LOCAL ITEMS

J. B. Larragoite has gone to Valde to look after his fruit farm.

J. E. Braxton is moving into his recently acquired dwelling in Alta Vista.

It is evident that nearly all the people who were taken in by the fake prize fight at Las Vegas are pretty thoroughly disgusted. They are not saying much, but in this case silence is eloquent. The fight didn't take much money from this county.

There will be a big social dance in the new hall recently built by A. Gutierrez at Chilili on July 26th, to which everybody is cordially invited. It is expected that this will be one of the biggest affairs of the kind ever pulled off in that vicinity, and those who fail to attend will miss a good time. There will be good music and good order. Don't fail to go.

Raymond Sanchez, the hustling Chilili merchant, was in Estancia Saturday looking after business matters. Mr. Sanchez brought over some samples of field crops that show the Chilili country to be right in the front rank this year. Samples of wheat, oats, rye and alfalfa more than waist high give assurance that the Chilili people will have plenty to keep the wolf from the door.

You will often hear the opinion expressed that there are very few honest men in the world, but we have always believed that this is a libel. Be that as it may, Estancia has one that has proven himself to belong to that class. Take off your hat to Santiago Sanchez, for he is the man. On Thursday Mrs. J. W. Williams lost a purse containing upward of $80. Mr. Sanchez found it and returned it to her. The home of Mr. Sanchez is in Tajique, but at present he is working in Estancia as janitor of the court house. In the person of Mr. Sanchez the punctilious honor of Old Spain finds a worthy representative. The men who drove the Moors from Granada inculcated ideas of personal chivalry and honor which persist to the present generation of their descendants and find worthy exemplars in the native population of New Mexico today.

J. B. Woods, who is doing road work in the vicinity of Albuquerque, was in town Saturday. He came over to look after matters on his ranch in the Lucia vicinity. He reports crops looking very good in his neighborhood.

Flynn may be there when it comes to scooping in the coal, but it takes Brudder Jonsing to scoop in the coin.

J. W. Brashears came in Friday from a business trip to the north.

Miss Elmer Tuttle returned Friday from her homestead, where she had been looking after improvements.

A No 1 hay baler for sale. Inquire at this office.

Z. R. Williams, who had been visiting his sons here several months, returned Friday to his home in San Angelo, Texas.

Earl Moulton of Lucia, and Allan McGillivray passed through town Thursday with their autos, going to the celebration at Moriarty.

S. A. Goldsmith was in Estancia a few hours Friday evening enroute to Texas to see his wife. We understand that Mrs. Goldsmith is not improving in health.

Preaching in the Christian church next Sunday, forenoon and evening.

The revival announced last week will begin in the M. E. church on the 12th, under the direction of J. H. Crawford and wife. We ask every body to attend these services and the cooperation of all Christian people. We are expecting a salvation time. We have not yet heard from our singers Bro. and Sister Robinson but we expect them here. Be ready to come and hear the singing.

Amos Kuykendall of the Silverton neighborhood departed Monday for a visit at his old home in Kentucky. He has so many commissions to execute for his friends that he will be kept quite busy while there.

Mr. and Mrs. George Alter of Willard were here Monday visiting N. A. Wells.

William Dow, postmaster and merchant of Tajique was transacting business in Estancia Monday.

Sr. Don Jacoba Baca y Sanchez of Pinos Wells was an Estancia visitor Monday.

Rev. Julius Hartman held services at the Catholic church last Sunday evening and Monday morning.

The Estancia Lumber Co. shipped several cars of timbers to the San Pedro mines this week.

J. H. Van Stone was called to Santa Fe Monday to attend to some business matters. He spent several days in the capital.

P. A. Speckmann made a flying trip to Santa Fe, going up on Monday and returning on Tuesday.

A number of people were baptized in Hines' tank last Sunday. Four were baptized by Rev. Grant, and two by Rev. Edwards.

At the Catholic church last Sunday evening the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Meyer was christened. Mrs. Julius Meyer and J. P. Kennedy acted as sponsors for the young man whose name is Marvin Nicholas Meyer.

The Wise Ones all say "I told you so."

Marshall Atkinson of Corona came in Saturday for a visit with his mother.

Earl Moulton of Lucia and A. B. McDonald of Pinos Wells were business visitors in Estancia Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Green returned Friday from the direction of Las Vegas. Mr. Green says they did not see the fight.

H. H. Scherer came in Monday from Santa Rita, N. M., to attend to some business matters. He expects to return to Santa Rita in a few months.

A large number of brethren attended the fight in Las Vegas and coughed up ten bucks to see Johnson and Flynn in their little nine-round farce, who would begrudge ten cents for a seat in church.

Rev. J. Randolph Carver came in Tuesday from Ft. Sumner.

Sr. Don Jose de Jesus Romero, post master at Punta, was in Estancia Tuesday on business.

M. W. Putsch, a St. Joseph hardware drummer called on the trade here Tuesday and was successful in booking several large orders.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Edwards of Mountainair were in the city the early part of the week transacting business.

Mrs. John Berkshire and little daughter Anna May, who have been visiting relatives in Chicago the past month, will return home next Saturday.

Mrs. E. N. Peden and daughter who have been visiting relatives in Ohio and Pennsylvania the past six weeks, are expected home next Monday.

The Bedford mines located east of Estancia are looming up very good. The assays of the ore taken from the mines in the Pedernals are showing up to be of a very high value.

Richard Warren, General Agent of the E. P. & S. W. R. R. was in the Valley this week looking after the business interests of his road.

It is rumored that the N. M. C. will shortly commence the erection of a concrete station building at this point. The amount of business done at this point justifies such an improvement and will be quite a boost for the county seat of Torrance County.

Angus McGillivray, the well known sheep man of Estancia Valley, has been appointed member of the Sheep Sanitary Board of New Mexico. Mr. McGillivray is one of the best stockmen in the new state and Governor McDonald used exceptionally good judgment in making the appointment.

Gran Baile en Chilili el dia 28 de Julio, dia de Santa Ana. Todas son envidadas cordialmente. El baile sera dada en la Sala nueva de Anastacio Gutierrez. La musica sera suplida por Alfredo Martinez.

Some song writer would make a hit with the people of the Meadow City by composing a song entitled "Las Vegas, Never Again."

Geo. Fugatt came in Tuesday on the noon train from Magdalena, N. M., to make the second application to prove up on his claim. The first one was made before Brumback but did not reach the land office.

Estancia was without mail from Monday noon till Tuesday evening. There was no mail clerk on the southbound train Monday evening, and consequently none on the northbound train Tuesday.

A very pleasant evening was spent by ten couples of young folks at the Grant home north of town Monday evening, with the Misses Grant and Atkinson as hostesses. Music, conversation and games, together with dainty refreshments, combined to make a most enjoyable gathering. The young lady hostesses proved themselves most charming in that role, and their guests unite in pronouncing this one of the most delightful evenings of the season.

In the column of professional cards will be found a new one this week reading "R. L. Hitt, Attorney at Law." Mr. Hitt was but recently admitted to the bar but he has had experience in business which puts him on an equality with lawyers of many years in practice. Mr. Hitt will no doubt soon have sufficient law practice to enable him to quit the grind of newspaper work.

Henry Essinger of Santa Fe was in town Tuesday taking orders for bourbon and rye.

During the summer months mothers of young children should watch for any unnatural looseness of the bowels. When given prompt attention at this time serious trouble may be avoided. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy can always be depended upon. For sale by ALL DEALERS.

MARRIED

Miss Ernie Pauline Buckner and L. W. Jackson were married Friday by Rev. W. S. Buckner, brother of the bride, at his home in the Silverton neighborhood.

Both the bride and groom are well known, and have the genuine respect and esteem of every person in their wide circle of acquaintance.

They have the most hearty and cordial good wishes of all who know them for a happy and prosperous wedded life, in which the News-Herald wishes to join.

M'INTOSH ITEMS

Special Correspondence.

McIntosh was well represented at Moriarty the Fourth.

Several farmers are still sowing millet.

Wayne Laws spent the fourth at Santa Fe, returning Saturday with Miss Lella Laws who has been visiting friends.

J. B. Woodall and family have moved on their ranch five miles west of town.

Dr. Woods was called to W. S. Rogers, who was quite ill last week.

G. E. Cissnee just finished planting fifteen acres of millet Saturday.

Dr. Woods has been working on his reservoir, he certainly has a fine one, when full of water it will be seven or eight feet deep.

H. L. Spencer, W. H. Eusminger and John Gloss have each nearly one hundred acres of crop and it is looking fine.

Dysentery is always serious and often a dangerous disease, but it can be cured Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy has cured it even when malignant and epidemic. For sale by ALL DEALERS.

NEW HOME

Special Correspondence.

When it comes to raising chickens New Home is about the place they raise them. Mrs. W. L. Compton has about three hundred she has raised this year. It is a sight to see them in the evening when they have all gathered to take the roost.

Rev. J. W. Russell has returned from his prospecting trip and is better pleased with the Estancia valley. He visited Santa Fe, Taos and Springer, and says he saw many pretty crops, but no corn that comes up with what we have here, the irrigated crops not excepted.

Rev. B. W. Means preached a splendid sermon for us last Sunday. He went from this place to Fairview to begin a meeting that will last several days. He says that Rev. W. C. Grant will be with him in the meeting.

THE FOURTH AT LAS VEGAS

Leaving behind them attachment proceedings, which detained the shipment of some of their effects, Promoter Jack Curley, the more or less Honorable James Flynn, Arthur Greiner and the rest of the promoters of the "safe and sane" celebration of the Fourth of July in Las Vegas, left last night for Chicago. Persons having claims against the promoters are said to have had some difficulty in finding them "at home" yesterday. Mr. Flynn was in a good humor last night for the first time since he struck town. He did not make any great hit with Las Vegas by his rough neck tactics and most of "our fellow townsmen" were delighted to see him whipped.—Las Vegas Optic.

Buy it now. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy is almost certain to be needed before the summer is over. Buy it now and be prepared for such an emergency. For sale by ALL DEALERS.
