Mr. Melton Building Saw Mill—Notes of Personal Interest.

Micanopy, Sept. 14.—Miss Gertie Oak has returned to her home in Jacksonville after spending a week here visiting relatives and friends. Miss Gertie was raised here, but for several years she has been living in Jacksonville. Her many friends were glad to see her looking so well.

Miss Mabel Thrasher left Tuesday for Baltimore to spend a few weeks. While there she will select the latest styles in millinery for her father, Mr. J. B. Thrasher's millinery department of his store.

Miss Ethel Watkins is spending her vacation in Micanopy with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Simonton have returned home after spending several months at their summer home in Marietta, Ga. Mr. Simonton has some large peach orchards in North Georgia that are paying him handsomely. He will plant a large fall and spring vegetable crop. He is one of our most successful vegetable farmers.

W. L. Taylor of Ocala, one of the valued employes of the A. C. L. Railway, is in town today.

Mrs. S. C. Means is home again after spending the summer in Georgia and Alabama.

J. E. Thrasher, wife and Ralph returned home from Baltimore and other Eastern cities last Friday. While away Mr. Thrasher bought one of the best assorted and largest stocks of general merchandise ever brought to this place.

The Micanopy High School will open on the first Monday in October. Everything indicates that there will be a large attendance.

C. E. Melton has gone to Ellijay, Ga., to join Mrs. Melton and the children and to spend a few days in the hills of North Georgia. He will be absent for several days visiting Ellijay and other points.

J. B. Neal of McIntosh is in town today.

H. K. Stokes, the melon grower of Tuscawilla, is in the city today.

Mrs. J. P. Hester has returned home after a pleasant outing at Daytona.

Rev. E. A. Gray and wife are home again after spending a few weeks at White Springs.

Rev. T. J. Norsworthy preached two good sermons last Sunday at the Methodist church.

The young people enjoyed a moonlight picnic at W. C. Smith's, Tacoma, Tuesday night. All report a pleasant time. Mrs. Smith knows how to entertain.

Carolina to spend a few weeks visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. A. Simonton has had her two dwelling houses here repainted. Others would do well to do likewise.

Dr. W. C. Johnson has sold his drug store to Mr. McGriff. The Doctor will still continue to practice his profession at this place.

Miss Christine Wideman of Tallahassee is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Edwards.

Rev. J. T. Duncan has moved into the Barnett house. We are glad to have Mr. Duncan in our midst.

W. D. Babbist of Reddick has moved into the Saunders house on Seminary street.

C. E. Melton is building his saw mill near the G. & G. depot. This gives the town three saw mills.

The Original.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Fine Trio.

A fine trio of pedigree pointer dogs were received here Friday from Lincoln Kennels, Lincoln, Ill. The canines are of the Riprap and Jingo breed, which is said to be the finest in the country. One of the pups belonged to J. Maxey Dell, another to L. G. Lynch, and the third to Dr. Gordon B. Tyson.

Naturally, the owners of this blooded stock are proud of their possessions.

Attacked by a Mob

And beaten in a labor riot, until covered with sores, a Chicago street car conductor applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve and was soon sound and well. "I use it in my family," writes G. J. Welch of Tekonsha, Mich., "and find it perfect." Simply great for cuts and burns. Only 25c at all drug stores.

A GREAT EDUCATIONAL MOVEMENT!

A Magnificent Library Worth $500 Offered Free of Cost!

Something SUN Readers Should Consider

Read the Following Details Carefully:

The Mystery Surrounding the Beautiful Display in G. W. HYDE'S Window Revealed in the following.

A number of our enterprising merchants have arranged what will prove to be a most interesting contest between the High School, Twentieth Century Club, Odd Fellows' Home, B. P. O. Elks, Volunteer Firemen, Masons, W. O. W., K. of P., Gainesville Guards, Kirby Smith Chapter or J. J. Finley Chapter of the U. D. C., or any church, Sunday school, hospital organization or institution you would wish to own the beautiful library valued at $500, now on display at G. W. Hyde's.

THE REWARD will be a magnificent library, consisting of 200 volumes of the standard subscription publications of the day as follows: The Great Chas. Dudley Warner "Library of the World's Best Literature," 46 volumes; "Library of the World's Greatest Classics," 30 volumes; the Anglo-American Dictionary and Cyclopaedia, 12 volumes; Library of Oratory, by Denew, 15 volumes; Works of Balzac, 36 volumes; the Library of Poets, 32 volumes; the World's Best Essays, 10 volumes; History of Our Great Commanders, 12 volumes.

Each and every one of these books are specimens of the best mechanical execution, which examination will prove.

The conditions of the contest are as follows: Any lodge, church or school club, hospital or organization, public or private, is eligible to the contest. Votes for individuals will not be counted. With each 10 cents purchase ticket will be given by the merchant through whose liberality these grand libraries are furnished, on which will be written the amount of the purchase and the number of votes. The purchaser will write on the ticket the institution or organization for which he or she desires to vote, sign their name and deposit the ticket in the ballot box in the store in which the purchase is made.

The standing of the contestants will be published exclusively in each Sunday's issue of The Sun until October 14th, 1905, at 7 o'clock p. m., when the remaining votes will be counted, and the magnificent library awarded to the organization having the largest number of votes. The Sun will publish in each issue a coupon which will entitle the holder to two votes that will be credited to the institution that is written on space provided for same, and delivered to the ballot boxes in either of the stores.

Voting Tickets Can be Secured From the Following Merchants:

G. W. HYDE.

W. S. Dorsey & Company.

The Grocery and the Market offer the strongest precinct. 75 per cent of your voting strength is with the grocery; every meal you serve, it's voting. Bring your account and vote when you pay the same.

Gainesville Planing and Coffin Co. A glorious opportunity for contractors to vote for their favorite. A lot of wood 10 votes. Don't miss them.

W. D. Fagan & Company.

Our Meats and Vegetables are the best the market affords. Vote here.

Gainesville Steam Laundry.

Give us your work; save the bundles. Get your friends to do likewise. Take them to our agency and get the votes. Big item.

A. M. Cushman.

Votes will be issued for premiums on new policies written or old policies renewed, provided such premiums are paid within thirty days of date of policy. For each 10 cents of premium a vote will be issued.

Mrs. S. W. LeGrande

The only Millinery and Notion store issuing votes. Vote here.

Merchants, Note Carefully.

The rules of the contest provide that each merchant shall carefully make a record of his vote on Friday night of each week, sending a duplicate of same to The Daily Sun, on Saturday before noon of each week, over his own signature, including the tickets, carefully wrapping and tying them up in as small package as possible; write your own name and date of delivery on each so that they can be filed away with your records and delivered to a committee of awards appointed at the close of the contest.

THE SUN'S Voting Proposition.

Under no circumstances will an employe of this paper be allowed to cast vote in this contest.

We will give a premium of 75 votes for every paid three months' subscription, 200 votes for every paid six months' subscription and 500 votes for every paid subscription for one year to Daily Sun, and 200 votes for one year's subscription to Semi-Weekly Sun. Old subscribers get the same number of votes by paying their subscriptions in advance. Every voter should be a subscriber. To the institution securing the largest number of votes in this manner, we will award at 7 o'clock p. m., October 14th, 1905, 10,000 votes.

LIBRARY VOTING COUPON.

This coupon entitles the holder to two votes that can be cast for any institution competing for the beautiful library, when properly filled out, signed and returned to the ballot boxes in either the above stores.
