

HAPPY ENDING OF HAILE HOUSE PARTY

Announcement Made of Engagement of Popular Young People.

COL. ELLIS AND MISS TAYLOR

These Distinguished Young People Will be United in Matrimony in April of the Coming Year—Beautiful Remarks by Chief Justice Taylor.

At the house party which has been in progress at the old Haile homestead at Kanapaha, the numerous selected guests were pleasantly surprised at the close of the sumptuous dinner Friday evening by the following announcement from Justice R. Feawick Taylor: "Fourteen hundred years ago a custom was adopted in France that had in it so much of good sense and propriety that it quickly spread to nearly all of the European States. In the year A. D. 1200, the great Archbishop Walter enforced it as an ordinance of the church. That grand old Paritan, Oliver Cromwell, the great Protector, had his parliament in 1655 to enact it into a law. Our Pilgrim Fathers brought it with them to the Western World.

"In conformance with this time-honored custom, I now, here and in this dear old home of her mother, around which cluster so many sacredly tender memories, proclaim and announce the marriage engagement of my daughter, Hon. to Hon. William H. Ellis, Florida's distinguished Attorney-General, the marriage to take place in April next, 'when the roses come again.'"

Col. Ellis responded in his accustomed happy vein.

WINDSOR ITEMS.

Several New Arrivals in That Town. Enjoyable Christmas Festivities.

Windsor, December 29.—Several new arrivals are in Windsor this week. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Davenport of Indiana, who expect to spend the winter at this place; also Will Torode from Georgia, who is visiting his kinsman, John Torode.

Tom Montgomery, Jr., is spending the holidays with his father, George Montgomery.

Christmas passed off very pleasantly at Windsor. There was no disturbance of any kind to mar the enjoyment of the day. The young men and boys had a big time shooting off chickens.

Wednesday evening the young people gathered under the hospitable roof of Mr. Torode and spent a pleasant evening socially. Another party is scheduled for Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Spivey.

On Christmas evening there was a Christmas tree and entertainment at Wesley Chapel. A very pleasing program was rendered by the members of the two Sunday schools, after which presents were distributed, much to the delight of the little folks.

CROWNING OF CHRISTMAS.

Delightful Cantata by the First Presbyterian Sunday School.

There was a large audience present at the opera house last evening to listen to the Christmas cantata, "Crowning of Christmas," by the Sunday school of the First Presbyterian Church. The cantata is full of songs and recitations, and opens with a committee called to decide which day should be the one to celebrate by the Sunday school.

The various days, consisting of St. Valentine's Day, Washington's Birthday, Children's Day, Independence Day, Thanksgiving Day, were represented by typical characters, until at the end Old Santa Claus came and won.

Considering the short time for preparation all did remarkably well, and the seven little girls representing Children's Day did exceptionally well. All spoke very distinctly.

The entertainment concluded with the distribution of presents and there was a happy lot of children.

A Thousand Dollars' Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurax, a well-known coal operator of Buffalo, O., writes: "I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel and stones with excruciating pain. I got no relief from medicine until I began taking Foley's Kidney Cure; then the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust like fine stones and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. It has done me $1,000 worth of good." J. W. McCollum & Co.

LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTICE TO NON-RESIDENTS.

In the Circuit Court, Eighth Judicial Circuit, Alachua County, Florida, in the case of E. E. Voss vs. H. Draeger and Minnie Draeger, his wife, Mortgage Foreclosure.

It appearing by affidavit appended to the bill filed in the above stated cause that W. H. Draeger and Minnie Draeger, the defendants therein named, are non-residents of the State of Florida, but believed to be residents of Washington, District of Columbia, and are owners of the premises of said bill, it is therefore ordered that said non-resident defendants be and they are hereby required to appear to the Bill of Complaint filed in said cause on or before Monday, the 15th day of January, A. D. 1906, otherwise the allegations of said bill will be taken as confessed by said defendants. It is further ordered that this order be published once a week for four consecutive weeks in The Gainesville Sun, a newspaper published in the said county and state.
