Potato Shipments.

The shipments of Irish and sweet potatoes from the line of the N. Y. P. & N. R. during the year 1896 was something phenomenal, the total shipments being something over 900,000 barrels, but the shipments for 1898 bid fair to beat those of 1896, and will in all probability go up to, if not beyond, the million mark, shipments already having aggregated 975,000 barrels.—Light.

Write to us for estimates on doors, sash, blinds, stair-rails, and all other kinds of building material, hardware, paints, &c. Stock large, prices low. Mr. R. D. L. Fletcher will be at Accomac C. H., the first day of every County Court, to receive orders for the firm.

Cape Charles Ice & Lumber Co. I take this method of offering my grateful thanks to the citizens of Accomac Courthouse for their patronage in the past and of saying to them that all orders will be filled satisfactorily at my store, now that my delivery by wagon has been discontinued. E. B. Parker, Onancock, Va.

Farmers, can you afford to grow sweet potatoes at the present prices and buy corn and hay to feed your stock? You should use more Orchilla guano, the greatest corn and clover producer and restorer of worn out land in the world. Price, $10 cash f. o. b., and $3 more on time as to length of time. Send your orders to J. G. Gladstone, Exmore, Va.

Just received a carload of parlor and cook stoves; also air tight wood heaters. The Tiger knocks them all out in looks and weight, and much better for last. Spring draft plate; requires no inside lining, and prices lower than ever before. E. T. Parks & Co., Parkley, Va.

In Memoriam.

In loving memory of our uncle Captain William Clayville, who died at his home on Chincoteague Island, October 1, 1898.

He has gone from out our midst, None e'er his place can fill, As with humble hearts we bow Submissive to God's will.

Kind and patient ever Did he life's journey run; But now the race is o'er, The crown of victory won.

Farewell, husband, father, Kind uncle, loving friend, 'Till round God's throne we meet And there our voices blend.

By his niece, V. A. W. Philadelphia, Oct. 6, 1898.
