SEES WRATH OF HUBBY; ENDS LIFE

Pittsburgh.—Fear-stricken and remorseful as a result of the nightly visits of what she believed to be the ghost of her dead husband remonstrating with her for the life she had been leading, a woman listed at the morgue as Mrs. Anna Shaw, aged thirty-three years, but whose last name is said by her sister to be Rush, took her own life at her home, by swallowing a quantity of poisonous disinfectant.

After swallowing the poison, the woman is said to have written a letter to a sister telling of her life since the death of her husband in the Dixmont Hospital for the Insane, six months ago, and warning other women not to follow in her steps.

Ghost Remonstrated With Her.
According to other residents of the house where Mrs. Shaw resided with her two children, the woman had been in constant fear for the past several weeks because, she said, the ghostly figure of her husband confronted her at every turn, both day and night, beckoning her to come, and remonstrating with her because she was not leading a proper life.

The woman, after swallowing the poison, lived an hour, in which time she told residents of the house she was sorry for the act, and pleaded that a physician be called.

The woman's own story, according to the residents of the house, was that she was awakened early in the morning by the figure of her husband. Despondent, she said, because the figure haunted her both day and night, she went to a bathroom and drank the poison.

Mourned Life She Led.
Following is the note left by the woman:

"Dear Sister: I am sorry for what I have done. The best job I could get paid only $4 a week, and it took that to keep John and Harry in the Sunshine Home. When Ed died I was left to care for the children, and then I couldn't keep them and myself on the salary I could earn, and I had to do something else. I have seen Ed lately, and he is calling me to him in heaven, and I am going to meet him there. Forgive me, dear sister, and don't let my boy and girl know of the awful fate of their mother. Let this be a warning to others who might want to lead the life I have led. Your loving sister, ANNA."

Haunted Her Day and Night.

The "Ed" referred to in the note is Mrs. Rush's husband, Edward Rush, a former resident of Washington, Pa., and an electrician. He died in the Dixmont hospital, according to Mrs. Marie Laughlin, a sister of the dead woman.

LIKES THE CROWN PRINCE

French Officer, Taken Prisoner, is Favorably Impressed With Kaiser's Oldest Son.

Paris.—A French officer who was badly wounded and made prisoner was taken before the crown prince of Germany. In a letter he wrote to his home, he said he was most favorably impressed by the prince. He is slender and very refined in bearing and speaks French like an educated Frenchman without the slightest accent. He wore a helmet over which was a cover and he had not the slightest badge or stripe which would betray his rank.

Grandson Acted as Best Man.
Topsfield, Mass.—John F. Osborne acted as best man when his grandfather, John Romanzo Osborne, of Pittsfield, N. H., was married to Alice Ross Smith in this town.
