LOCAL NEWS.

When you visit Baltimore stop at the Matly House, where will be found first-class accommodations and exceedingly low rates.

A festival will come off at Garrison's Chapel, Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 5th and concert in evening of Saturday.

Hon. T. H. Bayly Browne was re-nominated as candidate for Congress in the Republican Convention, which assembled at Gloucester C. H., last Wednesday.

Our readers will excuse us if the locals are a little short this week. We were compelled to attend the Fair to look after the dollars due us by delinquents.

Mr. Wis. B. Allen, near Accomac C. H., was run over Thursday at Fair Grounds and had his arm dislocated. Proper surgical attention was rendered at once and a little soreness of a few days will only follow the mishap.

Hon. Gilmor S. Kendall was in Norfolk this week to have a cinder removed from his eye received on train on his way from convention. He will probably address the voters of Accomac next Monday, certainly at an early day.

Helen, aged one year, daughter of Mr. John Scott, Cashville, strayed away from the house on Friday of last week and in attempting to cross a ditch fell into same containing water less than a foot in depth and was drowned.

A picnic and old fashioned fish fry will come off at Burton's shore, for benefit of Locustville Sunday school, on Wednesday, August 29th, commencing at 2 p. m. and continuing until 10 p. m. Supper will be served on the occasion at 25 cents.

Capt. Peter H. Davis, Davis wharf has just gotten in a select stock of flour, boots, shoes and other merchandise and is ready to offer special inducements to customers. He desires also to call special attention to the fact that he has a good lot of corn for sale at $3 per barrel.

John, aged 12 years, oldest son of Capt. Asa J. Savage, keeper of Cedar Island life saving station, was severely bitten by a shark while in bathing at Wachapreague City last Monday afternoon. The shark seized the lad by the foot and deeply mangled his teeth into it making an ugly, though not serious wound.

The announcement is made by request of Rev. C. H. Williams, that a wool's meeting will be held near the railroad crossing, between Stockton and Franklin City, commencing Sunday 26th inst., and continuing throughout the week—all day services on Sunday and in afternoon and evening during the week.

A fair, commencing at 1 p. m. will be held at Mapples on Wednesday 29th inst., for benefit of church. Rev. W. A. Street will deliver a free lecture on the occasion giving his experiences as a Confederate soldier for four years in the late war. Supper will be served at 25 cents and ice cream, confectioneries &c., at fair rates.

A festival will be held on the grounds of Holles Baptist Church for benefit of said church on Wednesday, 29th inst., commencing at 2 p. m., if the day is fair, if not, the next fair day. The occasion promises to be a very enjoyable one, as the Rev. Capt. W. A. Street of Confederate fame, will be on hand to deliver his thrilling army experiences as a Confederate soldier.

Uphur B. Quinby, trustee, will sell at public auction, in front of the premises, on Monday, 27th day of August, court day, the storehouse and dwelling of Charles B. Lilliston, situated in Drummondtown. The terms of sale are one-third cash, the balance in two equal instalments of 6 and 12 months. The storehouse is one of the handsomest on the Eastern Shore, and its location in the village as desirable as could be wished for. To a wide awake merchant the opportunity is presented of securing one of the best business stables in the county.

A fair and festival will be held at Atlantic Baptist Church, Wednesday-September 5th. Base ball and other interesting games will be played in the afternoon for the amusement of those who attend—and reading, addresses and music will be interesting features of the evening's exercises. Admission to the latter only 15 cents. Ice cream confectioneries, &c., will be abundantly served and at low figures. Dinner and supper will be prepared for all who may attend. Everyone is invited, and expected to be present to swell the proceeds—which will be applied to liquidate debt on church building recently erected.

FRIDAY, 23RD P. M. Association called to order by Moderator...

An advertisement of the Richmond College appears in this issue of the Enterprise. No one need be told, we believe, who is at all posted in such matters, that it is one of the first institutions of learning in our State.

The corner stone of a Masonic temple, to be erected under the auspices of Ocean Lodge No. 116, will be laid at Wachapreague City, Saturday, September 2d.

The Accomac Baptist Association (Reported for the Enterprise.) The Accomac Baptist Association including the Baptist Churches of Accomac and Northampton and the city of Cambridge, Va., met with Union Baptist Church of Chincoteague Island, Va., Thursday, August 16th, 1888, at 11 a. m.

The Association was called to order by J. J. Gunter, Moderator. The congregation sang 'Come Holy Spirit, heavenly Comforter, the Moderator read 53rd chapter of Isaiah, and was led in prayer by Rev. J. S. Pruitt.

Miscellaneous business being in order, Judge B. T. Gunter upon the request of S. B. Nelson was unanimously chosen. The former Moderator, one of the best officers of the Association within his memory, resigning, tendered the responsibilities of the position to the newly elected Moderator in a most graceful and sensible way.

Geo. J. Hundick was elected clerk. On motion of E. L. East the clerk was instructed to cast the vote of the Association for John E. Nottingham as treasurer.

Called to order by the Moderator—Rev. John W. Hundley presented a report on the order of business which was adopted. On motion of Mr. Hundley the Report of the Sunday School and Bible Fund was submitted for that of the Executive Board.

The report of John E. Nottingham, treasurer, was made and T. C. Pitts was appointed to audit same. Chair appointed James H. Barnes, John W. Hundley and A. B. Woodin, a committee on the admission of new churches.

On motion of Rev. W. A. Street the report on the order of business was reconsidered, amended and re-committed to the committee.

S. U. Grunsley announced that H. M. Wharton would preach at 11 a. m. Friday.

H. N. Quisenberry represented the Religious Herald, H. M. Wharton the Baltimore Baptist.

On motion of E. L. East the Association agreed to meet Friday evening at 7:30, and to adjourn at 9 o'clock to hear preaching. Adjourned with prayer by E. H. Ellett.

Association assembled sang 'Mens liver of my soul,'—was led in prayer by H. J. Ha dy.

Report on the order of business was again submitted by John W. Hundley and was adopted.

Report on the order of business was again submitted by John W. Hundley and was adopted.

On motion preaching was postponed, except at Home Missions as presented by W. A. Street. It was discussed by J. W. Jones, J. H. Barnes, and adopted.

Report on temperance was presented by H. T. Gunter and adopted.

Report on the order of business was presented and the amendment was discussed by W. A. Street, E. L. East, E. B. Waples, W. Savage, B. T. Gunter, John W. Hundley, H. H. Harris and adopted.

On motion preaching was postponed, except at Home Missions as presented by W. A. Street. It was discussed by J. W. Jones, J. H. Barnes, and adopted.

Letters have been received from all the 17 churches heretofore constituting the Association and from 21 new ones received at this session making 19—They show in general a good degree of property under God's continual blessing.

All the churches with the exception have noted have Sunday schools. Un- known to us is a school of 100 scholars, in which is so happily entertaining as leads all the rest with a school of 100 scholars, in which is so happily entertaining as leads all the rest with a school of 100 scholars.

The aggregate of all the schools foots up 1,997, or just 2 more than the membership of the churches and a gain of nearly 200 over last year. The aggregate since my few last reports is 1,997, or just 2 more than the membership of the churches and a gain of nearly 200 over last year.
