

LOCAL NEWS.

Parkley M. P. Church will hold its Children's Day service on next Sunday night June 7th.

The Eastern Shore Agricultural Fair commences this year August 29th, and continues four days.

Mrs. Wm. J. and Mrs. Ernest F. Ayres and children, of Baltimore, are at Accomac C. H., on a visit to Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Ayres.

Services will be held at M. E. Church, New Church, to-morrow, June 7th, 8 p. m., by Rev. H. S. Simmerman of P. E. Church.

The vote on the fence question in Eastville district in the recent election was 335 for, 92 against—in Franktown district, was 378 for, 77 against fence.

Miss Emma Willis, daughter of the late Z. L. C. Willis, formerly of this county, was married on Tuesday in Baltimore to Mr. William Edward Paul, of that city.

Mr. Robert P. Coleburn, formerly of Accomac C. H., now residing in Norfolk, is home on a visit of a few days this week to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. C. Coleburn.

Mrs. J. S. Parker, aged seventy-five, widow of the late superintendent of public schools of Northampton county, died suddenly at her home, near Eastville, Va., Saturday night of heart disease.

An experienced tuner will be in Onancock early next week to tune the pianos of the Margaret Academy. Those who wish to have their pianos tuned should notify the principal of the Academy at once.

Thos. W. Russell, administrator, et al., a. d. b. n., will sell at public auction, on the premises, Saturday, June 6th, 1896, at 3:30 p. m., the Wm. G. Thornton farm, situated at As-sawaman, in this county.

The commencement exercises of the Margaret Academy will be held next Thursday the 11th instant. The literary exercises will take place in the morning, beginning at 10:30 o'clock, and the final concert at night.

B. T. Gunter, Jr., special commissioner, will sell at public auction, on Saturday, June 27th, 3 p. m., at Cashville, two tracts of lands of which Levin Parker died seized and possessed. For particulars see posters.

The crop of Irish potatoes on the Eastern Shore this year will be a short one. The tops are looking well but many of them have no potatoes at the bottom. The shortage will not be as large, however, as first reported.

Five vessels belonging to John A. Chambers will be sold at public auction at Pocomoke City, Md., on Monday, June 24th, 1896, at 3 o'clock p. m., by Geo. W. and L. Floyd Neek, trustees. For terms &c. see posters or address trustees.

An advertisement of Mr. G. F. Elliott in this issue merits the attention of shippers of produce. He has recently opened a barrel factory near Oak Hall station, and not only merits your patronage but will make it to your interest to deal with him.

Corbett, by Walker's Morrell, dam by Sherman Morgan, raised on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, trotted three successive heats at Pimlico on Wednesday, May 27th in 2:15. This is an excellent showing for any horse this early in the season.—Worcester Enterprise.

John Neely, trustee, will sell at public auction, on Saturday, June 27th, 2 p. m., at Keller Station, the valuable real estate of which Ben-nitt Pentz died seized and possessed, situated in Upshur's Neck, and containing 185 acres. For full particulars see posters.

Robert Stevenson, of Messong, Va., employed on the steamer Bertie E. Tull, came very near being crushed to death Saturday afternoon at Snow Hill by getting one of his feet caught in the machinery and having it horribly mangled. Captain Downing saw the unfortunate man being slowly wound into the big wheels and ordered the boat stopped, which was barely done in time to save him from a horrifying death.

Another fire, the third in Accomac in less than two months, and the most destructive of all, is reported in our columns this week. Sympathy for the sufferers is universal, not only here, but off the shore and telegrams and letters to that effect are being received by every mail. The people of Parkley and vicinity did all in their power to save the property of the sufferers, and to them as well as those abroad, thanks are extended through our columns by request.

The dwelling of Mr. J. W. Colona, agent at Tasley Station, was broken open and entered by thieves Wednesday night. They got into the house through a window and left without being heard by Mr. Colona and wife who were asleep in the upper part of the dwelling, taking away with them only a basket of eggs, butter knife and tin cup. They wanted money, it is thought, and did not care to be burdened with anything of less value, and evidently were not tramps as they declined to take away with them a ham which was in the dining room.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Onancock.

Edgar, little son of Dr. E. W. Robertson, is very ill.

Mrs. W. P. Custis, of Baltimore, is visiting friends in Onancock.

Capt. John Kelso is completing three tenant houses on Lake St.

Upshur Q. Sturgis, student at the University of Va., has returned home.

The Presbyterian congregation will occupy their new church on Sunday evening next.

Children's Day exercises at M. E. Church, Sunday morning, in place of regular services.

Schooners Alice & Anna and Mary Emma have just landed 500 tons coal for Hopkins & Bro.

Rev. G. W. Jones preached an able sermon at the M. E. Church, South, last Sunday morning.

Delegates who attended Prohibition convention at Pittsburg report, having had a very pleasant trip.

Schooner Four Sisters, Capt. Wm. Walker, landed here this week with load of barrel staves for Onancock Barrel Co.

The final examinations are now in progress at the Margaret Academy, and the closing exercises will be held next Thursday, 11th inst.

Mrs. Sabra Pruitt, wife of Rev. J. B. Pruitt, accompanied by her two children, arrived home from Ashland, Wisconsin, last Saturday on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. C. Pitts.

Mr. E. E. Miles, who has been in Baltimore for the past three weeks at the Presbyterian Hospital for treatment for his eyes, at last report was much improved, and is expected home this week.

Funeral services over the remains of little Henrietta Kelly, who died last week, were conducted on Saturday morning at the home of her father, Mr. G. Fred Kelly, by Revs. Byron Clark and A. J. Reamy. Interment in Onancock Cemetery.

Parkley.

Mr. Julius Only has been engaged as clerk by the firm of E. T. Parks & Co.

All of our churches are busily preparing for children's day, and have first-class programs.

A new Crab Company has been formed on Hunting Creek, which makes three from that point.

Our farmers have been busy this week curing and housing their hay crop, and report it as being very short.

Mr. Frank Hinman left last Wednesday for Altoona, Pa., to assist his brothers in the produce business, in that city.

Miss Emma Parks, of Pocomoke City, who has been visiting friends in Parkley for several weeks, has returned home.

The ordinance of baptism was administered last Sunday afternoon to three persons in Parker's Creek, by Rev. M. F. Sanford.

Soft crabs have been selling quite low in the markets, and in consequence of that, our people have been feasting of late on them.

The prospects for a good Irish potato crop is very poor in this section, but sweet potato plants are looking extra well for the season.

Miss Bertie White is attending the commencement exercises of the Woman's College in Richmond, and will spend several weeks visiting friends before returning.

Cashville.

The road machine is at work in our village at this writing.

Capt. Elzey Evans is putting up steam saw mill on his farm at Evans wharf.

Our cornet band furnished music for the regatta at Wachapreague last Tuesday.

Capt. John W. Crockett has purchased of Mr. I. W. Bagwell, bugey John T. White.

Capt. Duncan, of Tilghman's, Md., delivered schooner load of corn to our farmers last week.

Elder J. M. Dunaway preached an instructive and entertaining sermon at Broadway on last Sunday.

Mr. Bagwell Chandler, formerly of this place, but more recently of Har-borton, is seriously ill at this time.

Mr. G. J. Hudson, of the firm of Scarborough & Hudson, oyster planters, went to Pocomoke a few days ago to employ hands to handle their large stock of oysters.

Our shoe department is complete with all the novelties in ladies' and gent's. Call and see them. S. W. Ames & Co.

New Church.

The berry season is about over and our farmers, we understand, have done very well.

Miss Lida Taylor is visiting relatives in Princess Anne and will be absent about two months.

The run-mad dog scare has ceased and no more trouble in this vicinity with the canines is expected.

Mr. W. W. Dryden, agent, is now taking a few days vacation at his home in Maryland. Mr. J. T. Thornton is relieving him.

The race course here has recently been reconstructed and put in first-class order, and is now in shape for fast trotting and bicycling. Trotting every Saturday afternoon. All cordially invited to attend.

If you want a new suit for men, boys or children, come to see us, as we are loaded down, Ames, Shield & Co.

Hallwood.

D. C. Ross is improving his dwelling by a front porch.

The strawberry crop was very short in this section, but good prices were realized for them.

Lewis, Neek & Co., are now offering their mill feed way down. Best wheat middlings, $1 per 100 pounds; bran, 90 cents per 100 pounds.

A promising Eagle colt owned by L. T. Ross and the gray mare Mattie, owned by W. S. Neek, will trot mile heats, best 3 in 3 on Hallwood race track, Saturday 13th.

J. A. Hall is now making ready to build quite a nice house on Main street for millinery and dressmaking establishment, to be occupied by a lady from Pungoteague.

Court Proceedings—May Term.

Perry A. Leatherbury qualified as administrator of his deceased wife, Leah A. Leatherbury.

Geo. F. Parker qualified as guardian of Rebecca Gardner, infant child of William H. Gardner.

Last will of William S. Kellam was proved and Benjamin T. Gunter qualified as executor.

Horace P. Neek qualified as guardian of his infant children, Mabel J. and James T. Neek.

Michael Glennan executed an additional bond as guardian of Elizabeth and Anna Belle Scarborough, children of Dr. G. T. Scarborough.

William J. Wessels qualified as road surveyor of election district of Mappsville for term of two years beginning July 1st, 1896.

Following fiduciary accounts were confirmed: Audits of estates of Wesley Onions, Samuel Lankford and Samuel C. Mason, deceased—orphans accounts of Virginia C. and Annie F. Pitts, Thomas L. and Mary E. Hinman, Margie, Lee, William T. and James T. Gibbons—trust accounts of Elizabeth M. Floyd, Lacinia E. Walker, &c., James F. Nowman and Geo. E. Davis and wife.

The list of drawn jurors for the year ending May term, 1897, was made out and placed in box by judge.

D. M. Merritt, Geo. C. Burch and William Taylor, colored, who had been recognized by Emory Maffitt, J. P., to answer indictments for selling intoxicating liquors unlawfully, appeared in accordance with their recognizances and were discharged from same, the court having no jurisdiction to try said offenses.

The regular grand jury was empanelled and returned as true bills, in indictments against Carr Russell for feloniously breaking and entering a barn-house with intent to commit larceny, and against William Sample for grand larceny in stealing a cow.

Russell was tried, convicted and sentenced to 30 days in jail and to pay fine of $5 and costs of prosecution. Sample was tried, convicted and sentenced to 6 months in jail and to pay a fine of $5 and costs of prosecution.

Accounts against Commonwealth in criminal and lunacy cases were entered as follows: Thos. G. Clayton, J. P., $1; John D. Watts, J. P., $2; S. T. Taylor, special constable, $8.79; Wm. M. Taylor, J. P., $7.50; Jos. L. Cooper, J. P., $1; jailer, $0.15; attorney for Commonwealth, $70.

Lloyd F. J. Wilson and Joseph L. Cooper qualified as notaries public for county of Accomac.

John F. Powell was appointed and qualified as inspector of oysters for district No. 1, and Wm. J. Barnes was appointed and qualified as inspector of oysters for district No. 6.

Authority to catch fish to be manufactured into oil or manure was granted to the Chesapeake Navigation and Manufacturing Company of Har-borton, to John W. and Wm. C. Bunting and to Wm. H. Marsh & Bro.

Authority to manufacture oil or manure from alewives or menhaden was granted to John W. and Wm. C. Bunting.

Ex parte: Petition of Geo. W. Hinman's admr. Report of James H. Fletcher, Jr., filed and confirmed.

Ex parte: Petition of Clarence P. Custis, &c.'s guardian. Report of J. W. G. Blackstone filed and confirmed.

Joseph W. Moore, colored, was granted authority to celebrate the rites of matrimony.

Ex parte: Petition of Alfred Mapp's guardian (L. Floyd Neek) Petition filed and cause referred to commissioner of accounts.

Ex parte: Petition of Charlotte F. Harmon &c.'s acting guardian (Jas. E. W. Figgis) Petition filed and referred to commissioner of accounts.

On exceptions to the audit of Wm. T. Sample, colored, filed by Henry T. Battalle. Exceptions sustained in part and partly overruled and audit recommended to commissioner with instructions—and certificates of facts proved, entered by the court, to permit an appeal if desired.

Basball Notes.

The match game between Fair Oaks and Tasley nines, last Saturday, resulted in favor of Tasley, by a score of 28 to 5.

The Rosebuds were victors over the Bluebells in a contest at the Margaret Academy grounds last Monday, by a score of 16 to 12.

A fine game was played on Saturday between Mappsville and Mutting Hunk nines on the latter's grounds, near Gargathia, in which the former were winners, by a score of 2 to 5. These nines will cross bats again today, Saturday, on the grounds at Mappsville.

Arrivals at Shield's Hotel, Exmore. Wm. H. Simons, New York; Jean Funk, H. T. Martin, J. D. Hoskins, Baltimore; W. C. Lyles, J. F. Thomas, E. H. Hill, D. Fitchett, Jno. Dodson, E. E. Harrell, J. T. Jones, Philadelphia; M. E. Selby, R. J. Lewis, J. C. Sasse, Wilmington; C. E. Herbert, Norfolk; E. T. Holloway, W. H. Harnsburger, Salisbury; Capt. W. J. Rue, L. W. Bagwell, Accomac; S. S. Wilkins, Zoro Willis and wife, H. C. Wyatt, Northampton.

Destructive Fire at Parkley

The Most of the Business Houses Destroyed—Loss About $55,000 --Small Insurance.

The greater part of the business houses of the thriving town of Parkley was destroyed by fire last Wednesday afternoon. The fire started in the barrel factory of L. F. Hinman on the north side of Bennett street about 3:30 o'clock and in less than an hour the whole block on Dunne Avenue to Cooke street, except the hardware and building material store of E. T. Parks & Co., was in ashes.

The losses heavy as they are, would have been greater but for the hard work done to check its progress. Mr. John D. Johnson and others fought the fire on the roof of his livery stables when it was no longer safe to continue the fight on the ground and saved it—and the three stores on the south side of Bennett street were only saved by the bucket brigade which kept the houses wet.

The fire was due to the carelessness of a cooper in Hinman's barrel factory and could have been extinguished if he had been in the factory at the time it started.

The losses are estimated as follows: Pate & Mason, storehouse $3,000; merchandise $22,500; insurance $9,500. Dr. A. D. F. Ewell, druggist, $1,000; drugs $1,500; furniture $500; no insurance.

Jas. R. Hickman, storehouse, two warehouses and merchandise, $4,000; no insurance.

D. H. Johnson, storehouse, barber shop, shoe shop, grocery, $5,000; insurance, $1,500.

D. H. Johnson & Son, flour and feed, $1,500; no insurance.

L. F. Hinman, storehouse, barrel factory, merchandise, $4,000; insurance, $1,000.

Mrs. Lewis & Pate, millinery store and stock, $2,200; insurance, $650—Mrs. Lewis, furniture, $400; no insurance.

A. J. McCready, undertaker shop, $300; no insurance.

J. W. Bonnell, carpenter tools &c., $100; no insurance.

J. B. McCready, blacksmith shop, $200; no insurance.

T. Johnson, house $50; no insurance.

John D. Johnson, damage to livery stables, &c., $200; insured.

C. C. Dix, storehouse, $800; no insurance.

T. H. Mears, groceries, $600; insurance, $200.

Mrs. Nettie Mears, barrel factory, 9,000 barrels and barrel material, $3,650; insurance, $600.

S. T. Jones, storehouse, $1,200; insurance, $800.

J. W. Willet, groceries, $250; no insurance.

Charles L. Byrd, house, $50; no insurance.

John T. Scott, shoemaker tools and material, $50; no insurance.

Graduates and Medalists of Accomac.

Miss Mattie P. Coard, daughter of Mr. G. Welly Coard, Accomac C. H., has returned home from Woman's College, Richmond, Va., where she has spent two sessions. She returns home favoring "gold standard." In a class of thirty, she won the art medal. This is a decided compliment to her and shows aptness and ability, as she had not studied art before going to Richmond.

The following complimentary note of Miss Lena Johnson, daughter of Mr. D. H. Johnson, of Leesmont, appears in the Richmond Dispatch of 3rd instant: "The scholarship medal, the highest honor conferred by the Woman's College, Richmond, of Accomac, and was awarded to her by Rev. Dr. Vanderslice. In presenting the trophy to Miss Johnson Dr. Vanderslice heaped congratulations upon her for having so well laid the foundation for an educational super-structure."

Miss Henrietta A. Battalle, daughter of Mr. Henry Battalle, has returned home from Hollies Institute where she attended school during the past session. She stood first in her class, taking the classical degree in one year and also capturing the scholarship medal. This is the first time this has been done since 1884, when her sister, now Mrs. Dr. C. L. Harnanson, took the same degree and medal in one year, and it had not been done before this by any one in the same time. Miss Battalle was classed with young ladies who had been at Hollies two and three years, and led her class in everything except German, and came only two points behind in this. Miss Battalle has been engaged to teach in one of our leading female schools the coming session. The school is to be congratulated.

Attention, Johnny Rebs. Capt. Charles Morgan has received a letter from Mr. John D. Potts, assistant general passenger agent of the C. & O. R. R., asking if there is a Confederate Camp on the Eastern Shore; and if so, how many members are there that will likely attend the reunion at Richmond next month. He states that if a sufficient number will go his road will run a special train from Old Point for their accommodation on that occasion. If all those intending to go will notify the editor of this paper at once he will put himself in communication with Mr. Potts and make the necessary arrangements.—Headlight.

For fine dress goods go to see Ames, Shield & Co's, next week. They will give you low prices.

If you are looking for a neat, nobby cheap suit of clothes or a pair of pants, it will pay you to see our large stock. S. W. Ames & Co.

F. W. Shivers, manufacturer of ice cream, Peninsula Junction, Md. Best quality and lowest prices. Send him your orders.

Accomac Club Regatta.

The regatta of this year, which came off according to announcement, under the auspices of the Accomac Club on the 2d inst., will long be remembered by all who participated as one of the most interesting occasions of a lifetime. The day was a model one and the weather could not have been finer. The gathering was large and especially interesting and attractive because of the goodly number of ladies in attendance. The races were well contested and heartily enjoyed. The music, furnished by the Cashville Cornet Band, was very fine and everybody was not only pleased with it, but with the members of the band, who so agreeably dispensed it.

The clubmen seemed to be happy and their untiring efforts to please and graceful courtesies to their guests delighted everybody. The day was passed in fact without an occurrence of any kind to mar its pleasures.

The club was incorporated January 12th, 1887, its first president being Benjamin W. West, now deceased. The secretary and treasurer for the organization to the present time has been Abel Crook. It was organized as a gentleman's fishing and shooting club to afford its members, who are residents of New York and Brooklyn, an occasional outing. Owing to their visits and liberal expenditures of money, many of the residents of the Eastern Shore have been much benefited. The apprehension that once existed that the club would be undesirable on the ground that its members might deprive the residents of their customary shooting and fishing has long since been allayed, and the club members are known as warm friends and welcome guests among us.

The annual regatta furnishes one of the most attractive holidays of the year and it is looked for with the greatest interest. Formerly the sixteenth foot bateau was hardly known among us, but its adoption for the use of the club has made it the favorite. The valuable prizes annually given have created rivalry and enthusiasm which has led to great improvements in our batteaux and skills. These contests are open to residents of the Eastern Shore. The club furnishes the prizes and the entertainment. The ladies have the exclusive use of the club house on these occasions and partake of a bountiful collation furnished for them specially, while the gentlemen are furnished with a more substantial feast in the boat house.

In the first race for batteaux fifteen feet and under, the first prize was a complete set of silver knives, forks and spoons, presented by Mr. Ladew, won by Birdie, of Wachapreague, Jas. H. Stevens owner, Levin T. Richardson captain. The second prize was a leather travelling bag, presented by Mr. Abraham, won by Eliza Fosque, of Wachapreague, Thomas Fosque owner, Charles Burton captain.

In the second race for batteaux sixteen feet and under, the first prize was a Wheeler & Wilson No. 9 sewing machine, presented by Mr. Hoyt, won by Josephine, of Cobbs Island, Joe Tatum owner, William Bloxom captain. The second prize was a parlor clock, presented by Mr. Brixey, won by Sweetheart, of Wachapreague, Geo. W. Phillips owner, Chip Johnson captain. The third prize was a pair of gum boots, presented by the Club, won by Margareta, Henry Scarborough owner, Charles Burton captain.

In the third race for skills and batteaux eighteen feet and under, the first prize was a silver tea set (four pieces), presented by Mr. Fairchild, won by D. J. Wheaton, of Chincoteague, S. J. Mumford owner, David Steelman captain. The second prize was a brass banquet lamp with silk shade, presented by Mr. Lovell, won by Helen, A. J. McMath owner, Wm. S. Bundick captain.

The following members were present: Samuel L. Storer, president; Abel Crook, secretary; John W. Jacobus, marshal; W. R. Brixey, captain; P. Kelly, surgeon; F. H. Lovell, purser; S. Giglio, commissary, honorary member; A. B. Rogers, officer of the day, honorary member; Sam'l Crook, recorder, honorary member; Richard D. Brixey, coxswain, honorary member.

The prizes were presented by the secretary in a complimentary and felicitous manner, which was responded to by Hon. Thomas M. Scott in a graceful and eloquent address, appropriate to the occasion.

The Club membership is limited to thirty-five. In response to a request, the secretary has furnished us with a complete list of the members, namely: Henry H. Adams, Abraham Abraham, Joseph C. Baldwin, William B. Brixey, Charles A. Bryan, Abel Crook, N. H. Clements, J. G. Dettmer, Frank W. Duryea, Louis T. Duryea, Adfur Eddy, Samuel W. Fairchild, Edward J. Greenen, John L. Hill, William C. Horn, Edward C. Hoyt, William E. Horwill, J. W. Jacobus, P. Kelly, Frank H. Lovell, E. R. Ladew, Gen. J. V. Meserole, Abraham Onderdonk, Frank H. Page, John G. Prague, Herbert M. Rogers, W. R. Selover, G. M. Spier, Henry Spratley, Samuel L. Storer, William A. Stuart, Nathan Straus, Horace P. Whitney, Chas. W. Wheeler, New York; Dr. J. G. Ryer son, New Jersey.

The committee in charge of the regatta were as follows: President Storer, Secretary Crook and Messrs. Jacobus and Lovell. Entertainment committee: Messrs. Kelly, Brixey and Giglio.

Special Mention.

President Storer is the Adonis of the club, and paid special attention to the comfort of the ladies.

Secretary Crook was omnipresent and kept the boys talking in the most amusing manner.

Commissary Giglio kept the punch bowl cool and proved most attractive to some of the invited guests.

Surgeon Kelly set no bones but operated on the spigot of the beer barrels, quenching the thirst of all who needed the services of a samaritan.

Marshal Jacobus fraternized with the band and stimulated them to their best performances. Captain Brixey whistled for wind and insisted on fair play without fear or favor.

Purser Lovell shed light on all and wished everyone could win a prize as they deserved.

Messrs. Rogers, Samuel Crook and Richard D. Brixey looked after the candy and assisted sweetly that the pretty girls should not be neglected.

Steward Scarborough was the chow der dispenser while his amiable wife almost killed herself in her attention to the ladies who honored the club with their presence.

Commodore Eddy was unfortunately absent, due to temporary illness. We all missed his genial countenance and trust next year will see him at his post among us.

Messrs. W. A. Stuart, L. T. Duryea and H. M. Rogers were compelled to return home before the regatta much to the regret of all.

James H. Fletcher, Sr.

In the death of James H. Fletcher, Sr., in the county of Accomac has lost one of her best known and most estimable citizens; and an event so much to be lamented should not be permitted to pass without a grateful tribute, however inadequate, to the memory of so good and useful a member of our community. It was the good fortune of the writer of this to have known him intimately for more than fifty years, and he can say with truth, as well as with sentiments of deepest affection, that he never knew a better and truer man than James H. Fletcher. He was a gentleman in the highest sense of that term. He was clear-headed, full of intelligence, thought and wisdom, and always knew how to act with propriety on every occasion, but his goodness of heart, his kindness of disposition and genial manners, entirely natural, endeared him strongly to all who knew him. The memory of a man like him, allied with the best citizenship of our county, deserves to be cherished, and it will be, by all who, from acquaintance, had the opportunity of knowing the excellence of his character and his deservedly high standing in the community with which he was identified. It must be a source of great consolation to his immediate family to know that their sorrows for his loss are shared by so large a number of the citizens of our county.

Call on S. W. Ames & Co., for baby carriages, large rocking chairs and bedsteads. Their styles and low prices will surprise you.

In Memoriam.

Mrs. Tabitha Warren, nee Bell, beloved wife of John Warren, after a painful illness of more than three months, died at the residence of her son, John L. Warren, near Pungoteague, Accomac Co., February 17th, 1896, aged 71 years, 1 month and 23 days. She professed faith in Christ while quite young, was baptized by Rev. Asa Dix, and united with the Red Bank Baptist Church, Northampton Co., near which she was born and reared, of which she remained a member many years. Removing to Accomac, she transferred her membership to Hollies Baptist Church, of which she was a member until she joined the church triumphant. Obedient to her request, her remains were placed by loving hands, in the Hollies Cemetery. So far as the writer ever knew, she was faithful in all the relations of life as daughter, wife, and mother, and faithful to her Church, and to her Lord and Savior. Her open and hospitable house, until misfortune came, was a home for many a weary child of God, as such many of the saints Bradford and Boston could testify. She was married to John Warren, in January 1848, by his brother, Rev. Patrick Warren, and lived in this relation more than 48 years. Of such a life as she lived, which they endeavored to "train up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord," and who were a source of great comfort to her. She lived in the Lord, and for Him, she died, conscious to