ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED OF MISS JESSIE SUTTON.

A very enjoyable afternoon was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Earnest on Thursday afternoon, January 13. A number of Miss Sutton's friends, being invited to a supposedly informal rook party. Upon entering the reception hall, one caught a glimpse of white ribbons hanging from the chandelier in the living room, disappearing into a beautifully decorated basket. Curiosity was rife among the girls as to what it contained, but the clever hostess refusing to satisfy their curiosity, passed attractive score cards and took players at several tables began merrily playing. After several interesting and exciting games, Miss Marie Wilson passed dainty bougainvilles of violets. Then a delicious salad course with punch and bonbons was served by Mrs. Frank Wilson and Miss Marie Wilson. Near the close of this enjoyable afternoon Miss Sutton drew from the basket the ribbons, from which hung two white hearts, and dainty white and gold good luck slippers. On the hearts was written in gold "J. C. S. and J. A. T. Feb. 24, 1916." Thus announcing the engagement of Miss Sutton and Mr. Timberlake, a young attorney of Arcadia.

The party broke up with good wishes from all to the young hostess. There were many expressions of regret at losing such a congenial and popular friend. Those invited were: Misses Juanita Pipkin, Mulberry; Lillian Youmans, Tampa; Eunice Costin, Iris Watson, Edith Yeats, Emma Dozier, Gladys Hooker, Finney White, Lillian Carpenter, Mabel Booth, Detapsie Brewster, Nell Moore, Tommie Lee Wilson, Marie Wilson, Sallie Loflin, and little Miss Evelyn Wilson. Mesdames J. C. Halliwell, Frank Wilson, C. A. Bonnell, of Atlanta, Ga., and Mrs. W. L. Clifton, St. Augustine Record.

There is no longer any need to worry about a hog and cattle market. The man who made the packing house possible for Southern Georgia says that he is ready to start one in Florida.

DON'T MISTAKE THE CAUSE.

Many Arcadia People Have Kidney Trouble and Do Not Know It.

Do you have backache? Are you tired and worn out? Feel dizzy, nervous and depressed? Are the kidney secretions irregular?

Highly colored, contain sediment? Likely your kidneys are at fault. Weak kidneys give warning of distress.

Heed the warning; don't delay—Use a tested kidney remedy.

Read this Arcadia testimony. C. H. Kirkpatrick, contractor and builder, Cemetery St., Arcadia, says: "I had kidney complaint for a long time. It began with a tired feeling and severe attacks of backache. Often I could scarcely stoop or straighten without intense pains. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and caused me a lot of annoyance. I used Doan's Kidney Pills, and the results were so satisfactory that I have relied upon them ever since."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Kirkpatrick had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.
