

Correspondence

News of the County as Told by Our Special Correspondents

Humboldt.

J. F. Brown and wife are visiting in Junction City, Mo.

Lyman Whitcomb was a Falls City visitor during the week.

John Holman leaves this week for a visit to his old home in England.

Dr. Wilson and wife spent several days last week with Lincoln relatives.

Orin Shrauger has returned from an extended visit in Pennsylvania.

Mrs. E. Whitney has been quite sick for a week or two with lung trouble.

Mrs. Rolley went to Falls City Saturday to spend a week with her daughter.

Mrs. Marble entertained her sister, Lena Woodley of Tecumseh, over Sunday.

W. H. Williams was down from Wymore Sunday to spend the day with friends.

Ruby Ghumm of Julian is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Riley Cooper east of town.

John Abbey of Concordia, Kansas, was recently a guest of Jas. K. Liggett and wife.

Mrs. L. R. Smith entertained her sister, Mrs. Porter of Cortland, Kansas, over Sunday.

C. F. Frank and Wm. Burrow were called to Barnston last week by the death of a relative.

Mrs. Jason Phillips of Tecumseh was a guest of Humboldt friends a few days this week.

Edwin LaBore has returned from a business trip to Dakota and will make his home here in the future.

Mrs. Ambrose Buerstetta has been visiting relatives and friends in Auburn and Tecumseh the past week.

Marshal Todd still holds his position, the new mayor failing to make an appointment of a successor at the meeting last week.

Rev. Wilson will preach the baccalaureate sermon to the seniors at the Presbyterian church next Sunday morning.

Mrs. Daniel Keedwell, formerly of this place, visited relatives in this section over Sunday. Her home is in Willow Springs, Mo.

Mrs. Litchfield departed Saturday for her home in Kansas City, having spent several weeks with her son, Dr. Litchfield and wife.

A new building is being erected on the south side by J. C. Wiltse which will be leased to the Beatrice Creamery Company for an up-town office.

Grandma Dalbey died suddenly at her home in the north part of the city Monday evening at the advanced age of 91 years. The deceased was a native of Pennsylvania and has lived in this county over 40 years. She leaves two sons, Charles and Harry Dalbey, and one daughter, Mrs. P. O. Avery, all of whom reside here. She has enjoyed remarkably good health for one so advanced in years, and performed her accustomed household duties with regularity up to the time of her death. She was seated on the porch in the evening when seized with an attack of coughing which evidently resulted in the bursting of a blood vessel, her death ensuing within fifteen minutes.

A number of young ladies of the city have organized a club for study and social amusements with the following officers: Ema Cooper president, Zoe Nims vice president, Ruby Idle secretary and treasurer and Clara Garver assistant secretary and treasurer.

Henry Vance, who came here recently from Wyoming to assist in caring for his father, has decided to remain in this section, and last week purchased a blacksmith shop in Dawson and will reside in that place.

A shooting gallery is the new attraction for the sports of Humboldt. Reid & Shaffer have opened a business on the south side and procured a license for a year.

The supreme court has just rendered a decision in the case of the Coleman heirs, who objected to the executors of the estate paying a note held by the state bank of this city out of the proceeds of an insurance policy.

Mrs. Albert Cottrell, who has been in the city caring for her daughter, Mrs. Fred Fisher, during the latter's illness, left this week for her home in Whiting, Kansas.

Lute Skalak, who was chosen city clerk at the last election, failed to appear and qualify at the last meeting of the council, and the place is therefore held by Clerk Edwards by default.

Miss Harmon, teacher of the fourth grade in our schools, was called to Nebraska City Saturday to attend the funeral of her sister who died very suddenly that day in Omaha.

The council has finally granted a franchise to the new telephone company, and it is claimed the line will be put up at an early date, but the work has not commenced yet.

Mrs. E. S. Cooper has received word of the death of her mother, which occurred at DuBois last week.

Burton Webster and wife are the parents of a baby boy.

Reavis & Abbey

A Quiet Flirtation

OBJECT--Innocent Amusement
RESULT--Sometimes matrimony and then comes furniture and this is where we get interested.

"It is the way of the wise" to buy the best goods for the least money.

We have the only complete line of furniture and floor coverings ever carried in the county.

Straw matting 12 to 60c; all wool Ingrain carpet 50 to 75 cts sewed; Linoleum, 6, 7½ and 12 feet wide 50 to 65 cts, laid.

Some of our designs will certainly interest you and the quality and prices are right.

Reavis & Abbey

Dawson.

M. J. Clancy was over from Stella Tuesday.

Wm. Wagner returned to Pawnee City Saturday.

Angela Tichen visited her sister at Falls City Sunday.

Mary Nesladek spent Sunday at her home in Falls City.

Wm. Schaefer of Humboldt was a Dawson visitor Monday.

Mrs. Will Fenton and little daughter are visiting in Omaha.

John Spaulding and wife moved from the farm to town this week.

Chester Belden came down from Lincoln and spent Sunday with his parents.

Frank Bush is here from California on a visit to John Rutz and family.

Mrs. Tim Fenton of Wymore is visiting at home of H. S. Belden and family.

Bess Graham spent several days during the week with her sister, Mrs. Charles Cooper at Salem.

George Schlosser and wife left Friday for Omaha where they will reside if George finds work to this liking.

Dr. Hewitt A. Waggner, who graduated from Creighton medical college in Omaha, came home Saturday evening and will practice with his father for the present.

Little Dannie Graham had two of his fingers mashed by getting them in the way of an ax used by Mr. Foster, one day this week. The little fellow had a narrow escape from losing his fingers.

Mame and Bea Riley left last Thursday for their home in Wymore, having completed their school work here. They were accompanied by their sister Nellie who had been visiting here.

George P. Adams, who has been blacksmithing here for several years, this week sold his shop to Henry Vance of Humboldt. Mr. Adams has accepted a position as traveling representative of the M. W. A. lodge and will assume his new duties at once. Dawson will continue to be his home for the present. Mr. Vance will move his family here as soon as he can find suitable quarters and will become a permanent citizen of Dawson.