

A cross-mark on your paper, before your name, made with pen and ink, indicates that your subscription has expired, or is due, and you are respectfully solicited to remit or renew.

LOCAL NEWS.

A change of schedule of N. Y. P. & N. R. R., appears in this issue.

Five fine Havana cigars are for sale for 10 cents, at Burdick's, Onancock.

Come to court next Monday and bring us the dollar you owe on subscription to ENTERPRISE.

When you visit Baltimore stop at the Mallory House, where will be found first-class accommodations at exceedingly low rates.

Mrs. Josephine Matthews an estimable lady, and wife of R. W. Matthews, died at her home near Leemont on the 26th inst., after a long illness, aged 40 years.

Read the inducements offered to purchasers in this issue by Messrs. G. B. Fosque & Co., and W. R. Hallett, Onancock, and L. H. Ames, Son, Pungoteague.

Mr. J. S. T. Truitt, deputy collector for this district will be at Drummondtown, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 1st and 2nd next, for the accommodation of special tax payers.

The announcement is made by request of the president, Rev. W. A. Street, that the Farmers Mutual Protection Insurance Co., will meet at Mapesville, Saturday, 5th day of May, 2 p. m. Important business demands the presence of all the members.

Richard T. Ames, trustee, will sell at public auction, on Tuesday, May 15th, next, at 2 p. m., on the premises, a portion of the land of which Samuel Ashby died seized and possessed, containing 47 acres of arable land and 35 acres of woodland.

A handsome line of spring and summer goods are now being purchased in the northern cities for Messrs. W. J. Hall & Son, and the millinery establishment of Mrs. W. J. Hall, Messrs. which will be sold cheap for cash, and purchasers who want bargains are requested to call early.

Mrs. Jennie Mears, Keller, has just arrived from the city, with a very large and select stock of millinery goods, dress trimmings and notions of all kinds. She returns thanks to her patrons for past favors and requests an early call from them, if they wish anything in her line at the lowest possible prices.

Petitions are to be circulated shortly for signatures in Lee District, looking for another vote on the local option question. If the required number of signers can be obtained, it is proposed to lay the matter before the Judge by 1st of May and ask for an election about 1st of June.

At a meeting of Ocean Lodge, No. 116, at Wachapreague City, Wednesday, April 25th, Messrs. Thos. C. Kellam and John D. Grant, two of the trustees, were appointed to offer for sale at public auction, on the 1st Monday in May, next, the Masonic Hall at Accomac, C. D. An advertisement of same will appear in our next issue.

J. H. Feddemore of the firm of Ingham & DeLach, is now on a visit to our merchants and should be and deftly is the recipient of numerous calls at their hands. The wise merchant always buys of the man who has the confidence and who can always be relied on as in case of the tourist in question, to deal justly with them.

J. W. Godwin, formerly of this city, but now a prosperous commission merchant at Wilmington, Delaware, was a welcome visitor to our office. He has associated with him in his business, Mr. Geo. W. Godwin, as will be by a card which appears elsewhere. The firm deserves and we are glad to say receives the liberal patronage of our people.

Mrs. J. H. Seward & Co., Baltimore, popular with so many of our former commission merchants, as will be by their advertisement in this issue will continue to serve the people here, and our countryman Mr. John J. Guthrie, who has said so acceptably our people as agent for several years, will, as will be by his advertisement in this issue, represent them another year.

Recent postal from Mr. Henry C. We. Sr., our countryman, now at Lough Lough, quotes sales of cabbage at $2.25 to $3.25 per bushel, potatoes at $2.50 per bushel, round beans, wax beans and flat beans at $1 to $2.50 per cent, tomatoes at $1.50 to $2.50 per cent, cucumbers at $3 to $3.50 per cent, egg plants at $3 to $5 per crate. Evidently early trucking in the Land of Flers pays a profit.

Following is published by request of J. John McNabb: "The annual contribution of a dollar by each member of the church toward the 'Continued' fund, sometimes called the Bishop's fund, is now due, and I am anxious receive and forward it at once to the treasurer thereof. Also the 'Diocesan Missionary Fund' will be collected. The different treasurers and turned over to me for transmission to the Com. which meets next month."

Oysters are still being shipped from this point but in much smaller quantities than they were earlier in the season.

The schooner Peter J. Hart sailed on last Tuesday for Chesapeake. She will be freighted on her return with oyster plants for our waters.

Mrs. Hannah Young, wife of Capt. E. K. Young, is critically ill. She has been a sufferer of many months and her death is hourly expected.

The extreme cold weather has greatly retarded the growth of all kinds of trucks in upper Accomac, and they are more backward than they have been for many years past.

Rev. and Mrs. Jester moved their effects from this place last week to Show Hill, their new home for the present. They were very popular here and our people were glad to part with them.

Mapesville.

The firm of Humphreys & Nock have dissolved partnership. Mr. Nock succeeds to the business.

Eugene R. Mason is here to spend a short time with his family. When he returns to New York he proposes to take his family with him.

Walter Outten of Philadelphia, whose parents were former residents of this county, with his bride, are on a visit to A. S. Mathews, Esq., of Temperanceville.

Rev. Richard Walsh proposes to remain permanently with us, having purchased four lots in this village recently, which he intends to immediately improve.

Elisha Curtis of Manassas, N. J., has purchased a lot near the village and is making preparations to erect a dwelling thereon. Oliver Baker, George T. Gillespie and E. R. Mason are all preparing lumber for new dwellings in or near this place.

The Mutual Live Stock Association, with headquarters here, having been incorporated by recent act of the Legislature of Va. is now prepared for business. All interested in the Association are invited to meet at this place at 2 p. m., of the first Saturday in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Yate of London, England, are on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Howe of this village. Mr. Yate having purchased a new building lot proposes to erect a dwelling thereon and pass the warm seasons with us. Florida is preferred by himself and wife as a winter home.

Quarterly Conference of M. E. Church held here Saturday, April 28th, 7.30 p. m., at Hall. Sunday services—communion at 10.30 a. m., and preaching by P. E. Rev. A. D. Davis at Good Will, 2.30 p. m., and at Hall at 7.30 p. m.

The lot of Mr. James Jester, of Laguel Point, laden with groceries purchased in our town, was capsized on his return home, with the loss of all of same except a barrel of flour. A vessel wrecked near by rescued him from his perilous situation.

Schooner Samuel H. Haines, which went ashore in the upper part of the bay during the March blizzard, has been gotten off by Capt. John D. Wheaton, under a contract with the owner for the sum of $300, at an expense of about $200. The schooner is valued at $6,000 and is only slightly damaged.

Recent arrivals at Atlantic Dr. M. W. West, Washington, D. C., J. R. Franklin, J. F. Hudson, Piddie, J. H. Peddie, M. W. H. Andrews, W. H. Johnson, Md., C. E. Mumford & Son, Spencer, Md., Geo. F. Parramore, S. D. Fletcher, John E. Wise, Accomac, Va.

A three masted schooner, James Worthall, bound from Boston to Philadelphia, went ashore on Williams shoals, off Chincoteague inlet on last Sunday night. The captain mistook Assateague light for Cape May. She was floated with the assistance of Chincoteague and Wollops Island Life Saving crews on the following night without damage.

Closing exercises of public school, conducted by Mr. J. H. Johnson, on 20th inst., were very interesting and well attended. They consisted of dialogues, recitations, essays, declamation, exhibitions of school work, distribution of prizes, &c. Miss Lizzie Barrett was the winner of the first prize for highest average in studies, and Miss Lily Daisey of second prize. Misses Nancy Potts, Lizzie Andrews, Nancy and Annie Lee Daisey carried off the prizes for deportment. Congratulations and thanks were tendered the teacher by the patrons.

The frost has damaged the strawberry crop in this locality.

Radishes are being shipped from this section by our farmers.

Dr. S. B. Ward, dentist, visits Pungoteague every week, professionally, and is being well patronized.

"Tater" bugs are getting plentiful with us and are waiting for the potatoes to creep through the ground.

L. H. Ames & Son have received another lot of fine clothing, hats and other spring goods. Their sales are good.

Dr. J. H. A. Loffland has moved his office from Pennville to the property recently purchased of Mr. Jonathan Berry.

Our pastor, Rev. J. H. Riddick, was called to Richmond, to preach the funeral sermon of one of his old charges, last week.

Drs. J. H. Ayres and Geo. L. Ames are home from College. Dr. Ayres, since he graduated, has been before the State Board and passed with honors.

At a recent meeting of the Independent Order of Hyptasians, the following officers were elected: J. W. Guy, chief templar, Miss Rachel W. Blackstone, vice templar, Thos. G. Pitts, chaplain, James Rice, secretary, J. H. Helard, financial secretary, L. O. Ames, treasurer, Geo. L. Ames, marshal, J. W. Joyes, guard, E. Byrd, sentinel.

A son of Thomas L. Smith of Franklin City, aged 18 months, died of measles last week.

Oysters are still being shipped from this point but in much smaller quantities than they were earlier in the season.

The schooner Peter J. Hart sailed on last Tuesday for Chesapeake. She will be freighted on her return with oyster plants for our waters.

Mrs. Hannah Young, wife of Capt. E. K. Young, is critically ill. She has been a sufferer of many months and her death is hourly expected.

The extreme cold weather has greatly retarded the growth of all kinds of trucks in upper Accomac, and they are more backward than they have been for many years past.

Rev. and Mrs. Jester moved their effects from this place last week to Show Hill, their new home for the present. They were very popular here and our people were glad to part with them.

Oysters are still being shipped from this point but in much smaller quantities than they were earlier in the season.

The schooner Peter J. Hart sailed on last Tuesday for Chesapeake. She will be freighted on her return with oyster plants for our waters.

Mrs. Hannah Young, wife of Capt. E. K. Young, is critically ill. She has been a sufferer of many months and her death is hourly expected.

Mapesville.

The firm of Humphreys & Nock have dissolved partnership. Mr. Nock succeeds to the business.

Eugene R. Mason is here to spend a short time with his family. When he returns to New York he proposes to take his family with him.

Walter Outten of Philadelphia, whose parents were former residents of this county, with his bride, are on a visit to A. S. Mathews, Esq., of Temperanceville.

Rev. Richard Walsh proposes to remain permanently with us, having purchased four lots in this village recently, which he intends to immediately improve.

Elisha Curtis of Manassas, N. J., has purchased a lot near the village and is making preparations to erect a dwelling thereon. Oliver Baker, George T. Gillespie and E. R. Mason are all preparing lumber for new dwellings in or near this place.

The Mutual Live Stock Association, with headquarters here, having been incorporated by recent act of the Legislature of Va. is now prepared for business. All interested in the Association are invited to meet at this place at 2 p. m., of the first Saturday in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Yate of London, England, are on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Howe of this village. Mr. Yate having purchased a new building lot proposes to erect a dwelling thereon and pass the warm seasons with us. Florida is preferred by himself and wife as a winter home.

Quarterly Conference of M. E. Church held here Saturday, April 28th, 7.30 p. m., at Hall. Sunday services—communion at 10.30 a. m., and preaching by P. E. Rev. A. D. Davis at Good Will, 2.30 p. m., and at Hall at 7.30 p. m.

The lot of Mr. James Jester, of Laguel Point, laden with groceries purchased in our town, was capsized on his return home, with the loss of all of same except a barrel of flour. A vessel wrecked near by rescued him from his perilous situation.

Schooner Samuel H. Haines, which went ashore in the upper part of the bay during the March blizzard, has been gotten off by Capt. John D. Wheaton, under a contract with the owner for the sum of $300, at an expense of about $200. The schooner is valued at $6,000 and is only slightly damaged.

Recent arrivals at Atlantic Dr. M. W. West, Washington, D. C., J. R. Franklin, J. F. Hudson, Piddie, J. H. Peddie, M. W. H. Andrews, W. H. Johnson, Md., C. E. Mumford & Son, Spencer, Md., Geo. F. Parramore, S. D. Fletcher, John E. Wise, Accomac, Va.

A three masted schooner, James Worthall, bound from Boston to Philadelphia, went ashore on Williams shoals, off Chincoteague inlet on last Sunday night. The captain mistook Assateague light for Cape May. She was floated with the assistance of Chincoteague and Wollops Island Life Saving crews on the following night without damage.

Closing exercises of public school, conducted by Mr. J. H. Johnson, on 20th inst., were very interesting and well attended. They consisted of dialogues, recitations, essays, declamation, exhibitions of school work, distribution of prizes, &c. Miss Lizzie Barrett was the winner of the first prize for highest average in studies, and Miss Lily Daisey of second prize. Misses Nancy Potts, Lizzie Andrews, Nancy and Annie Lee Daisey carried off the prizes for deportment. Congratulations and thanks were tendered the teacher by the patrons.

The frost has damaged the strawberry crop in this locality.

Radishes are being shipped from this section by our farmers.

Dr. S. B. Ward, dentist, visits Pungoteague every week, professionally, and is being well patronized.

"Tater" bugs are getting plentiful with us and are waiting for the potatoes to creep through the ground.

L. H. Ames & Son have received another lot of fine clothing, hats and other spring goods. Their sales are good.

Dr. J. H. A. Loffland has moved his office from Pennville to the property recently purchased of Mr. Jonathan Berry.

Our pastor, Rev. J. H. Riddick, was called to Richmond, to preach the funeral sermon of one of his old charges, last week.

Drs. J. H. Ayres and Geo. L. Ames are home from College. Dr. Ayres, since he graduated, has been before the State Board and passed with honors.

At a recent meeting of the Independent Order of Hyptasians, the following officers were elected: J. W. Guy, chief templar, Miss Rachel W. Blackstone, vice templar, Thos. G. Pitts, chaplain, James Rice, secretary, J. H. Helard, financial secretary, L. O. Ames, treasurer, Geo. L. Ames, marshal, J. W. Joyes, guard, E. Byrd, sentinel.

A son of Thomas L. Smith of Franklin City, aged 18 months, died of measles last week.

Oysters are still being shipped from this point but in much smaller quantities than they were earlier in the season.

The schooner Peter J. Hart sailed on last Tuesday for Chesapeake. She will be freighted on her return with oyster plants for our waters.

Mrs. Hannah Young, wife of Capt. E. K. Young, is critically ill. She has been a sufferer of many months and her death is hourly expected.

The extreme cold weather has greatly retarded the growth of all kinds of trucks in upper Accomac, and they are more backward than they have been for many years past.

Rev. and Mrs. Jester moved their effects from this place last week to Show Hill, their new home for the present. They were very popular here and our people were glad to part with them.

Oysters are still being shipped from this point but in much smaller quantities than they were earlier in the season.

The schooner Peter J. Hart sailed on last Tuesday for Chesapeake. She will be freighted on her return with oyster plants for our waters.

Mrs. Hannah Young, wife of Capt. E. K. Young, is critically ill. She has been a sufferer of many months and her death is hourly expected.

Mapesville.

The firm of Humphreys & Nock have dissolved partnership. Mr. Nock succeeds to the business.

Eugene R. Mason is here to spend a short time with his family. When he returns to New York he proposes to take his family with him.

Walter Outten of Philadelphia, whose parents were former residents of this county, with his bride, are on a visit to A. S. Mathews, Esq., of Temperanceville.

Rev. Richard Walsh proposes to remain permanently with us, having purchased four lots in this village recently, which he intends to immediately improve.

Elisha Curtis of Manassas, N. J., has purchased a lot near the village and is making preparations to erect a dwelling thereon. Oliver Baker, George T. Gillespie and E. R. Mason are all preparing lumber for new dwellings in or near this place.

The Mutual Live Stock Association, with headquarters here, having been incorporated by recent act of the Legislature of Va. is now prepared for business. All interested in the Association are invited to meet at this place at 2 p. m., of the first Saturday in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Yate of London, England, are on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Howe of this village. Mr. Yate having purchased a new building lot proposes to erect a dwelling thereon and pass the warm seasons with us. Florida is preferred by himself and wife as a winter home.

Quarterly Conference of M. E. Church held here Saturday, April 28th, 7.30 p. m., at Hall. Sunday services—communion at 10.30 a. m., and preaching by P. E. Rev. A. D. Davis at Good Will, 2.30 p. m., and at Hall at 7.30 p. m.

The lot of Mr. James Jester, of Laguel Point, laden with groceries purchased in our town, was capsized on his return home, with the loss of all of same except a barrel of flour. A vessel wrecked near by rescued him from his perilous situation.

Schooner Samuel H. Haines, which went ashore in the upper part of the bay during the March blizzard, has been gotten off by Capt. John D. Wheaton, under a contract with the owner for the sum of $300, at an expense of about $200. The schooner is valued at $6,000 and is only slightly damaged.

Recent arrivals at Atlantic Dr. M. W. West, Washington, D. C., J. R. Franklin, J. F. Hudson, Piddie, J. H. Peddie, M. W. H. Andrews, W. H. Johnson, Md., C. E. Mumford & Son, Spencer, Md., Geo. F. Parramore, S. D. Fletcher, John E. Wise, Accomac, Va.

A three masted schooner, James Worthall, bound from Boston to Philadelphia, went ashore on Williams shoals, off Chincoteague inlet on last Sunday night. The captain mistook Assateague light for Cape May. She was floated with the assistance of Chincoteague and Wollops Island Life Saving crews on the following night without damage.

Closing exercises of public school, conducted by Mr. J. H. Johnson, on 20th inst., were very interesting and well attended. They consisted of dialogues, recitations, essays, declamation, exhibitions of school work, distribution of prizes, &c. Miss Lizzie Barrett was the winner of the first prize for highest average in studies, and Miss Lily Daisey of second prize. Misses Nancy Potts, Lizzie Andrews, Nancy and Annie Lee Daisey carried off the prizes for deportment. Congratulations and thanks were tendered the teacher by the patrons.

The frost has damaged the strawberry crop in this locality.

Radishes are being shipped from this section by our farmers.

Dr. S. B. Ward, dentist, visits Pungoteague every week, professionally, and is being well patronized.

"Tater" bugs are getting plentiful with us and are waiting for the potatoes to creep through the ground.

L. H. Ames & Son have received another lot of fine clothing, hats and other spring goods. Their sales are good.

Dr. J. H. A. Loffland has moved his office from Pennville to the property recently purchased of Mr. Jonathan Berry.

Our pastor, Rev. J. H. Riddick, was called to Richmond, to preach the funeral sermon of one of his old charges, last week.

Drs. J. H. Ayres and Geo. L. Ames are home from College. Dr. Ayres, since he graduated, has been before the State Board and passed with honors.

At a recent meeting of the Independent Order of Hyptasians, the following officers were elected: J. W. Guy, chief templar, Miss Rachel W. Blackstone, vice templar, Thos. G. Pitts, chaplain, James Rice, secretary, J. H. Helard, financial secretary, L. O. Ames, treasurer, Geo. L. Ames, marshal, J. W. Joyes, guard, E. Byrd, sentinel.

A son of Thomas L. Smith of Franklin City, aged 18 months, died of measles last week.

Oysters are still being shipped from this point but in much smaller quantities than they were earlier in the season.

The schooner Peter J. Hart sailed on last Tuesday for Chesapeake. She will be freighted on her return with oyster plants for our waters.

Mrs. Hannah Young, wife of Capt. E. K. Young, is critically ill. She has been a sufferer of many months and her death is hourly expected.

The extreme cold weather has greatly retarded the growth of all kinds of trucks in upper Accomac, and they are more backward than they have been for many years past.

Rev. and Mrs. Jester moved their effects from this place last week to Show Hill, their new home for the present. They were very popular here and our people were glad to part with them.

Oysters are still being shipped from this point but in much smaller quantities than they were earlier in the season.

The schooner Peter J. Hart sailed on last Tuesday for Chesapeake. She will be freighted on her return with oyster plants for our waters.

Mrs. Hannah Young, wife of Capt. E. K. Young, is critically ill. She has been a sufferer of many months and her death is hourly expected.

Mapesville.

The firm of Humphreys & Nock have dissolved partnership. Mr. Nock succeeds to the business.

Eugene R. Mason is here to spend a short time with his family. When he returns to New York he proposes to take his family with him.

Walter Outten of Philadelphia, whose parents were former residents of this county, with his bride, are on a visit to A. S. Mathews, Esq., of Temperanceville.

Rev. Richard Walsh proposes to remain permanently with us, having purchased four lots in this village recently, which he intends to immediately improve.

Elisha Curtis of Manassas, N. J., has purchased a lot near the village and is making preparations to erect a dwelling thereon. Oliver Baker, George T. Gillespie and E. R. Mason are all preparing lumber for new dwellings in or near this place.

The Mutual Live Stock Association, with headquarters here, having been incorporated by recent act of the Legislature of Va. is now prepared for business. All interested in the Association are invited to meet at this place at 2 p. m., of the first Saturday in May.

Mr. and Mrs. Yate of London, England, are on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Howe of this village. Mr. Yate having purchased a new building lot proposes to erect a dwelling thereon and pass the warm seasons with us. Florida is preferred by himself and wife as a winter home.

Quarterly Conference of M. E. Church held here Saturday, April 28th, 7.30 p. m., at Hall. Sunday services—communion at 10.30 a. m., and preaching by P. E. Rev. A. D. Davis at Good Will, 2.30 p. m., and at Hall at 7.30 p. m.

The lot of Mr. James Jester, of Laguel Point, laden with groceries purchased in our town, was capsized on his return home, with the loss of all of same except a barrel of flour. A vessel wrecked near by rescued him from his perilous situation.

Schooner Samuel H. Haines, which went ashore in the upper part of the bay during the March blizzard, has been gotten off by Capt. John D. Wheaton, under a contract with the owner for the sum of $300, at an expense of about $200. The schooner is valued at $6,000 and is only slightly damaged.

Recent arrivals at Atlantic Dr. M. W. West, Washington, D. C., J. R. Franklin, J. F. Hudson, Piddie, J. H. Peddie, M. W. H. Andrews, W. H. Johnson, Md., C. E. Mumford & Son, Spencer, Md., Geo. F. Parramore, S. D. Fletcher, John E. Wise, Accomac, Va.

A three masted schooner, James Worthall, bound from Boston to Philadelphia, went ashore on Williams shoals, off Chincoteague inlet on last Sunday night. The captain mistook Assateague light for Cape May. She was floated with the assistance of Chincoteague and Wollops Island Life Saving crews on the following night without damage.

Closing exercises of public school, conducted by Mr. J. H. Johnson, on 20th inst., were very interesting and well attended. They consisted of dialogues, recitations, essays, declamation, exhibitions of school work, distribution of prizes, &c. Miss Lizzie Barrett was the winner of the first prize for highest average in studies, and Miss Lily Daisey of second prize. Misses Nancy Potts, Lizzie Andrews, Nancy and Annie Lee Daisey carried off the prizes for deportment. Congratulations and thanks were tendered the teacher by the patrons.

The frost has damaged the strawberry crop in this locality.

Radishes are being shipped from this section by our farmers.

Dr. S. B. Ward, dentist, visits Pungoteague every week, professionally, and is being well patronized.

"Tater" bugs are getting plentiful with us and are waiting for the potatoes to creep through the ground.

L. H. Ames & Son have received another lot of fine clothing, hats and other spring goods. Their sales are good.

Dr. J. H. A. Loffland has moved his office from Pennville to the property recently purchased of Mr. Jonathan Berry.

Our pastor, Rev. J. H. Riddick, was called to Richmond, to preach the funeral sermon of one of his old charges, last week.

Drs. J. H. Ayres and Geo. L. Ames are home from College. Dr. Ayres, since he graduated, has been before the State Board and passed with honors.

At a recent meeting of the Independent Order of Hyptasians, the following officers were elected: J. W. Guy, chief templar, Miss Rachel W. Blackstone, vice templar, Thos. G. Pitts, chaplain, James Rice, secretary, J. H. Helard, financial secretary, L. O. Ames, treasurer, Geo. L. Ames, marshal, J. W. Joyes, guard, E. Byrd, sentinel.

A son of Thomas L. Smith of Franklin City, aged 18 months, died of measles last week.

Oysters are still being shipped from this point but in much smaller quantities than they were earlier in the season.

The schooner Peter J. Hart sailed on last Tuesday for Chesapeake. She will be freighted on her return with oyster plants for our waters.

Mrs. Hannah Young, wife of Capt. E. K. Young, is critically ill. She has been a sufferer of many months and her death is hourly expected.

The extreme cold weather has greatly retarded the growth of all kinds of trucks in upper Accomac, and they are more backward than they have been for many years past.

Rev. and Mrs. Jester moved their effects from this place last week to Show Hill, their new home for the present. They were very popular here and our people were glad to part with them.

Oysters are still being shipped from this point but in much smaller quantities than they were earlier in the season.

The schooner Peter J. Hart sailed on last Tuesday for Chesapeake. She will be freighted on her return with oyster plants for our waters.

Mrs. Hannah Young, wife of Capt. E. K. Young, is critically ill. She has been a sufferer of many months and her death is hourly expected.

Mapesville.

The firm of Humphreys & Nock have dissolved partnership. Mr. Nock succeeds to the business.

Eugene R. Mason is here to spend a short time with his family. When he returns to New York he proposes to take his family with him.

Walter Outten of Philadelphia, whose parents were former residents of this county, with his bride, are on a visit to A. S. Mathews, Esq., of Temperanceville.

Rev. Richard Walsh proposes to remain permanently with us, having purchased four lots in this village recently, which he intends to immediately improve.

Elisha Curtis of Manassas, N. J., has purchased a lot near the village and is making preparations to erect a dwelling thereon. Oliver Baker, George T. Gillespie and E. R. Mason are all preparing lumber for new dwellings in or near this place.

The Mutual Live Stock Association, with headquarters here, having been incorporated by recent act