

NEWS OF CITY AND COUNTY CONDENSED

Matters of General Interest Gathered by Our Reporters.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL ITEMS

What Has Happened and What is Going to Happen Told in Short Paragraphs So That "He Who Runs May Read" It in The Sun.

From Friday's Daily Sun.

B. L. Flowers of Willeford was in the city yesterday.

Evans Holder of Santa Fe was a Gainesville caller yesterday.

400 bushels Texas seed oats for sale. J. O. Andrews, Gainesville, Fla.

Edeo Thomas and Cora Washington, colored, were licensed to wed on Wednesday.

Clarence Camp of Ocala, of the Camp Phosphate Co., was in the city yesterday.

J. A. Ward, a merchant of Bell, was among the numerous visitors in the city yesterday.

Mrs. S. H. George of Branford is the welcome guest of Miss Carrie Miller of this city.

W. W. Colson, our county tax assessor, has gone on a business trip to the vicinity of Trenton.

H. C. Stevens of High Springs, watch inspector of the Atlantic Coast Line, was in the city yesterday.

Turpentine leases for sale at this office, 50c per dozen, $3 per hundred. Cash must accompany order. dawf

W. N. Gamling and G. E. Bryan of High Springs were in the city yesterday in the interest of good roads. A good thing.

Miss Brown of Hawthorn, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. H. Kelley in the city, returned to her home yesterday afternoon.

G. L. Bryant, city marshal of High Springs, was a Gainesville visitor yesterday. He reported everything quiet at his home town.

LABOR Contracts, just the thing for farmers and turpentine men, 50c per dozen, $2 for 50, or $3 per 100. Cash in hand with order. Address, THE SUN, Gainesville, Fla.

Miss Maggie Morrison, who has been the guest of Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Alderman at their pleasant home on Alachua avenue, left for her home at High Springs yesterday afternoon.

M. E. Jolly has been at his farm this week gathering his sweet potato crop. Mr. Jolly is one of Alachua's thrifty farmers, and takes pains in the quality of stuff he raises, thereby finding a ready market for his products.

Superintendent Kelley is having a number of strong boxes made for the teachers of the county, in which they can place their officered documents at their respective schools. They are of various sizes, according to the size of the schools, and it will take 93 to supply the white and upwards of 50 for the colored schools.

Secretary J. G. Kellom, of the State Board of Educational Control, has been in the city for a few days, unloading a carload of apparatus belonging to the State that he recently took from the military school at Barlow. It will be stored in the old Seminary building until placed in the University when completed.

B. Edelstein, who recently returned from an extended stay in New York, where he has a branch business, left his son Dave to look after the New York end while he remains in Gainesville. Mr. Edelstein says there is little interest manifested in municipal politics this fall, it being conceded that Mayor McClellan will be re-elected by an overwhelming majority.

Col. S. I. Waller, who has been in the city for several days on business connected with the United States land office, was a pleasant caller at this office yesterday. Though well advanced in years Col. Waller is in the best of health and never looked better. As soon as he closes his land interests in Florida he will return to the West to look after his mining interests.

Notice is given in The High Springs Hornet that application has been made for tax deed to issue to the following described property situated in Alachua county, Florida, to wit: North half Sec. 18, Tp. 10, R. 14, 320 acres, said land being assessed at date of issuance of such certificate in the name of Jno. C. McGehe. Unless said certificate shall be redeemed according to law, tax deed will issue thereon on the 9th day of November, 1905.

From Saturday's Daily Sun.

J. P. O'Dell of Micanopy was in the city yesterday.

J. A. J. and C. C. Strickland of Hague were in the city yesterday on business.

Wesley Turner and John Lightsey of Bell were visitors in Gainesville yesterday.

W. F. Langford and G. W. Livingston of Newberry were in the city yesterday on business.

Mrs. E. Smith, Mrs. G. A. Singletary and son, Leon, have gone to Lochloosa to visit relatives and friends.

Misses A. L. Bauknight and Elsie T. Smith, two charming young ladies of Archer, spent Thursday with friends here.

T. A. Gay of Bell was in the city yesterday for the purpose of placing his son Thomas in the city school for the coming year.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis E. Black of Tampa are in the city, guests of relatives. This is their first visit here, and they are well pleased.

Miss Maude Shutt entertained a small party on Thursday evening in honor of her friend, Miss Smith of Waldo, who returned home yesterday.

F. C. Chitty of Micanopy, one of the oldest and most substantial business men of the county, was in the city yesterday to visit his sons, H. M. and C. C. Chitty.

Mrs. Fannie Stone and daughter Jessie of Chicago were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bunch yesterday. They expect to locate at Hammock Ridge for the winter.

Dr. Sipprell, who has been ill at the Carolina House, Micanopy, for over a month, is now convalescing. He was attended by Dr. L. Montgomery and a nurse from the Flagler Hospital at St. Augustine.

Truss Denby, for many years a resident of this city but now engaged in trucking at Winter Garden, Orange county, is on a brief visit to his wife here. He is well pleased with South Florida as a trucking section.

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. LaFontisee of Jacksonville are in the city and will remain for a week. Mr. LaFontisee has been engaged to do special feature work on the Industrial Edition of The Sun and persons in possession of information of value to him in the preparation of these articles will confer a favor on him, as well as the publisher, by conferring with reference thereto.

Conductor M. L. Gilmer of High Springs and E. B. Duncan of Newberry, conductor and agent, respectively, of the Atlantic Coast Line, were among those who spent Thursday night in Gainesville. They came to receive initiation in Gainesville Lodge No. 990, B. P. O. E., and before leaving had their antlers properly set. They expressed themselves as being highly pleased with the order. Six candidates were initiated at the meeting Thursday night.

Hon. Henry S. Chubb, receiver of the United States land office, who, with Hon. Walter G. Robinson, was extended a special invitation to visit Jacksonville on the occasion of the visit of President Roosevelt, left yesterday for that city. Inasmuch as Messrs. Robinson and Chubb have the honor of a personal acquaintance with the President, the meeting will be made doubly pleasant. Major W. R. Thomas is also a member of the committee from Gainesville.

READ THIS.

MOBILE, ALA., Dec. 24, 1899.
Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: Having tried different doctors and their remedies for several years for back and kidney troubles, I found nothing successful until taking "The Texas Wonder," Hall's Great Discovery, and, being rapidly cured, the old saying with railroad men is "God bless the man who invented the Pullman sleeping car," but I say "God bless the inventor of Hall's Texas Wonder."
Yours truly,
W. B. CLARK,
M. & O. R. R. Co., Mobile, Ala.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 628, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by all druggists.

From Sunday's Daily Sun:

The choppers wanted at 14 cents per tie. J. D. Barron, Jr., Wannee, Fla.

Harry Sams of Archer called and renewed his subscription to The Sun yesterday.

Noah Hall, teacher in the Newberry school, was a caller at The Sun office yesterday.

Deputy Sheriff J. Lee Stokes of Micanopy was among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday.

W. W. Stroble, the cattleman of High Springs, was a business visitor to this city yesterday.

John Videon of Archer, one of the leading residents of that section, was trading in the city yesterday.

If you want something good in stock see W. R. Thomas. Stock and prices guaranteed. Personal selection.

Sick headache is caused by a disordered condition of the stomach and is quickly cured by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets.

John R. Hague, one of the oldest and most widely known citizens of the Hague section, was trading in the county capital yesterday.

See W. R. Thomas if you are in the market for first-class horses and mules. He has just returned from Kentucky, where he purchased a fine line.

W. F. Cellon, a clever young farmer of Millard Station, was in the city yesterday and had his name enrolled on the subscription list of The Sun.

Captain S. C. Means of McIntosh, one of the oldest residents in that section in point of citizenship, was a business visitor to this city yesterday.

Mrs. Ella G. Ring of Cumberland, Md., arrived in the city on Friday evening, and is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. W. L. Hill, 208 East Church St.

George Gleason, Alex Daughtrey, George R. Beck and Mr. and Mrs. Judson Jones formed a party of Rocky Point visitors to Gainesville yesterday.

John O'Donald of High Springs was in the city yesterday. Mr. O'Donald is ticket agent of the Atlantic Coast Line at that point, which is a very responsible position.

W. F. Barry, one of The Sun's old subscribers, called yesterday and had his address changed to Arno, where he expects to reside in the future. He is a thrifty farmer.

W. R. Thomas has just received a carload of horses and mules, fine Kentucky stock, which he will sell at close margins. All perfect stock, and healthy. Come early if you want a bargain.

S. G. Gay left yesterday for Trenton, where he will join his family, who have been for some time visiting relatives in that section. They expect to return to Gainesville, their home, in a day or two.

The children of the Orange Blossoms Society of the Methodist church, under the management of Mrs. J. E. Futch, enjoyed a pleasant picnic at Hogtown creek yesterday. About fifty were present.

Warranty deed and mortgage blanks for sale at this office, the form used in Alachua county which saves money in recording. $2 per hundred or 50c per dozen by mail. Cash must accompany order. dawf

Among the prominent visitors from High Springs to Gainesville yesterday were E. K. Anderson and W. N. Gramling. Mr. Anderson is not only one of the successful merchants of that town, but is also connected with the Bank of High Springs, the High Springs Manufacturing Company, and other enterprises.

C. C. & D. D. Powell is the name of a new firm which has been organized here for the purpose of conducting a brokerage and manufacturing agency's business. They have rented the old cooperage building, South Gainesville, which will be used as a warehouse. These young men are quite popular here, and will no doubt enjoy a fine business.

Dr. J. D. Watkins of Micanopy was among the prominent folks from that section who favored Gainesville with a visit yesterday. Dr. Watkins owns a fine grove, and says the trees will bear profusely this season. The fruit also promises to be fine, and altogether he sees no reason why the growers in his section should not receive good returns from their orange crop this year.

Wm. Littledale of Hawthorn, the clever and successful representative on the road of the E. J. Smith Company, manufacturers of candy, Jacksonville, was a visitor to Gainesville in the interest of his firm yesterday. Mr. Littledale, who is an "old timer," reports business in his territory this season better than for several years, and the people in a more prosperous condition.

L. N. Martin and J. D. Barron, Jr., of Wannee, were among the visitors to Gainesville yesterday. As will be noted elsewhere in this issue, Mr. Barron is advertising for tie choppers, and offers fine inducements for this labor.

Major W. R. Thomas has returned from points in Kentucky, where he has been for the past few days selecting a stock of horses and mules for this market. Major Thomas has been in the livery business in this city for several years, and is regarded as one of the most competent judges of live stock in the State. He purchased a carload, and as will be seen elsewhere in this issue offers them for sale.

E. R. B. Kite of Waldo, yardmaster of the Seaboard Air Line at that place and one of the cleverest young men in the State, was in the city Friday night and yesterday. He came for the purpose of having conferred the mysteries of the degree of R. A. M. in the Masonic fraternity, and stated good-naturedly at the conclusion that he "had a plenty." While here he had his name enrolled upon the rapidly increasing subscription list of The Sun.

Master Wallace Waters tendered his young friends and schoolmates a chicken pillau at the home of his grandfather, Judge George Arnow, Friday evening, and it is needless to add that the guests enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. There were present about thirty friends of the young man, and on the lawn they participated in various games. At a late hour the guests departed, wishing Master Wallace many pleasant returns of the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Chase and L. W. Chase have arrived from New York and New England. Mrs. Chase and Father Chase spent last winter in Southern California, and are more than enthusiastic over a climate where the thermometer once went below 40 degrees, with an average of between 60 and 70 degrees. En route the Grand Canyon of Arizona was visited, also the famous Yosemite and Yellowstone National Park, besides some time spent in the principal cities. After a pleasant summer at their New England home they are much pleased to return to Gainesville.

MR. ENDEL'S DEPARTURE.

For Thirty-Seven Years He Was a Resident of Gainesville.

After thirty-seven consecutive years of residence in this city, during which time he has seen the city prosper and has prospered himself, J. M. Endel left Saturday for New York, where he proposes to make his future home. He was accompanied by two of his daughters, Misses Fannie and Annie, Miss Rosalee being already North.

Mr. Endel was engaged in the mercantile business here for many years, but owing to misfortune in the death of his devoted wife he could not be content here, consequently decided to make his home elsewhere. His numerous friends here regret to lose him as a citizen, but wish him success and happiness in his new home.

Death of Young Man.

From Saturday's Daily Sun.

Marcus Mott, eighteen years of age, son of Mrs. Michael Clark of North Gainesville, died near Inverness, where he was employed, Thursday afternoon, of malarial fever. The news of his death came as a sad blow to the mother, as she had a letter Sunday bearing information that he was in good health. The remains were brought to this city Friday, and the interment will be held in Antioch cemetery today.

Fair! Fair! Fair!!!

Fair notice is hereby given to exhibitors. The train for cows and horses will leave Gainesville Saturday, November 11th. Hogs, sheep, goats and calves (in crates only) can be sent from the nearest station to the exhibit. Turkeys, geese, ducks and chickens, and all animals not weighing when crated over 100 pounds, can be sent by express, and must be shipped not later than Monday, November 13th. Cane-potted plants and perishable things must also be sent not later than Monday, November 13th. Every District Commissioner has been sent a supply of shipping tags, and no other can be used according to directions of the President of the Fair Association. On boxes, barrels and crates use two tags, one with black print up, and one with red print up. Tack on securely. If you wish to sell your exhibits in Tampa, state your price in the small square on all red letter side of tags, and if I can find a purchaser I will help you to sell.

If you want more tags write me at once. Cut this out and refer to it often.
Yours truly,
JOHN W. TENCH, Mgr. Etc.
Gainesville, Oct. 21, 1905.

TO REMOVE FRECKLES AND PIMPLES in 10 Days, use NADINOLA THE COMPLEXION BEAUTIFIER.

THE NADINOLA GIRL
(Formerly advertised and sold as ... SATINOLA ...)

No change in formula or package. The name only has been changed to avoid confusion, as we cannot afford to have so valuable preparation confused with any other.

NADINOLA is guaranteed, and money will be refunded in every case where it fails to remove freckles, pimples, liver-spots, color discolorations, black-heads, disfiguring eruptions, etc. The worst cases in 30 days. Leaves the skin clear, soft, healthy, and restores the beauty of youth.

Price 50 cents and $1.00. Sold in each city by all leading druggists, or by mail.

PREPARED ONLY BY National Toilet Co., Paris, Tenn.
Sold in Gainesville by J. S. Bodiford & Co. and J. W. McCollum & Co.

BEANS NOW MOVING.

Planters From McIntosh Section Say They are Bringing Good Prices.

Planters from the McIntosh section who have visited this city within the past two or three days state that the bean crop in that section this year is not only a little early, but exceptionally prolific. The quality of fruit is also proving of extra quality, and in all Dame Nature has been favorable to bean growers this year.

Beans have been moving for the past four or five days, and instead of a northward movement, the majority are shipping to Tampa, where they are realizing $2 to $2.50 per crate.

Hyde's Big Sale.

From Saturday's Daily Sun.

The farewell sale so extensively advertised to take place at G. W. Hyde's double store will begin at 9 o'clock this (Saturday) morning, and bargain hunters will find this their mecca. Mr. Hyde had declared his purpose to close out his business in this city, and is determined to give his patrons an opportunity to purchase goods at the lowest prices. The stock is all new fall goods and of the standard grades. Those who buy will find the bargains worth coming many miles to take advantage of, as they will be genuine.

Sprained His Ankle.

Gregory Umberg met with quite an accident Friday, while working with the Long Distance Telephone crew. He was well up on a 30-foot pole, when it tipped over. Umberg jumped to get clear of the pole and sprained one of his ankles. The pole had been set in the ground less than 18 inches.

200 Note Heads and 100 Envelopes with your name and business printed thereon, delivered to any part of the United States on receipt of $1.25. Cash must accompany order. Positively no credit to anyone. Address The Sun, Gainesville, Fla.

Ladies' calling cards in latest styles at Sun office.

We have just opened up a large assortment of strong Satin Calf and genuine Black Goat Bals.

Men's Shoes of the best make worth $2 to $2.25 will be sold for $1.50 & $1.60 while they last.

L. C. SMITH,
North Side Square, Gainesville, Fla.