

HEALTH is the Most Important

The manufacturers of Royal Baking Powder have had 40 years of scientific experience.

Every method of bread-and-cake raising has been exhaustively studied in this country and abroad.

The result is a perfect product in Royal Baking Powder. There is no substitute for it. The purity and efficiency of Royal Baking Powder have been commended by the highest authorities of the world.

These facts mean two important things to all housekeepers:

First; that Royal Baking Powder is healthful and makes wholesome food.

Second; that Royal Baking Powder makes food good to taste.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER
ABSOLUTELY
PURE

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Matters of General Interest Gathered by Our Reporters.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL ITEMS

What Has Happened and What is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "He Who Runs May Read" It in The Sun.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

Lum Morrison of Hawthorn was trading in the city yesterday.

Burrell Wiggins of Hague was trading in the city yesterday.

Mrs. Giles Fowler of Lennox was shopping in the city yesterday.

W. A. Murphy of Fairfield was a business visitor to this city yesterday.

D. V. Smith of Melrose was among the business visitors to this city yesterday.

W. W. Colson is erecting a barn on the rear of his residence lot on Alachua avenue.

George C. Snowden and son, Earnest, of Hatchet Creek were trading in the city yesterday.

T. W. Pitts has returned to his home in Tampa, after several days spent in this city on business.

Wm. Adams of Windsor, one of the solid farmers of the East End, was trading in the city yesterday.

F. S. Osteen, the naval stores operator of Micanopy, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

J. S. Dupuis and son, Sydney, of Alachua were among those who favored Gainesville with a visit yesterday.

Mrs. Z. M. Price of Micanopy is in the city on a visit to friends. She came for the purpose of attending the Bible Conference.

Mrs. Charles Stephens of Alachua is in the city on a visit to Mrs. R. P. Goss. She came to attend the services at the Tabernacle.

Geo. R. Hotchkiss of Waldo, George Gibbons of Archer and James Croxton of Micanopy were among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday.

E. E. Slappy of Micanopy, one of the most extensive and most successful melon growers of that section, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

For Standing Purposes—Famous Jack "Elite" thoroughly pedigreed, recently brought from fine stock. Will stand at Kanapaha at any time from this date on. Service, $10, half down, balance when colt is foaled. Address Venable & Jones, Kanapaha, Fla. w8t

Wanted—One 8, 10 or 12 horse-power upright boiler in condition that can be repaired. Apply "M," care Gainesville Sun. w8t.

Mrs. B. F. Williams and Miss Emma Williams of Trenton, after a pleasant visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Colson in this city, returned to their home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Babbitt have arrived in the city from Orlando. Mr. Babbitt is a photographer, and has established a business at the corner of West Liberty and Garden streets.

Miss M. Virginia Smith of Ansonia, Conn., who is spending the winter at Melrose, was in the city yesterday. Miss Smith came for the purpose of consulting Dr. J. H. Alderman in regard to some dental work.

S. T. Fleming of Archer, one of the rising young men of that place, was in the city for a few hours yesterday. He was en route to Alachua, where last night he represented the Archer lodge, Knights of Pythias, at the district meeting.

Rev. S. W. Colson of Jennings Lake was in the city for a few hours Wednesday. He was en route home from LeConte, Citrus county, where he had been to fill an appointment. While here Rev. Colson was the guest of Mr. Mrs. W. W. Colson.

A. G. Lamb of Micanopy was in the city yesterday. Mr. Lamb, who has about fourteen acres in cabbage, five acres in lettuce and five acres in peas, states that the cold has affected the latter, but the lettuce and cabbage have been practically uninjured.

Our contract with persons to whom advances are made to assist them in growing crops is iron-clad. Just the thing for merchants who advance to croppers. $2 for 50; $3 per hundred, cash with order. Not less than 50 sold. THE SUN, Gainesville, Fla. daw

George Cellon of Miami is in the city, having been summoned on account of the serious illness of his mother, who is ill at the home of Francis Cellon, North Garden street. The patient is about ninety years of age, and naturally the affliction is hard. It is hoped, however, that she will soon recover.

Abe Dzialynski, who has been engaged in the fruit and produce business in this city for the past few months, having disposed of his interests, expects to make his departure in a day or two for White Springs, where he will assist his mother in running a hotel. While his friends here regret very much to lose him, they will nevertheless wish him success in his new home.

W. E. Dow, district deputy grand chancellor of the order of Knights of Pythias, departed yesterday for Alachua, where he went to preside over the district meeting of the order, which convened yesterday afternoon and last night. Mr. Dow is one of the most popular Knights in the State, as well as one of the most efficient officials. His district meetings are always well attended and highly enjoyed.

A. Chrestomidhea has purchased the fruit and confectionery business of A. Dzialynski, West Union street. He will continue to operate same, but will make a great many improvements in the place. He proposes to thoroughly renovate and repair the room, and make many improvements which he deems necessary to a first-class fruit stand, after which the place will be opened to the public. John, as he is more familiarly known, has made a great success of the fruit business here, having conducted a store for many years.

READ THIS.

Mobile, Ala., Dec. 24, 1890.
Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: Having tried different doctors and their remedies for several years for back and kidney troubles, I found nothing successful until taking The Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, and being rapidly cured, the old saying with railroad men is "God bless the man who invented the Pullman sleeping car," but I say "God bless the inventor of Hall's Texas Wonder." Yours truly, W. B. CLARK.
M. & O. R. R. Co., Mobile, Ala.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 639, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

Engineer John Quinlan of the Atlantic Coast Line, one of the cleverest fellows who ever pulled a throttle, has been assigned to the High Springs-Rochelle run for a few days, succeeding Engineer Berry Daniels. Mr. Quinlan has been running between St. Petersburg and Palatka for the past few weeks. His family resides at High Springs, however, and he says he is glad he has been transferred, in order to be with them. He formerly ran between High Springs and Rochelle, and has many old friends along the route who are glad to welcome him again.

From Saturday's Daily Sun.

W. A. Strickland of Paradise was trading in the city yesterday.

N. J. Williams of Bell was transacting business in Gainesville yesterday.

J. Lee Stokes of Micanopy was among the visitors to this city yesterday.

Mrs. A. H. Emerson of Tacoma is in the city, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Emerson.

A. W. Taylor has returned from the West End, where he has been engaged in surveying for the past few days.

Miss Lillie Merry of Micanopy was in the city yesterday. While here she was the guest of Mrs. M. B. Saunders.

S. H. Gaitskill of McIntosh, one of the most widely known residents of that section, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

George A. Main of Rocky Point, one of the successful truckers of that section, was in the city yesterday and made The Sun an agreeable call.

Dr. W. C. Andruss of Archer, one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of that section, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

R. B. Dean of Anderson, S. C., who is visiting A. H. Emerson at Tacoma, was among those who came to Gainesville yesterday. He is well pleased with this section.

Mrs. S. O. Barron and two children of Bell, who have been here for the past two or three days as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Colson, have gone to Arredondo, where they will be the guests of the former's sister, Mrs. S. G. Gay.

Farman Smith of Alachua, who is a student of the law department at the John B. Stetson University, DeLand, was in the city for a few hours yesterday. He was en route to his home, where he will spend a few days with relatives.

Miss Lessie May of Wade, the accomplished and efficient assistant of the Waldo High School, was in the city yesterday. She was en route to her home, where she will spend a few days. The Waldo school has been temporarily suspended.

Friends of Mrs. J. M. Spivey, South Gainesville, will regret to learn of her serious illness. Mrs. J. M. Price of Melrose, Mrs. J. R. Pope of Ft. White, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Spivey of Windsor, relatives of the patient, are here, having been summoned on account of her illness. It is hoped that there will soon be a change for the better.

R. B. Livingston of the Diamond Ice Company and Mr. Waterman of Columbus, Ga., an expert ice machine man in the employ of the Columbus Iron Works, departed yesterday for Alachua, where they went to arrange the plans for the construction of the new ice plant, which will be installed at that place by the Diamond Ice Company.

Captain W. G. Shehee of High Springs, one of The Sun's oldest and truest friends, was in the city yesterday. Friends of Captain Shehee will regret to learn that he has been suffering greatly with rheumatism for several months. He expects to make his departure shortly for Hampton Springs, and should he not receive benefit there will proceed to Hot Springs.

A fire was discovered on the roof of the Gainesville Steam Laundry yesterday afternoon. Through the presence of mind of Claud Devenau, an employe of the laundry, a chemical extinguisher was secured from the fire station, only a few yards away, and the flames subdued with little damage. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been from a spark from the laundry furnace.

An official order has been issued from the office of Adjutant-General Foster of the Florida State Troops at Tallahassee providing for an inspection of the troops throughout the State, by Col. I. T. Norville of the United States Army, regular inspecting officer, and Adjutant-General Foster. The date selected for the inspection of the Gainesville Guards is March 7, and elaborate preparations will be made for the occasion.

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

L. C. Gray of High Springs was in the city on business yesterday.

Mrs. T. J. McRae of Hawthorn was stopping in the city yesterday.

Monroe Venable of Kanapaha was among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday.

Mrs. Chas. W. Stephens of Alachua made a brief visit to friends in this city yesterday.

Mrs. James Holder of Rochelle visited her mother, Mrs. J. L. Kelley, in this city yesterday.

Warranty Deeds for sale at this office; 50c per dozen, $2.50 per hundred. Cash must accompany order.

R. S. Bradley of Wauchoo, one of the progressive farmers of that section, was trading in the city yesterday.

M. D. Bryan of Alachua and L. A. Polk of Hague were in the city yesterday and made The Sun an appreciated call.

J. F. Futch and son of Haynesworth were in the city yesterday. Mr. Futch is one of the progressive farmers of that section.

J. A. J. and C. C. Strickland of Hague and O. M. Graham of Dartington were among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday.

Alex Read of Montbrook, superintendent of the Tyler Lumber Company, was among the business visitors to this city yesterday.

Mrs. Marion Phifer of High Springs, nee Miss Nellie Corpew of Melrose, made a brief but pleasant visit to relatives and friends in this city yesterday.

J. Q. Peacock of Williston, H. C. Meachen, wife and child of Meredith and T. J. Knight of Newberry were among the visitors to this city yesterday.

Miss Ruby Hawkins of Kirkwood, teacher of the school at that place, was in the city yesterday. Miss Hawkins is one of the most competent teachers in the county.

For Sale—40-acre farm near Hampton, Fla., partly improved and partly timbered; spring of fine mineral water; cheap for cash. Address Box 314, Gainesville, Fla. dlw2

Dr. J. F. McKinstry, Sr., has returned from Tacoma, where he was called to attend B. F. Mathews. Mr. Mathews is very ill, but it is hoped his condition will soon improve.

W. T. Brown of Archer has removed with his family to this city, and will reside in South Gainesville. He is a carpenter, and has accepted a position with Contractor George Forman.

Our labor contract saves possible loss from advances made to employes. Price: 50c or less by mail, 3½ cents each; $3 per hundred; cash with order. THE SUN, Gainesville, Fla. daw

Prof. M. H. DeLand of the Alachua high school arrived in the city yesterday and will spend Sunday with his family here. He reports the school in excellent condition, with a fine enrollment and attendance.

In the write-up of the U. D. C. reception at the home of Mrs. J. N. Strobhar Thursday afternoon the name of Mrs. Jas. H. Vidal was unintentionally omitted as one of the guests, and proper apology is offered to the lady.

Registration Notice.—Notice is hereby given that the registration books of the city of Gainesville are now open at my office in the United States land office, and all persons desiring to do so can register on or before March 12th, 1905. J. M. DELL, City Clerk.

The Gainesville Improvement Company yesterday sold to Mr. Deen, a naval stores operator, two lots in East Gainesville, upon which Mr. Deen proposes to erect handsome and modern cottages. The real estate market continues to be brisk.

Prof. J. C. Adkins, principal of the Stoble school, was in the city on business connected with the school board yesterday. Prof. Adkins reports his school in excellent condition. There is a good enrollment and effective work is being accomplished.

Miss Eva Fildes, the accomplished and efficient teacher of the Grove Park school, was in the city yesterday, having come on business connected with the school board. Miss Fildes resided here for several years and has many friends who were delighted to welcome her.

M. J. Orr of Newberg, W. Va., who has been here for some time with the family of B. W. Nine, has become so deeply infatuated with the country that he has decided to make his home here, and has purchased the Brown house, more familiarly known as the Graham place, West Gainesville, just at the beginning of Cunningham lane. Mr. Orr proposes to conduct an up-to-date farm, and will no doubt make a success. He will occupy the premises in a few days, and it is to be hoped he will be well pleased in his new home.

TO BEAUTIFY...
YOUR COMPLEXION
IN 10
DAYS, USE

Satinola

THE UNEQUALLED BEAUTIFIER.

SATINOLA is a new discovery, guaranteed and money refunded if it fails to remove the worst case of Freckles, Pimples, Tan, Sallowness, Liver Spots, Blackheads, or any skin eruption, in 10 days. Leaves the skin clear, soft, healthy, and restores the beauty of youth. Thousands testify to the merits of Satinola. Price 50c and $1.00 by leading druggists or mail. Prepared only by NATIONAL TOILET CO., Paris, Tenn.

Sold in Gainesville by J. S. Bodiford & Co., J. W. McCallum & Co., W. M. Johnson and all leading druggists.

Dr. J. H. Claywell of Cedar Key was among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday. He is one of the oldest and most influential citizens of the City by the Gulf.

George Taylor of Palmier, superintendent of the Gainesville Peach Orchard Company and one of the cleverest fellows in the world, was transacting business in this city yesterday. Mr. Taylor states the recent cold weather did little damage to blossoms and he anticipates a big crop.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cone of 309 South Oak avenue are rejoicing over the advent of twins—two boys, who came to bless their home early Saturday morning. The Sun, with other friends, extends congratulations, and trusts the youngsters will grow up to be as handsome and as useful as their "dad."

J. H. Rollins of Rochelle was among those who paid Gainesville a visit yesterday. He called at The Sun office and renewed his subscription for another year. Mr. Rollins states that the people in his section as a rule are prosperous and happy and have not been seriously affected by the recent cold.

F. E. Cellon of Hague is in the city, having been summoned on account of the illness of his aged mother, Mrs. M. Cellon, who is critically ill here. The patient is aged, being in the neighborhood of ninety, but it is hoped by her friends that she will rally and live many more years of a generous and happy life, as she has lived in the past.

Work is progressing nicely on the new object-lesson road, about five hundred yards having so far been constructed under direction of Expert Dodge. Mr. Dodge calculates at the present rate that he will finish the road within the next three weeks, and he is confident enough to guarantee in advance that it will be one of the best roads in Florida.

Mrs. J. D. Reeves and daughter, Miss Maggie, of Micanopy are in the city, being called on account of the serious illness of Miss May Stokes, who is suffering at the home of A. T. Davies. Miss Alice Stokes of Flemington is expected today. The condition of the patient is quite serious, but it is hoped there will be a change for the better, and that she will soon recover.

Prof. J. H. Fulks of the Archer school is spending Sunday with his family here. Prof. Fulks states that Mrs. C. D. Wood, who has been quite sick at Archer, is greatly improved, and that hopes are now entertained for her recovery. Among other Archer news he mentioned that Mrs. Dr. Waddell of Marietta, Ga., had arrived, and would spend several weeks with her husband.

Little Miss Jessie Chesnut has returned from Alachua, where she has been for the past few days on a visit to her cousin, little Miss Katherine, the cute daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Haile. Miss Katherine gave a party in commemoration of her sixth birthday at the home of her parents Saturday afternoon. There were a number of her young friends present, and the afternoon was spent in a most delightful manner, refreshments being served. The little folks in their childish games enjoyed the afternoon, and it is needless to add will remember it for a long time.