C. S. LeFevre, of Luraville, was in the city Monday looking after business matters. Mr. LeFevre has decided to retire from the mercantile business, and, commencing October 1st, will offer his entire stock for cost and below, and will sell the whole or any part of it at that price. This stock consists of about $6,000 worth of first-class merchandise, a very complete and up-to-date stock. See the advertisement elsewhere in today's Democrat and give Mr. LeFevre a call.

City Marshal, J. M. Hawkins, of Perry, a Live Oak boy who has made good at Perry, and is making one of the best officers in the state, was in the city Monday and was very anxious to meet some Suwannee county boys who were visitors at Perry recently. He is in position to befriend them if they will act the part of men, and we hope they will. Mr. Hawkins is recovering from the effects of a "tustle" with a man loaded with booze, in which he had the misfortune to have his shoulder dislocated.

Did It Ever Occur to You?

"I paid that bill once."
"You must be mistaken."
"Indeed, I am not mistaken."
"Have you a receipt?"
"It seems to me I have, but I don't remember what I did with it."
"We have no record of payment, and unless you can produce our acknowledgement in the way of a receipt, we must insist that you pay the account."
But it might have been a different story had the bill been paid with a bank check. No chance for argument or dispute when the cancelled check is produced. Better pay your bills but once—with a check on this bank.

Mrs. M. K. Jones entertained her music class of over twenty last Saturday afternoon. It was a happy gathering and the time was spent in games and music. The surprise game that their teacher had planned (the blind-folded musician) was a great success. Refreshments were served and they all went home happy with the promise that their next party would be a Xmas tree and a real Santa Claus.

INDIANS TAKE BOTH GAMES.

Interesting Game of Ball Monday Afternoon—Live Oak vs. Indians.

Last Monday there were two games of ball played on the local diamond—Live Oak vs. Chickasaw Indians. The first game was called at 3 p. m. The first one was a very pretty game in which Live Oak held the visitors down to a goose egg until the fourth inning, when they made 2 runs. From that on it was the visitors game, and although Live Oak put up a splendid game, there never was a time when they had a chance to win. John Crandall pitched for the locals, and his twirling was as good as that of the Chickasaw pitcher. The fielding and batting of the visitors gave them the game. C. D. Blackwell did the umpiring.

The game at night was not a very interesting one. The Chickasaws furnished the lights for this game. The size of the diamond was reduced, and the ball used was a large leather one. The visitors were used to playing ball by artificial light and proceeded to make the score 13 to 1. They might have made it 20 to 1 if they had felt like it.

The Chickasaw Indian team were not all Indians. There were three or four full-bloods, however, and they are very fair ball players.
