FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1903.

Floridians next year will have an opportunity to cast their ballots, if not for the next president, at least for the Democratic nominee for the presidency. Florida's delegates to the national convention will be voted for in direct primary.

Dannitte H. Mays of Monticello has announced his candidacy for the gubernatorial nomination. Mr Mays' platform is the simplest and has the truest ring of any issued during the entire campaign, so far.

I am a candidate for Governor in the Democratic primary to be held in 1904.

I am a Democrat and have stood on and will stand flatfooted on the Democratic platform.

I am opposed to trusts—trusts in politics as well as in business. There is the same tendency in each to crush individual effort and make slaves of men.

I am in favor of continuance of the Railroad Commission—of making it a fixity, if possible. It is a bulwark between the corporations and the people. Make it a tribunal where the individual can have his claim heard and adjusted without cost to him.

I favor the primary system as the best yet devised for getting the will of the people.

I am in favor of liberal appropriations for education as an investment—the best that a family or state can make.

I favor liberal appropriations for unfortunate people.

I favor the equalization of taxes, so that every interest may pay its just proportion of the burdens of the government.

I favor the present liquor laws, which permit local option as to license—home rule.

I favor good roads—the best that can be had without unduly burdening the people.

To be nominated I shall appeal to no section of our state. Born within her borders, I love her every interest as a dutiful son should love his blessed mother.

Though a farmer, I shall appeal to no class of our people, as I believe in equal and exact justice to all and special privileges to none.

If elected my motto shall be "progress" forward along the paths so safely followed since the inauguration of that great Democrat, George F. Drew, and continued along through the able stewardship of Gov. W. S. Jennings.

I propose to see the people and give them reasons for the faith that is within me.

Two great "religious" movements have recently taken place. The first was by the Salvation Army, which sent bands into the wild mountain regions of Kentucky to convert the mountaineers; the second is the invasion of New York by the Zionites, who went from Chicago and vicinity four thousand strong with the intention of converting Gotham. 'Tis a strange spectacle to see New York converting New York.

York. Which means, we suppose, that Chicago is a very religious community!

An election will be held in Daytona on November 17th to decide the question of issuing $70,000 in bonds with which to construct a sewerage system.

If the acquittal of Tillman means anything, it means that the proper way to treat an editor in South Carolina, when he tells a disagreeable truth, is to shoot him down like a dog.

A day seldom passes but that dozens of persons in DeLand receive copies of some California publication, setting forth the value of California mines, oil wells, of companies, fruit and grazing lands, or what not. These papers are not sent out by the editors with the hope of securing subscribers. They are sent out by people who expect to make money by the diffusion of such matter—who hope to locate settlers and investors and get a percentage on the money invested. This is practically the only way in which to secure immigration. But how many such papers are sent from Florida? Who sends them? We have advantages far superior to those offered by California, but they are unknown. What Florida needs is systematic, generous, wide advertising. Our lands are capable of producing millions where only hundreds are produced. Our grazing lands, fruit and vegetable lands, our phosphate and coal mines, our cassava starch and pineapple industries should prove most attractive to people who desire to locate in a milder, more equable climate than they now enjoy. The State Board of Trade, proposed some time ago, would be an admirable plan by which to promote this advertising. Until such a concerted plan is devised, we should work individually and in communities, and thus accomplish in a measure the results which have developed California during the past twenty years.

POLITICAL SNAP-SHOTS.

How To Increase the Assessment.

Editor Caldwell of the White Springs Herald says that if it were a law in Florida that a man had to take in cash for his property the value he placed on it for purposes of taxation, or pay double taxes, the very first year under the operation of such a law the taxable property of Florida would show up to two hundred million dollars.

There is a mighty good suggestion for our next legislature if they really desire to have an honest assessment of the property in the state.—Pensacola News.

McBeath Speaks from Experience.

Florida School Exponent: Before Supt. Holloway allows a few newspaper notices to "turn his head" and precipitate him into a struggle in which he must lose, we would like to show him through two or three hundred pages of our big scrap-book of newspaper clippings from the files of 1899-1900.

Lamar's Hog-proof "Fence."

Monticello News: The congressman from the third district is engaged in the propagation of pork. He is spreading the gospel of better stock with prize pigs. Bill Lamar, as he is called by his friends in Jefferson, has started a movement which in results will demonstrate the practical wisdom of the originator. At an expense of close to a thousand dollars he has prepared pastures and substantial sanitary shelters for the Biltmore Berkshires which share a large portion of the outlay above mentioned. These hogs are wonders. One male and two females are to be kept on the ranch. Pigs, as they arrive, will be distributed free of charge throughout the third congressional district. Eight aristocrats of the breed of Biltmore have already been assigned to different sections of the third district.

A News reporter assisted at the breaking up of this happy family. Eight as pretty Berkshire pigs as any one could wish to see were lurching contentedly in their roomy stall—pictures of porcine aristocracy. They permitted the News man to scratch their backs and fondle their ears, but when seized by the hind legs and trundled out to the cage they protested with loud squeals. The squeal of a Biltmore Berkshire is much like the squeal of a razor back. In other points they differ. The short wide gristly snout, the abrupt angle of the forehead, the long straight trunk and the shapely hams all were in striking contrast to the points of the razor back rooster. Congressman Lamar's farm a mile and a half east of Monticello will be famous in a very short time. Facilities for crossing on the native stock are freely offered to those wishing to improve their stock. From this point as a hub will radiate many spokes in the wheel of pork progress, if the normal increase of these porkers is scattered throughout the third district in pursuance of Congressman Lamar's plan. His plan is practical, and will yield benefits that in time will add thousands of dollars to the wealth of this district. A revolution in hog raising will be accomplished when a hundred thoroughbred pigs are scattered abroad to root for higher values, better bacon, bigger stock—and incidentally for Bill Lamar.

Stetson University Brief News Notes

Miss Maude Whetten, who has been visiting Mrs. Spangler since the beginning of school, has returned to her home in Daytona.

Mr. Emmett Wilson of Marianna, Fla., has returned and taken up his work with the Senior Law Class.

Professor—Mr. —, suppose some merchant down town sold you some article of food, 'say a packet of "Force," and it was not fit for use. Under the rule of implied contracts what could you do about it? Student—Well, I think I could "force" him to take it back.

Miss Lulu Lutz has returned and is taking up work in the music department.

At a meeting of the seniors of the college held on Wednesday it was decided to wear caps and gowns at all exercises in the chapel. This rule to take effect after Christmas.

Program of Stetson Literary Society tomorrow evening: "Current Events"—Mr. Duncan. Recitation—Miss Rich. Extempore—Parliamentary Practice.

Debate—Resolved, That the government works should be open to non-union laborers. Affirmative—Mr. Calhoun, Miss Remmers. Negative—Mr. Moffat, Miss Dickerson.

At a meeting of the Collegiate Board held yesterday it was decided to change the Collegiate from a monthly to a weekly publication. The new paper will be a four page paper and will be published every Saturday. This is a most commendable action on the part of the Board, as the new paper will be more interesting and at the small price of one dollar a year, will soon gain a large circulation, not only among the students but throughout the state. Messrs. Crawford and Wilson will have charge of the business end of the paper. They are both experienced men in this line of work, and under their management the paper will prove a financial success. The Weekly Collegiate will at a small price, the church, the occupy the same position in regard to the University as the monthly did, namely: of being the official students paper, and we hope that those who have so generously patronized the old paper will give their aid and support to the Weekly Collegiate.

The people of DeLand will have the opportunity of seeing this season one of the best games to be played in the state. On Thanksgiving Day the Stetson football team will meet a team from the West Florida Seminary of Tallahassee at University Park, and a game is promised which will be worth going miles to see. Owing to the great distance to Tallahassee, Stetson has never met this college in any contest, but it has been decided to take the risk, trusting that the game will arouse sufficient interest to meet expenses. Other games are being arranged as quickly as possible, but it is not certain when and where the first game will be played. A proposition has been made to Tampa for a game next Saturday, but nothing definite has been heard yet. Practice is going on daily, and those in charge of the team are very much pleased at the rapid progress made by the men. The second team has organized with Jack Sams as captain and all men making the second team will be given S's with a figure 2 below them to distinguish them from those given to the first team.

A mass-meeting of the students was held on Tuesday night in the auditorium to finish organizing the Oratorical Association. Mr. Butler was elected temporary chairman and Mr. Calhoun temporary secretary. A constitution was adopted after several amendments and a recess taken to sign it. The election of officers then took place and the following persons were chosen: Emmett Wilson, president; Miss Remmers, vice-president; Mr. Calhoun, secretary.

Growth of the Papani Crown. Originally the headdress of the popes was only a cap, but Clovis, king of the Franks, to show his respect to the church of Rome, sent to the palace of St. John in Lateran a royal crown of gold, which Anastasius, emperor of Constantinople, had presented to him. The Pope Hormisdas placed upon the tiara this crown, which was at that time nothing more than a circle of gold surmounted by leaf work, being much such a coronet as is nowadays borne by marquises in France. The successor of Pope Hormisdas continued to wear the tiara with one crown only up to the time of Boniface VIII, but this pope, having claimed authority over things temporal as well as spiritual, wished to mark this double dominion on the pontifical tiara, on which he placed two crowns instead of one. Ultimately Pope John XXII added a third crown.—St. James' Gazette.

Catarrh

Is a discharge from the mucous membrane of the nose, throat, stomach, bowels etc., when kept in a state of inflammation by an impure condition of the blood and a want of tone in the system. Soothe the inflamed membrane, strengthen the weakened system, and the discharge will stop—to do this purify the blood. "I was troubled with catarrh for years and tried various remedies but found nothing that would cure me. I then resolved to try Hood's Sarsaparilla and took four bottles which entirely cured me.
