The Boss Worm Medicine. H. P. Kampfe, druggist, Leighton, Ala., writes: "One of my customers had a child which was sick, and threw up all food, could retain nothing on its stomach. He bought one bottle of White's Cream Vermifuge, and it brought up 119 worms from the child. It's the boss worm medicine in the world." White's Cream Vermifuge is also the children's tonic. It improves their digestion and assimilation of food, strengthens their nervous system and restores them to the health, vigor and elasticity of spirits natural to childhood. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Mr. Leahy's Resignation. In tendering his resignation as division passenger agent of the Atlantic Coast Line, with headquarters in Savannah, W. H. Leahy steps down from a position which he has held with credit to himself and profit to his employers for several years. No transportation man in the South, especially in this State, had more friends, and it is with a general regret that the public learned of his resignation. Always accommodating and desirous of treating the public right, he will long be remembered and appreciated by those with whom he came in contact.

Mr. Leahy has not yet announced his intentions, but it is understood that he has a fine position, which he will accept at the proper time.

Bent Her Double. "I knew no one, for four weeks, when I was sick with typhoid and kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Annie Hunter of Pittsburg, Pa., "and when I got better, although I had one of the best doctors I could get, I was bent double, and had to rest my hands on my knees when I walked. From this terrible affliction I was rescued by Electric Bitters, which restored my health and strength, and now I can walk as straight as ever. They are simply wonderful." Guaranteed to cure stomach, liver and kidney troubles; all drug stores; price 50c.

HOW WE KEPT THE DAY.

The Fourth of July Celebration at Island Grove.

Island Grove, July 5.—Perhaps no place in Florida the size of our little town had a more glorious celebration of that grand event which made our nation the most powerful of all nations than we had at this place on the Fourth. The people all turned out in full force to show their answering patriotism and love for the American flag that shields us beneath its protecting folds.

The program was beautifully and most impressively rendered.

The tree under which the speakers' stand was placed was draped in red, white and blue, and two flags were floating in the tree above.

The first number on the program was that old familiar song, "America," which was rendered by a number of clear young voices.

F. T. Baker, Sr., then read in a most impressive manner that old immortal document, "The Declaration of Independence," which, though often we may hear it, never fails to thrill us with admiration for our patriotic forefathers.

The young people then sang "The Star Spangled Banner," after which Mr. Wm. Evans was introduced and read very clearly an appropriate paper for the occasion.

Next on the program was a song, "Battle Hymn of the Republic," which was well rendered. Then came a march which was rendered to perfection by forty little boys and girls. The little ones by their ease and grace delighted the lookers-on and won for themselves great applause.

Mr. J. Whistler was then introduced as the orator of the day, and delighted his hearers with a most appropriate and well delivered address.

"Columbia" was then very impressively sung by the young people, after which the good ladies spread a most sumptuous dinner, and it is needless to say that this was one of the most enjoyable features of the day.

Ice cream was served free during the day, and the entire day was an unceasing flow of enjoyment to both old and young.

In the evening Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Shaw prolonged the enjoyment of the young people by tendering to them a social gathering which was much appreciated. Parlor games were indulged in till a late hour, when the young people took their departure, each voting Mr. and Mrs. Shaw charming entertainers.

Forced to Starve.

B. F. Leek of Concord, Ky., says: "For 20 years I suffered agonies, with a sore on my upper lip, so painful, sometimes, that I could not eat. After vainly trying everything else, I cured it with Bucklen's Arnica Salve." It's great for burns, cuts and wounds. At all drug stores; only 35c.
