HUGHES' SPEECH OF ACCEPTANCE

Republican Presidential Nominee Plays Past Policy of Wilson Administration. Scores Foreign Relations

SAYS WEAKNESSES CAUSE HATRED OF MEXICO

Following are a few of the extracts taken from the speech of acceptance of Chas. E. Hughes, Republican nominee for president delivered at Carnegie Hall in New City Monday evening

"This occasion is more than a mere ceremony of notification. We are not here to indulge in formal expressions. We come to state in a plain and direct manner our faith, our purpose and our pledge. This representative gathering is a happy augury. It means the strength of reunion. It means that the party of Lincoln is restored, alert, effective. It means the unity of a common perception of paramount national needs.

PERIOD IS CRITICAL

"It means that we are neither deceived nor numbed by abnormal conditions. We know that we are in a critical period, perhaps more critical than any period since the civil war. We need a dominant sense of national unity; the exercise of our best constructive powers; the vigor and resourcefulness of quick America. We desire that the Republican party as a great liberal party shall be the agency of national achievement, the organ of the effective expression of dominant Americanism

DEFINITION OF AMERICANISM

"What do I mean by that? I mean America, conscious of power, awake to obligations, erect in self respect prepared for every emergency, devoted to the ideals of peace, devoted to the spirit of human brotherhood, safeguarding both individual opportunity and the public interest, maintaining a well ordered constitutional system adopted to local self government without the sacrifice of essential national authority, appreciating the necessity of stability, expert knowledge and thorough organization, as the indispensable conditions of security and progress; a country loved by its citizens with a patriotic fervor permitting no division in their allegiance and no rivals in their affection—I mean America first and America efficient. It is in this spirit that I respond to your summons.

FOREIGN RELATIONS OF GRAVE IMPORTANCE

"Our foreign relations have assumed grave importance in the past three years. The conduct of diplomatic intercourse is in the keeping of the executive. It rests chiefly with him whether we shall show competence or incompetence, whether the national honor shall be maintained, whether our prestige and influence shall be lowered or advanced

"What is the record of the administration? The first duty of the executive was to command the respect of the world by the personnel of our state department and our representation abroad. No party exigency could excuse the non performance of this obvious obligation. Still after making every allowance for certain commendable appointments, it is apparent that this obligation was not performed

WEAKNESS SHOWN IN START

"At the beginning of the present administration where, in the direction of the diplomatic intercourse, there should have been conspicuous strength and expertness. Instead of assuring respect, we invited distrust of our competence and speculation as to our capacity for firmness and decision, thus entailing many difficulties which otherwise easily could have been escaped

GOOD MEN SHELVED

"Then in numerous instances, notably in Latin America where such a course was particularly reprehensible, and where we desire to encourage the most friendly relations, men of long diplomatic experience, whose knowledge and training were of special value to the country were retired from the service, apparently for no other reason than to meet partisan demands in the appointment of inexperienced persons. There, as in Santo Domingo, we had assumed an important special trust in the interest of the people, that trust was shockingly betrayed in order to satisfy 'deserving Democrats.' The record showing the administration's disregard of its responsibilities with respect to our representation in diplomacy is an open book and the specifications may easily be had. It is a record revealing professions belied. It is a dismal record to those who believe in Americanism

REMOVAL OF HERRICK

"Take, for example, the withdrawal of ambassador Herrick from France. There he stood, in the midst of alarms, the very embodiment of courage, of poise, of executive capacity, universally trusted and beloved. No diplomat ever won more completely the affections of a foreign people and there was no better fortune of their country than to have at the capital at any one time of the belligerent nations a representative thus esteemed. Yet, the administration permitted itself to supersede him.

"The point is not that the man was ambassador Herrick nor that the nation was France, but that we invited the attention of the world to the inexcusable yielding of national interest to party expediency. It was a lamentable sacrifice of international reputation. If we would have the esteem of foreign nations we must deserve it. We must show our regard for special knowledge and experience. I propose that we shall make the agencies of our diplomatic intercourse, in every nation, worthy of the American name

LAMENTABLE BLUNDERS IN MEXICO

"The dealings of the administration with Mexico constitute a confused chapter of blunders. We have not helped Mexico. She lies prostrate, impoverished, famine stricken, overwhelmed with the woes and outrages of internecine strife, the helpless victim of a condition of anarchy which the course of the administration only served to promote.

"For ourselves, we have witnessed the murder of our citizens and the destruction of their property. We have made enemies, not friends. Instead of commanding respect and deserving good will by sincerity, firmness and consistency, we provoked apprehension and deep resentment. In the light of the conduct of the administration no one could understand its professions. Decrying interference, we interfered most exasperatingly. We have not even kept out of actual conflict, and the soil of Mexico is stained with the blood of our soldiers. We have resorted to physical invasion, only to retire without gaining the professed object. It is a record which cannot be examined without a sense of humiliation

HUERTA WAS EXECUTIVE IN FACT

"When the administration came into power, Huerta was exercising authority as provisional president

CHEER HUBBELL AT COUNTY MEETING

Bernalillo County Convention Instruct Delegates to Vote for Sheep King for the Senatorial Nomination

CLOCK-LIKE REGULARITY CHIEF APPARENT FEATURE

Albuquerque, N. M. August, 2—The delegation elected to the state convention by the Republican county convention today was instructed for Frank A. Hubbell for United States senator. The instructing resolution was adopted unanimously and without discussion. Cheers greeted Mr. Hubbell's name and he was cheered when he arose to speak at the wind up of the convention. Republicanism's record in this county alone justified the party demand that Republicans be given the reins of office in county and state. Bernalillo asked only one place on the state ticket. 'We Will go to Santa Fe asking only that Frank Hubbell be named for United States senator' (Applause.)

Following a recess the convention organized permanently. The Hubbell endorsement and a brief exposition of loyalty to Republican principles were presented in one resolution prepared by the resolutions committee. The resolution follows: Albuquerque, N. M. Aug 1 1916

Your committee on resolutions begs leave to report. That it heartily endorses the platform of the Republican party adopted at its national convention in Chicago, and the candidacy of the Hon. Charles Evans Hughes for president, and the Hon. Charles W. Fairbank, for vice president, as the nominee and standard bearers of the Republican party; and that it leaves to the representatives of the Republican party in state convention assembled on the 23rd day of August, 1916, to adopt the platform enunciating the party principles and defining the local issues upon which the party solicits the support of the voters of New Mexico in the coming election

Your committee therefore reports the following resolution:

Resolved: That the delegates elected in this convention to represent the county of Bernalillo be, and they are hereby instructed to support and vote for the nomination in the Republican state convention to be held at Santa Fe on August 22nd, 1916, of our worthy fellow citizen the Honorable Frank A. Hubbell of Bernalillo county, as the candidate of the Republican party for the United States senate in the coming election

Respectfully submitted,

R. P. Barnes,
Alfred Grunsfeld,
Nestor Montoya,
Guy L. Rogers,
Max Nordhaus

The resolution was read in English and in Spanish and Mr. Hubbell's name was greeted with a tumult of handclapping at each reading. While a committee of five composed of Sheriff Jesus Romero, County Assessor Fred B. Hryn, Don J. Rankin, Nicholas Ortega, and Jesus Gutierrez, was making up a slate of delegates, Mr. Hubbell made his speech.

The Republicans of the nation felt assured of victory, Mr. Hubbell said. Victory was in the air. The party was united, and the people of the country in general as well as members of the Republican party felt that it was necessary for the country's welfare to elect a Republican president, senate and house of representatives.

Four years ago, Mr. Hubbell said, the Republicans were defeated by the division of the party. Conditions at that time were different

While the county was prosperous, at the same time it was felt that something was done at the Chicago convention that was not right and just. So the Democrats stepped into power. The people today were weary of Democratic rule and policies. They saw the necessity of putting Republicans in office.

Turning to state politics Mr. Hubbell warned his adherents that there would be a hard fight at the Santa Fe convention. There were as many candidates for each office as there were fingers on his hands. When they went to Santa Fe they would have to be united if they hoped to accomplish anything for the state and the county.

Mr. Hubbell at that point made an earnest plea for loyalty to the party. However the convention turned out, he said, they must all forget their own ambitions and disappointments and work for the success of the party and the party ticket. The people of New Mexico and the Democrats of New Mexico knew that there was no chance to elect Democratic candidates unless the Republicans divided. It had been the custom for five or ten years for Republicans dissatisfied with the outcome of conventions or the distribution of plums to join with independents or Democrats. That was not Republicanism. They must stand by the party.

Mr. Hubbell congratulated the people, the voters, the leaders and the Republicans of Bernalillo county on the fact that never before had he seen the party united as it was now. Be candidates, if they wished, he counseled, but stick to the party. There was a great movement afoot in the county to put everybody out of the court house and put new men in. That was all right. It was well to remember that the office seekers had rights. If they could get the nominations, well and good. But if they were beaten they should take their medicine.

Mr. Hubbell counseled the delegates to the state convention to be on their guard and to hang together. They were not to let any one divide them.

ATTEND MICHAELIS FUNERAL

Henry Lutz and Jake Ziegler left Wednesday afternoon for El Paso where they attended the funeral of R. Michaelis the following day. Mr. Michaelis was a former Lincoln County man and for many years was in the mercantile business with Mr. Lutz at Lincoln. Death occurred in the state of Michigan where Mr. Michaelis had gone a short time ago for a little recreation. During his residence in this county he was regarded as one of the leading citizens and took an active part in politics, being at one time county treasurer of this county.

TWO COUPLE MARRY MONDAY

Carl Bell and Miss Barth Shields of Meek were united in marriage here Monday, Judge Ed. Massie performing the ceremony. Shortly after the nuptials were read they left for Meek where they will make their future home. At 5 o'clock of the same day the Judge also performed the ceremony that united the lives of S. M. Savage and Raulah M. Stark of Swearingen, Texas.

Judge John Y. Hewitt was here on a business trip from his home at White Oaks Wednesday. The Judge is recovering from a slight illness of a few weeks' duration.

W. G. Thoraborrow arrived in Carrizozo the first of the week from Canton, Ill., to look after his mining property in the vicinity of Nagal Peak.

NEW HOMESTEAD LAW NOW IN EFFECT

Homesteaders Can Now File on Additional Land Without it Being Contiguous to Original Entry

SETTLER CAN FILE ON LANDS REGARDLESS OF LOCATION

Circular No. 485, explaining the provisions of the Enlarged Homestead Act, amended under the act of congress of July 3, 1916, has been issued to the registers and receivers of United States land offices in all states including within their border public lands available for entry.

The original act provided for entry on 160 acres and in 1909 this act was amended by the passage of an act providing for the further entry by applicant for appropriation of additional lands amounting to 160 acres, where such additional lands were contiguous to the original homestead making possible the acquisition by settlers of a tract embracing 320 acres, of free government land.

Under act of July 3, 1916, the restriction limiting applicants to filings on only such lands as were contiguous to the original homestead, has been removed and the settler is now permitted to file upon any additional lands, regardless of its location. The provisions of the act extend the privilege of the settlers from the government lands in one state to those of any other. The act makes possible the selection of a single homestead of 160 acres in any location and the further entry upon additional lands in tracts of 40, 80 or 160 acres in different states provided the land is properly designated.

ALLEN-REILY

A very pretty wedding took place at the Methodist Parsonage Monday afternoon when Sam Allen and Miss Kitty Reily of this city were united in marriage in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride.

Rev. E. D. Lewis in a very impressive manner performed the ceremony that united the lives of the two.

Both of these young people are well known in this city and have many friends and acquaintances who wish them extreme happiness in their wedded lives. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. M. Reily and has always been a favorite in the home as well as among her friends.

The groom has resided in Carrizozo for the past 9 years where he has held a run out of here as a conductor on the El Paso & Southwestern railroad and is a man of good domestic habits and well liked and held in high esteem by his friends.

The following evening after the ceremony they left for El Paso where they will spend a short honeymoon after which they will return to Carrizozo and go to housekeeping in the Tennis property recently vacated by Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Kelley.

The Outlook joins their many friends in extending congratulations and wishing that they may have smooth sailing on the broad sea of matrimony.

A telegram was received here the first of the week bearing the sad intelligence that Chas. Estes a former Carrizozo resident had met his death at Trinidad, Colorado on a C. & S. train. None of the particulars surrounding his death were given, Mr. Estes when here was in the employ of the E. P. & S. W. and left here a few years ago and located in the state of Colorado with his family. He is survived by a wife and three children.
