COMMITTEE CALLS OFF THE BIG STRIKE

Workingmen in Russia Will Return to Their Places.

TROUBLE IN FORMING CABINET

Count Witte the New Premier, Meets With Opposition—Censorship of the Press is Raised—Claimed that Reactionaries Have Been Instigators.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 4.—The decision of the strike committee to call off the strike was greeted with joy by all classes of the population as the absence of newspapers, electric light and other conveniences of life is severely felt. The railroad men, however, have resolved to continue the strike, which entails a continuance of the high price of provisions.

A great demonstration is promised for Sunday, when the bodies of the victims of the conflicts of Tuesday will be interred. The strike committee sent a deputation to Count Witte today and informed him that the workmen would preserve order at the funerals.

The amnesty manifesto did not appear this morning and the radicals are impatiently demanding the immediate release of political prisoners. The censorship throughout Russia, however, was abolished today not only the newspapers but also in the case of private telegrams. The minister of the interior has notified the editors that the regulations for the control of the press are no longer in force, Count Witte is having trouble in forming a cabinet on account of the lack of liberal support. Senator Koni has refused the portfolio of justice and Prince Troubetskoy, brother of the late rector of the Moscow university is said to have not even replied to the tender of the ministry of education.

All the regulations heretofore issued to newspapers by circular for their government has been withdrawn and the chief of the press administration has been prohibited from further issuing such regulations.

Another appeal to the people in the shape of an official note was published this morning. It says:

"After the manifesto of Oct. 30 had laid a foundation for the development of Russian life on the basis of legality and justice, participation in street demonstrations have a significance altogether different from that attaching heretofore previously. It can only discourage disorder and the presence of the public of the middle and lower educational establishments among the demonstrators is much to be condemned if only on moral grounds. Unless the attention of society be now directed to this fact that the state is threatened with dangerous increase in the number of people whose respect for authority and order is being radically shaken while they are still in the school room. The government therefore calls upon all citizens to exercise self-control and to devote themselves quietly to their avocations."

Demand Release of Prisoners.

Konstloff, Russia, Nov. 4.—The vice-governor of Konstloff has fled from the city. The citizens are preserving order. Great manifestations occurred yesterday, the crowds demanding the release of the political prisoners.

Reactionaries Cause Trouble.

New York, Nov. 4.—A cable dispatch to the Times from Berlin says: "A private telegram from St. Petersburg says it is absolutely certain and can be proved that the reactionaries under the leadership of General Trepoff, have been fomenting disorders all throughout Russia in order to counteract the efforts of the revolutionists. The reactionaries, it is asserted, have sent agents, provocateurs, to various cities in order to create a condition of anarchy and compel the czar to take military measures in order to counteract the efforts of the revolutionists."

Rioting Continues at Odessa.

Odessa, Nov. 3.—12:42 p. m.—After a fairly quiet night, shooting again commenced this morning. The Red Cross is busy attending the wounded. Up to the present time no houses have been touched. The principal hotels are full of the better classes of Jews seeking refuge from this week's disorders.

There was a veritable reign of terror on Oct. 31. After the emperor's manifesto granting a constitution to Russia had been published, the Jews made the Russians furious with rage by making a prominent display of red flags, trampling on a portrait of the emperor and bearing down the emblem of the crowd. Late in the afternoon there was firing in the outskirts of the town and the massacre of Jews commenced and lasted during the night of Nov. 1. All Jews in the streets were severely beaten and many were killed in their shops, which were ruthlessly pillaged. In the poorer Jewish quarters on the outskirts of the town the whole streets were destroyed, the soldiers apparently looking on.

Crowds of workmen, rowdies, women and children laden with all kinds of loot walked openly through the streets quarreling over their spoils.

Bombs were thrown in various parts of the town. Late that night patrols of soldiers and Cossacks restored some semblance of order.

The pillaging was continued yesterday and there was heavy firing all over the town. Nobody was safe in the streets. People carrying arms who were caught by the troops were shot at sight. The shutters of all houses were ordered closed, and people detected shooting from windows were promptly shot.

The soldiers used machine guns to move the crowd from the vicinity of the port. In fact, there was indiscriminate shooting everywhere in the town.

Firing is still going on as this dispatch is filed. Trade is at a complete standstill. Provisions are still obtainable at greatly enhanced prices. The gas and water works are working.

It is impossible to make a correct estimate of the number of killed and wounded. Similar reports reach Odessa from most of the other towns in South Russia.

Valuations Are Increased.

Montgomery, Ala., Nov. 4.—In his report to the governor Commissioner Harvey Jones shows collections through his department for the year ended Sept. 30, last, of $245,160, the state getting of that $133,753 and the counties the balance. The valuations by the commissioner since the law went into effect in 1897 has been $87,152,952.

Woman Charged with Manslaughter.

Pensacola, Fla., Nov. 4.—A coroner's jury last night returned a verdict against Mrs. F. M. Turner, charging her with manslaughter. She shot and killed her husband yesterday at their home after he had abused her. Turner was one of the guards of the state board of health. Mrs. Turner claims she thought the revolver was unloaded.

Killed by a Runaway Horse.

Waynesboro, Ga., Nov. 4.—Warren Colson, the 13-year-old son of Mrs. Hammond Colson, of Waynesboro, was run over and killed by a runaway horse here. The horse became frightened at an automobile and the wheel of the buggy struck young Colson, knocking out his brains.

trial before United States Commissioner Erwin tomorrow to connect Stevens with several schemes of the green goods order. He was formerly postmaster at Greenway, Ga., and since that office was robbed three months ago, he has been out. He is accused of representing the New York police as agent by getting them to make a search which could be carried

POLICE ARREST TWO MEN FOR MURDER

One Confesses to Disposing of Body in Dress Suit Case.

CLEARING UP THE MYSTERY

Officials Believe They Now Have Unraveled the Mystery of the Death of the Young Actress in Boston—This Case Has Attracted Much Attention.

Boston, Nov. 4.—With the arrest of William Howard and Lewis Crawford, in New York city, in connection with the Winthrop suit case mystery, the activities of the local police were transferred from Boston to the Metropolis. Chief William Watts, of the bureau of criminal investigation and superintendent of police, Mr. Pierce, with Pawnbroker Berkman, who sold the suit cases in which the dismembered parts of the victim's body was found in Boston harbor, Timothy Howard, the cabman, who drove two men carrying suit cases to the ferry, and other witnesses, all had gone to New York on the midnight train to be present today at the examination of Howard and Crawford.

The condition of Morris Nathan, suitor of Susanna Geary, the victim of the tragedy, was better today than yesterday, and he seems to be gaining strength.

Men Held in New York.

New York, Nov. 4.—Superintendent Pierce, of the Boston police, and Chief Watts, of the Massachusetts police, arrived at police headquarters today the prisoners were brought out for inspection. Chief Watts recognized Crawford and said:

"I feel sure that Crawford is the head man in this case. He was the principal at the house of Dr. Bishop, and it was through him, I believe, that Howard or Hunt, as he calls himself, was brought into the case."

Chief Watts said that the case against those who caused the death of Miss Geary was practically closed now but there will probably be other arrests within a few days.

Crawford was dressed by order of the New York police, in gray clothing when first seen by the Boston police officials and their witnesses. He had on the same clothing he is believed to have worn in Boston while making his alleged trip with the suit cases to Boston harbor. In his room at 72 West Eighty-ninth street the police found a gray suit and a long state colored rain coat, both of which resembled the clothing that Cabman Howard said the man wore when he drove from Boston to Chelsea.

When the cab driver saw Crawford he immediately identified him as one of the two men who were in his cab with suit cases on the night when the girl's body was thrown into the harbor. He also identified the prisoner Howard as Crawford's companion that night.

After this identification had been completed the two pawnbrokers and the pawnbroker's clerk were admitted to the prisoner's presence and identified them both. Meyer Kaufman, the clerk, said that Crawford, when he entered the pawnbroker's store to get a dress suit case, said he had 32 pounds of shot in the satchel he was carrying. The New York police announced after these identifications that Crawford who was, reticent when arrested last night, said that he was one of the men who helped to dispose of the body.

The prisoners were arraigned in the Tombs court and were remanded back to the police headquarters until Monday. There was no estimation in the court. The men were arrested on affidavits charging conspiracy based primarily on Howard's confession.

Police Captain Dugan today obtained warrants for the arrest of Crawford and Howard on the charge of committing an abortion on the body of Susanna Geary. A warrant also was issued against Howard charging him with being an accessory to the fact. The warrants will be taken before the grand jury of Suffolk county which convenes next Monday, and indictments will be asked for.

Important Address is Found.

Waltham, Mass., Nov. 4.—May Tennen, of this city, the young woman whose name was found on an envelope in the pocket of Louis Crawford, one of the men arrested in New York in connection with the Boston dress suit case tragedy, is related to Mrs. Dr. Jane Bishop, formerly proprietor of a medical office on the Tremont street in Boston. This office which, until recently has been conducted in Dr. Bishop's name, is the place where Susan Geary was supposed to have gone for treatment. Miss Tennen has not been in Waltham recently. Crawford's wife is a daughter of Dr. Bishop.

MILLIONAIRE IS A PENSIONER.

Only Accepts Money to Perfect His Record as a Brave Warrior.

Washington, Nov. 4.—Pensions for millionaires is one of the new developments under the executive order of last year.

According to Commissioner of Pensions Warner, the application of a millionaire for a pension has been recently favorably passed upon. He did not want the pension, according to the commissioner on account of the money it carried with it, but simply to perfect his record of honorable service in the civil war. This view of the disability order is being taken by many well to do veterans who would not otherwise apply for pensions. The fact that they are eligible and performed the service stipulated in the behalf of the government and that the government is to recognize this service by a pension and the accompanying records of the same make the service pension a desirable addition to the family records.

The commissioner does not look upon this class of pensioners as an undesirable burden for the government to bear. He takes the view that the funds distributed is used by the applicant to relieve want. In the case of the millionaire pensioners, he has knowledge that the recipient has just made a bequest of a hundred thousand dollars for benevolent purposes.

CANNOT AID WHALING VESSELS.

Government Believes it Impossible for Help to Reach Them.

Seattle, Wash., Nov. 4.—Charles D. Jarvis, who commanded the relief expedition sent out by the United States government in 1897 to aid the stricken whalers, stated today that if the whaling fleet now ice bound in the Arctic ocean was far off Point Barrow, it would be almost impossible for a relief expedition to afford them any material aid, as the difficulties of arctic travel in the winter were such that it would be almost impossible to take sufficient food to aid so many men.

Captain Jarvis states, however, that if the men can reach Point Barrow there is hope that with the aid of the natives, they may be able to survive the winter. Captain Jarvis is still hopeful, however, that the fleet will escape before the severe freeze up this winter.

Believe Woman Was Murdered.

New York, Nov. 4.—Coroner Scholer, following an autopsy on the body of Mrs. Margueritta Toid, the rich woman who was found dead on the Reading railroad tracks near Philadelphia a week ago, today said that the woman could not possibly have been struck by a train. He said he could easily have been killed by some heavy weight falling on her while she was inert, or by the pressure of a knee. The autopsy showed that several ribs had been fractured prior to the fracture of her clothing, the coroner said, but was smooth and neat. Had a train struck her, the coroner said, the clothing, of course, would have been disarranged and torn.

Will Discuss on the Tariff

Denver, Nov. 4.—The directors of the chamber of commerce last night voted to send a letter to the chamber of commerce throughout the west and middle west invited them to send representatives to a convention to discuss the proposal on the part of the national government to reserve the tariff upon sugar coming from the Philippine Islands. The letter in part is as follows:

ONLY FEW CASES UNDER TREATMENT

There Has Not Been 450 Deaths During Epidemic,

SILVER SERVICE FOR DR. WHITE.

Alabama Likely to Raise Quarantine in a Few Days—Increased Business Activity is Noticed All Over the Stricken Section.

New Orleans, Nov. 4.—The fever situation here continues its rapid improvement, the cases under treatment now being reduced to 17. With so few cases remaining and virtually no new cases appearing, the probability is that there will be very few more deaths before it is finally declared that the epidemic is over.

The total of deaths has not yet reached 450 from July until the present date.

With the ordering away of more of the federal commissioned officers there are left here only the four men who are assigned to the district headquarters, and those immediately connected with Dr. White's department. There promises to be a further consolidation of the ward work by the end of the week. Not improbably the details of health work will be re-transferred to the city board of health next week.

Dr. White has not yet received his official assignment by Surgeon General Wyman to attend the Chattanooga convention, but it is now daily expected.

Governor Blanchard is especially anxious that Dr. White shall go to Chattanooga, and it has been indicated that the federal authorities also desire him to go.

Dr. White was last night the guest at a banquet given by the railroad men and was presented with a handsome silver service in recognition of the work he has performed here.

The death of an Italian woman and baby in DeRider, Calcasieu parish, has aroused the suspicion that they were victims of yellow fever, and at the request of the health authorities there Dr. Brady has been despatched by the state board of health to the scene to look into the matter.

The raising of the Alabama quarantine is said to depend on the conditions at Moss Point and Scranton, which is between New Orleans and Mobile. Considerable sickness was reported there during the summer, but the authorities denied that it was yellow fever.

Efforts are being made to arrange for an inspection of the situation by Dr. White and the Alabama authorities, and if it found that these points are not infected, there is hope that Alabama will raise the bars against Louisiana and Mississippi.

Superintendent Marshall, of the L. & N. railroad has written a letter to Governor Vardaman, heartily praising the work of the Mississippi militia who served as quarantine guards along the lines of that road. Mr. Marshall says the experience of the summer proved that the use of military guards for quarantine purposes has decided advantages over the employment of civilians.

Heavy demands are being made on the Southern Pacific for freight cars now that all the quarantines along its route in Louisiana have been lifted.

Up to noon today there were no new cases of yellow fever and no deaths reported.

New Railroad for Birmingham.

Chicago, Nov. 4.—Official announcement was made by the Illinois Central Railroad company of its intention to build a line from Jackson, Tenn., to Birmingham, Ala., a distance of 214 miles.

In League With Swindlers

Winn, Ga., Nov. 4.—W. D. Stevens is held in custody of the federal authorities here as a green goods man connected with New York swindlers with whom extensive work is said to have been done in Georgia through the use of the mails. Deputy Sheriff Wiley arrested him near Wadley, Ga., today on a warrant issued last August. Efforts will be made of a
