

CRUSHED UNDER A FREIGHT TRAIN

Sumner Langford Instantly Killed at the Dutton Commissary.

HIS LEGS AND ONE ARM SEVERED

In Attempting to Board the Train He Made a Mistep, Falling Under the Car—His Entire Body Was Badly Mangled.

Wade, Nov. 30.—Sumner Langford, about 20 years old, got run over and was literally ground to pieces yesterday morning on the Dutton Phosphate Company's railroad, at the Dutton commissary.

The train was moving up to the woodrack, a small distance from the commissary, and in trying to board it the unfortunate young man made a mistep and fell between the cars.
Both legs and one arm were severed from the body, which was also badly mangled. He died instantly. He was a nephew of Frank and Lewis Langford and well liked by all.

WEST VIRGINIANS ARRIVE.

Party of Nine Came Tuesday and Are Now Pleasantly Located.

A party of West Virginians comprising Orval Watson, Mrs. Ella Watson, Miss Enola Watson, Harold Watson, John J. Cleaver, Mrs. Grace Cleaver and S. Ray Dill, all of Terre Alta and vicinity, have arrived in the city, and are pleasantly located at 512 West Main street N.

This party is here prospecting with a view of locating. There is already a large colony of West Virginians here, many of whom have purchased property and engaged in farming or business of some kind, and are well pleased.

A party of twenty-eight from the Terre Alta section left that place Tuesday night, and are expected here today. They are also homeseekers, and many of them may locate here permanently.

Double Tragedy in Tennessee.

Nashville, Nov. 30.—A Columbia, Tenn., dispatch says a double tragedy in which two close friends and neighbors, both of prominent families lost their lives, occurred near Rally Hill in Maury county. The dead men are Fred Early and Henry Colburn, the former having first murdered his friend and then killed himself. Both men were studying to become preachers, and Early's mind is known to have been dethroned. Early used a shotgun in his deadly work.

Secretary Root Busily Engaged.

Chicago, Nov. 30.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says that Secretary Root's knife is busily engaged on chopping off the heads of diplomatic officers and consuls who are not efficient. It is estimated that fully 100 persons, who for various reasons, are unfit to represent the United States abroad, will be invited to tender their resignations. Bright American young men will be named in their stead.

Early Bargain Sales.

There were bargain sales even when this country was in its early youth, but most of the bargains offered were choice lots of slaves to be disposed of at the old slave mart that stood at the foot of Wall street. In the New York Gazette of Dec. 24, 1787, one of the large slave holders makes this announcement:

German Slaves For Sale.—To be disposed of, three German servants, one a baker by trade, one a butcher and the other a laborer. They are industrious, good men, whose honesty has been tried, and they may be had on reasonable terms. Inquire of the printer hereof.

No Middle Ground.

The proprietor of the dry goods store had proposed to the milliner who owned the establishment across the way.

"But, Mr. Wrappemup," she said,
"I'm not sure that I like you well enough to marry you. Let us be merely friends, as heretofore."

"We can't, Miss Wribbens," he answered through his set teeth. "There is no friendship in trade. You will like me well enough to marry me or I'll add a millinery department to my stock!"— Chicago Tribune.

The Reason.

Magistrate—So you admit having been engaged in making counterfeit money? Prisoner—Yes, your honor.
You see, the supply of the genuine article is so very short.

A Guaranteed Cure For Piles.

Itching, blind, bleeding, protruding piles. Druggists are authorized to refund money if PAIN OINTMENT fails to cure in 6 to 14 days. 50c.

TELLS BY THEIR SLEEP

"I can tell by my little ones' sleep when a cold is coming on" said a mother when speaking of the advance symptoms of colds in children.
"They toss about, are restless, their breathing is heavy and there are symptoms of night sweats. The next morning I start with Scott's Emulsion. The chances are that in a day or two they are all over it. Their rest is again peaceful and the breathing normal."

Here's a suggestion for all mothers. Scott's Emulsion always has been almost magical in its action when used as the ounce of prevention. Nothing seems to overcome child weakness quite so effectively and quickly as Scott's Emulsion.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl St., New York.

WASHING CLOCK FACES.

Some Timepieces Grow Soiled More Quickly Than Others.

"I've been washing the faces of the city clocks nigh on to ten years, I guess," said a pleasant Scotch-Irish-American, "and before that I did it in the old country. There aren't many face washers in this land, and the few who know the business do well at it." He looked prosperous in his tweed suit and derby hat.

"Is your work anything like that of the steeple climber?" he was asked.

"Bless you, no," he replied, with twinkling eye, much amused, "only in one thing, and that is that mostly sailors take up with the trade. That's because we're good climbers, you know.
I've washed the faces of city and church clocks that were 180 feet from the ground, and it took me two and three weeks to do it. I'm a practical clock repairer, too—have to be, you know—and do my work in a huge wooden cradle made for the purpose.
Some clocks get their faces dirty in a year or so; others remain clean ten years, and so on. Old Ben, Westminster's great clock, is expected to keep clean fifteen years.

"In the old days the trade was more dangerous. We used to work from scaffolds and got many dangerous falls. Now we have the cradles and all the fixings and comforts, and if a man keeps his head he can work as well as on the curb. How is the pay? Well, that's hard to figure, for we work by the job. We don't clean clock faces in winter, so we make enough in the summer to last the year round. Of course sometimes the clocks are taken out of their cases and repaired in the shops. Last year I cleared $2,000 and visited only two other cities, Chicago and Boston. This year I'll make more, because building operations have grimed the clocks and given our trade a lift."—New York Post.

The Word Derrick.

The word derrick for a machine used to lift heavy weights is curiously derived from a London hangman in the beginning of the seventeenth century whose name was Theodoric and who is often mentioned in old plays. "He rides circuit with the devil, and Derrick must be his host, and Tyborne the inn at which he will light" occurs in "The Bellman of London," published in 1616. The name thus corrupted came afterward to be applied, by an easy transition, to the gallows and later still to any frame or contrivance resembling it in shape.

A Fearful Fate.

It is a fearful fate to have to endure the terrible torture of piles. "I can truthfully say," writes Harry Colson of Masonville, Ia., "that for blind, bleeding, itching and protruding piles, Bucklen's Arnica Salve is the best cure made." Also best for cuts, burns and injuries. 25c at all druggists.

The Paris Jeweler.

"To stroll about the London streets," says Harper's Weekly, "is a pastime; in Paris it is also an education. I hardly understand how an Englishman after a walk down the Avenue de l'Opera or the Boulevard des Italiens can bear to even glance at a Bond street jeweler's. To see what the French are doing in jewel work of every kind is to make one feel that London is not merely a generation behind, but could not in a hundred centuries catch up."

The Song of the Hair

There are four verses. Verse 1. Ayer's Hair Vigor makes the hair grow. Verse 2. Ayer's Hair Vigor stops falling hair.
Verse 3. Ayer's Hair Vigor cures dandruff. Verse 4. Ayer's Hair Vigor always restores color to gray hair. The chorus is sung by millions. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.

ON DUTCH WATERS.

A Journey Along a Canal and the Scenery It Presents.

"I can think of no more reposeful holiday," says a writer, "than to step on board of one of those barges wedged together in a Rotterdam canal and, never lifting a finger to alter the natural course of events—to accelerate or divert—be carried by it to, say, Harlingen, in Friesland, between the meadows, under the noses of great black and white cows, past herons fishing in the rushes, through little villages with dazzling milk cans being scoured on the banks and the good wives washing and the saturnine smokers in black velvet slippers passing the time of day, through big towns, by rows of somber houses seen through a delicate screen of leaves, under low bridges crowded with children, through narrow locks, ever moving, moving, slowly and surely, sometimes sailing, sometimes being towed, with the wide Dutch sky overhead and the plovers crying in it, and the clean west wind driving the windmills, and everything just as it was in Rembrandt's day and just as it will be 500 years hence."

Furious Fighting.

"For seven years," writes Geo. W.
Hoffman of Harper, Wash., "I had a bitter battle with chronic stomach and liver trouble, but at last I won, and cured my diseases by the use of Electric Bitters. I unhesitatingly recommend them to all, and don't intend in the future to be without them in the house. They are certainly a wonderful medicine, to have cured such a bad case as mine." Sold under guarantee to do the same for you, by all druggists at 50c a bottle. Try them today.

A Literary Coincidence.

"My father, W. Clark Russell," said Herbert Russell in telling of a literary coincidence, "had finished maturing the plot of his novel, 'The Death Ship,' which is a version of the legend of Vanderdecken. I was his amanuensis at the time. He said to me, 'Tomorrow we will begin the story.' On the following morning when I entered his study to take his dictation of the opening lines he showed me a letter he had just received. It was from W. S. Gilbert, the well known dramatist, asking him why he did not write a novel about the Flying Dutchman."

Funerals in the Highlands.

A Scottish correspondent writes of funerals in the highlands: "There are no undertakers here. A carpenter makes the simple coffin, relatives and friends carry it, hip high, to its last resting place, which is dug when the end of the journey is reached, and, having walked perhaps six miles to the chosen kirkyard, they take a refreshment of sandwiches and whisky and walk home again. The rigorous absence of pomp is maintained, but there is the added embellishment of pipe music."

Got Near to Them.

An English druggist gives the following list of blunders made by his poorer customers: "Catch an eel" for coch-neal; "prosperous paste" for phosphorus paste; "grease it" for creosote; "fishy water" for vichy water; "guitar" for catarrh; "everlasting" for effervescing.

In Mad Chase.

Millions rush in mad chase after health, from one extreme of faddism to another, when, if they could only eat good food, and keep their bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills, their troubles would all pass away.
Prompt relief and quick cure for liver and stomach trouble. 25c at all drug stores; guaranteed.

The First Word.

"But," said the judge, "you provoked the fight."
"No, O! didn't," replied the prisoner.
"But you struck the first blow. Why did you do that?"
"Because he said to me, 'If O!m wan, ye're another,' and so I soaked him."— Philadelphia Press.

Too Polite.

"Your father is certainly the politest man I know."
"What makes you say that?"
"He's pretending that he's cured of his dyspepsia in order that he shall not hurt his doctor's feelings."—New Yorker.

Heart Fluttering.

Undigested food and gas in the stomach, located just below the heart, presses against it and causes heart palpitation. When your heart troubles you in that way take Herbine for a few days. You will soon be all right.
50c a bottle. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

From Girlhood to Womanhood

Marks a period in the lives of many girls which is full of the greatest dangers, and the responsibility of her health, perhaps her life, rests with the parents. Young girls just budding into womanhood should be given G.
F. P. (Gerstle's Female Panacea) every month for at least a year. It assists Nature to establish regular, healthy periods, and hundreds of mothers follow this course, their daughters entering womanhood strong, healthy and free from many of the dangerous troubles which afflict their sex.
G. F. P. (Gerstle's Female Panacea) is and has been so continuously successful in the treatment of female diseases that we are able to sell it under an iron-clad, money-back guarantee to accomplish its advertised purpose, or refund your money. No fairer proposition could be made by any concern, or by any physician, and no other female remedy is so guaranteed, or offers you relief at so little risk of expense.

G.F.P. GERSTLE'S FEMALE PANACEA

Go to your dealer and buy a bottle of G. F. P. (Gerstle's Female Panacea), use it as directed, and if you can honestly say you have not been benefited, return the empty bottle and get your money.

THIS GUARANTEE authorizes any druggist to refund the purchase price of a bottle of G. F. P.
(Gerstle's Female Panacea) to any woman who tries it and is not benefited by its use.

E. D. Hewett, of Caryville, Fla., says: "My daughter suffered for several years from general female weakness and excessive menstruation.
After taking one bottle of G. F. P. (Gerstle's Female Panacea) she has fully recovered. It is a God-send to the female sex."

$1.00 PER BOTTLE
at all Druggists.
