COLONEL ROOSEVELT FOR PRESIDENT

New York Tribune Says it is Advocating Roosevelt for the Presidency Because the Country Needs Him

NO ONE ELSE WILL QUICKEN THE PULSE OF THE NATION

Colonel Roosevelt and no "pussy-footing!"

The Tribune likes this candidate and this issue.

It regards Senator Root, its favorite so long as he had a chance of nomination, is now practically eliminated. It cannot interpret any more hopefully the failure of the "oxgen treatment" which his candidacy received, in the shape of the manifesto with seventy-five signers. The party thinks that Mr. Root would not be so likely to win as either Colonel Roosevelt or Justice Hughes, and it wants him as Secretary of State in the next Republican administration, since it cannot have him as President.

We are for Colonel Roosevelt because we believe the country needs No one else will quicken the pulse of the nation as he will quicken it. No one else will stir the conscience of the people as he will stir it. No one else will inspire patriotism as he will inspire it.

No one else personifies the issue which the Republican party must make as he personifies it. No one else presents so effective an antithesis to Wilson as he. If we are Americans, real Americans, the Colonel is our man. While timid politicians were consulting the census books and counting the German vote he spoke and the country hearkened. He is the leader in the fight for Americanism, and we don't believe in changing leaders when we are going to the front.

We are for Colonel Roosevelt in spite of the fact that we were against him four years ago. No one fought him harder than we. No one will fight harder for him. It has not been easy to put aside our pride, our sense of resentment at what occurred in 1912, and the hundred other things that tend to keep alive divisions. But we have put them aside and are putting them aside because we feel that they have no place in a crisis like this. We come out for Colonel Roosevelt as a Republican newspaper, intending to remain Republican, and we feel that in doing so we are doing the best thing not only for the nation but for the Republican party.

We might have preferred another leader, but there is no other leader. Justice Hughes might have spoken if he had been free to speak. Indeed, we feel sure he would have spoken, and for Americanism, had silence not been imposed upon him, and then we should have preferred him. But the plain fact is that he did not speak, that he could not speak.

If the Justice should be chosen leader in the fight for a worthier nationalism, he would have to take the torch that Colonel Roosevelt has thus far borne. He would have to accept an issue that meant its most only in another man's hands. Surely in the transfer we should lose our pride. As a people we should feel that we had hung back, that we hadn't "gone the limit" in the true American way. The governments of Europe would feel this, too. They would conclude that we meant to temporize. Something would be lost of the moral effect of moving straight on under the leadership of the man who represents the purpose of this country as no one else does or can.

The Colonel stands for the things The Tribune stands for. These things will be advanced more by his nomination than by any other nomination that can be made. The Tribune must support him

We are doing more this year than choosing a new President. We are choosing which way the country shall go in the era that is now opening, just as our fathers chose the nation's path in the days of 1860—New York Tribune.

PAPER PRICES STILL CLIMBING

The Outlook this week received from the wholesale paper houses another notice—about the fourth of a similar nature to come to hand during the last month—which reads something like this:

"Another advance in the price of all kinds of paper."

The wholesale price of all sorts blank paper is going skyward. News print paper has advanced over 50 per cent., and the most ordinary bond paper commonly used for typewriter letter paper, has advanced over 75 per cent., and the price is still soaring. Just what the outcome will be no one can foretell, but there is one thing certain, if the prices go much higher, all kinds of paper will be held at a premium in a few more weeks and the use of same for all purposes will be curtailed to the minimum.

Oscar W. Bamberger of the Carrizozo Trading Company is in El Paso this week on business

HELD ON GRAVE CHARGE

A most serious charge was before Justice Massie yesterday afternoon in which W. H. Cavanaugh of Tecolote was plaintiff and one Florentino Flores the defendant. It was charged that on Wednesday night Flores in company with three other Mexicans entered the dwelling of Cavanaugh who is advanced in years, and as the victim lived alone the old man found himself completely at the mercy of his ruthless assailants. Besides being mercilessly beaten and threatened with death at the points of three rifles, Cavanaugh was robbed of some $400 cash—in fact the house was completely rifled, even the supply of provisions being taken by the villainous quartette of scoundrels.

Local officers hastened to the scene with all possible speed and arrested four Mexicans as suspects. Mr. Cavanaugh was able to definitely identify only one of them as his assailant, so Flores who was unquestionably one of the band was retained in default of $2000 bond to await in a local cell the action of the next district court. The other three hombres could not be positively connected with the affair and although they were duly set at liberty, they continue under the officers' surveillance while the search for the absolute establishing of the guilt is being prosecuted.

All the community is filled with repugnance at the extreme cowardice and atrocity of this outrage and the best wishes of all good men attend the officers as they strive to run the other three to earth. Necessarily the task is a difficult one owing to the solitary life which Mr. Cavanaugh led as foreman of a gang of laborers at this E. P. & S. W. way station.

CHURCH ENTERTAINMENT

At the Methodist Church next Friday evening, April 28th, there will be an entertainment of shadow pictures, and if you miss it you will miss something unique and comic. The best musical talent in town will aid in making this program first class. The small sum of ten cents will admit you regardless of age. The proceeds will be applied on the church debt and the ladies of the Bible class solicits your patronage.

BUYS CARRIZOZO LIVERY

William Barnett made a deal with Chas. A. Stevens Tuesday of this week and is now owner of the Carrizozo Livery Stable. He will continue to operate his feed store, coal supply, and wagon and feed yard on El Paso Avenue. His reputation along these lines is too well established locally to admit of extensive comment. Suffice it to say Bill is out for business and is ready to serve you efficiently.

MRS. CATHER ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Cather entertained Saturday afternoon at her home at the Peter's residence in Highland addition. Whist afforded the amusement of the afternoon after which a delicious two course luncheon was served.

Table decorations appropriate of the Easter tide were in evidence and small Easter baskets made in water colors were presented to each guest. A pleasant afternoon was spent. Those invited were: Mesdames W. C. McDonald, J. F. Kimbell, W. H. Osborn, A. J. Rolland, R. T. Lucas, W. L. Gumm, Geo. J. Dingwall, J. B. French and Miss Mildred Peters

WILLOW SPRINGS MINE TO BE MODERNIZED

The New Owner Has Big Plans and Ample Resources to Put Them Through to the Smallest Detail

NEW AND MODERN MACHINERY WILL BE INSTALLED

The syndicate which has taken over the Willow Springs Coal properties has big plans and ample resources to put them through to the smallest detail. Realizing the possibilities of this great deposit of mineral coal Geo. C. Benedict, the new managing owner, and his associates will completely modernize every feature of the mechanical operation. The passages into the mine will be enlarged, larger cars put in operation, a new hoist and machinery for its manipulation. One feature which the former owner had to combat was the lack of houses to take care of the employes. Accordingly the erection of five dwelling houses will be begun immediately, and more will doubtless be provided as the increased production of the mine calls for additional operations.

It is the intention of the new owners to operate this valuable property to the tune of one hundred tons per day in the near future. Just as soon as the new machinery makes this capacity possible things will be on the go as never before in the history of this project.

It is declared that negotiations will be entered into in due time with the E. P. & S. W. for the construction of a spur from the present leading point on the main line, up to the mine property and that they have the full intention of taking this important matter into their own hands if the railroad authorities are not inclined. The natural route offers a course with an easy gradient over comparatively even ground, making the problem of constructing such a road an easy one. The editor has personally visited the property since its change of ownership and the latent possibilities of this wonderful vein of coal, which the mining of time past has not more than opened a passage way 500 feet into the mountainside is bound to impress even the most untutored as the 60 inch vein of solid coal, the valuable caking variety, meets the eyes. Boost and watch results.

TAKING CENSUS

Undersheriff John B. Baird is taking the census of the proposed corporate limits of the town of Carrizozo. It is confidently expected that the required 1500 residents will be found with a goodly margin to spare. The work of enumeration is being systematically prosecuted and with this work successfully concluded, another milestone toward the goal of incorporation will be safely passed.

Andrew Duncan arrived Monday from Murphysboro, Illinois, and will spend a few months here visiting his sister, Mrs. Thos. O. Luster.
