Taft Busy Selecting Costume for Inaugural Ceremonies---Other Washington Notes.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 22.—The President-elect and Mrs. Taft have vacated their home in Washington and are staying at the home of Miss Mabel Boardman, in connection with the Red Cross drive, of which Mr. Taft is president. This makes her name known throughout the country. The President-elect is a welcome visitor at the White House and has spent a large part of his time there since his arrival. He presented his report on conditions in Panama to the President, who appears to be highly gratified by it, and has had several conferences with Secretary Knox, who will be his Secretary of State. The question of Mr. Taft's eligibility for that position has been settled by Congress, both houses concurring in the passage of the bill increasing the salary of the Secretary of State and reducing it to the sum which Mr. Taft has not doubted the wisdom of Congress to make this reduction, but he has feared that Mr. Taft might feel called upon to withdraw to avoid unpleasant criticism. At the conference Tuesday, though, Mr. Taft stated positively that Mr. Knox would accept the portfolio, and it is believed that the administration will be embarrassed by any question raised in the courts later as to the Senator's eligibility. Mr. Taft accompanied to the White House the engineers when they presented their report on the Panama canal. The canal report contains twenty rewritten pages and indorses in every particular the lock type plan of construction and approves the program and management of the work. It was sent to Congress by President Roosevelt Wednesday with a special message concerning the canal in which the President says that change now to the sea level plan would be inexcusable folly.

a special train for Oyster Bay. It has long been the custom for the President and the President-elect to ride to the capitol on inaugural day and to return along the route of the parade with the new President occupying the right hand seat, with the retiring executive at his left, the reverse of the relative positions in which they made the trip to the capitol. Two innovations will be introduced this year, inasmuch as Mr. Taft will return to the White House alone, and instead of using a carriage will use new automobiles provided for the occasion.

Mr. Taft is busy writing his inaugural address, but a not less important matter in the Taft family is the selection of the gown that Mrs. Taft will wear at the inaugural ceremonies. It is to be made in New York, and Mrs. Taft went there last week for the absorbing work of having it fitted and to plan also her costume for the inaugural ball. Mrs. Taft is not unlike Mrs. Roosevelt in her lack of that subtle instinct called style, and both are rather condemned by the smart set for their want of chic and fashion. Mrs. Roosevelt has apparently never failed to select the most unbecoming clothes obtainable, and while she patronizes skillful dressmakers and tailors and buys always the most elegant stuffs, she seldom achieves consummate sartorial effects. Mrs. Taft, whose allowance for dress has always been limited, and who is consequently accused of believing that economy is the root of all virtue, leans to the selection of clothes that will wear well and bear being made over, and she wears them with indifference as to their effect. Both, however, never err on the side of the flashy or obtrusive, and if they fail to make the most of their charms they are always simply and appropriately gowned.

Preparations for the inauguration, now less than two weeks distant, are going on. Every precaution is being taken to prevent overcrowding of the capitol. No person will be admitted to the floor or to the inaugural arrangements except they be members of the Senate and elective officers; members of the House of Representatives and elective officers; ex-vice-presidents; justices of the supreme court and officers; the admiral of the navy and his aid; the chief of staff of the army and his aid. Cards of admission to the floor and tickets of admission to the extent of two each have been given to Senators for their friends. This is a smaller number than has been given out on previous occasions.

Pennsylvania avenue has begun to assume quite a baseball like appearance. Seats or bleachers have been erected at open spaces along the avenue, where thousands of people may secure seats at prices varying from fifty cents to two dollars. Much will depend on the weather, which, of course, is always a doubtful element on the fourth of March.

After a heavy meal, take a couple of Doan's Regulents, and give your stomach, liver and bowels the help they will need. Regulents bring easy, regular passages of the bowels.

Facts For Sick Women

We know of no other medicine which has been so successful in relieving the suffering of women, or secured so many genuine testimonials, as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

In almost every community you will find women who have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Almost every woman you meet has either been benefited by it, or knows some one who has.

In the Pinkham Laboratory at Lynn, Mass., are files containing over one million one hundred thousand letters from women seeking health, in which many openly state over their own signatures that they have regained their health by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has saved many women from surgical operations.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is made exclusively from roots and herbs, and is perfectly harmless.

The reason why it is so successful is because it contains ingredients which act directly upon the female organism, restoring it to healthy and normal activity.

Thousands of unsolicited and genuine testimonials such as the following prove the efficiency of this simple remedy.

Minneapolis, Minn.:—"I was a great sufferer from female troubles which caused a weakness and broken down condition of the system. I read so much of what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had done for other suffering women, I felt sure it would help me, and I must say it did help me wonderfully. Within three months I was a perfectly well woman."

"I want this letter made public to show the benefits to be derived from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. John G. Moldan, 2115 Second St. North, Minneapolis, Minn.

Women who are suffering from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should not lose sight of these facts or doubt the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health.

RESOLUTIONS.

Into the presence of the Great I Am, entered the spirit of Mrs. Omera B. Thomas, January 10th, 1909.

Whereas, It has pleased our Heavenly Father to call home His child, we bow submission to His divine will, but in the removal of Mrs. Thomas from her earthly home, to her home "Over There," in "The Land That Is Fairer Than Day," her dear ones have lost a loving, devoted mother and friend; our church has lost, not only one of its charter members, but a true, earnest, faithful Christian—and our community a loyal, true friend.

Therefore be it Resolved, That we, the members of the Foreign Missionary Society, of Kavanaugh Methodist Church, South, of Gainesville, Florida, of which Mrs. Thomas was a faithful member, express to her bereaved ones our sincere sympathy, commending them to Him "who doeth all things well," knowing that she stands waiting for them, and the separation will not be long, for they shall all meet again, where sorrow and parting is unknown, and hear, with her, the blessed words of the Master, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into thy reward." The society has lost one of its oldest and most devoted members, but in our loss we rejoice that she has entered into her eternal reward, and we shall always hold her in loving remembrance.

Resolved, further, That a copy of these resolutions be sent the bereaved family, and a copy be sent The Sun, also The Florida Christian Advocate, for publication, and a copy be spread on the minutes of our society.

Had Good Exhibit.

From Tuesday's Daily Sun: Maj. J. W. Tench, who has charge of the Alachua county exhibit at the Tampa State Fair, arrived in the city Sunday to spend a short while here with relatives who are visiting in the city. He has a very fine exhibit at the fair which was gotten up wholly by him and is confident that he will capture some of the prizes offered.
