

FIVE KILLED AND SEVERAL INJURED

Is the Result of a Pennsylvania Mine Explosion.

CAUSE OF ACCIDENT UNKNOWN

Mine Inspector is Unable to State Whether It Was Due to Mine Gas or Not—Men Were Working About 20 Feet Below Surface.

Uniontown, Pa., July 7.—As a result of an explosion today and the shaft of the Taylor Coal and Coke company at Searight, Pa., 6 mile west of here, five men were killed and four injured, one fatally.

Two of the dead were negroes and the other three were foreigners.

The men were working about 20 feet below the surface when the explosion occurred.

Mine Inspector Roby is unable to state whether it was due to mine gas or the small tank of gasoline which was located at the head of the shaft where the men were at work.

Other reports are to the effect that the accident was caused by a premature discharge of dynamite.

Fatal Mine Explosion.

Bluefield, W. Va., July 7.—By an explosion in the Tidewater mine at Vivian, 20 miles west of this city, nine miners, all of whom were Italians, were injured and two of them died later in the hospital, while three more are in a precarious condition, with slight chances of recovery. All of the men were burned badly. The dead are Lee Mozzille, Antonio Bupitomio. The Tidewater mine is located about 20 miles from Bluefield, and is owned and operated by the Tidewater Coal and Coke company.

NEGRO MAN KILLED BY SONS.

He Was in Posses that Was Hunting Them for Crime.

Tunica, Miss., July 7.—Mark and Robert Harris, the DeSoano county negroes who killed Bob Maston near Tunica, June 21, and who have since eluded capture at home near Walls shot and killed their own father and dangerously wounded Aubrey Gardner, of Tunica, a young man who was in a posse that had gone to arrest the Harris negroes.

The negroes were concealed in a corn field, and as Sheriff Owens, of Tunica county, and posse passed down the road, having in their keeping the father of the Harris negroes and their younger brother, whom they had arrested as accomplices in the Maston murder, they stepped to the edge of the field and opened fire on the buggy, in which were Aubrey Gardner and their aged father. One shot dispatched the old man and the other hit Gardner in the abdomen, wounding him so seriously that his life is despaired of.

Sheriff Owens and his posse returned the fire and then rushed into the field after the men. The negroes, however, escaped. Several posses are now searching for them, and it is believed that they will soon be overhauled. Gardner has been brought to Memphis and placed in a hospital.

VARDAMAN HITS ROOSEVELT.

Grows Satirical Over Negro's Appointment to Postoffice Clerkship.

Jackson, Miss., July 7.—Governor Vardaman has issued a statement, based on a telegram from Greenwood that a negro had stood the civil service examination for clerkship in the Greenwood postoffice and had insisted upon being named as clerk during the absence of one of the regular clerks. The governor says:

"I am in hope that the negro's respect for public opinion will cause him to resign or decline the place. I sincerely hope that the white people of Greenwood will have too much respect for themselves to permit him to hold it. My observation and close study of the race problem, the negro side of it in particular, convince me that when you give the negro an inch he will go another or some other extreme beyond the limit of restraint. This little incident reminds me of the case of President Roosevelt's postoffice interest, infinite affection and great consideration for the general welfare of the white people of the south. His conduct is calculated to incense the white people of the south and great love for him."

PARISIANS CHEER AMERICANS.

United States Soldiers and Marines Heartily Welcomed.

Paris, July 7.—The unusual sight of an detachment of United States sailors and marines swinging around the central thoroughfares of Paris today aroused great enthusiasm and brought out an enthusiastic welcome from the crowds along the line of march.

The American naval contingent numbering 500 men, with 25 officers, left Cherbourg in the two special trains at 3 o'clock this morning arrived at the Invalides road station at 11:40 a. m. In spite of the hard night the sailors and marines presented a fine appearance as they emerged from the station. They were uniformed as a landing party, wearing the regulation gaiters and carried rifles with fixed bayonets. A company of French infantry was drawn up fronting the station to receive the Americans. The latter formed in battalion and unfurled the American flag and naval ensign. At the same moment the French troops came to the salute, the French standard was dipped, the French band struck up the "Star Spangled Banner" and the great crowds which had surged across the Alexander bridge, shouted:

"Vive les Americans!" and "Vive Le France!" the entire multitude cheering.

Asthma Sufferers Should Know This.

Foley's Honey and Tar has cured many cases of asthma that were considered hopeless. Mrs. Adolph Baesling, 701 West Third St., Davenport, Iowa, writes: "A severe cold contracted twelve years ago was neglected until it finally grew into asthma. The best medical skill available could not give me more than temporary relief. Foley's Honey and Tar was recommended and one fifty-cent bottle entirely cured me of asthma which had been growing on me for twelve years. If I had taken it at the start I would have been saved years of suffering." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Tragic End of a Wager.

Memphis, July 7.—A special to the News-Schmittar from Vicksburg, Miss., says that D. P. Evans, of Cleveland O., who has been engaged in pushing a wheelbarrow on a journey of 10,000 miles in an effort to win a large wager, was accidentally shot and killed yesterday afternoon in the country near here. Evans lived several hours after the accident occurred and made a statement saying that his revolver was thrown from the wheelbarrow on account of the roughness of the highway. The weapon exploded, Evans receiving the shot in the abdomen. Evans, it is said, had nearly completed his long journey, having started from Cleveland in May, 1904. He was a native of Kentucky.

Killed with a Baseball Bat.

Savannah, Ga., July 7.—Struck on the head several days ago by a baseball bat, flung away in anger by Willie Lipschutz, who was struck out, 12-year-old Harry Exley, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Exley, has died from the blow. The Exley boy was an on-looker and ill-luck had it that he was standing right in the way when the Lipschutz boy flung away his bat in disgust. The skull of the Exley boy was fractured.

Crops in Good Condition.

Atlanta, July 7.—According to the climate and crop bulletin issued by Section Director J. B. Marbury, for the week ending July 3, the crops in Georgia are in good shape. The melon crop has been slightly injured by excessive rains, but the shipping of the crop is continuing satisfactorily. Cotton is rather small for the season but is growing rapidly and fruiting well.

Feel Impending Doom.

The feeling of impending doom in the minds of many victims of Bright's disease and diabetes has been changed to thankfulness by the benefit derived from taking Foley's Kidney Cure. It will cure incipient Bright's disease and diabetes and even in the worst cases gives comfort and relief. Slight disorders are cured in a few days. "I had diabetes in its worst form," writes Narvo Log of Danvers, Ind. "I tried eight physicians without relief. Only three bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure made me a well man." J. W. McCollum & Co.

Russians Want Parole. Vallejo, Cal., July 7.—More than 300 members of the crew of the Russian cruiser Lena, which is interned at Mare Island Navy yard, have made a demand upon Commander Genter, in charge of the vessel that they be accorded the same privileges as those granted the enlisted men on the Russian ships interned at Manila, that is, that all of the crew except enough men to man the ship be paroled and allowed to return to their homes in Russia. Commandder Genter told the men that he would communicate their wishes to the state department at Washington.

Injunction Against Strikers. Chicago, July 7.—Judge Jesse Holdman announced today that he will issue the injunction sought by the employers' association against six package delivery companies alleged to have discriminated against merchants involved in the teamsters' strike. Injunctions which will be signed tomorrow will command the express companies to comply with demands to deliver and receive goods for strike-bound firms.
