READ THIS.

MOBILE, ALA., Dec. 24, 1899.
Dr. E. W. Hall, St. Louis, Mo.—Dear Sir: Having tried different doctors and their remedies for several years for back and kidney troubles, I found nothing successful until taking "The Texas Wonder," Hall's Great Discovery, and, being rapidly cured, the old saying with railroad men is "God bless the man who invented the Pullman sleeping car," but I say "God bless the inventor of Hall's Texas Wonder."
Yours truly,
W. B. CLARK,
M. & O. E. R. Co., Mobile, Ala.

Among the prominent attorneys in this city within the past two or three days was A. H. Odom of Jacksonville, a law partner of Judge Samuel T. Shaylor. Mr. Odom is an exceptionally bright young man and is regarded by the Florida bar as one of its most competent young lawyers. He was here in the interests of certain clients in the bankruptcy proceedings of the Espanola Lumber Company.

The Jacksonville Metropolis says that on "Sunday evening at the residence of Mr. J. V. Burke, No. 1541 Market street, Mr. J. H. Burke and Miss Marie Peacock were married by the Rev. W. E. Boggs. Miss Peacock is a resident of Williston and Mr. Burke is with the R. D. Medlin Company of that place." The happy bride has numerous friends in Gainesville who extend congratulations.

The Continental Cafe has a change of ad showing a neat little view of the dining-room, which we call attention to. This popular catering establishment is prepared to serve the people in the same old first-class style, and are also prepared to serve special suppers upon short notice to forty plates. They have engaged a chef of well known reputation and expect to do their best to please. Paper-hangers and painters have been improving the dining-room. A large six-foot mirror has been placed at one end, and everything will be done to make the dining-room attractive as well as the food.

It is with a source of pride that the people of Gainesville talk about their streets and the magnificent trees which give them shade. These trees are appreciated by everyone, regardless of intellectual standing, and whenever the street committee begins properly trimming them there is an expression of general appreciation. The street committee has been engaged for the past two or three days trimming the trees on East Main street S., placing them in better condition for the winter, and they present a great deal the appearance of the fellow with a haircut.

Col. S. I. Wallis has returned from Palatka, where he went to visit his old friend and schoolmate, Rev. Noah J. Tilghman. Col. Wallis was born and reared with Mr. Tilghman in Salisbury, Md. Notwithstanding that there is considerable difference in their ages, Mr. Tilghman being nearly seventy-eight, they have always been firm friends, and we have it from the reverend gentleman's own mouth that a visit was never more highly appreciated. Mr. Tilghman, who accompanied Col. Wallis as far as Gainesville, proceeded to Cedar Key, where he owns large mill interests.
