PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Citizens and Visitors Briefly Mentioned. We Have Had Our Eye on You.

"I Know Not What the Truth May Be, I Tell it as 'Twas Told to Me."

Sheriff McCool was at business headquarters, yesterday.

Judge Cochran opened court at Benkelman Monday, for Dund county.

Postmaster Clark of Bartley was among our visiting brethren, Wednesday.

Dr. A. P. Welles is now living in his newly acquired home, the Lytle property.

Noah Mishler, the navy sergeant-at-arms of the senate, was a city visitor, Tuesday.

A. J. Veenum, the Palisade banker, whiled away a few hours in the metropolis, Monday.

E. E. Lowman returned to his position with his uncle in Lincoln on Monday evening.

J. T. Bullard went up to Palisade, Wednesday, to look after his business affairs there.

M. Y. Starbuck arrived home, Wednesday morning, for his visit to his old Iowa home, Indiana.

A. E. Lytle proposes to locate in Whatcom, Washington, where Attorney Rittenhouse is now practicing.

Editor Andrews of the sprightly and saucy Benkelman Democrat came in on the snow storm, this morning.

O. Frost of the Bank of Bartley gazed up on the pride of the valley with much of admiration, Wednesday.

Rev. J. G. Tate, the head of the state A. O. U. W., enjoyed the hospitality and freedom of the city, last evening.

Host Johnston went up to Culbertson, Wednesday, on business connected with his sale of the Commercial House.

Ance Shrater is up from Kansas City, this week, on business. He has real estate interests over in the Brush creek country.

Mr. Lowman returned on Wednesday from New York and other eastern parts where he has been making purchases of spring goods.

C. W. Hodgkin, the efficient east-end commissioner, circulated among McCook friends on Wednesday, having business in the metropolis.

U. G. Mosher, who travels for a St. Joe house, has taken a room in the Colfer dwelling. His sister has been here this week adding tasteful touches to its comfort.

John Majors went in to Lincoln, Monday night, on important business. It will not astonish us at all if he drops onto a position of some kind before his return home.

Miss Eva L. Crook, who made many friends in McCook during her visits to Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cole, will be married on the 11th instant to Mr. E. H. Stemberger at Glidden, Iowa. Congratulations.

Dell Laffin accompanied a friend down to Indianola, Wednesday evening, after a marriage license. Stanley's "Darkest Africa" isn't a circumstance to Dell's description of their search for the county judge.

Mr. J. Albert Wells came in on Tuesday morning's passenger from New York City where he has been making extensive purchases of spring goods. Miss Pierce, who will have charge of his millinery department, accompanied him.

Mrs. F. D. James of Sandusky, New York, arrived from Omaha, last Friday night, and is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Whitaker. Mrs. James is an old-time friend of the Whitakers, and is on the lookout for real estate investments.

Lieut. Gov. Majors spent Sunday in the city, guest of his brother John. Tom, as the popular gentleman from Nemaha is generally called, has many admirers in McCook who accorded him a hearty welcome during his brief sojourn and respite from the vexations of legislative life.

John H. Powers of Culbertson spent yesterday in the city on his way home from Lincoln, where he has been hearing the arguments in his case against Acting Governor Boyd, before the supreme court. The genial old gentleman enjoyed the hospitality of this sanctuary as usual during his brief visit.

BANKSVILLE BUDGET.

The weather is very changeable; cloudy one day and clear the next, and no chance to sow grain yet as has been the chance in past seasons.

There seems to be a shot at the farmers quite frequently to trade with home merchants, as much as to say that the farmers do not think on that subject of building up home institutions. Our townsmen will probably find by proper investigation that the farmer has as much interest in the prosperity of the town business as the trade has in the prosperity of the farmer. Lots of tradesmen do not stop to consider that each little advance given to the farmer for his products is directly turned into the trade. There should be much sympathy connecting the farmer with the trade, for we can notice that when the farmers have produce that they can turn into cash that the tradesmen have plenty of business, but now they have plenty of time to sweep, dust, place and replace their goods.

OBSERVER.

Itch on human and horses and all animals cured in 30 minutes by Woolford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by L. W. McConnell & Co., Druggists, McCook, 30-lyr.
