

Wales' Year-Old Grandson.
The baby which may some day become King of England seems to have some positive merits. There could be no nicer baby nor one more bright and forward, considering that he has just completed his first year. Of course he has already seen a good deal, and is always taken down to the drawing-room twice a day. In the evening he wears silk slippers of different colors covered with lace, and shoes to match. It is quite a source of amusement to the dwellers in York House, where its parents live, that the baby is far more affable to its father than mother. Indeed, the little fellow already shows likes and dislikes. When Mrs. Gladstone recently called he assaulted her with infantile violence, and notwithstanding all the coaxing entreaties of his nurse, dealt out blows with his tiny fists. Mrs. Gladstone laughed heartily, and tells the story as a capital one to her friends. Baby, by the way, is still accompanied on his walks by a policeman.

Visitors to Lincoln Park in Chicago.
Will be delighted with the souvenir book of this beautiful spot now being distributed by the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company. It is a magnificent publication of 96 pages full of over 1000 pictures of the most charming places of resort for citizens of the Great Republic. No stranger visiting Chicago should be without a copy of the "Souvenir of Lincoln Park." It can only be procured by enclosing twenty-five (25) cents, in coin or postage stamps, to Geo. H. Heafford, general passenger agent, 410 Old Colony Building, Chicago, Ill.

He Wanted to Know.
"Are you the proprietor of this restaurant?" said the man who had waited for his order until he became sleepy.
"Yes, sir. What can I do for you?"
"You can give me some information. I want to know whether you have told the waiter to stay away so that you can bring in a bill for lodging against me."

How Old are You?
You need not answer the question, madam, for in your case age is not counted by years. It will always be true that "a woman is as old as she looks." Nothing sets the seal of age so deeply upon woman's beauty as gray hair. It is natural, therefore, that every woman is anxious to preserve her hair in all its original abundance and beauty; or, that being denied the crowning gift of beautiful hair, she longs to possess it. Nothing is easier than to attain to this gift or to preserve it, if already possessed. Ayer's Hair Vigor restores gray or faded hair to its original color. It does this by simply aiding nature, by supplying the nutrition necessary to health and growth. There is no better preparation for the hair than

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR.

A Fair Investment.
"Here," complained the aggrieved father, "I have spent nearly $15,000 on that girl's education, and now she goes and marries a $2,500-a-year clerk."
"Well," said the friend of the family, "isn't that all of 15 per cent on your investment? What more do you want?"

Danger Ahead.

Marrying on $50 a Month.
Yesterday a young man asked me if it would be safe for him to marry on $50 and a salary of $50 per month. I told him I could tell better when I saw the girl. There are girls who have grown up in ease and who have kicked great black and blue welts in the lap of luxury, yet who are more ready and willing to accept a little rough weather than the poor girl who has stood for eighteen years looking out through the soiled window of life waiting for the rain to rinse it off and let the sunlight through that she might see her approaching lord.—Bill Nye.

About French Journalism.
The following, says the New York Sun, is the explanation given by the Paris correspondent of the Independence Belge for not sending to that paper an account of a garden party at the residence of President Faure: "I must say a word, even if a day late, about the charming fête given yesterday at the Elysee by Mme. Felix Faure. I was there and I stayed there; that is the reason why I could not send any account of the function. That is my only excuse, and it is the strongest proof of the charm of the evening which we all passed there."

Enterprises of Great Pith and Moment.
Have, ere now, had their currents "turned away," as Hamlet says, by an attack of dyspepsia. Napoleon failed to improve his advantage at Austerlitz in consequence, it is said, of indigestion brought on by some indiscretion in eating. In order to avoid dyspepsia abstain from over-indulgence, and precede the meal with a winged-spoon of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, more effective than any dietetic in improving the tone of the stomach. Liver complaint, chills and fever, and rheumatism are annihilated by the Bitters.

Try Grain-O.
Ask your grocer today to show you a package of GRAIN-O, the new food drink that takes the place of coffee. The children may drink it without injury as well as the adult. All who try it like it. GRAIN-O has that rich seal brown of Mocha or Java, but it is made from pure grains, and the most delicate stomach receives it without distress. 1/4 the price of coffee. 15 cents and 25 cents per package. Sold by all grocers. Tastes like coffee. Looks like coffee.

FAVORS ANNEXATION.

TREATY REPORTED BY SENATE COMMITTEE.

General Understanding that There Will Be No Effort to Secure Consideration of the Treaty During the Present Session—Expression of Members.

Hawaiian Annexation.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The Senate committee on foreign relations agreed today to report a resolution for the ratification of the Hawaiian annexation treaty without amendment.

Of the eleven members of the committee only seven were present. These were Messrs. Davis, Culom, Foraker, Clark, Morgan, Turpie and Daniel, and all of these but Messrs. Turpie and Daniel cast their votes for the resolution of ratification. Mr. Frye's vote was also cast in that interest by Mr. Davis, Mr. Frye having left instructions to that effect.

Messrs. Daniel and Turpie did not take a positive stand in opposition to the treaty, but both expressed the opinion that it was not expedient nor consistent with the vast importance of the subject that the treaty should be pressed to immediate consideration, and that if the Senate was not to take the subject up at the present session the better course would be to leave it in committee until the Senate should be prepared to proceed with its consideration.

Mr. Turpie expressed himself as inclined to favor the treaty, but thought it should be amended. He, however, withheld his amendments upon the suggestion that the majority would consider it preferable to have the amendments offered in the Senate.

NO YOUNGER PARDON.

Minnesota Pardon Board Declines to Release the Missouri Outlaws.

ST. PAUL, Minn., July 15.—After an extended hearing on the petition for the pardon of Cole and Jim Younger, the surviving members of the Missouri outlaw band who attempted to raid a bank at Northfield, Minn., in 1876, the state board of pardons, consisting of the governor, attorney general and chief justice, yesterday afternoon refused, by unanimous vote, to grant the requested relief, declaring their belief that the Youngers should complete their term of life imprisonment.

Contrary to expectations, the board gave out a statement of its reasons in denying pardon. It is as follows:

A sensational feature of the proceedings before the board yesterday afternoon was an intimation that the Minnesota authorities still hoped to bring Frank James to trial. Several who protested against the pardon urged that the Younger boys might testify against their former comrades. If such evidence could be secured they declared they would try to get a requisition for Frank James and bring him to Minnesota to answer for his share of the Northfield raid.

MANY CONSULS NAMED.

The President Sends a Long List of State Nominations to the Senate.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—The President to-day sent the following nominations to the Senate:

To be ministers—William L. Merry of California, to Nicaragua, Costa Rica and San Salvador; H. N. Allen of Ohio, to Corea; Perry M. DeLeon of Georgia, to Ecuador.

To be consuls—William L. Sewell of Ohio at Toronto, Ontario; Edward H. Ozum of Minnesota at Stuttgart, Germany; Henry W. Diedrich of the District of Columbia at Madgeburg, Germany; Charles W. Erdman of Kentucky at Furth, Germany; Samuel E. Magill of Illinois at Tampico, Mexico; George J. Corey of Illinois at Amsterdam, Netherlands; Genville James of New York at Prescott, Ontario; Radcliffe H. Ford of Maine at Yarmouth, Nova Scotia; Frederick W. Hossfeld of Iowa at Trieste, Austria; John C. Covert of Ohio at Lyons, France; William K. Anderson of Michigan at Hanover, Germany.

Mail Carriers Frozen to Death.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., July 15.—A letter just received here from Alaska brings particulars of a terrible death of the three men, Blackstone, Botcher and Mollique, who were frozen to death while endeavoring to carry mail from Sunrise City across the glacier to Prince William sound. Of forty-six horses taken to Cook's inlet country last season for use in pack trains only four survived the winter.

Mrs. Hay's Narrow Escape.

LONDON, July 15.—Mrs. Hay, the wife of the United States ambassador, had a narrow escape from serious accident yesterday. While driving with Colonel Hay, the pole of an omnibus penetrated the panel of the carriage at a point where Mrs. Hay's head had rested only a moment before. Had she not shifted her position when she did a fatal injury would have been almost unavoidable. The driver of the omnibus has been arrested.

BRYAN TO VISIT MEXICO.

The Champion of Silver to See the Workings of Free Coinage.

SALT LAKE, Utah, July 15.—It is stated on excellent authority that W. J. Bryan, shortly after the adjournment of the Transmississippi congress, will make a tour of Mexico in company with some Texas friends. This tour will not be solely for pleasure, but will be for the purpose of gathering some data for use in the campaign for the free coinage of silver.

OMAHA WON.

The National Republican League Will Go to Nebraska.

DETROIT, Mich., July 15.—The Republican league convention has selected Omaha as the place for the next meeting. For president Leonard J. Crawford of Kentucky was chosen. The resolutions declare unflinching allegiance "to the principles and policies of the party of protection, sound money, reciprocity and patriotism, as expressed in the St. Louis platform," and continue: "The faith which prompted the nomination and election of William McKinley and a Republican Congress has been justified, and we congratulate the country upon the evidences of returning prosperity. We pledge new and organized effort of league men throughout the Union of the party of Abraham Lincoln."

The platform commends the President and Congress in sending a monetary commission to European nations; for inaugurating measures for the annexation of Hawaii and for an attitude upon the Cuban matter that has tended to lessen Spanish atrocities in that island. President Cleveland's civil service changes are vigorously condemned and a modification of the rules and provisions of that law are favored in the "interest of good service and to correct the injustice" alleged to have been thus perpetrated. Restriction of immigration is favored and sympathy expressed with the miners and other laboring men in their struggles for living wages.

FRANK JAMES TALKS.

Discusses the Younger Pardon Refusal—The Result Not Unexpected.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 15.—Asked whether the alleged silence of the Youngers in the face of repeated questions about the killing of Cashier Heywood did not indicate that they were prejudicing their own case and practically sacrificing their liberty to protect some of their former associates, Frank James said that such an inference in his case would be unjust; that he had been a law-abiding citizen ever since his surrender and that any testimony connecting his name with the robbery or murder was false.

Mr. James added: "Between Cole and Jim Younger and liberty was placed a barrier which to have crossed would have been dishonor in their own eyes. To them, imprisonment, with all of its sacrifices, was preferable to a life in the open air, knowing that the price of that freedom was either the imprisonment of a friend or the desecration of the memory of a friend long dead."

The former bandit concluded that he had at no time thought that the brothers would be pardoned and had so told Captain Bronaugh.

CHEYENNES UNRULY.

Indians Try to Assassinate a Montana Deputy Sheriff.

MILES CITY, Mont., July 15.—A number of Cheyenne Indians attacked the home of Matt Winter, near the reservation, firing several shots into the house. Mrs. Winter and her children and a hired man, who were in the house, fled by the rear way and escaped without injury.

Winter was one of the deputy sheriffs who accompanied Sheriff Gibbs to help arrest Little Whirlwind not long ago, and it was the general opinion at that time that he would be killed by the Cheyennes.

WAR MAY BEGIN ANEW.

Edhem Pasha and Turkish Officers Prepare for Active Service.

LONDON, July 15.—Advices from Constantinople indicate that the sultan is obdurate regarding the acceptance of the peace proposals. Edhem Pasha is hastening back to Domokos and the furloughs of all Turkish officers have been canceled in readiness for a renewal of hostilities.

The foreign ambassadors to Turkey are recognizing that further verbal remonstrance is useless and are not inclined to continue diplomatic proceedings until they know in what way coercion is to be applied.

THOS. D. HASTINGS DEAD.

The Western Railroad Builder Passes Away Suddenly.

CHICAGO, July 15.—Thomas D. Hastings of this city, who was summering at the Hotel Colorado, Glenwood Springs, Colo., with his wife and two daughters, died suddenly there last night. He was a retired capitalist.

Mr. Hastings was interested in railroad building all his life and constructed many of the roads west of the Missouri river. The town of Hastings, Neb., was named after him. Previous to coming to this city he lived for many years in St. Joseph, Mo., St. Louis and Kansas City, in which city he was well known.

Wool Importations Heavy.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—Reports received at the treasury department show that the importations of raw wool at Boston, New York and Philadelphia, which ports enter about 90 per cent of all the wool brought into the United States, amounted during June to 33,281,775 pounds, or 10,965,910 pounds less than in May, but 27,965,500 pounds more than in June, 1896.

MISSOURI'S A. P. A. SPLIT.

Expelled Councils Organize a New Order at St. Louis—Conspiracy Talk.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 15.—The A. P. A. councils expelled by the state judiciary board decided not to appeal, and organized the True American league. The constitution affirms allegiance to the principles of the A. P. A. as enunciated by its founder, H. F. Bowers, and by ex-President Traynor. The following officers were elected: President, Edward Upton; vice president, F. W. Gifford of Kansas City; secretary, J. Leahman.

A PRINCE IN DANGER.

COREA'S HEIR APPARENT SAID TO BE IN PERIL.

Two Men Sworn to Kill the Young Man Pursuing Him Unrelentingly—Steel Armor Constantly Worn and Trusted Guards Always on Duty.

Assassins Seeking a Prince.

NEW YORK, July 15.—The Journal and Advertiser says: "Prince Euie Wha, heir apparent to the throne of Corea, is said to be in danger of losing his life. This young Corean arrived in America several months ago, ostensibly to complete his education in an American college; in reality he came to avoid hired assassins, who have followed him. Despite the fact that the United States offers to the prince a refuge far more secure than his native country, he is continually dodging men who are hired by the Corean Progressive party, which is against the present dynasty, to kill him.

"The prince is believed to be in Washington at present. The members of his suite go armed to the teeth. The secret service officers and the police of San Francisco and Washington and, possibly, New York, though this has been denied, have been instructed to look out for his safety.

"The prince is the son of the king by a former union. The queen has been assassinated, the mother of the young man has been killed, and others interested in the royal family of Corea have gone to their last home on account of this youth.

"A Japanese secret service officer, at present in New York, who is perfectly familiar with the affairs of Prince Euie Wha, tells the following story of the troubles of the young man: 'The young prince is a general favorite wherever he goes, and while in this city at the Waldorf he made many friends. But he has a marked peculiarity; he wears the look of a hunted man. Since his birth, in 1885, assassins have tried to take his life. The king, believing he would be safer in the United States than in Corea, sent him here, and he has been followed by two men who have sworn to take his life, and if he gets back to Corea alive it will be because Corean assassins have lost their cunning. These would-be assassins are believed to be in San Francisco at present. Both are Coreans, although they pass themselves off for Japanese. One of them is a round-faced, heavily-built man, with a very kindly expression of countenance. He is such a fluent Japanese scholar as to deceive even the native Japanese, and his mission here is not suspected save by the detectives who have been informed of it. He was a fellow conspirator of the unfortunate Kim O. Klum, who was lured to Shanghai shortly before the outbreak of the war between China and Japan and there murdered by an emissary from the Corean court named Hong, who is now colonel in the imperial body guard and vice minister of home affairs. He has a double object—revenge the death of his friend as well as to put the prince out of the way. The would-be assassin was at one time a cabinet minister of the Corean court. The prince is in mortal dread of the minister; he knows he is followed, but he does not know who is following him. He never leaves off his coat of mail, which is made of the very finest Corean steel wire, except when in bathing. It will not withstand the force of a bullet, but there is no knife that can pierce it, and it is only a knife that the prince is afraid of. The cause of this desire to end the career of the prince lies in the idea of the Progressive party in Corea that the king and his son are too far behind the times. Undoubtedly, the king will be assassinated before long, and the design is to have the young man out of the way when this comes to pass.'

GEN. FARNSWORTH DEAD.

An Old Member of Congress and Soldier, from Illinois, Passes Away.

WASHINGTON, July 15.—General John F. Farnsworth died here yesterday afternoon, aged 77 years. He was a Canadian by birth, but in early life removed to Michigan, where he was educated and admitted to the bar. Subsequently he went to Chicago and was elected to and served in Congress as a Republican from 1857 to 1861, when he became colonel of the Eighth Illinois cavalry. Later, by order of the war department, he raised the Seventeenth Illinois regiment and was commissioned brigadier general in November, 1862, but owing to injuries received in the field was compelled to resign from the army in March, 1863. He then went to St. Charles, Ill., and from 1863 to 1873 was again a member of Congress. Since the latter date he had been engaged in the practice of law in this city.

A Cleveland Tin Plate Mill Closed.

CLEVELAND, O., July 15.—The Crescent Tin Plate mill closed in every department this morning. The heaters refused to go to work and without them it was impossible to operate the mill. All the heaters were taken into the Amalgamated Iron and Steel association last night. The mill may be closed until the settlement of the strike.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., July 15.—The Association of American Colleges of Agricultural and Experimental Stations decided to make an exhibit at the Paris exposition in 1900 and a committee was named to make the necessary arrangements.

Forger Commits Suicide.

ASHLAND, Wis., July 15.—R. C. Heydlauff, arrested for forgery of county orders, committed suicide by shooting himself yesterday morning.

Coffin on a Trolley Car.

An unusual sight was witnessed on a Brooklyn trolley car heading toward a cemetery. An employe of a well-known undertaker was seen carrying the body of a baby in a coffin, which was wrapped in a blanket, on the car. There was considerable excitement among the passengers for a while, but no attempt on the part of the conductor was made to collect an additional fare. This is the cheapest funeral on record.
