BLOOD ROOT OIL

Cured of Rheumatism in 2 Hours.

BUFFALO, N. Y., May 2, 1882.

Dr. Rush's Medical Association:
GENTLEMEN.—I have been troubled with rheumatism for two years. I tried all the best advertised oils and liniments, and many first-class physicians without relief. The last Dr. I visited recommended Dr. Rush's "BLOOD ROOT OIL." I purchased a large bottle for fifty cents, and applied it. In two hours I was relieved and now I am entirely well. Its effects are wonderful, and I believe it the only thing in the world which will cure rheumatism.
Truly yours, JOHN HUTCHINSON,

Death of Judge Savidge.

Omaha Republican.
KEARNEY, Nov. 30.—The death of Hon Samuel L. Savidge, Judge of the Tenth district, has cast a gloom throughout the entire community. All business houses and public buildings and law offices are heavily draped and flags are flying at half mast. The deceased was taken sick while holding court at Plum Creek, on Nov. 19th, and was obliged to adjourn. His first attack was inflammation of the bowels, which turned into gastric and typhoid fever. Despite the efforts of able physicians, he grew worse, and breathed his last at 3 o'clock this morning, retaining consciousness to the last moment and dying calmly. He was born March 13, 1847, at Clinton, Ohio, and went to Minnesota in 1858. He graduated at Cornell College, Mount Vernon, Iowa, in 1837, and immediately thereafter settled in Kearney. Without money, and a stranger, he battled adversity and soon built up a lucrative practice. He married Miss Susan E. Bauman, January 29, 1874, who, with two children, a boy and girl, survive him. Last spring he was appointed Judge of this district, and was elected by a large majority this fall. A few months' experience on the Bench was sufficient to convince all that the office had found the right man. He was buried on Sunday at 1 o'clock, P. M. He was a member of Robert Morris, No. 46, A. F. and A. M.; Kearney Royal Chief, No. 43, K. A. M., and Mount Hebron commandery, Knights Templar, No. 12. The Kearney bar met at 2 o'clock to-day and passed resolutions of sympathy for the family, and will attend the funeral in a body. The Tenth Judicial District has lost an efficient Judge. Buffalo county a true, loyal citizen, Kearney an earnest, philanthropic supporter, society a firm friend, and the family a devoted husband and father.

"Sojourner" Truth, colored lecturer and sibil, 108 years of age, died recently at Battle Creek, Mich.

And it has been remarked that "truth crushed to earth will rise again."

Prof. J. H. Tice, the original "old probabilities," and author of an almanac bearing his name, died at his residence in the suburbs of Custerham, Saturday. Just what the Professor's "probabilities" are hereafter, the deponent sayeth not.

The new roller skating rink opened in Omaha on Monday with great eclat, cost $4,000. The Republican says there are at least 700 expert skaters in the city, although roller skating was first introduced only last year. Skating was inaugurated in the brilliant and phenomenal city of the Upper Republican Valley about a month ago, and we risk the assertion that we have 800 of the class mentioned—in embryo.

As a fish vender Geo. C. Miln would make a grand success; his bawling in Hamlet was more suggestive of a calf in search of its dam, than a sorrowful prince seeking revenge under ghostly guidance. That the bovine George has found his "dam" is evident in yesterday's effusion of the Journal's hyperion-curbed critic.—Lincoln News.

The critique of the News thus sizes up preacher-actor Miln. We are at a loss to understand the quare, Mr. News. Didn't George's press manager come down with combs handsomely enough, or did you do it because the Journal did otherwise?
