James Harris, assistant cashier of the Citizens Bank, returned Sunday from a week's visit in Jacksonville with his relatives.

Fresh line National Biscuit Company crackers at S. P. Mays.

Dr. G. B. Smithson was in the city on business Monday. The Dr. has been in poor health for several weeks and expects to spend the next month or so in the mountains.

The county school teachers' meeting, held in the city hall in this city Saturday afternoon was well attended and the program proved to be very interesting and instructive.

Free Jewelry at J. B. Evans.

Rev. W. R. Dorman, of Houston, state lecturer and organizer for the Farmers' Union, returned Monday from Perry, where he attended a big Farmers' Union meeting near that city on Saturday.

Have your prescriptions filled at Cook's.

Col. C. A. Hardee and Mrs. C. Y. Ryd have purchased from Mrs. D. E. Burns, of Boston, Ga., two city lots on the east side of Ohio avenue, just north of Col. Hardee's residence. This is a very valuable piece of property and the lots are well situated.

ANNOUNCEMENT—I am buying cravats again and paying the highest market price in Cash for them. J. B. NEWMAN.

Rev. Geiger, pastor of the Baptist church at Jasper, filled the pulpit at the First Baptist church in this city Sunday morning and evening and preached two able and interesting sermons. Rev. Wray, pastor, was in Lake Butler assisting in a revival meeting.

Remember this is the last week of the voting contest at Cook's.

E. B. Wise, of near this city; R. H. Curver, of Welborn, and Riley Dorman, of Houston, left Monday for Savannah to attend the Sea Island cotton growers' meeting of the Farmers' Union. They go as delegates from this county.

Found—Bunch of keys. Owner can have them by calling at this office, proving property and paying for this notice.

The Democrat is pained to learn of the death of the one-year-old child of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Burdick, at their home at Rixford, on Saturday, July 24. There over a happy home the shadow of a little grave has fallen. This beautiful baby life was so dear and fraught with blessings to the parents that it seemed as a flower permitted to bloom for a brief season by their side, then recalled to its nature skies. The precious child was laid to rest in the Live Oak cemetery Sunday afternoon.

Col. Fred W. Butler was in Jacksonville a couple of days the latter part of last week on legal business.

The Democrat is a 26 page paper this week, and each page is full of matter of interest to the citizens of Live Oak and Suwannee county.

Send for Bulletin Stetson College of Law, DeLand, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Carter of Newburn were in the city Monday, shopping. Mr. Carter had the misfortune to fall from a ladder at his home a few days ago, painfully but not seriously injuring him.

Cottage by the sea, 5 cents at Cook's.

A. J. Wright, of Perry, member of the executive committee of the State Farmers' Union, was in the city Monday en route to Savannah to attend the Sea Island cotton growers' meeting of the Farmers' Union.

A full line pipes. Suwannee Drug Co.

W. H. Newman, formerly of this county but now of Williston, Levy county, was in the city the first of the week fixing up his pension papers. He is one of the boys that wore the gray during the late unpleasantness, and is entitled to a pension from the state.

Hon. Royal C. Dunn, member of the railroad commission, was in the city Monday en route to Tampa, where on Wednesday the commissioners met with the citizens of that city to "cuss" and discuss the proposition of a new union passenger depot for that city.

Fresh line of Buist garden seed at Mays.

Nathan A. Williams, of Clayland, was among the visitors in the city Monday who favored the Democrat with a visit. Mr. Williams renewed his subscription to the Democrat and also had the names of Geo. Sapp and Jesse Jones of Clayland added to our mailing list.

Bicycles to rent at Herndon's.

Live Oak property is changing hands pretty lively now; new families are moving to the city and men are here nearly every day looking over the city with a view of locating. Live Oak is known the country over as one of the best business centers in the state and is a healthy and pleasant place in which to live.

We are the manufacturers of goods that sell quickly. One or two hustling men wanted to handle same. Good terms given desirable parties. Address P. O. Box 236. 30-2.

John Jackson, a pretty well-to-do Live Oak negro, was out at Suwannee Springs Sunday parading around with a big pistol concealed in his pocket and he got along very well as long as he remained on this side of the river. But he felt he had to cross over in Hamilton county, and when he did a Hamilton county deputy sheriff placed him under arrest and carried him over to Jasper where he was placed in jail. We understand the Hamilton county authorities assessed Jackson about $100 for treatment for the "pistol toasting habit."

Miss Abbie Duckworth has entered the shorthand department of the Southern Business College.

Miss Verdie Haddock has returned from an extended visit with relatives and friends in Georgia.

G. G. Mays expects to leave Sunday for Macon, Ga., where has been offered a lucrative position, and he may decide to accept it. We would be sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Mays from our city, and hope he may decide yet to remain in Live Oak.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cook, on Thursday, July 29, a 10 pound son. A glance at Mr. Cook's face as he came down town told the story. It not only reflected in his face, but the rapidity with which he walked convinced all that he had another to provide for. Mother and child are doing nicely.

Ex-Sheriff John Hawkins and little daughter of Inverness, came up Monday and were the guests of relatives and friends. Mr. Hawkins still has considerable property interests here and has to come up occasionally. He reports things in pretty good shape at Inverness and says fishing in the lake was never better—no trouble to go out on the lake and catch forty to fifty big fine trout.

W. L. Daughtry, formerly a citizen of this county, but now of Lakeland, was in this city Monday and bought three head of horses from the Hinely-Stephens Co., for his livery stable at Lakeland. Live Oak continues to hold her place as the best horse and mule market in Florida and shipments are often made from the stables here to points in West and South Florida. There are three big sales stables in Live Oak and they all do a good business twelve months in the year.

FOR SALE—A desirable cottage, with excellent garden spot and poultry yard; modern improvements—bath room with hot and cold water arrangements; sewer well on premises; electric lights. Walls nicely papered. Pretty flower yard in front. Close in—about two blocks from Postoffice. Building nearly new. Part cash; easy terms on balance. Apply at Democrat office or on the premises, 122 Piedmont Avenue.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCullers on Friday, a daughter, but the sunshine of love could not warm her life nor the affection of parenthood beguile her from death. On Saturday her breath went out like an exhalation of a sweet fragrant minion of woodland, and in her stead was left only a holy and beautiful memory—a memory that will last and sanctify as long as parental existence. The small body was laid to rest Sunday in the Antioch cemetery. May God's purest angels guard her slumbers.

The Democrat is authorized to state that hereafter persons will be prosecuted to the full extent of the law for driving or working on the streets of this city any poor horse or mule, or one that is lame or has sore back or shoulders, or that is in such condition as to be unfit for use. We are glad to know the law preventing cruelty to dumb animals is to be enforced in Live Oak.

There has been little change in the condition of little Alberta Drew the past week. She is a very sick child.

B. P. Coachman has moved to the McGriff cottage for the present and until he can purchase or rebuild his home.

The well known Optician, Dr. Rowell, has returned from Atlanta and is ready to look after his patients needs in the way of treatment for the eyes.

Mrs. J. F. Harrell and children and Miss Irene Owens, left Tuesday for Henderson, N. C., where they will spend the remainder of the summer.

Miss Vivian Evans, reported quite sick in last week's issue of the Democrat is probably some better today. (Thursday.)

A. Masters has leased the Lucas dwelling in the Helvenston addition, and has moved thereto. The Democrat, on behalf of the good people of Live Oak, is pleased to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Masters back to our city.

Mr. Lonnie Gornito and sisters, Miss Beulah and Miss Flora, returned to their home in Valdosta Monday after a several days' visit in this city with their brother, S. Gornito. They made the trip to and from Valdosta in Mr. Gornito's automobile, one of the finest machines ever seen in this city.

Mrs. M. E. White, who makes her home with B. P. Coachman, lost all her clothing in the fire Wednesday morning, as did her little daughter, Miss Mable, whose home is at the Orphanage Home, Macon, Ga. Here is an opportunity for the generous and good people of Live Oak to lend some assistance in the time of need.

A happy party of Live Oak young people spent last Tuesday morning at the beautiful lakes four miles north of the city near the home of Mr. Emmett Wise, and in the afternoon they drove over to Suwannee Springs. Among those in the party were: Misses Kate Crouch, Ethel Randall, Blanche Grubb, Mr. Clifford Roberson and Mr. Henry Grant. Mrs. D. O. Henry was the chaperone.

Notice.

Editor Democrat:—Please announce that there will be a Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. picnic at Philadelphia church Saturday before the second Sunday in August, the 7th.

Everybody invited to come and be with us and bring well-filled baskets, and help us make the day one long to be remembered. JOHN B. MILLS, Sec.

The Round Dozen Club.

The Round Dozen and their husbands were gloriously entertained on Thursday, July 22nd, by Mrs. Charlton Blackwell and Mrs. Geo. Porter, Jr., at their Cottage-by-the-Springs.

It was a merry party that (gathered round tables on the cool veranda) spent a charmed half hour picking up beans with chop sticks. Now, all of us "Know Beans," but we do not all know chop sticks, so among people of ordinary honesty what more natural than that the electrician's wife and the jeweler should win the prize? Now if the plumber had been represented—

The prizes were awarded with appropriate remarks by Mr. Atkisson, who thereby reserved his usual custom of pointing to the prize, to pointing to the winner. An old time supper was then served, and those who knew so little of Round Dozen spreads as to have appeased their appetites beforehand were sorry, sorry.

After supper the jokes, dear old friends, came forth led by Capt. Hillman's little dog with a pipe in his mouth.

Besides the club members and husbands there were present: Mr. and Mrs. Jack White, who have taken a cottage at the Springs, Rev. R. V. Atkisson; Mrs. J. C. Baisden and Miss Ada Mae Roberson, guests of the Suwannee Springs hotel; Mrs. Claude Ansley, substitute for Mrs. Charles Blackburn, and Mrs. Willis Bryson, with all of whom the club was glad to share so delightful an evening.

If you have lost a large half-wild black hog, apply to J. P. Abbott, Mayo, or J. W. Weeks, Live Oak.
