"Title Talks"

The Business of Abstracting

The business of Abstracting titles is of comparatively recent growth. As lands increase in value, the need of title security becomes more and more imperative.

It is just as sensible to safeguard the title to a thousand dollar vac-cant lot or to any other property, as it is to keep your thousand dollar bond under lock and key.

PROTECTION IN EITHER CASE IS THE THING SOUGHT.

Good titles make real estate as negotiable as stocks and bonds.
There is no way of being sure about the title except by the help of an abstract by a reliable company.

north of McIntosh, is now at cold winter, and he wishes he were back in the Sunshine State.

gram today stating that his daughter at Gallup was not improving, and that she would be operated upon for appendicitis tomorrow. He left for Gallup on the evening train.

J. B. Wood came in this noon from Magdalena, where he has been in charge of the convicts from the State Penitentiary now employed on the Camino Real.
The high altitude has given Mr.
Wood an attack of rheumatism which he hopes to eradicate by a change to farm life.

E. H. Ayers brought in some snnyles of his parsnips today and they are surely beauties.
The longest one was broken off in pulling, but is seventeen in-measured twelve and one-half inches in circumference and weighed one pound and nine ounces.

C. E. Cowan, Fred Stevens, locate on the west coast. They will go by way of the San Luis tains.

the home folks. He has not decided whether he will stay there the coming summer or not.

An election has been called for this school district, to be held in the News-Herald office on the first Monday in April. One director is to be elected. The present board is composed of J. L. Stubblefield, J. H. Buckalew, and P.

that Mr. Speckmann is the member whose term expires.
