Out in Kansas they call him John D. Robafeller.

Upwards of 3,000 private pension bills have been passed by the present Congress.

Mr. Rockefeller's weight is 200 pounds—or was before Kansas began to nag him.

The big stick that will most attract attention during the summer is the baseball bat.

Michigan Republicans have a holy horror of primary reform, or any other kind of reform.

When it comes to evading payments of bills President Castro can give Abdul Hamid points.

A bill has been presented in Congress to prevent divorced people from holding public office.

Perhaps Hawaii is ready for Statehood. One little postoffice on the island has been discovered short $27,000.

The government, through the Civil Service Commission, has advertised for yardmasters, engineers and trainmen to go to Panama.

The wall comes from Manila that resident Americans won't go to church. Evidently the traveling Americans can't shake off home habits.

Nan Patterson, the actress who is charged with the murder of Caesar Young, will be up for third trial April 10, at New York. She should be set free.

The old idea of our grandmothers that a man and wife can live jointly on less than either of them can live separately, is not suited to our present method of living.

If the government would tax bachelors and give each woman to whom a child is born a pension, the race suicide problem might be solved. There is food for thought here.

Perseverance is all right in some instances; but the fellow who asked his wife four times before she would have him, says he would now be a free man if he had not been so persevering.

The sentence of Mrs. Chadwick to ten years in prison, being convicted on six counts, was the cause of her counsel taking exceptions, and the case will be carried to the United States Supreme Court.

The Japanese loan of $155,000,000 has been taken by New York, Chicago and other capitalists of the United States. The bonds were offered for sale "when issued," and 90 was bid and 93 cents asked.

The Tampa Herald is nobly defending Governor Broward from the "criticisms by the State press;" but the State press is not criticising Governor Broward to any great extent that any one but The Herald is aware of. But The Herald has got it on hand and is loath to work it off in some manner.

JAPAN.

In speaking of Japan and her resources, The Portland Oregonian says that the population of Japan is about 43,000,000—one-third that of Russia. But Japan has a homogeneous population and is near the seat of war. Her supply of men will not fail and her people are prepared for immense sacrifices. The spirit of her soldiery is splendid, as the fighting shows. Japan can furnish men enough. She can place more men at the seat of war than Russia can. Her main problem is the financial one; but herein she certainly has no more difficult problem than that which confronts Russia. Less difficult, probably.

But the recent developments in this country go to show that there is plenty of money in the United States to be had for Japan at a very low rate of interest, the bonds selling at or above 90 cents.

TAKE THE MONEY.

The action of the Board of Missions of Boston in refusing the $100,000 proffered by John D. Rockefeller, seems a trifle queer. The dollars are honest enough, and although they may have been "wickedly accumulated," it is safe to wager that every voting member of that board had time after time voted to aid just such an accumulation of money. And there are no doubt many others who contribute large sums to the missionary fund, that have made their wealth through the manipulation of other processes that are no more right, morally, than the methods of the Standard Oil Company. If they had taken the money and used it to good advantage it would have been just as well, and left it to the All Wise to judge this man.

The closing of some of the fashionable hotels along the East Coast may lead some to believe that it is warm enough for invalids to return to their Northern homes. This is emphatically not the case. Those people have good reason for returning home early. They were well when they came here and only made the trip to blow what money they had. They have "blown" and must go. It won't be warm in the North for a month, or possibly six weeks. Hundreds have been caught in a storm by going North in May. A lady who has spent several winters in Gainesville remarked: "My ticket does not run out until the last of May, and I shall stay here just as long as I can on that ticket."

"The man who lives unto himself alone is a failure," says The Mason City Globe-Gazette. "He may pile up money, he may love his wife and family in that he is generous to them in their expenditures, he may support the churches and give to charitable purposes on demand, but the men who leave their impress upon a community are those who give that community abundant service and are not always creating the illusive mirage with the band wagon for the central attraction."

$100 Reward, $100.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists, 75c.

Miss Mildred Lee, youngest daughter of Gen. Robt. E. Lee, died in New Orleans on Monday, March 27, while on a visit to Mrs. Wm. P. Johnson. Apoplexy was the cause of her death.

The Kansas Legislature has passed a law, and Governor Hoch has signed it, providing for separate high schools for whites and blacks in Kansas City.

While the railroads of France are owned by companies, the charges for carrying freight are stipulated by the government, and the government control is far more exacting than anything ever proposed in this country. The public is satisfied and the railroad companies do not think of complaining. The continental countries hold that under modern conditions the railroad is in the same relation to the United States that the highway was a century ago.

The demand for hotel accommodations for next winter will be cause for much building in Florida this summer, and carpenters will find plenty of employment. As a winter resort it takes the lead of all other States in the Union, and as a health resort for the afflicted it has no equal.

VALOR AND HEROISM.

Proof That the Real Brand of It Exists in South America.

"Every country has its heroes, and it is refreshing to read something of the heroic in the history of the countries south of us," said a thoughtful man. "In a history of South America attention is called to a number of things which tend to show that the popular estimate of valor and heroism in that section of the world may not be altogether the correct one. It is related that once the Peruvian monitor Huascar fought against three Chilean ships. "After both Admiral Grau and his flag lieutenant were killed Captain Aguirre took command, and then succeeded by Captain Carabajal, who was put hors de combat by a shell. The command devolved then on Lieutenant Rodrigue, who was killed; then on Lieutenant Palacios, who was disabled, and finally Lieutenant Gareyon, with the ship on fire, three feet of water in the hold and with a loss of half his officers and crew, was forced to strike his flag. On July 23, 1879, the Huascar was in action against the Chilean ship Abtao. Torpedoes at that time were not much understood, and one, being fired from the Huascar, through faulty mechanism returned back straight upon the ship. Seeing this and knowing that if the ship was struck she must sink, Lieutenant Diaz Canezo jumped overboard and in the water with his hands altered its course just before it came in contact with the ship."

Ticked the Stamp Fiend.

Stamp collectors are delighted when they secure a specimen which was issued before some mistake in printing was detected. During the Buffalo exposition the government issued a stamp to commemorate the occasion which depicted the Empire express train. A practical joker cut out the central part of one of the stamps which contained the train and carefully replaced it so that the train was in an upside down position. This he pasted on an envelope and mailed it to a friend who was a rabid collector.

The practiced eye of the stamp fiend at once discovered the misplaced position of the train, but did not notice the deception, and the collector was almost wild with joy until he offered it for sale, when he was informed that it was not a "rare" but a "cut out" stamp be preserved.—New York Press.
