You will find some great bargains in white goods. Don't miss this chance if you want some cheap goods. D. H. Johnson & Son.

Distressing and Fatal Accident.

While standing with her back to the stove in one of the recitation rooms of the Onancock High School Thursday, the dress of Belle, the eight year old daughter of Mr. J. D. T. Quinby, caught fire. Her clothing was ablaze in an instant, and notwithstanding the efforts of the Principal, who hurried from an adjoining room to her rescue, and all the boys present she was burned so badly, that death followed within two hours. She was carried to the residence of Mr. Jas. C. Heath near the school, who not only opened his doors, but with his family rendered every possible assistance.

She was one of the school favorites, and the accident is a great shock to teachers and pupils. Evidences of sorrow and sympathy could be heard from all, and the session of the day was immediately closed. The boys present, though quite young, displayed manly gallantry. A number of them even pulled off their jackets and wrapped them around her, and were burned themselves in their efforts to save her.

Interment will be made in Onancock Cemetery.

Deaths.

Mrs. Margaret A. Waterfield, relict of the late William H. Waterfield, formerly of Accomac, died Sunday, March 3rd, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles A. Stewart, Philadelphia, aged 79 years. The funeral was preached on Tuesday by Rev. L. F. M. Myers, of the Lutheran Church, of which she was a devout member. Letter to A. J. Lilliston.

Accomac, Va.

Dear Sir: Here's the difference between two pure paints; one strong; the other weak.

C. P. Hanger, Staunton, Va., painted two new houses, the houses exactly alike: one another pure paint, the other Devoe. Devoe cost a quarter less for paint and labor.

People generally are paying twice-over for paint.

Yours truly, F. W. Devoe & Co.

P. S. J. W. Rogers & Bros., Onley; Short & Bloxom, Bloxom; D. H. Johnson, Parksley; G. T. Benson Co., Keller; John S. Drummond, Sanford, and Nelson & Johnson, New Church, sell our paint.

I have for sale 100 barrels of Crown Jewell second crop seed potatoes—also 125 barrels genuine Aristocook Co., Maine grown seed potatoes, Irish Cobblers, bought direct from reliable seedsmen, who grew them, and are smallest selected stock. J. J. Belote, Melita, Va.

I will be at Atlantic for the practice of my profession on Thursday and Friday, March 14 and 15, 1907. Dr. W. A. Taylor, Dentist.

If you wish to have a suit made-to-measure see the line of samples displayed on the 16th, 18th and 19th at J. S. Mills, Clothier and Furnisher, Onancock, Va.

Resolutions of Respect.

Resolutions of respect adopted Sunday, February 17th, 1907, by Miss Rosa Ross' Sunday School class of young men of Modest Town Baptist Church.

Whereas our loving, heavenly Father saw fit on Sunday, February 10, 1907, to take away the spirit of our beloved pastor and leader, Rev. Richard Edwards, who during the last two years has done so much for the spiritual development of our church and Sunday School; and whereas we, the members of this class, most of whom have been led to Jesus by his faithful preaching and Godly living, we desire to express our feeling of grief at his death, therefore be it Resolved 1. That we humbly bow in loving submission to the will of our God assured that infinite wisdom makes no mistakes and that some great and holy purpose will be accomplished by this divine act.

Resolved 2. That in the death of Brother Edwards our church has lost a most efficient pastor and successful leader in every department of church work, and who by constant presence, wise management and consecrated zeal built up the Sunday School beyond anything we had ever hoped. Perhaps in no sphere of his work among us will we miss him more than in the Sunday school where his cheering smiles, comforting and instructive words and inspiring presence always made us happy.

Resolved 3. That we tender our heart-felt sympathies to his weeping family, to the churches he leaves pastorless, to the Sunday schools forever deprived of his presence and to all who know him to love him. May the God of comfort, soothe our aching hearts while the shadows are heavily about us.

Resolved 4. That we express the feeling of our loss is his gain, that his death was a happy exchange and therefore we cannot wish him back. But by the grace of God we will live as he taught us to live ever hoping for that blessed day when we meet ben at the shade of the trees in the garden of our God. If in that blessed home we shall be permitted to shine as stars in his crown of life, he has not wrought in vain, and the tears we now shed over his grave will be more than rewarded in the joy of heaven.

Resolved 5. That a copy of these resolutions be given to the sorrowing family of our deceased brother and leader and that a copy be furnished the "Peninsula Enterprise" and the Accomac Christian.

Signed by the teacher for the class. Respectfully, W. D. Evans, Harborton, Va.

To Whom It May Concern.

This is to certify that, a house belonging to me and insured in the Eastern Shore of Va. Fire Ins. Co. Inc., was destroyed by fire on the morning of February 28, 1907. I notified the company about 9 a. m. and before 4 p. m. of same day I had a check from the president in person for the full amount insured. I take pleasure in recommending this company for its prompt payment.
