BURSUM'S STATEMENT

against me and re-published them

continuously during that campaign with increased venom and added falsehoods. My friends besought me curing that campaign to bring the owners of the Journal to account by the only means open to a citizen so assailed—a proceeding in the courts. I refused to this because I was averse to taking any step which would lay me open to the charge of seeking to "muzzle" a newspaper, or of using the libel law of this state to intimidate owners of newspapers opposed to my election who might not be as substantially backed with money as is the management of the Journal. I believed, also, that the unreasonableness of these slanders, in view of the public court records in the matter, and the apparent malice with which they were published would be clear to every unprejudiced citizen. I believed then and believe now that the people of New Mexico did not believe me a thief and a destroyer of public records. I have had no reason to change my opinion as to the general effect upon the public mind of the publication of these slanders I know from the returns of 1911 and from personal conversations which my friends have had with thousands of our citizens and which I have had with hundreds of others of our people, that these charges were not believed by the great mass of the people. I know that it was not these libels which brought about my defeat in 1911, but that it was due to a division among Republicans in two normally Republican counties which gave a vote against me sufficient to defeat my election.

I am convinced now that my friends who urged me to act against this newspaper, during the campaign of 1911, were right and that I was wrong. I am again the candidate of the Republican party for Governor of New Mexico. I know that my candidacy has the approval and cordial support of all Republicans, as well as the heartiest and most active backing of my principal opponent for the nomination and of all his friends. I am, therefore, the representative not of my personal interests and of a personal candidacy for office, but I am the Representative of a great political party, constituting in its membership, as I believe, a majority of the people of our State.

The Morning Journal has once more renewed its false and libelous attacks upon him. It has again charged that I am a corruptionist, that I falsified the accounts of the Territorial penitentiary and that I destroyed or caused to be destroyed the books of record of that institution.

The owner, the managing officer and the responsible editorial employees of the Morning Journal know, beyond all possibility of doubt, that their charges against me are false and without pretense of foundation. The facts, supported by indisputable evidence, have been laid before them. There is no chance of misinformation on their part and there is no possible excuse upon any ground of ignorance. D. G. Grant, the owner of the Journal, and D. A. Macpherson, its manager, and its responsible editorial employees know that the statements they have caused to be printed in recent issues of the Journal, and directed against me, are lies.

These men know that not a cent of the prison funds during my wardenship remains unaccounted for in scrupulous detail.

These men know that not only was there no shortage or misapplication of funds but that the Territory, in a suit for final accounting which I caused to be brought, was found to owe me $4,335.56, which sum was paid to me under an execution issued with the judgment given in open court and after a full public hearing.

These men know that no book of record of the prison kept during my wardenship has ever been burned or otherwise destroyed, and that all such books were produced in court during the trial of the case above referred to and that all such books are now safely kept and available for reference.

I have not made this statement to the people of New Mexico before because I have believed and now believe that you know the charges brought against me by this newspaper to be false and made for political purposes. I make this statement to you now simply because I feel it is due to the people before whom I stand as a candidate, to tell you frankly and fully about my attitude now and in the past before I proceed to punish this newspaper for the wrong it has so persistently sought to do me. I shall now take the only course open to a citizen who has been wronged—a proceeding in a court of justice. The recent reporting by the Morning Journal of the malicious lies about me makes it necessary now that I act in my own defense, in defense of the party whose standard bearer I am, and in defense of the honor and peace of mind of those whose welfare is dearer to me than any office or any political reward.

I have placed the above facts before you as clearly and as fully as I am able to state the facts in this case, and so that you will understand the reasons which have caused me to instruct my attorneys to file immediately a suit for $100,000 against D. G. Grant, owner of the Journal, D. A. Macpherson, its manager, and the Journal Publishing Company, individually and as a corporation, for deliberate and malicious lies that my further instructions are that this suit be brought in the district court at Alamosa, the home of the Journal, and that to be pressed with all possible speed.
