

SERIOUS CHARGE AGAINST NEGRO

Tom Burnett Charged With Selling Liquor at High Springs.

LIQUOR WAS IN EVIDENCE

In Judge Mason's Court, and Officer Granger Stated That it Came From His Den—Defendant Released Upon a Bond of $200.

Because Tom Burnett, who realized that it was against the peace and dignity of the laws of Alachua county, persisted it is alleged, in selling liquor at High Springs, he is now in trouble, and will have to stand the consequences of the decision of a jury at the spring term of the circuit court.

Burnett was arrested several days ago in High Springs upon a charge of dispensing booze in a county which had voted against the sale of same. He was arraigned in Mayor Barrs' court, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $25, but sentence was suspended, as Mayor Barrs was informed that a county officer was present for the purpose of arresting Burnett upon the same charge. No sooner had the man been released, and was congratulating himself, than Deputy Sheriff Granger placed the clutches of the law upon him and brought him to Gainesville. He was arraigned in Judge Mason's court, and the numerous bottles of beer and whiskey which Officer Granger states were taken from his "den" were filed in evidence.

Judge Mason required the defendant to give a bond of $200 for his appearance at the spring term of the circuit court.

It has been said that there are several "tigers" at High Springs, and the officers will make another raid within the next few days.

WINDSOR ITEMS.

Several New Arrivals in That Town. Enjoyable Christmas Festivities.

Windsor, December 29.—Several new arrivals are in Windsor this week. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Davenport of Indiana, who expect to spend the winter at this place; also Will Torode from Georgia, who is visiting his kinsman, John Torode.

Tom Montgomery, Jr., is spending the holidays with his father, George Montgomery.

Christmas passed off very pleasantly at Windsor. There was no disturbance of any kind to mar the enjoyment of the day. The young men and boys had a big time shooting off chickens.

There were twenty or thirty transfers of poultry at greatly fluctuating prices and at the close of the day each one was a winner to a greater or less extent.

Wednesday evening the young people gathered under the hospitable roof of Mr. Torode and spent a pleasant opening socially. Another party is scheduled for Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spivey.

On Christmas evening there was a Christmas tree and entertainment at Wesley Chapel. A very pleasing program was rendered by the members of the two Sunday schools, after which presents were distributed, much to the delight of the little folks.

Swell Colored Wedding.

Editor Sun: Please give me space in your valued paper to say that there was a happy wedding at the home of Mrs. Molly Reddick, 1210 West Liberty street, on Wednesday afternoon, December 28, the contracting parties being Paul Sanderson and Florida McCray, both popular and industrious young people of their race, and worthy of special mention.

The groom has for some time been a faithful employe of the Gainesville Pining and Coffin Company. The bride is the organist of Mt. Carmel church, and a talented musician, being a teacher of music.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. P. Saulton.

CLEANLY WOMAN.

Unwisely Thinks by Scouring Her Scalp That She Cures Dandruff.

Cleanly woman has an erroneous idea that by scouring the scalp, which removes the dandruff scales, she is curing her dandruff. She may wash her scalp every day, and yet have dandruff her long, accompanied by falling hair. The only way in the world to cure dandruff is to kill the dandruff germ, and there is no hair preparation that will do that but Newbro's Herpicide. Herpicide by killing the dandruff germ, gives the hair free to grow as healthy nature intended. Destroy the cause to remove the effect. Kill the dandruff germ with Herpicide. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SMILEY SHOTS CALDWELL.

Tragedy Said To Be Result of a Previous Quarrel.

Asheville, N. C., Dec. 29.—In Cata- loochie township, Haywood county, on Christmas day, John Smiley shot and instantly killed Rufus Caldwell, with- out, it is alleged, any apparent provoca- tion.

According to th ereport received the two young men were riding horseback from one part of the township to an- other. Smiley was riding in the rear of the party, and suddenly, with- out a word of warning, drew a revol- ver and fired point blank at Caldwell, who was riding but a few paces in front of him. The bullet entered a vital spot and Caldwell fell from his horse, dying almost instantly. Smiley was at once arrested and taken to Waynesville, where he is now in jail. He has refused to make any statment regarding the shooting.

Caldwell was 22 years of age, and Smiley a year older. It is supposed the men had some misunderstanding, and the shooting resulted from a pre- vious quarrel.

May Demand $235,000.

New York, Dec. 29.—It has been learned, says the Times, that the New York Life Insurance company investi- gating committee, of which Thomas P. Fowler is chairman, does not consider Andrew Hamilton's report on his legis- lative expenditures satisfactory. The committee had the report before it all of Tuesday forenoon before it was given to the Armstrong investigating committee. The New York Life com- mittee will accordingly proceed inde- pendently to obtain an accounting from Hamilton, and, failing in this, will look to President Joan A. McCall to make good his pledge to refund to the com- pany the $235,000 that Hamilton got in 1904, if it was not accounted for satis- factorily by Dec. 15th last.

Is Arrested on a Charge of Forgery.

Eufaula, Ala., Dec. 29.—Rena Burke, a well known negress, and for many years a school teacher, has been ar- rested here for forgery and was landed in jail. It is charged she forged a check on the Commercial National bank of this city for $200, using the name of a prominent citizen as the payee and another as the drawer of the check. Upon presenting it for pay- ment she promptly indorsed the name of the payee across the back, but the cashier's suspicion was aroused in some way and he withheld payment until an investigation could be made. When arrested she confessed and gave as her only excuse that she needed the money and thought that she could eas- ily get it in that way.

Woman's Assailant Identified.

Montgomery, Ala., Dec. 29.—Jim Mc. Call, the negro who has been identified as the one who assaulted Mrs. A. S. Reed a week ago, has been held in heavy bail to await the action of the grand jury. He was positively iden- tified by Mrs. Reed who swore that he grabbed her from behind and forced her to the ground, as she cried for help. The negro ran when he heard a passerby.

The Requisite of Beauty.

The first requisite of beauty is a clear complexion. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup clears a sallow, blotched complexion, as it stimulates the liver and bowels, and the eyes become bright and clear. You owe it to your friends to take it if your complexion is bad. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not cause or gripes and it is very pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Company.

John Sharpe Williams was lucky. He didn't make as many enemies in his committee appointments as Speaker Cannon, as he had fewer appoint- ments to make.

FLATTERING RULERS.

Their Weak Points Pass Unnoticed. Napoleon's Marksmanship.

Rulers have always been flattered, from Canute's time downward, it be- ing, it would seem, an unwritten law that a monarch's weak points should pass unrecognized. Napoleon III, once said, in consoling a friend who chanced to be shooting with him for his poor marksmanship:

"You need not fret about it. The em- peror (by which he meant his uncle, the great Napoleon I.) was even a worse shot than you are. The only time they put a gun in his hand he killed a poor hound and went away thinking he had killed a stag.

"In those days the stag, whenever brought to bay, was left for the em- peror to kill. One day, however, the emperor was not to be found, and the master of the staghounds finished the animal with his knife. Just then the emperor came in sight.

"They hurriedly got the dead stag on its legs, propping it up with branches, etc., and handed the emperor the 'car- bine of honor,' as it was called. The emperor fired, and of course the stag tumbled over, but at the same time there was a piteous whine from one of the hounds, which had been shot through the head.

"The emperor wheeled around, un- conscious of the mischief he had done, saying to one of the aids-de-camp. 'After all, I am not as bad a shot as they pretend!'"

HOW A BADGER WORKS.

Can Excavate Almost as Rapidly as a Man With a Spade.

During the day the badger sleeps deep in his burrow, far out on our western plains and prairies, and at twi- light he starts forth on a night's forag- ing. He is a dreaded enemy of the prairie dog and the ground squirrel, and when he begins to excavate for one nothing but solid rock or death can stop him.

With the long, blunt claws of his fore feet he loosens up the dirt. Dig, dig, dig! He works as though his life de- pended on it, now scratching out the sides of the hole, then turning on his back to work overhead.

At first he throws the dirt out be- tween his hind legs, but soon he is too far down for that, so he banks it up back of him, then turns about and us- ing his chest and forward parts as a pusher shoves it out before him.

He works with such rapidity that it would be somewhat difficult for a man to overtake him with a spade.—St. Nicholas.

Killing a Robin.

There are persons at the present day—and not all old women either—who believe that killing a robin will bring bad luck. According to ancient belief, the storm cloud was a huge bird. The Arabians represented his wings as measuring 10,000 fathoms. This bird lived on worms, the latter being the streaks of lightning accompanying storms. The Germans remodeled the fiction by creating the god Thor, whose bird was the robin. Consequently to kill a robin first meant death by light- ning, then bad luck.

The Early Boom.

"When I was a boy," said the rather vain person, "everybody said I was go- ing to be president of the United States." "Yes," answered the seasoned poli- tician. "Your case simply illustrates my argument that it isn't safe to start a boom too far ahead of election."—Washington Star.

George L. Dobson has resigned his position as consul general at Hang- chow, China, after but a few weeks. He says Hangchow is the filthiest city on earth. The Chinese don't bury their dead, sometimes even when they die from cholera, and he is coming back.
