LOCAL NEWS.

Circuit court commences first Tuesday in April.

The Board of Supervisors meet Monday, April 9th, next.

Mrs. Bailey Ashby, of Hampton, Va., is visiting Accomac, the guest of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Chandler near Onancock.

The Baptists of Cape Charles and vicinity will hold a "Pink Tea" during Easter, on the evenings of the 2nd and 3rd of April.

When you visit Baltimore stop at the Maltby House, where will be found first-class accommodations and exceedingly low rates.

Everybody ought to buy a roast of fresh beef every week. It is a luxury all can obtain on easy terms by calling at Bundick's, Onancock.

Revel George, better known as "old uncle Rev.," the colored factotum at Savage's hotel, died on Monday of congestive chill, after a few hours illness.

The announcement is made by request, that the next meeting of the "colored teachers association" will be held at Savage's on Saturday, 7th inst.

Mr. L. H. Wyatt, Belle Haven, has just gotten in a very beautiful line of ladies hats and caps, suitable for both old and young and everyone is expected to call who want bargains.

The last services for the Conference year to be conducted by Rev. J. Wright Norris will be held at Leemont M. P. Church tomorrow, commencing at 10 1/2 a. m., and at Conquest Chapel at 3 1/2 p. m. of same day.

Call at Messrs. Ayres Bros. & Co., Pungoteague, for your spring clothing. They have just gotten in a large stock and can sell you suits from $5 to $25. They can furnish you a Prince Albert at half the price a merchant tailor would charge for it.

Parties who desire to take the contract for building the hotel to be erected south of Belle Haven, by Mr. Lucius J. Kellam, are requested to send in their bids at once. The new hotel is to be 3 stories high and 42x52-in fact the largest and handsomest on the Eastern Shore.

We are authorized to announce, that in consequence of the inclement weather on the day of the last regular meeting of the Pungoteague Grange, a special meeting will be held at their Hall on the Fair grounds on Tuesday the 3rd day of April next at 2 p. m. All the members are requested to attend.

Robert, son of M. Oldham, Jr., clerk of the County Court was accidentally hit on the head by a base ball club, by one of his playmates on Thursday and badly hurt. For a considerable time after the blow was received, he was unconscious, but it is now certain that the wound received though ugly and painful, is not dangerous.

Prominent citizens of Delaware, including clergymen and State officials, say that W. T. Bundick manufactured and sold the first ice cream at Georgetown last year that was ever sold in that community. Mr. Bundick will open an excellent ice cream parlor at Onancock this season, and will also wholesale ice cream below city prices—and ship to any point on the Peninsula. Satisfaction guaranteed of no pay.

The Commissioners of the Electoral Board, elected by the last General Assembly have been received by the members thereof from the secretary of the Commonwealth. They are commissioned for the term of four years from the 1st day of January, 1889. Frank M. Boggs, one of the new members has qualified and filed his qualification in the county court clerk's office as required by law. The other two members, Dr. Joseph E. Broadwater and Joseph J. Westcott will doubtless do likewise. It will be observed that the new board do not commence to discharge the functions of their office until after January 1st, 1889, as the term of the old Board does not expire until January 1st, 1889.

Read in another column, the highly commendatory expressions of Rev. Dr. Talmage and others, concerning the Home Library Association of Baltimore and New York. We have thoroughly examined into the plan and advantages of this Association and have pleasure in stating, in these columns, that we believe it to be a public benefaction. It furnishes the world's literature (school books, library books, theological, law, medical and all books) in the best bindings by the retail, at the lowest wholesale rates and to each patron is presented, free, a magnificent quarto volume, which contains more solid and useful information and knowledge than any volume of the kind we have ever seen. This Association is very highly commended in Baltimore and throughout Virginia and the country generally. Also most highly endorsed by its patrons in Accomac, among whom are many of the best citizens of Drummondtown and of our neighboring town Onancock.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Mearsville.

Our dredgers are returning from the Potomac and report dull times in that locality in the oyster business, since Christmas.

The schooner Samuel T. Byrd, belonging to Mr. A. F. Mears and Capt. Stator F. Byrd, is still up "high and dry" on the Guard shore where she was landed by the storm.

The schooner commanded by Capt. Stephen Marshall, after being delayed for 3 weeks by the late storm, has at last "put into port" with a cargo of goods for Mr. A. F. Mears.

A postoffice has been established at this place, with Mr. J. L. Byrd as postmaster, and we are now supplied daily with mail from a point on railroad opposite here and 1 1/2 miles distant.

Our farmers say they will never be able "to catch up" with their work this season, if it continues to rain much longer. Those not possessed of the spirit often slow their impatience by expletives more vigorous than elegant.

Mr Edward Pecor, a native of Canada, but who has lived in our neighborhood for the last 25 years, died recently aged 80 years. A little boy aged 18 months, son of Mr. Henry T. Lanford, and a little girl aged 4 years, daughter of Mr. Straun Taylor, died last week.

Rumors are afloat of the marriage of one of our leading men shortly, but he says that women are so uncertain, that the partnership is by no means assured and in deference to his wishes, their names are withheld for the present.

The measles have visited almost every family in this neighborhood in the last few weeks, and in some instances whole families have been prostrated by the disease. The principal of our public school, Mr. Alfred Barnes, and most of the scholars are among the victims, and have just returned to the school room, "having laid up for repairs" the last 4 weeks.

Hoffman's Wharf.

Capt. T. R. Chandler has succeeded in raising his puny, Fashion, capsized and sunk in the storm of the 12th inst.

Our people are going largely into the fish pond business this year. Last season there was but one firm engaged in the business—this year there will be three.

The American Fish Grano Company are doing a "rushing" business, if we can judge by the time they keep their mills in operation. They run night and day and then it is with difficulty that orders, for the popular fertilizers, Virginian and Ocean guanos, can be filled.

Police schooner Wm. S. Rogers, dismasted while laying at anchor in Pungoteague creek during the late storm, has been towed to Crisfield by steamer Daisy to receive the necessary repairs. Four other vessels are still "high and dry" on the shore here.

The firm of S. K. Martin & Co., this place, deal more largely in building material perhaps, than any on the Eastern Shore. They have now in stock 150,000 cypress shingles, (14 brands from $2.75 to $10 per M.), 40,000 plastering laths, several hundred thousand feet of dry lumber suitable for flooring and other purposes—everything in fact in the building line. In addition they carry a large number of leather top carriages and buggies, which bought for spot cash and in large numbers enables them to sell them at city prices.

Chincoteague.

Miss Massey of Berlin Md., sister of our townsman, Mr. Emory Massey, made a visit to her brother last week.

Our oystermen have commenced to plant seed oysters, and the prices being good this season the "plant" will be very large—in fact will have to be, as the supply on hand ready for market will have been nearly exhausted before the season closes.

Mr. Ira L. Guilford, phenologist, delightfully entertained our people for four evenings last week. He characterizes himself as simpleton, but the impression created here concerning him, was that he was 'one of the master minds.'

Recent arrivals at the Atlantic. J. W. Fields, O. N. Christian, J. V. Gillespie, Phila.; C. W. Snow, John O. Horsey, W. E. Doughty, Baltimore; G. S. Wood-ward, Wilmington, Del.; S. B. Goff, H. M. Mallory, Camden, N. J.; Ira L. Guilford, Ridgely, Md.; H. Seymour, Norfolk; L. W. Childrey, Onancock.

The public schools will close here on the 30th of April, but private schools, conducted by some teachers will be continued two months longer for the reasonable tuition fee of $1 per month. It is hardly necessary to add that they ought to be and will be liberally patronized.

Capt Jack Sneed of B., counsellor, guide and friend of the sports of Philadelphia who has visited Chincoteague this season, was in turn entertained by them in the Quaker city last week, and the sights which he saw there and did not see are being retailed to citizens here at this writing, with the prospect that the retail is not near yet.

A "kicking gun" broke the collar bone of Mr. Thos. H. Linton, while out gunning last Monday.

The fishing business is a growing industry with us. There was only one fish-pond in our waters last season—this year there are five.

Messrs. Wm. H. Williams and William Allen, his son-in-law, exchanged shots here, at 30 paces apart, Friday of last week. The weapons used being shot guns. A daughter of W. wants to marry y and the father opposing, she sought Allen's home as a place of refuge—hence the difficulty. No one was seriously hurt. Both have been indicted by grand jury with intent to maim, and as the matter is to be investigated through the proper channels, an expression of opinion as to who was in fault is unnecessary.

Leemont.

Miss Elso Evans, who opened a private school last Monday, made a most excellent beginning. Others are expected to join soon.

Miss Etta E. Johnson left here last Monday morning for Philadelphia, where she will purchase a large stock and assortment of millinery goods for the spring opening.

Levin Justice, Wm. B. Lewis and Capt. H. Fitzgerald, the heaviest losers in the recent storm, will commence to repair damages done to their buildings, wharves, &c., as soon as the weather permits.

Miss Mary Wharton, daughter of Rev. J. S. Wharton of the Baptist Church, who is highly esteemed by all who knew her, will leave here on next Monday for an extended trip to Florida.

Rev. A. J. Walter and wife are expected to make a short visit soon to the parents of the latter. The former will attend the Maryland Annual Conference of the M. P. Church which meets in Broadway church of the same denomination in Baltimore, on April 4th.

Oliver P. T. Ewell, wife and child, after a visit of 7 months or more to their friends and relatives, left on the 26th inst. for Kiowa, Kansas. This entire community regrets very much their departure, and will hear with great pleasure their safe arrival.

Messrs. Stanley Lewis, McCreary, Causey, and Parker Parks have each donated four feet front of their premises for the purpose of widening and improving street from Johnson's store to Bridge. The thanks of the public here are most cordially extended.

The oyster supper and festival given by the Ladies Beneficial Society of the Leemont Baptist Church—a notice of which appeared in a recent number of your valuable paper, proved a grand success. A large number of persons were present from the village and neighborhood, also several young ladies from a distance with their escorts, who added much to the entertainment. A handsome sum was realized and all seemed to enjoy themselves.

Expressions Concerning The Home Library Association.

From Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, D. D., Brooklyn, N. Y.: The Home Library Association impresses me as most practical and useful. It will bring the world's literature within easy reach of all the people. I praise and commend it.

From Miss Francis Willard, President of the National Women's Christian Temperance Union: Among the new and ingenious methods of bringing standard literature into the homes and within the means of our people I have learned of none more advantageous, practical and effective than that devised by the Home Library Association. This method does away with the profits of wholesale, retail and jobbing book merchants and places the advantage where it belongs, namely, with the people.

Also similar expressions from Rev. W. J. Twilley, Rev. Wm. Chinn and Rev. John McAnab of Drummondtown, and Rev. R. A. Compton, Rev. J. W. Huntley, Rev. Jas. W. Easley and Messrs. G. G. Joyes, Frank P. Brent and W. C. Marshall of Onancock, all of whom, with many others, are patrons of the Home Library Association.

Accomac and Delaware Truckers in Council.

A committee representing the Delaware State Grange met the committee of the Accomac Truckers and Fruit Growers Association, on Wednesday, at Onancock to investigate the charges preferred by the latter against the N. Y., P. & N. R. The Delaware committee was ably represented. A conference was held in the Town Hall. A large amount of documentary evidence was submitted, showing the discrimination against our trucks by the railroad in freights and delivery of perishable products, how they are charged heavy discriminatory rates, are carried on slow trains and delivered late, after market hours.

The quick witted drayman of both New York and Philadelphia have dubbed these trains the "slow come poke" trains. The Delaware Grangers have employed able counsel, collected much evidence and raised funds to carry the case before the Inter-State Commerce Commissioners, who will hold a session at Dover sometime within the next six weeks to hear the complaints against the road. It is proposed to hold a meeting at Onancock on Saturday afternoon, April 7th, when it is hoped every farmer and all others interested in this matter will attend. The matter is one of the most vital importance to our people, and if any action is taken, it is necessary that it be done as soon as possible. Let all who can, attend the meeting.
