WHAT WILL YOU BE WHEN YOU ARE SIXTY-FIVE?

—You will be ahead or behind the game. That is certain. But it all depends on what you do now.

—Of the average 100 people just 1 is wealthy at 65; only 3 are well-to-do; merely 6 are living on their incomes; 54 are living on friends and charity; 26 die before reaching their 65th birthday. It is easy to tell who had a bank account.

—The odds are stacked against you 87 to 1 if you don't save a little every pay day.

IS YOUR BANK ACCOUNT GROWING?
MAKE IT GROW A BIT NEXT PAY DAY!

Spiv and Splav Have a Few Words About Post

Sergeant Major Lewis has ordered citizenship tickets for two for Guba.

Private Lonnie White of the Camp Hospital was transferred to the guardhouse for the rest of the summer on a three months' leave.

Mrs. Reuben Majors, wife of Sergeant Majors of the 23rd Infantry Band, is very ill at the Camp Hospital and will be operated on today.

Private First-Class Clarence Garret was discharged from the Camp Hospital yesterday and seems to be the happiest chap in the world. He left on the first train for his home in the state of Ohio.

Private George Clifton Parker, Camp Hospital, a soldier with only a few days to do, adds to his trunk daily and has dressed himself from head to foot in silk. Parker will be discharged a well-dressed man.

Private First-Class Lewis January of the Medical Department made a quick trip on William White of the Commercial Cafe for a borrow of four dollars on quick terms. January is on a furlough for thirty days and that may be the cause.

Private First-Class Dewitt T. Paterson, Camp Hospital, was seen coming into the hospital at 2 P. M. last night, evidently having been on duty, as his boots are from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.

Private First-Class Raymond Holman, better known as the big Swede, was seen driving around Columbus with two misters and a forty-five-dollar steamer trunk, trying to get to camp again. When he arrived home from his duties all he needed was a driver. It's a good thing, Swede, old boy, that the hospital is open 24 hours.

Editor, Columbus Courier: Please allow me space in Spiv and Splav's column to compliment them on the territory they cover, also the industry they take in other people's business. Now Spiv—you and Splav—at any time when you have nothing else to do kindly justify me and I will endeavor to attend to just a little of my own business or arrangements, as you may call it.—William Jackson, Camp Hospital.

DORRONS HELD WHIST PARTY.

Sergeant and Mrs. Brian D. Dobson entertained with a whist party at their residence on East Broadway last evening. Those present were Sergeant and Mrs. Robert H. Farrell, Mrs. Floyd Clayton, Sergeant Richard Dade, Sergeant M. Mosley, Miss Ruth Hayes and Cook George Smith. Sergeant Mosley and Mrs. Clayton, Sergeant Dobson and Cook Smith were the best players of the evening. After the whist game Mrs. Clayton took the party for a motor ride in her car.

TWO HELD IN KILLING OF CAPTAIN'S WIFE

ROCKFORD, Ill., June 22.—After brief cross examination of Private G. C. Peters, local authorities have announced they believe he had no connection with the death of Mrs. Lucie B. Moss, near Camp street, Essex, escaped from the Camp Transit farm Tuesday morning and was suspected of having knowledge of the crime.

Peters was apprehended in Jefferson, Wisconsin, Sunday night and was brought here. After the questioning he was placed in solitary confinement in the county jail and will be examined further.

Private R. C. Wain, arrested in Chicago Monday, is confined in the county jail.

Borghill Inquiry Begins.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., June 22.—With inquiry begun from Judge J. W. Thompson in "too deep and space no one," a special grand jury began investigating today to determine who was responsible for the escape of driver G. Borghill, wealthy draft dodger, who eluded a military guard.

WITHDRAWAL.

I hereby withdraw my candidacy for the nomination for District Attorney, subject to the action of the Democratic convention of the Sixth District. This action is taken owing to the steady increase of my civil practice which shall continue to demand all of my attention. To the many friends who have kindly offered their support in behalf of my candidacy, I take this opportunity of extending my sincere thanks.

WHEN THE ORCHESTRA IS HOMEWARD BOUND

Scene: Columbus Theater lobby. Time: 9 p. m.

Orchestra steps playing. Warren the controller cranks his Overland and rides away. Parsons the saxophone virtuoso puts his daughter on his motorcycle and starts for home. Eats, well known starlined player, starts his Ford in the general direction of home. Moore, who has played drums, bells and xylophones for more than a year in this same theater, seems to have fallen in love with the trombone lately, comes out to his family and Maxwell and rides away. When Professor Jackson, the licensed leader, drives away in the big Oldsmobile, some one is heard to remark that "this Columbus theater orchestra is some orchestra. They all ride to and from work except Lowery the new pianist, and he has a lovely baby buggy."
