The Iseminger Automatic Bill and Letter File, the very best in the market, at this office.

D. Guernsey of Council Bluff came down from his Frenchman ranch, yesterday, on his way east.

For the most elegant and perfect Base Burners, the square Gold Coin at Lytle Bros., down the world.

Fry & Snow have received a press from Missouri and are making a delicious quality of sweet cider.

THE TRIBUNE will club with any journal in the United States at reduced rates. Select your paper and call for figures.

He who would inspire honesty in others, must himself show the fruits of the same. Theory is good, practice better.

Stock boarded by the day or week at Olcott's barn, opposite Colvin House. Also buys and sells stock on commission.

Last Sunday, a little bundle of femininity came to bring additional joy and gladness into Charlie Cornwell's family.

The Central Meat Market of Church & Whittaker has at all times the choicest cuts of steak and other meats for their patrons.

The Commercial House grows more and more in popular favor every day. They know how to meet the wants of all who stop there.

To insure peace and contentment in your family, go to Lytle Bros. and get one of the latest style Base Burners. They are "daisies."

The office and depot of the Challenge Wind Mill Co., G. B. Nettleton, agent, is at the Wind Power Grist Mill, east of W. O. Russell's barn.

Gold pens at McCracken's.
Land contests are numerous.
Jesse Welborn of Indianola was in the city a short time, yesterday.

New Store! New Goods! L. Lowman & Son, Pate Block, Main Street.

A full line of genuine Pebble spectacles just received at McCracken's.

The largest and best assortment of horse blankets at W. W. Palmer's.

Hard and soft coal, best quality, at Hallack & Howard's lumber yard.

Our village jail deserves the title of cooler with a vengeance, these nights.

Moody & Winter are supplying milk of as good and pure quality as during the summer months.

L. C. Stephenson of the county-seat, was a visitor in this metropolis, two or three days, the first of the week.

Remember this office when you want a well-displayed dodger. We have the only large wood type in the city.

Go to W. W. Palmer, two doors north of post-office, for harness. He is the boss—good goods and low prices.

The new marshal, J. H. Bennett, entered upon the discharge of his duties, last Saturday. He will find plenty of game worthy of his steel.

From the county-seat come glowing reports of a great temperance revival in that place. The greatest interest is manifested, in a most commendable work. My converts remain steadfast.

MORE FRUIT—George King is building another fruit stand, just north of R. H. Hamilton's old harness stand. At the present rate of increase we will shortly have more stands than fruit.

The first of the week, Messrs. Willey & Walker moved their stock of drugs into their new brick on West Dennison. Their old quarters are now occupied by the Ryan Bros., as a law and loan office.

Episcopal services will be conducted at the Opera Hall, next Sunday morning and evening, by Rev. Fulforth, at 10 o'clock, A. M., and 6:30 o'clock, P. M., mountain time, to which all are cordially invited.

Since the death of Josh Billings, Friend Wahlquist of the Democrat has been doing his utmost to fill the sphere made vacant by Josh's sudden demise. Hais county is the way our new phonetist puts it.

A GOOD BEGINNING—J. D. Harris, of Axtell, is erecting three residences on the east side, which will be for rent, when completed. We hope more such buildings will be put up at once. A score won't meet the demand.

Messrs. Ryan & Turner inform us that they are meeting with flattering success with their prospective directory. Advertising space is being secured rapidly by our merchants, and much interest in the success of the enterprise is being manifested.

Frees & Hocknell's handsome and spirited dray team indulged in another go-as-you-please, early Tuesday morning, damaging the wagon considerably, but luckily escaping injury themselves, and causing none. Good fortune may not always attend their runaways, however.

This is entrancing winter weather, and it is thoroughly enjoyed by all (but our merchants,) who would like to dispose of some of their heavy woolsens. Jack Frost will assert himself in due time, and his siege will be long enough, and coal bills consequently large enough, to suit all.

During this season of the year, parties roaming the western prairies in search of homes should not fail to provide themselves with warm clothing and bedding. In case it should be necessary for them to spend a night on the prairie, such provisions will stand them in hand. A compass is also indispensable.

That "long-looked-for" sidewalk along the north side of Dennison street, from Main to Macfarland, is fast becoming a reality. Street Commissioner Leland is also causing the public in general to smile quite audibly by raising the crossings on Main Avenue. "These little things" are tardy in coming sometimes, but then we appreciate them the more when they do materialize.

The indications are that Thanksgiving Day will be more generally observed than ever before in this city. Most of our business men have agreed to close their respective stores between the hours of 10 A. M. and 3 P. M. One of our saloon men, Mr. Stern, has also shown a commendable spirit, and his name will be found among the number, a list of which will be found in another column.

We are pained to announce that Representative Hocknell is again in the clutches of his old enemy, rheumatism, and suffering excruciating pain at times. At this writing the doctor reports some improvement, and hopes to bring the sufferer through, avoiding the long sieges which have heretofore characterized these attacks.

The best boot in America. The Walker boot. Sold only by C. H. Rogers.

As a slight token of their friendship and esteem for Mr. and Mrs. Lawson, a number of the young men of our city presented them with a handsome clock and a unique little breakfast caster. They take this means of acknowledging their receipt.

MCCOOK, NEB., Nov. 16th, 1885.
MR. F. L. McCracken:—We wish through you to extend our many and sincere thanks to the "McCook Bohoys" for their tokens. We fear we might unconsciously slight some of the number should we attempt to do so personally. Sincerely,
MR. AND MRS. W. F. LAWSON.

Great Reduction in Watches and Jewelry at McCracken's.

Last week, Mr. Colfer informs us, was one of unusual activity in real estate circles. During the week, Mr. Colfer sold over $3,000 worth of lots for H. C. Rider, who we understand is disposing of his interests here with the intention of removing elsewhere. He also sold Frank Harris' half section a few miles southwest of the city for $2,950 cash. This land was sold some time since to Peter Miller, but he failed to come up to his agreement, when the property was again sold, and this time for spot cash.

Hard and soft coal, best quality, at Hallack & Howard's lumber yard.

The residence of A. J. Pate was well filled, last Thursday evening, on the occasion of the "Mum Sociable" held under the auspices of the Ladies' Guild of the Episcopal church. That the evening was an enjoyable one, goes without the saying. The ladies realized about $15 from the affair. It is currently circulated that Friend Forbes "uttered not a word" during the evening. Lest our reporter's veracity might be called into question, we would suggest that while the statement sounds strange and weird, it is not without a shade of genuineness. However, we have not the hardihood to vouch for it.

New Store! New Goods! L. Lowman & Son, Pate Block, Main Street.

The Catholic Fair and Bazaar which opened at the Opera Hall, Tuesday evening, and which closes to-night, has so far proven a grand success, in the bringing together of large assemblies to enjoy themselves in a social way, and in securing large financial assistance to aid the society in liquidating the debt incurred by the building of their church edifice. The members of the church have taken the greatest interest in the fair and saved not money nor labor in making it a pre-eminent success. And that they have succeeded, the large crowds attest which have been present the last two evenings. To-night the principal prizes will be drawn, and the prospects are that the hall will be crowded.

Sweet Michigan Cider of excellent quality at the City Bakery.

Among the "home industries" of which the people of this state are proud, we mention as being pre-eminent, the Crete Nurseries. Under the superintendency of E. F. Stephens, the Crete Nurseries have successfully weathered the disastrous years of 1874-5-6-7-8, and in the last four years this flourishing enterprise has quadrupled its business. They are now better able than ever, with their greatly increased stock, (grown with special reference to the demands of the trade,) and facilities, to meet the every want of the people of the state, in the way of forest, fruit and ornamental trees, vines, shrubs, etc. The superiority of the stock grown by the Crete Nurseries is well understood by those who have been patrons of the nursery in past years. The success which has attended the growing of the stock sold by the nursery in this vicinity, last season, has been most encouraging to patron and proprietor, and the sales so far this season have been much larger than last. A special agent of the nursery will locate at McCook, this winter, and this western country will be thoroughly canvassed. The Crete Nurseries recommend themselves.

Remember Church & Whittaker for choice fresh meats of all kinds.

Remember, we have the most extensive line of land and legal blanks west of Hastings.

A GREAT TREAT.

An enjoyable entertainment. Amusement blended with instruction! The great Quadrupantheon, with the Big Minstrel Troupe! Heywood's Mastodons and Picturesque Uncle Tom's Cabin will appear at McCook on Saturday, Nov. 21st. In addition to Minstrelsy, there is the Picturesque Uncle Tom's Cabin, and the enormous Quadrupantheon illustrating magnificent scenery. Here is seen in full reality, and perfect in their minutest details, the Majestic Alps and their wild ravines; the great capitals of Paris, London, Venice and Milan, with the most renowned cities of the Orient and the Imperial Palaces of Europe and Asia, in all their external grandeur and marvelous gorgeousness of interior. To be followed by some of the best specialties of Heywood's Mastodons, and the ever-popular Picturesque Uncle Tom's Cabin.

The Milford (Mass.) Journal says, "their entertainments are all they advertise them to be;" the Worcester Press says that in that city "the audience of 2,500 persons was enthusiastic in its applause;" the Cleveland Leader says, "a very rich Minstrel and general program was given;" other notices of their performances are equally as complimentary.

Buy one of those sweet, harmonious Kazoos at McCracken's.

THANKSGIVING DAY.

In accordance with the proclamation of the President and that of Governor Daves, in harmony therewith, thanksgiving services will be held in the Congregational church on Thursday, the 26th inst., from 10:30 A. M. to 12 M. The hope is to make the service one in which the community will feel an interest and heartily participate. Brief addresses will be made by Prof. Webster, Register Laws, Rev. Wm. Suess, Mr. Holt, lecturer, Wm. A. Ryan, Esq., Rev. Chessington, and also a paper by Mrs. Dr. Boyle. It is hoped that others also may be present to assist. The exercises will also include music, vocal and instrumental, and religious services befitting the occasion. Let all remember the day and as far as practicable assemble themselves together, and thus publicly make acknowledgements to the Giver of all good, for the abundant mercies of the past year. And as the President suggests in his proclamation, "Truly grateful hearts are inclined to deeds of mercy," let us, on this day, practically and generously remember the poor.

REV. DUNGAN.

THANKSGIVING CONCERT.

The Methodist Sunday School at Box Elder will give a concert on the evening of November 26th, to which all are cordially invited to attend.

BY ORDER OF COM.

A nice line of hanging and stand lamps at the Metropolitan Drug Store.

The Masonic order occupied their new quarters above Green's drug store, Tuesday night, for the first time. They have a fine, commodious room, with every convenience of ante-rooms, closets, etc., and when completely furnished, will be one of the handsomest lodge halls in the state. This room is also occupied by our thriving young lodge of Knights of Pythias.

Inquire for the Royal, it is better than gold, at McCracken's.

We are requested to announce that Mr. Holt, who has been electrifying Indianola on the subject of temperance, will commence a course of lectures in this city, next Tuesday evening.

New Store! New Goods! L. Lowman & Son, Pate Block, Main Street.

J. C. Moore of Tyrone precinct has been in the city a number of days, this week, on land contests. The land in question embraces some timber claims for which Mr. Moore is agent.

Hard and soft coal, best quality, at Hallack & Howard's lumber yard.

Would it not be the proper thing to engage Mess. Ryan & Turner to take a census of the city, while they are canvassing for the directory?

To be given away! Inquire at McCracken's Jewelry Store.
