do not forget this and you'll see how much more newsy the paper will become.

S. S. Waldron, of Elim township, is visiting in the city today.

City Attorney Gadd was a visitor to the capitol city of the state last Saturday.

W. B. Eastham and son, Carl, spent the last three days of last week in Lincoln and Omaha.

John Triplett has purchased lots of James Waite on East Main street on which he is erecting a frame dwelling.

John Scott, of Westerville, enjoyed life in Broken Bow last Friday and realized that it is a really good business city.

Mr. J. A. True, of Brady, Neb., was guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fodge several days, while on his way to the teachers meeting at

The combination of a safe often puzzles, I surmise, but the combination to wealth is found if in the REPUBLICAN you advertise.

Miss Irene Xanders, who is attending school at Grand Haven, Mich., arrived home last week to spend the holidays with parents, Rev. and Mrs. W. H. Xanders.

There have been all kinds of inventions to economize on food, fuel and light, but no one seems to have perfected a rent reducer or escaper—or attempted one.

Miss Mable Hall, who has been stationed at Cleveland, Ohio, as assistant pastor for the past two years, arrived in the city Saturday night to visit her mother and sister.

The Callaway Queen says that J. H. Smith, of Broken Bow, is in that city with a view to buying a hog ranch and again locating with his family in that locality.

J. A. O. Thomas had intended to spend Christmas with his mother at Alliance, but on account of her being ill he went there last Saturday morning and remained until Tuesday. She was much better when he came home.

Miss Lottie Emerson, who is teaching two miles west of Oconto, and Miss Florence Emerson, who has charge of a school near Callaway, are spending the holiday vacation at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Emerson, in this city.

Henry Lemeons, who resides about twelve miles south-west of Callaway was brought in last night by Deputy Sheriff Towsley, on account of insanity caused by hard work. William Bedell and C. Bonde came as witnesses.

G. O. Joyner's new dwelling in the north part of the city is nearing completion. It is one of the largest and finest appearing buildings in that part of the city. When completed it will be furnished with modern improvements.

C. Bonde of Elim Township was a social caller at the REPUBLICAN office this morning. He says corn is yielding from 35 to 40 bushels an acre in his locality and corn huskers are getting four cents a bushel, one man is offering five cents.

Carl Foote wife and boy of Dunning came down Monday night to spend their Christmas under the parental roof. Carl returned home yesterday morning but Mrs. Foote and the boy will remain a week or two.

John and Mrs. Robinson returned from Omaha Wednesday, where they have been for several weeks visiting with the family of their son, Lloyd Robinson. While there Mr. Robinson had his limb operated on at one of the hospitals. His limb has been affected for ten years and for the past year or two it has been a source of great pain to him. He informs the REPUBLICAN that the operation proved very successful and that he feels confident a permanent cure has been effected.

O. G. Nordstrom, of Comstock, Nebr., starts this week for Sweden, to visit a sister whom he has not seen for years. Mr. Nordstrom has had his share of sorrow recently having buried his wife and son both in October. Mrs. Nordstrom was taken sick with typhoid fever and in about a week from that time the son was taken sick and at the end of one week was buried, the mother living one week longer, but was so very low that she did not know when the boy died. The son died the 15th and the mother 22nd. Mr. Nordstrom expects to be gone about two months.

ROYAL
BAKING POWDER
Made from
Pure Grape Cream of Tartar

The only excuse for buying anything but a Pure Grape Cream of Tartar Baking Powder is to save a few cents in price.

ROYAL costs you a few cents more per can than Alum or Phosphate of Lime powders, but it is worth far more than the difference to keep your biscuits, cakes and pastry free from the injurious effects of these cheapening substitutes.

Continued use of Alum means permanent injury to health.

Avoid Alum Ailments—Say plainly
ROYAL BAKING POWDER

Edwin Powell, night operator at the depot, drove to Callaway where he formerly resided, and spent Christmas day with relatives.

Miss Maggie Orr, who is teaching in the southwest part of the county, came home last Saturday to spend the holiday vacation.

If you want to attend an entertainment that is known to be first-class; where you are taking no chances on being humbugged, then it is within your reach. "The Mikado" will be presented at the Broken Bow Opera house next Friday night, January 4th. Reserved seats at McComas' drug store and Groat's furniture store.

Mrs. Amos Noble, who was taken sick five weeks ago with typhoid fever, suffered a slight relapse last week, but has recovered therefrom and is now improving as rapidly as could be expected under the circumstances.

A hive of the Western Bees was organized in Broken Bow last night with a membership of nearly thirty members through the efforts of C. W. Irish, who has been working here about two weeks. This is a new organization with headquarters at Grand Island and on a plan that will no doubt prove very popular.

The annual ball by the Young Men of Broken Bow will occur at the Opera house next Tuesday night, January 1st, 1907. Taylor's complete orchestra, whose music is so delightful for dancing, will be present and one of the most enjoyable terpsichorean functions of the season is anticipated. Tickets are only 50 cents.

William Burdett, Joseph Petrick, E. P. Gaines, Henry Hogg, Charles Mattley, G. W. Hallenbeck and Ray Kelley composed a party of brave boys who came from Ansley last night to assist the Broken Bow Knights of Pythias confer the degree of Knight. After the performance the whole bunch partook of an oyster supper and—smoked.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gillings gave an elaborate Xmas dinner at their new home in honor of their son John, who is here for the holidays, from Sheridan, Wyo. A number of young society people were present, who indulged in dancing, games and other pastimes until night fall, when the whole party adjourned to town and attended the Xmas night dance at the Temple.

Miss Mary Lonergan, a student at Creighton university, Omaha, is home for the holiday vacation.

Last Monday morning Mrs. A. J. VanAntwerp was agreeably surprised by the arrival of her father, Mr. Paul J. Euebo, of Canton, South Dakota, who will remain until next week.

Miss Adah Bowen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bowen, of this city, reached home last Sunday morning. She is a member of the graduating class this year at the Conservatory of Music, Boston, Mass., but having applied herself too closely to the work, was taken sick and her parents decided it would be best for her to discontinue her studies and rest until the Winter term next year.

Captured a Bunch of Booze.

Upon a search warrant sworn out by City Attorney Gadd, P. M. Towsley, special constable, went to the B. & M. depot last Friday morning and took possession of all C. O. D. packages which he believed contained intoxicating liquor and as a result secured about eighty gallons of whisky which was taken to the court house and placed in charge of the sheriff. The action was taken under a city ordinance prohibiting the sale of intoxicants and which specifically says that C. O. D. packages containing liquor are in direct violation of this ordinance in-as-much as payment for the liquor thus consigned is made here, thereby constituting a sale of the same within the city of Broken Bow.

Beat the Burlington.

John McGraw's father and mother, who reside near Gates, came to Broken Bow on Monday to take a train here for their old home, Logansport, Ind. The Burlington rate seemed pretty high for John so he telephoned the Union Pacific agent at Grand Island and found he could get the tickets over that line, pay the fare from here to that city and return and save $27.60.

Boston Ideal Opera Company.

This excellent organization will present Gilbert & Sullivan's greatest comic opera success "The Mikado" in this city next Friday night, January 4th. During the company's 24 weeks stay in Dallas and San Antonio, Texas, they were compelled to give the Mikado, many more times than any of their other operas, because the patrons thought A. C. Burgess, as "Koko," was just it.

Corn Show.

At the Farmers Institute to be held in this city the last week in January, it is decided to have a special exhibition of corn. Premiums will be offered on the best ten ears of corn, viz: Longest ten ears of corn. Largest ten ears of corn. Biggest ten ears of corn. The best Ideal ear. The Ideal ear will be judged by the established rule for judging corn. The officers request that farmers select the best they have and lay aside so as to put it on exhibition at the corn show. From $25 to $30 will be paid as premiums on corn.

Corn Shelling.

I have a first-class corn sheller and will do your work in this line at satisfactory prices. Phone No. 356 or address, 29-32 C. E. PROUTY, Broken Bow, Neb.

For Sale.

Four room house and lots. Enquire of Concannon. 28-31

For Sale.

Thirty head of horses, consisting of work horses, drivers, saddle ponies and brood mares. Four registered Hereford Bulls. Three Poland China Boars. Two Mammoth Jacks. ALAN REYNER, 2 miles south of Broken Bow.

BUSINESS POINTERS.

Doctor Leach, Dentist.

J. C. Moore, abstracting. 21f See that fine line of coffees at Peale's.

Home-made Buckwheat flour—absolutely pure—at the Advo.

I am making farm loans at 5 per cent interest. JAMES LEDWICH, 25tf Broken Bow, Neb.

Missouri black walnuts and hickory nuts—fine goods—at Peale's

MUFF FOUND—A small brown fur muff found in Broken Bow has been left at REPUBLICAN office for owner to call and claim.

Good chewing tobacco, 25 cents per pound at the Advo.

LOST—Two warranty deeds signed by J. P. Gandy and wife. Finder please return to Jesse Gandy and receive suitable reward. 25-tf

For bargains in real estate see Bowman & Anderson, just west of the Security State Bank. 10tf

WANTED—the year around, ten men, with or without families. RUFUS G. CARR, Doris, Nebraska.

Drs. Farnsworth & Beck—Dentists.

The best imported horses, $1000 each. Home-bred registered draft stallions, $250 to $750 at my stable doors. A. LATIMER WILSON, Creston, Iowa.

Patronize the REPUBLICAN advertisers.

If you are interested in swine, attend the sale of thoroughbred Poland's in Broken Bow, Saturday, Dec., 29th.

We still have about two hundred bushels of bulk apples, in fine condition, at from 85c to $1 per bushel. These are the last low price apples this season. J. N. PRALR & Co.

I am making farms loans at 5 per cent interest. JAMES LEDWICH, Broken Bow, Neb.

WANTED—Men, women, boys and girls to represent McClure's Magazine Good pay. Address 67 East 23d St., N. Y. City. 34-tf.

Do not forget the day and date (Saturday, Dec., 29th) when the sale of thoroughbred Poland's will occur in Broken Bow.

Do you choose to chew—tobacco? Try the Advo's 25 cents per pound flavor.

Any one wishing cakes of all descriptions can leave orders at Hotel Reneau. Fruit cakes a specialty.

I am making farm loans at 5 per cent interest. JAMES LEDWICH, Broken Bow, Neb.

Saturday, December 29th, will be a day for farms and stock raisers in Broken Bow as all will be here who know of the sale of 40 head of thoroughbred Poland's by W. W. Conn, of Utica, Neb.

Home-bred draft stallions, $250 to $600; imported stallions, your choice, $1000. F. L. STREAM, Creston, Iowa.

Go to J. W. Scott's for unadulterated flour—pure, just as the wheat grew.

R. B. Muffins, M. D., D. D. S. the Dentist. 37tf