

Henry C. Smith LANDS & LOANS

240 acres well improved, 1 1/2 miles from Depot in Kas. Good spring. Best of terms. Will take 40 acres as part payment, balance long time at low interest.
200 acres 1 1/2 miles from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. Good buildings and land. Will take 40 or 80 acres as part payment.
100 acres upland, 1 mile from depot, Richardson county, Nebraska. $12,000.
160 acres Johnson county, Nebraska. 80 rods to church and school. Best of terms. Might rent.
107 acres near Brownville, Nebraska.
80 acres 1/4-mile from Falls City high school.
640 acres, $8,000 improvements. Also 640 acres adjoining. Will take 160 acres as part payment.
Fine running water. A No. 1 opportunity.
Money to loan.

SHUBERT

Grandma Evans is now on the sick list.
Teddy Hill was a Nehama visitor Sunday.
Mr. E. W. Imler was absent several days last week.
Jake Birdsley and wife were visiting relatives Saturday.
Henry Fishburn employed the wood sawers at his farm on Tuesday.
Mrs. F. M. Oathout was shopping in Verdon one day during the week.
Chas. Koker of near Barada marketed several loads of hogs here Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Barker of Nemaha were visiting friends here last Sunday.
Robert Thompson of Falls City is now at John Myers doing some mason work.
Jacob Mack of Barada precinct was a business visitor the latter part of the week.
Mrs. C. A. Lord and daughter were the guests of relatives at Salem on Saturday.
Mrs. Henry Fishburn, who has been very sick, is now much better at this writing.
Little Nina Shubert, who was quite sick at our last writing, is now much improved.
John Imler had charge of the lumber yard during the absence of his father last week.
Mrs. Willard Shubert was at Stella Wednesday, where she spent the day with friends.
Lee Parott of Nemaha spent a few days with his brother and family near here quite recently.
Elmer Else and wife, accompanied by Mrs. F. M. Oathout, were shopping at Falls City, Saturday.
M. T. Hill and family enjoyed a few days visit from the former's mother the latter part of last week.
Mrs. Chas. Wilson of near Stella came over Saturday to remain with her friends over Sunday.
J. C. Shulenberg and wife spent Friday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Jake Birdsley and family.
Dr. Shook and family ate their Sunday dinner with Mrs. Shooks parents, Mr. and Mrs. Shirliff of Teas place.
Mrs. Wolf and daughter, Alice, left Wednesday for the western part of the state, where they will spend some time.
Mrs. Dr. Willis, formerly of this place but now of Marsland, Nebr., was entertained here several days last week by her many friends.
Clyde Hill, who has had employment at Nemaha in the printing office, has now returned home and is assisting his father in the drug store.
The Misses Ella and Gertrude Berg, who make their home at Stella, are now here spending a few days with their sister, Mrs. Wm. Harris.
The Christian Aid society expects to meet at the home of Mrs. Chas. Gaston next Wednesday afternoon, where they will accomplish a good work.
C. A. Lord was a country visitor last Thursday, and while out stopped at Mr. Werner's and had dinner. He sold Mr. Werner a new separator.
Thos. O'Connell of western Nebraska, who was called here by the death of Mr. James Hanley, is now visiting his friends and relatives while here.
Wm. Brown, our paper hanger and painter, was employed in the country the greater part of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Weicks, south of town.
Quite a number of our young people are preparing to see the National Bloomer Girls base ball game. They are from Kansas City, and they will play at Nemaha May 13.
Bert McGee, formerly merchant at Barada but who is now traveling for a firm at St. Louis, made this his place one day during the week. His old friends were always glad to see him.
Chas. Smiley left with his Sunday school class Saturday morning for the river at Nemaha for a day's outing, returning in the evening, feeling that they had spent one of the best days of their life.
The flower sale and supper given by the Christian Aid society Saturday afternoon and evening was a great success. All the flowers that they ordered, of which was a large supply, were all sold in a very short time, and they had the pleasure of feeding one of the largest crowds that has been in the town for some time, but not only that but every one went home feeling that the day was well spent. We fail to learn as yet what they took in, which will go to finish paying on the piano in the church.

RULO.

Frank Simon was a Falls City visitor Monday.
Mrs. Vastine was a Falls City visitor Saturday.
Mac Vastine returned home from the west Sunday.
Fred Taylor went to Salt Lake City a few days ago.
Ol Haler was a Fargo visitor the first of the week.
Miss Busch of Preston was a Rulo visitor last week.
J. P. Wiggins returned to King City one day last week.
Al Doerner of Falls City, was in Rulo one day last week.
Mrs. C. J. Caverzagle was a Falls City visitor last Friday.
Will Dunn visited with relatives in St. Joseph last week.
Jim Mooney was a Falls City visitor the first of the week.
Elias Martin and family moved to the country last week.
Cecl and Agnes Kanaly were Falls City visitors Saturday.
Frank Snyder and wife were Fargo visitors a few days ago.
Will Dorste and family were visitors here one day last week.
Green Goolsby of Missouri was a Rulo visitor last Friday.
W. B. Hoften of Omaha was in town between trains Saturday.
George E. Ward made a business trip to McCook last week.
Mrs. Hull is visiting with friends in Nebraska City this week.
Wayne Richardson was a Preston visitor one day last week.
Ed Davis was a St. Joseph business visitor one day last week.
D. Van Aulkinburg was a Falls City visitor Monday afternoon.
James Kernode was a Falls City passenger Monday afternoon.
Pearl Haner of Kansas, was visiting Rulo friends last Saturday.
Mrs. Frank Simon was a Falls City visitor the last of the week.
Robert Marshall of Riverston, visited with Rulo relatives last week.
Ray Goddard has gone to King City, Mo., to work for Mr. Wiggins.
Ed Davis won the clock in the raffle Monday night, after the dance.
Sam Goolsby was a business visitor in Rulo Thursday of last week.
Earney Wisley of Kansas was visiting Rulo friends last Saturday.
J. S. Brown of Axtel, Kansas, was a Rulo visitor one day last week.
Jonathan Taguey of Kansas City, visited Rulo relatives last week.
N. A. Kernode made a business trip to Falls City Monday afternoon.
Alma and Edna Everling are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Jeffrie.
George Boyer of Falls City was transacting business in Rulo Monday.
F. E. Kulp of Wymore was a business visitor in Rulo one day last week.
Clay Brown of Fortescue was a Rulo visitor the latter part of last week.
Albert Bachman and daughter were in Rulo visiting one day last week.
John Santz and wife were transacting business in Rulo one day last week.
John Harris spent a few days at Colby, Kansas, the first of the week.
Ed Huokett, traveling engineer for the Burlington, was in Rulo Sunday.
George Lundy of Missouri was transacting business in Rulo Saturday last.
Roy Dykes of Preston was visiting his mother at this place Friday night.
Lou Everling of Leavenworth, Kan., visited friends in this vicinity last week.
Melva Kern spent a few days with Falls City friends the first of the week.
Miss Melva Eckard of Dawson visited with Anna Mahan the first of this week.
Mrs. Belpier and daughter, Eva, were Preston visitors one day last week.
Edgar Bryan of Fortescue was in Rulo a couple of days the last of the week.
Clem Davis sold twenty-two shoats last week that brought him a good price.
E. K. Graves returned Monday from a visit with his son, Charles, at St. Joseph.
J. M. Gustafson of Wymore was transacting business in Rulo one day last week.
John Kioepfel of Falls City, visited with relatives at this place a part of last week.
Mr. Tilgese is painting the outside of his house, and making some other improvements.

Charlie and Paul Burk, Walter and John Graves went fishing Saturday—fishermen's luck.
James Cronin, sr., spent Friday and Saturday with his daughter, Mrs. Less Leeds, in Falls City.
The girls of the High school have organized a glee club and gave a serenade May basket night.
Ella Carpenter has been repapering, painting and making other repairs on her house the past week.
Blaine Anderson returned from North Burrow, Iowa, last week, where he had been visiting with his sister.
Ferd Jarrott visited Rulo friends recently. Ferd is playing ball with the Topeka ball nine this year.
While wrestling one evening last week Floyd True received a sprained ankle, which laid him up for several days.
Mrs. John Anderson of the Reservation, and grandson Floyd Long, were visiting Rulo friends the first of the week.
The lamp to one of Henry Brinegar's brooders exploded recently and thirty of his young chickens were burned to death.
Mr. and Mrs. D. Van Aulkinburg, Mrs. Hattie Marsh and Dr. Henderson and wife attended the funeral of Mrs. Will Margraves.
Robert Paul has sold his home in Nebraska and purchased a farm in Texas, to which he expects to move his family next fall.
We have had frost and ice several nights in the past ten days, but so far fruit does not seem to be injured. Some garden stuff received quite a blight.
Agnes Schroeder has completed her term of school near Preston and is staying at the home of her grandparents, until the quarantine is raised on her own home.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Cunningham departed Thursday evening for San Francisco, Cal., where they will view the big battle ships and visit relatives in several places in the state.
On last Saturday while Rulo section men were helping change a switch at Fortescue, Charlie Dishong was accidentally struck on the head with a sotka maul, which rendered him unconscious for half an hour. Dr. Lefe Minton of Fortescue was called, who dressed the wound and pronounced him not dangerously injured. Nevertheless it was a close call for Charlie.
Sunday night during the electrical storm the large barn on the Umpliney Edgecombe place was struck by lightning and destroyed with all its contents. Eight head of horses and six cows were burned, also a buggy, several sets of harness, hay and a great many other things. Only the heavy downpour of rain at the time prevented the house from burning, as a strong wind was blowing directly toward the house.
D. Easley, an old resident of Rulo, passed quietly away at his home in Rulo, Sunday, May 3, at about half-past nine o'clock. Mr. Easley had been in poor health for several months, but yet the end came unexpected. The funeral will not be held until the last of the week, on account of the time it will take for his children to reach the old home, one, Mrs. Joe Miles living in California and Mrs. Dr. Wiser in Mexico.
On Wednesday, April 29, at half-past nine o'clock, at the Catholic church in this city, Miss Elta Simmons and Ed Gilbert were united in marriage. Their attendants were Lena Lavergazie and H. Huber. A dinner was given for the relatives at the home of the bride's mother. They have gone to house-keeping on the farm of the groom's father, southwest of Rulo. Their friends wish them happiness in their married life.

OHIO

Joe Cully entertained friends Sunday here. Mrs. Louis Fielder is quite ill at her home.
Al Faller and family were guests of friends Sunday.
Mrs. Cleon Peck is enjoying a visit from her sister.
Robt. Schindler and wife spent Sunday at A. McCann's.
Mrs. Lloyd Knisely enjoyed a visit from her aunt last week.
Guy Prine and family were guests of H. Coons and family Monday.
Mrs. H. Schrieber was a guest of Mrs. Wm. Huettner, Monday.
Annie Shaffer was a guest of Mrs. F. M. Shaffer last Wednesday.
Mrs. John Lichty of Falls City was a guest at her's, Frank, last Thursday.
E. C. Peck and wife of Morrill, Kas., were guests of Mrs. N. Peck, Sunday.

The whooping cough is at several of the homes in this vicinity.
Mrs. Miller of Falls City spent last week with Mrs. Earl Shaffer.
John Bauer and wife were guests of Ed Kimmel and wife Sunday.
Ed Ruegge and family visited with Ed Kimmel's Saturday evening.
Frank Lichty and family spent Sunday with F. M. Shaffer and family.
Mrs. N. Peck visited Mrs. Earl Shaffer Thursday afternoon of last week.
The little son of Martin Nolte and wife was christened at their home last Sunday.
Mrs. H. A. Burk and son spent Saturday night and Sunday with her parents.
Mrs. Chas. Stump and baby of Falls City spent part of last week with her parents.
Mrs. Otto Huettner, sr., is spending a few days at her son's, Wm. Huettner, this week.
Joe Pritchard and wife of Falls City, spent last Friday with their son, H. J. and family.
Born—To Wm. Huettner and wife, May 3, 1908, a girl. All parties are doing nicely.
Al Merts raffled off a bicycle last week and Chas. Wentz held the lucky number and got it.
Tuck Cook and wife of the county home, were guests of the latter's sister, Mrs. Casey, in Falls City.
Elder Gish of Holmesville, Nebr., attended the love feast at the German Baptist Brethren church.
Geo. Pritchard and wife entertained the former's brother, H. J. and family, and Guy Lichty and wife Sunday.
Grandma Cook of the county home was a guest of her son, William and family in Verdon a portion of last week.
Earl Shaffer and family and Chester Stump and family were guests of Lulu Stump and family one evening recently.
Guy Lichty and wife and Mrs. O. A. Guinn were guests of Mrs. Sturms and Mrs. Guilliams in Straussville, Monday.
Henry Brim and lady friend of near Hamlin, Kas., visited over Sunday with the former's sister, Mrs. Anson Knisely.
Mrs. P. E. Shaffer went to Falls City Sunday to help care for Miss Anna Shaffer, who is quite ill with rheumatism.
The German Baptist Brethren church held their love feast last Saturday evening and Sunday there was services by the visiting ministers.
O. B. Pritchard and wife were surprised one evening last week by about seventy of their friends. A very enjoyable time was had by those present. Refreshments were served.
Rev. Teeter of Falls City held services at the Silver Creek church last Sunday at 11 o'clock and will preach out here every two weeks at the same time. Everybody cordially invited.
Elder Yearout and wife, Rev. T. A. Eisenbise and wife, Messrs. E. C. Peck and wife, Joe Peck and wife and Geo. Lippold and the Misses Meyers, Peck and Dickey, all of Morrill, attended the love feast Saturday evening at the German Baptist Brethren church.

SALEM

Joe Windle returned home from Long Island, Sunday.
Sadie Jones came home from Peru Friday evening.
Mrs. Cora Meredith went to Nebraska City, Tuesday.
County Attorney James was in Salem Monday morning.
J. T. Shrimpton went to Fremont Thursday morning.
O. B. Lesley and daughter, Mabel, went to Peru Wednesday.
Mr. and Mrs. Clay Wagoner are visiting this week in Morrill.
Mrs. Cora Meredith arrived from Nebraska City, Saturday evening.
Mrs. Josh Lord and daughter, Vera, came up from Falls City, Wednesday.
Mrs. Scott Carlyle arrived from Texas Monday for a visit with relatives.
Mrs. Mattie E. May of Falls City was a guest of Ed May and wife several days last week.
A new concrete walk is being put down in front of the Roe Moore furniture store.
Mrs. Bert Thorn entertained her neighbors at a rag sewing Tuesday afternoon.
R. N. Huston has improved his home to the extent of a new porch clear across the east side.

BARADA.

Ray Dunn was county seat visitor on Thursday.
Matt Schulenberg was in Falls City on Thursday.
Charles Martin was a Falls City visitor on Saturday.
Deputy Sheriff McFarlane was in Barada, Monday.
Otis and D. E. Spickler were in Falls City on Saturday.
Otis Spickler made a business trip to Salem Wednesday.
Neil Piersol has installed a fine new gas lamp in his barber shop.
Several loads of hogs were shipped from this section on Thursday.
Grandma Bolejack of Auburn is visiting her son, Emery and family.
Wm. Kuhlman and Daniel Wamsley were Falls City visitors on Saturday.
Lloyd Mitchell and wife spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Spickler.
Miss Hattie Lilly was the guest of Misses Kittie and Lela Butler on Sunday.
Van Sailors and wife of Verdon were visiting relatives in this vicinity this week.
T. F. Burgess and family have moved to Mound City, Mo., to make their home.
Misses Priscilla Woodring and Lotie Dunn were Falls City visitors Saturday.
Mesdames Sarah and Susie Williamson visited relatives in Falls City, Saturday.
Levi Bowman left Wednesday for an extended trip to Lincoln, Omaha and eastern points.
Henry Langdon, wife and daughter, Miss Lettie, were shopping in Falls City on Saturday.
Miss Dorothy Michaelis of Falls City is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Frazie, this week.
D. E. Spickler and wife, Otis Spickler and Wm. McGowan attended an ice cream social in Shubert, Saturday evening.
Morgan Jones, Charles Thomas and Ernest Slagle of Shubert were in town on Thursday.
James Haith and family, who have been living in the Thompson property on the corner of Main and Third streets, moved into the country on Monday, near the sawmill.
W. F. Butler has moved into the new addition recently made to his store building and finds it very satisfactory. His patrons appreciate the improved appearance of this place of business.
The new furnishings for the Barada State Bank were installed on Monday. These fixtures place our bank building in the forefront in this county in appearance and up-to-date management. The new cement walk will be laid on two sides of the bank as soon as the weather permits.
There was no preaching at Big Bethel on Sunday evening, owing to the storm on Sunday, May 10. Evangelical preaching services will be held at 11 o'clock a. m., immediately after Sunday school and on every alternate Sunday thereafter after preaching services will be held in the morning. On the intervening Sundays services will occur at 8 o'clock, p. m.

STELLA.

Mrs. Caroline Haggard is spending the week with her sons at Seneca, Kansas City and at Ottawa.
C. M. Ailor has been here this week from Kansas City, where he is working at the wall paper cleaning business.
Mrs. Ann Shellenbarger and Miss Gertrude left for a month's visit with relatives in Oklahoma City, Tuesday.
A small house is being built at the Prairie Union cemetery, which will be occupied by the sexton and his family.
Harry Foster and wife arrived from Kansas City Tuesday night for a week's visit at the home of her parents, Wm. Moore and wife.
Russ and Velmer Freed left last Thursday night for California, where they will work for an uncle who is a railroad contractor.
Mrs. Raper and Mrs. Fred Gilbert attended a convention of the Knights and Ladies of Security at Nebraska City one day last year.
Rev. Gould, pastor of the Methodist church, has been busy for some time trying to secure funds to build and remodel the parsonage.
A. J. Baldwin has been appointed village clerk, Farvey L. Hogrefe treasurer, and J. F. Elchert chairman of the village council for the coming year.

J. H. Overman has received his appointment for postmaster for the next term of four years. Mr. Overman has been postmaster here for the past ten years.
Dr. Stephenson, the Auburn osteopathist, who has been making regular trips here for the past three years, has gone to Chase county for a month's vacation.
Mrs. Kittie Wilsey and Misses Cora and Jennie Higgins will graduate from the Green Gables hospital in Lincoln, May 14th, where they have been taking a trained nurse's course for the past two years.
A large barn belonging to Charley Weaver, who lives southeast of town, was struck by lightning Sunday evening, killing a horse that was in the barn. The barn was struck again Monday evening. It was splintered up a great deal both times but did not catch fire.
The commencement exercises will be held in the opera house next Thursday evening. Prof. Presson of Fremont will deliver the class address. The Baccalaureate address will be delivered by Rev. Shirck of the Lutheran church at the Baptist church next Sunday evening.
HUMBOLDT.
Virgil Smith was down from Lincoln over Sunday.
F. D. Seely was in Wahoo on business the middle of the week.
Aetha Berry visited over Sunday with home folks in St. Joseph.
Mrs. John Gird and children of Lincoln, are in the city visiting friends.
Dick Turner visited the first of the week with a sister in Atchison, Kansas.
Mrs. Walter Unland came down from Tecumseh Monday for a visit with friends.
A. J. Buerstetta and little son visited relatives in Tecumseh—the middle of the week.
M. C. Davis and wife visited this week with Bert McCullough and wife in Lincoln.
M. Shurtliff, sr., returned Monday from California, where he had been spending the winter months.
Chet Power and wife came up from Kansas City Saturday for a few days visit with Chas. Power and wife.
Frank Porr returned Sunday from Chicago, where he has been attending a musical conservatory the past winter.
Mrs. Louise Blumer went to Lincoln the middle of the week to see her son, Fred, graduate from a medical college.
Cora Drake, a trained nurse of St. Joe, is home for a visit with her parents, A. L. Drake and wife, east of town.
Madge Ford returned Friday from a week's visit with her brother, Herbert, who is attending college in Grand Island.
Mrs. Martin Paulson and children arrived the last of the week from Lewiston, Nebr., and are guests of Mrs. J. A. Murphy.
Oral Myers and cousin, Edwin Myers of Memphis, Mo., were here the last of the week visiting the former's brother, Dr. E. E. Myers.
Mrs. Albert Rist was given a post-nuptial miscellaneous shower at the home of Mrs. Burton Webster on Saturday afternoon.
Rev. Hamilton handed in his resignation as local pastor of the Baptist church Sunday morning. He and his family expect to locate in Iowa soon.
Mrs. C. K. Cooper entertained a company of friends at her home on Thursday at one o'clock luncheon, complimentary to Mrs. Ena Cooper-Seabury, of Chicago.
Geo. Turner and family of Lincoln, have completed arrangements for relocating in Humboldt. Mr. Turner has been selected to fill the office of city marshal.
The home talent play given in the opera house Thursday evening under the auspices of the local K. of P. lodge was a decided success, about eight dollars being cleared. The play rendered was entitled "The Substituted Will," the cast of characters being composed of Messrs. Harry Mann, Walter Billings, Arthur Wilson, Harold Davis, Ambrose Buerstetta, Harry Boyd, and Mrs. G. W. Segrist, Edna Akers and Fay Sanford.
About two inches of rain fell in this locality on Sunday and Monday nights.