Invitations are out for a social hop at the Palace Rink, next Wednesday evening, December 9th. The invitations, it is needless to state, are from THE TRIBUNE press.

Those who had the pleasure of attending the Thanksgiving Dance at the Palace Rink report an unusually enjoyable time, despite the inclemency of the weather, with a fair attendance.

A special drawing twenty-four carloads of sheep passed through this station, Sunday evening, for Filley, this state. J. B. Long of Brush, Colo., was the shipper, and they were a fine lot indeed.

The ladies of the Episcopal Guild will prepare a supper for the dancers, next Wednesday night. We suggest the observance of a week of fasting, in order to do this gastronomic feature of the affair justice.

JUST now the doctors are warning the people that babies should not be kissed on the lips. As all girls are infants in the eyes of the law until they are 18 years old, the warning of the old fogies will hardly be heeded.

The Band of Hope made a very creditable and pretty appearance on our streets, in their parade, last Saturday afternoon. If our temperance people succeed in properly educating the children, the battle is won.

R. A. Cole, fashionable merchant tailor, has constantly on hand as fine a class of goods as can be procured. Suits made up in the latest style, and perfect fits guaranteed. Prices reasonable. Shop two doors west of Citizens Bank, McCook, Nebraska.

We hasten to inform the proper authorities that the north approach to the bridge over the Republican at this place needs immediate attention. We are informed that the washing away and carving in of the bank have made the approach dangerous.

MASONIC CHAPTER—The following gentlemen were in the city, last Monday, upon the evening of which day they established a Masonic Chapter: W. C. Picking, J. A. Tulley, R. B. Fulton, R. L. Tinker, Chas. Wiener, J. D. Fullerton, of Red Cloud, and C. L. Alexander, C. C. Rittenhouse, J. J. Raymaker, B. F. Rawalt, Hastings.

The committee which was entrusted with the dispensing to the needy of the money ($8.63) raised at the Congregational church, Thanksgiving day, inform us that they have spent the amount raised on the above-named occasion for a stove, which they have presented to E. J. Hall, it appearing that he was in need of just such a necessary article.

A delegation of Indianola people, numbering some fifty of her most prominent and influential citizens, encouraged and strengthened the temperance people of this city by their presence at the lecture by C. J. Holt, at the Methodist church, last Friday evening. The various members of the delegation delivered short speeches, and the evening was withal a most enjoyable and encouraging one.

NEAR Belden, N. Y., the other day, a Mr. Amos Day and Miss Jane Week were united in marriage; and we are led to exclaim:

A Day is made, a Week is lost, But time should not complain, For there will soon be Days enough To make a Week again.

We have had the pleasure of attending many weddings among our circle of acquaintances, but this caps all when we take into consideration the amount of time lost in a few moments.—Ex.

On the first of this month, a change occurred in the B. & M. Dispatchers' office at this place, Walter J. Hills, who has been an Acting or Extra Dispatcher for some time, being promoted to a regular position on that staff—a distinction, with accompanying and additional emolument, worthily bestowed. From the above date, J. F. Kenyon goes on duty at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, remaining until midnight.

Great Reduction in Watches and Jewelry at McCracken's.

We hear considerable complaint about the closing up, at different points, of the road leading north from this place to the Willow. Several parties have experienced so much difficulty on account of fences, bad roads, etc., that they have gone elsewhere to do their trading. This matter should receive prompt attention. The old road was indeed execrable, but the fencing in of various claims has made matters much worse. Our merchants can not afford to have their trade diverted from its proper channel by poor highways.

The best boot in America. The Walker boot. Sold only by C. H. Rogers.

SLIGHTLY MISTAKEN—We are requested by James Ellison of Box Elder to correct the statement made in last week's Democrat to the effect that he had disposed of his ranch near Box Elder. The fact is, Mr. Ellison only sold some stock from his ranch, and not the ranch property at all. Mr. Ellison has replaced the stock sold by other and better grade cattle, has taken another claim, since making proof on his preemption, and the probabilities are that he will remain where he is for some time to come.

Remember Church & Whittaker for choice fresh meats of all kinds.

There is that in the ordinary appearance of our city, which challenges the admiration of all who visit here, whether simply for pleasure, as well as for business. And, by the by, how few indeed are the cities of this growing commonwealth, where all is activity, where cities are rapidly assuming proportions metropolitan, where the hamlet of today is the stirring village of tomorrow, where wild prairie is being transformed into peaceful and prosperous agricultural communities, that can approach the "Magic City of the Upper Republican" in material advancement. And what of the brightness of our future prospects?

To be given away! Inquire at McCracken's Jewelry Store.

There are now in full blast at least three and possibly five, gambling hells, operated in the main by the same gang of sneaks who attempted to down the unsophisticated during the horse fair, with their nefarious games. THE TRIBUNE will take occasion to "name right out in church" who are managing these dens, and where they are located, for those in authority. This open violation of law is a disgrace and a blot upon the fair escutcheon of our city.

MEMORIAL MEETING.

At a meeting of a number of citizens of McCook, held on Sunday afternoon at the office of Thos. Colfer, the following proceedings were had: On motion of Thos. Colfer, J. N. Lucas was called to the chair; and on motion, A. P. Leech was elected secretary.

On motion of A. P. Leech, a committee of five was appointed to draft resolutions of respect apropos to the deceased Vice-President of the United States, Thomas A. Hendricks. On motion of J. S. LeHew, A. P. Leech was appointed to act as chairman of said committee, to act in conjunction with the following named gentlemen, as members of committee on resolutions, who were also appointed: J. S. LeHew, F. M. Kimmell, Wm. A. Ryan and J. E. Cochran.

On motion a committee on arrangements was appointed, and the following gentlemen selected with power to appoint sub-committees: G. L. Laws, Thos. Colfer, J. N. Lucas, Dr. A. J. Willey, Wm. Lewis, I. J. Starbuck, J. F. Collins, A. P. Sharp, Prof. W. S. Webster, H. H. Berry, Thomas Murphy, A. Campbell, Geo. Hocknell, E. C. O'Donnell, T. G. Rees, Dr. S. L. Green, J. P. Israel and Dr. Z. L. Kay.

On motion meeting adjourned, and committee on arrangements instructed to meet in executive session at the office of Thos. Colfer at the hour of 11 o'clock, A. M., Monday the following.

A. P. LEECH, Secretary. McCook, Nov. 29th, 1885.

J. E. Cochran went up to Culbertson on legal business, this noon.

Mrs. Elmer Kelly is entertaining a lady friend.

MEMORIAL SERVICES.

It is with a feeling of pride that we note the memorial services held at the Opera Hall, Tuesday afternoon, in honor of our departed and honored Vice-President, Thomas A. Hendricks, who passed from this earthly scene suddenly at his home in Indianapolis, Ind., Wednesday of last week. Cut down in the zenith of his glory. Although the services were the result of a short season of preparation, when the hour appointed had arrived, the Opera House was crowded to overflowing with our citizens and school children, all to pay the last befitting tribute to a great man, to the nation's dead, regardless of party, and the manner in which the meeting passed off was highly complimentary and satisfactory. After a few introductory remarks by Justin A. Wilcox, president of the occasion, the following program was carried out:

PROGRAMME.
Music.....By the Choir.
Prayer.....By Rev. Geo. Dungan.
Reading President's Proc.....By G. L. Laws.
Music.....By the Citizens Band.
10-MINUTE ADDRESSES.
J. Byron Jennings, J. N. Lucas,
Wm. A. Ryan, J. E. Cochran.
Reading of Resolutions.....By A. P. Leech.
Music.....By the Choir.
Benediction.....By Rev. W. S. Wheeler.

We have not the available space to detail the ten-minute speeches made by the above-named gentlemen, but will tersely remark that they were of a uniformly patriotic character, tender and eulogistic of the dead statesman's life and character and public services. The address made by Mr. Ryan indicated the greatest care in preparation, and was a most worthy effort. The services throughout were such that all present were pleased and glad that they had been present. Below we give the resolutions unanimously adopted by the meeting:

MEMORIAL RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks, Vice-President of the United States, departed this life on the 26th ult., we bow our heads with grief and our hearts are filled with mourning for the loss of our honored Vice-Ruler; and while we bow in humble submission to the divine will, may it not be that these visitations of providence which smite down men in high places and touch the heart of the country, come to bring to us the wholesome reminder that a common fate awaits men of all parties; to soften the asperities engendered by partisan strife; to silence for a time the din of political warfare; to teach all Americans the lesson of a closer fraternity and move them to a nobler citizenship.

THEREFORE, As a token of honor and esteem for the memory of our illustrious dead, we, the citizens of the city of McCook, adopt these resolutions:

BE IT RESOLVED, That in the life of Thos. A. Hendricks we recognize the highest type of American citizenship, whose personal influence will remain a priceless heritage to us who live after him. As in life it dulled the edge of political rancor and won that tribute of respect from all that is given to a pure man in every personal attribute. An upright man, lovely in all his private relations, clean in all his public expressions, so in death it mingled with the unaffected sorrow of the time, a chastening and purifying influence. Around the bier of our dead ruler let no partisan lines be drawn, but let us follow his remains to their final resting place, all sorrowing Americans together.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That we tender to the widow of our beloved Vice-President, our sincere sympathy and condolence in the hour of her sore bereavement, and direct that she be furnished with a copy of these resolutions, and that they be published at large over the state.

A. P. LEECH, Chairman.
Committee: J. S. LEHEW,
F. M. KIMMELL,
Wm. A. RYAN,
J. E. COCHRAN.

Important to Blacksmiths.

We have just received a shipment of the celebrated Cumberland smelting coal, which is acknowledged by all to be superior even to the Blossburg coal, and we are prepared to receive and promptly fill your orders.

HALLACK & HOWARD.

NOTICE.

Next Tuesday, December 8th, being the feast of the Immaculate Conception, is a holy day of obligation in the Catholic church. On that day the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass will be offered up in the new church at this place at the usual hour, 9:30 M. T. THOS. CULLEN.

TEACHERS' EXAMINATION.

I will be at the school house in McCook, Saturday, Dec. 14th, for the purpose of holding a teachers' examination, which will commence at 10 o'clock, A. M. C. L. NETTLETON, Co. Supt.

Sweet Michigan Cider of excellent quality at the City Bakery.

PERSONALS.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hazen came up from Edison on 39, to-day.

L. Morse of Benkelman made a run down to this city, Sunday evening on business.

M. L. Sproat, with Hallack & Howard, spent the fore part of the week in this city.

Fred D. Pitney and Editor Solomon of Culbertson were noticed at the depot, Monday noon.

O. M. Vaughan, one of Benkelman's real estate men, was in the city on business, Tuesday.

Fred Lytle came down from Benkelman, Saturday evening, visiting here until Sunday night.

Messrs. Turner and Ryan went up to Culbertson, this noon, in the interest of their forthcoming directory.

Roadmaster Highland of Red Cloud was in town, Saturday, on business connected with his official position.

Messrs. Scott and Waite, two young men from Columbus, this state, are in the city, looking up a business location.

Bert Thompson made a business trip to Hastings, the first of the week. He returned on No. 1, Monday night.

Mrs. Geo. Hocknell went down to Indianola, Saturday evening, on a short visit to relatives in the county-seat.

Mrs. A. J. Palmer, wife of Andy, the popular passenger conductor, has been a guest at the Eating House, this week.

W. H. Hayden spent part of the first of the week in the city looking after his extensive interests at this place and Atwood, Kas.

D. Guernsey, one of the Frenchman stockmen, started for New Mexico, the first of the week, to look up a location for a stock ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Meserve who have been absent, for the past three weeks, visiting various points in Illinois and Iowa, returned on 39, Tuesday.

Mrs. G. L. Laws and daughters, Misses Gertrude and Theodora, returned, Tuesday, from a visit of some three weeks to relatives in Sioux City, Iowa.

Mr. and Miss King, son and daughter of A. D. King of the Hitchcock County Bank, were in the city, a few hours, Saturday, the guests of Mrs. Carl Clark.

W. J. McGillin of Stratton was in town, a few days the first of the week. Mr. McGillin is just recovering from a severe and protracted illness, and is still quite weak.

Mrs. Walter E. Babcock and children were nests of Receiver and Mrs. C. F. Babcock, the latter part of last week. They returned to Cambridge, Friday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Royal Buck and daughter, Miss Ada P., of the Willow, and Miss Stockton of our city, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Ganschow, Thanksgiving Day.

J. C. Arbuckle came up from Atwood, Tuesday, on some business, returning home to-day. J. C. reports Atwood and Rawlins county in general as flourishing like the green bay tree.

Foreman Fuller of the Paxton Cattle Co. was in the city, yesterday, on company business. Mr. Fuller is just able to be around again after being confined to the house two weeks.

George Cheney, of Cheney & Stiles, went to Omaha, Monday, to purchase a stock of drugs for their store, which they will open up in a week or two. The boys purpose putting in a nice line.

Attorneys Johnson and McCollister of the county-seat were welcome callers at this sanctum, Saturday. These gentlemen were both in the city on land business, which has every appearance of activity.

W. C. Picking, principal of the Red Cloud Schools, was in the city, Monday, assisting in the establishment of a Masonic Chapter at this place. The professor made our schools quite a visit during the afternoon of Monday.

Cashier Brown of the First National moved into his handsome new residence on the corner of Main and Dakota streets, last Saturday. Mr. B. has one of the finest, most commodious and best finished houses in the city.

Miss Clara Gooding of Riverton arrived in the city, last Saturday noon, and will spend the winter with her sister, Mrs. M. A. Spalding. Miss Gooding's numerous friends and acquaintances will be glad to learn of her return.

Thos. K. Work, who is largely interested in the Paxton Cattle Co., and who is also one of the board of directors of the company, was here on business, yesterday. Mr. Work leaves shortly on a visit to the Great Southwest, to look into some land speculations he has on the string.

County Clerk R. L. Perry of Culbertson transacted some business in this city, Saturday. Mr. Perry is one—and the only one, we believe,—of the present county officials of Hitchcock county, who was re-elected by a handsome majority to office. He doubtless feels correspondingly thankful for the marked distinction.

S. W. Johnson, the rising young draftsman who has been in the employ of Contractor Collins for the past year or two, left for Akron, Colo., Monday, where he will embark in business for himself. Mr. Johnson has two claims in the vicinity of Akron. We wish him the full measure of success, which men of his stamp merit.

Gazette Journal.—Mr. R. B. Wahlquist of the McCook Democrat was in the city to-day. He returned home on this (Monday) afternoon's train. * * Mr. B. F. Rawalt and C. C. Rittenhouse went to McCook this morning to help institute a masonic chapter at that place this (Monday) evening. * * Mrs. Strauser, of McCook, visited Saturday and Sunday in the city the guest of Mrs. M. Stern.
