STETSON'S GRAND COMMENCEMENT

THE twenty-first annual commencement of John B. Stetson University has gone into history—the friendships formed by eight months of close association will ever linger as life's sweetest memories to many, while the months and years to come will see these same students scattered all over the earth but always with a warm place in their hearts for the associations and environs of the past school year at Stetson University.

The exercises were well attended, and were quite interesting from start to finish. The graduating classes were composed of bright young men and young women, who will now enter on their duties in the sterner walk of life the better equipped for the inevitable battles of life.

The exercises began Friday evening with the commencement musicale, the following program being rendered:

PART I

Organ—March in B Flat

Song—Happy Birds

The Flatterer

Violin—Air Melodius, Op. 24, No. 9

Song—Thy Blue Eyes

Concerto in E Flat

With orchestral part on second piano

PART II

Song—Sweet May

Waltz, Op. 64, No. 2

Song—Nita Gittana

Frühlingstrauch

Song—Come Where the Linden Bloom

Concerto in A

Orchestral part on the organ

Mr. Higgins

There was but one graduate from the Music Department this year—Miss Lucy V. Lloyd.

PHI KAPPA SIGMA

Next on the program was the banquet given by the above-named society, which took place in DeLand Hall Friday night after the musicale. J. D. Pounds acted as toastmaster for the occasion. Toasts were responded to as follows: "Our Guests," Dr. Farriss; "Phi Kappa Sigma," D. J. Blocker; "The Ladies," Geo. M. Calhoun; "Our Literary Work," Walter G. Sparkman; "Fraternity Life," Professor Carson; "Our Alma Mater," R. P. Hamlin.

THE BUSINESS COLLEGE

Commencement exercises for the Business College took place Saturday evening, when the following short program was rendered:

Prayer—Rev. C. R. Pattison.
Piano Selection—Frances Wilson.
Song—Eleanor Morrish.

Valedictory—Ralph W. Pattison.
The address to the graduating class was made by Attorney Bert Fish of DeLand, and proved to be a scholarly and carefully prepared effort that reflected credit on the orator and on the school.

Diplomas were presented to the following graduates of the several departments:

Bookkeeping—Walter De F. Knox, Charles H. Willison, Henry L. King, William C. Hooker, Doyle E. Carlton, Charles Kupperbusch, Eleanor A. Morrish, Anna Robinson.

Stenography—Bessie Thornton Porter, Eleanor A. Morrish, Ruth Rich, Grace E. Keown, Annie N. Holden, Eugenia Larson, Edward L. Mickle, Ralph W. Pattison (honor grade), Charles E. McCrory (honor grade).

Telegraphy—J. Louise Robinson, Martha Lindquist.

Banking—Courtney J. Clark.

The Business College gave a banquet after their exercises, and partook of a fine supper. This was followed by toasts, the following being given: "Class '03," J. D. Pounds; "History '04 Class," Miss Ruth Rich; "Prophecy '04 Class," Walter De F. Knox; "The Ladies," Doyle Carleton; "Retrospect and Prospect," Edward L. Mickle; "Olla Podrida," Dr. Farriss. Professor Macdougall acted as toastmaster.

FIELD DAY EVENTS.

The Commencement Athletic Meet last Friday was not as exciting as might have been the case, as the number of entries was small and the men who entered did not train, thus keeping the records down. The events were as follows:

100-yard dash—won by Reid; time, 11 3/5 seconds.

Half-mile—Reid; 2 min 43 sec.

Quarter-mile—Reid; 59 1/5.

Running broad jump—J. Pounds; 15 ft 4 in.

Shoe race—F. Pounds.

High jump—Pelot; 5 ft 2 in.

Pole vault—Duncan; 7 ft 10 in.

In the tennis tournament Pounds and Pelot won the doubles in the first class, and Sears and F. Pounds in the second class. In the single Pelot won first class, and Sears in the second.

BACCALAUREATE SUNDAY.

The sermon, or address, to the graduating classes was made by Rev. W.

A. Hobson of Jacksonville, and was a masterly effort, full of good sound sense and wholesome truths, and fairly teemed with sentences that will be long remembered. The program of the other services follows:

Organ—March in E Flat
Invocation
Authors—Praise the King of Heaven
Scripture Reading
Soprano Solo—The Angelic Salutation
Prayer
Stetson Quartette—Remember Now Thy Creator
Hymn—Mighty God While Angels Bless Thee
Benediction
Organ—Postlude in F

VESPER SERVICE.

Vesper Services on Sunday were conducted by Dr. C. S. Farriss. As it was the last of the year a great number of the students and town's people were there and a most interesting service was held. Dr. Hobson of Jacksonville gave a short address on character building, especially directed to the students. Miss York sang a solo, and two anthems were rendered by the vesper choir to an appreciative audience.

ACADEMIC CLASS DAY.

This was the first of the exercises for Monday, taking place at 10 a.m. Following is the program rendered:

Address of Welcome—Fred Botts
Class Song—Harriet Fuller
Class History—George Leitner
Class Poem—Lora Fish
Class Prophecy—Lillian Hamlin
Representing 1st year Class—Judson Reamy
Representing 2nd year Class—Alice McKinney
Representing 3rd year Class—Bessie Porter
Class Song—Class
Faculty Meeting—Walter Sparkman
Valedictory—Walter Sparkman

SHOP WORK EXHIBIT

Monday afternoon was spent in the magnificent School of Technology, where there was an exhibit of shop work. This work showed marked improvement over that of last year; the strong, massive iron-working machinery and the delicate wood-working apparatus and tools excited the admiration of all.

LAW DEPARTMENT CLASS DAY.

An unusually large audience was present Monday evening, to hear the following program rendered:

Invocation—Dr. Farriss
President's Address—William B. Crawford
Organ—Pastorale
History and Prophecy—Garrett Rodgers
Song—Happy Days
Presentation of Class Memorial to the University—J. Turner Butler
Acceptance of Class Memorial on behalf of the University—Eugene J. York
Song—College M. Day
Valedictory—Emmett Wilson
Benediction

In this short article, it is impossible to do justice to the addresses made on this occasion. To attempt a write-up is futile in the space allotted here.

They were all good and but showed what may be expected of this class in the near future. There is not a school in the United States but would be proud of the eight young men comprising the senior law class of Stetson University.

The class memorial was a handsome portrait of Prof. C. D. Landis, one of the instructors of the Law Department.

During the past trying year, which came to a close with this brilliant commencement, the Law Department has done more than any other one agency in holding up the school, which appears today to be on the most substantial, healthy basis. The loyalty, progressiveness, steadfastness of the student body and of the Alumni is the backbone of an institution, as of a man, that has reached the age of 21 years, and it is the happy possession of these qualities that has enabled Stetson University to weather the assault made on this institution and come out more brilliant and healthy than ever before. Adversity but strengthens—hardens the muscles—and makes man the stronger, harder, better able to meet life's battles. This will prove the case with Stetson University.

ALUMNI MEETING.

The annual meeting of the Alumni Association was held at Chaudoin Hall Monday afternoon. The matter of building a hospital for the school, talked of at the last meeting and formally decided upon, was informally discussed, and a committee appointed to perfect arrangements and solicit funds for this purpose. Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows:

President—Miss Elizabeth E. Winegar.
1st V.-P.—Walter G. Sparkman
2nd V.-P.—Harriet Fuller
3rd V.-P.—Bessie Walker.
Rec. Sec.—G. C. Staley.
Cor. Sec.—Fred Fox.
Chaplain—John G. Black.

ALUMNI BANQUET.

This "feast of soul and flow of reason" took place in Chaudoin Hall after the Monday evening exercises and lasted until the wee sma' hours Tuesday morning. After an excellent course repast had been disposed of, toasts were responded to as follows: Academy '04—Walter G. Sparkman. College '04—E. F. Oates. Trustees—Rev. J. E. Oates. Alumni—Rev. F. C. Edwards. University—Dr. Farriss.

ACADEMY COMMENCEMENT.

These exercises took place Tuesday morning, the following program being rendered:

Organ—Prayer from Lohengrin
Prayer—Harry K. Ware
Essay—The Influence of the Country School Teacher
Mattie Isadore Mix
Essay—The Destruction of the Southern Pine
Marion Jackson
Oration—Division of Labor and the Individual
Robert Howard Stevens
Essay—The Educational Influence of Illustrations
Esther Hampton
Song—Open thy Lattice
Lily May Cleveland
Oration—Russia, the War Factor of Europe
Frederick William Botts
Essay—Wealth, Its Use and Abuse
Lillian Hamlin
Essay—The Evolution of Man
Harriet May Fuller
Oration—Measures of Greatness
Walter Gwynne Sparkman
Piano—Au Matin
Myrtle Davis
Presentation of Diplomas
Benediction

The graduates from the Academy were as follows:

Classical Course—Herbert Jones Chaffer, Walter Gwynne Sparkman.
Latin Scientific Course—Frederick William Botts, Alice Ethel Bouchelle, Lora Fish, Harriet May Fuller, Lillian Hamlin, Bessie Thornton Porter, Robert Howard Stevens, Howard Proctor Stewart.

General Course—Marion Jackson, Walter DeForrest Knox, George Leitner, Roe Reamy Mitchell, David Wilberforce Winsor.

Normal Course—Emily Caroline May, Mattie Isadore Mix.
Kindergarten Course—Agnes Ruth Walker.

THE COLLEGE AND LAW EXERCISES took place in the auditorium Tuesday evening, before the second very large audience of the week. The program follows:

Organ—March in C
Prayer—W. Garrett Rodgers
Song—Rev. J. E. Oates
Oration—Pearl Spaulding
Oration—The Power of a Purpose
Rev. A. J. Reamy
Stetson Quartette
Benediction

Rev. Reamy took for the subject of his remarks the life and trials of Daniel, and for 35 minutes told of this noted biblical character. He impressed on his hearers especially the necessity of keeping the body, mind and soul undivided, that they be at all times in condition to do God's work.

Degrees were conferred on the following:

Degree of Bachelor of Laws—J. Hall Brumsey, J. Turner Butler, William Bloxham Crawford, Harold Ernest Merryday, Edward Lee Powe, Nicholas G. Van Sant, Emmett Wilson, Augustus Spencer Wingood.

Degree of Bachelor of Science—John Nelson Worley.

Degree of Bachelor of Philosophy—Margaretha Elizabeth Duvinage Remmers, Edward Faulkner Oates, Elizabeth Winegar.

Degree of Bachelor of Arts—William Eugene Beardsley, Fred Fox.

THE PRESIDENT'S RECEPTION.

Several hundred people attended the last of the exercises—the president's reception at Chaudoin Hall. In the receiving line were Prof. Carson, Miss Palmer, President and Mrs. Farriss, Miss Bosh and Rev. A. J. Reamy. The evening was pleasantly passed in bidding God speed to departing friends, and in conversation. Cream, cake, coffee, etc., were served in the commodious dining room.

A SUCCESSFUL SCHOOL YEAR.

This closed a most successful school year. While the attendance was not so large as last year, the old Stetson spirit is returning, and every student who left the classic halls of Stetson this week goes out as a walking advertisement, and a living evidence of the material benefits derived from the eight months' intelligent, loving, Christian instruction received at this school.

Brief Notes.

Prof. Macdougall and family have gone to their plantation at Maud, Ga., where they will as usual spend the summer.

Dr. and Mrs. Farriss will spend the summer in DeLand. Later they may go away, but for the present they will remain here.

Mr. and Mrs. Sears go to Harrison, Me., near which place Prof. Sears conducts a summer camp for boys, known as Camp Kineo.
