L. A. FRALEIGH,

This Bank does a general banking business and respectfully solicits the accounts of Individuals, Firms, Banks and Corporations generally.

Col. C. A. Hardee of Live Oak spent several days in town this week.

Blacksmithing promptly and properly done at the shop of G. W. Walker, Jr.

As we go to press the cheering news reaches us that the condition of Mrs. S. A. Hinely is somewhat improved.

Does your buggy or wagon need painting? Carry it to G. W. Walker who will fix it up right.

Albert Fraleigh reached home Saturday night from Kentucky where he had been to buy stock for his trade. The animals reached here Monday night and are a fine lot. Albert says he found some powerful cold weather up in that country and snow was plentiful.

SEWING MACHINES Five kinds at six different prices, from $15.00 to $35.00 for cash. Sold on time to responsible buyers at a slight advance in price. W. H. Dial, Jr. 1-21-st.

G. W. Walker the blacksmith and wheelwright is now located at his large new shop opposite the stables of the Fraleigh, Hinely, Smith Co. He will be glad to see and serve all who require his services.

Rev. Stephen Crockett made flying trip to Hamilton County on Thursday to perform the marriage ceremony for Mr. G. S. Pohill and Miss Lillie A. Bracewell. Both parties are members of the oldest and best families of that county.

Since last Thursday more than one dozen new subscribers have been added to the list of the New Enterprise to say nothing of several renewals. Our list is constantly increasing and we hope before a great while to have the paper in every home in Madison county.

Miss Lizzie Thomas left yesterday for Atlanta to resume her duties as editress of the Household Department of the Atlanta Journal. Her visit home was most pleasant to her hosts of friends as well as to herself and we all hope that she will soon decide to return and make Madison her permanent place of abode.

Two candidates were initiated into the mysteries of the rank of Page at the meeting of the local lodge Knights of Pythias held Monday night. This session of the lodge was an interesting one and matters of interest were discussed. Application for membership in the order was received from one of our popular young men.

The leading wheelwright business in town. Call at the new shop of G. W. Walker, Jr.

The mercantile firm of Witherspoon & Shackelford has been dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. Shackelford buying bought the interest of his partner, Mr. Witherspoon, in the business. The business will be continued by Mr. Shackelford at the same stand where he hopes to continue to merit the large trade which was given the firm.

Frank Pomeroy and Frank Thornton, little fellows both, afforded their parents a frightful scare Monday. In some manner they got hold of a bottle of arsenic solution and drank a considerable quantity of its contents. Fortunately their deed was discovered almost instantly and physicians being promptly summoned they were soon placed beyond danger of serious results.

The Ted Blackmore Art Company opened a three nights engagement at the Armory Monday evening. The first performance was a "free for all" affair and the show was beyond question one of the very best ever seen in Madison. There was a complete change of program at each performance and the entertainment afforded by the company has received nothing but the highest commendation from our people. We hope this company will return to Madison at some future day.

The livery business heretofore conducted under the firm name of D. H. Mays & Co., will in the future be the sole business of Mr. D. H. Mays, who on Tuesday last consummated a trade by which he bought the interest of his partner, A. E. Fraleigh. A legal notice of the dissolution of the copartnership appears in this issue to which attention is invited. Mr. Mays desires to extend his thanks to his former patrons and by close attention to the business and prompt filling of all orders hopes to merit in the future the same liberal patronage which the firm enjoyed.

Mrs. C. T. McDaniel charmingly entertained a number of the ladies of Home Mission Society of the Methodist church Monday. A few business matters were disposed of and measures taken to pay off all debts and still leave the members $40 to put aside for future needs. The afternoon was delightful spent socially. Elegant refreshments were served to Mrs. E. P. Groover, Mrs. J. J. Johnson, Mrs. R. H. Hadlock, Mrs. G. J. McGhee, Mrs. J. M. Johnson, Mrs. Bardin, Mrs. Dr. Overstreet, Mrs. Dr. Thomson, Mrs. Moon and Rev. J. L. Moon, the latter making a motion that the society meet with Mrs. McDaniel every Monday afternoon. —Live Oak Democrat.
