This Bank does a general banking business and respectfully solicits the accounts of Individuals, Firms, Banks and Corporations generally.

Why not rent a Safety Deposit Box in a modern steel vault and feel that your valuable papers are secure? Three dollars a year pays for one. See the MADISON COUNTY STATE BANK about it.

City candidates were hustling for votes Monday and Tuesday. Their troubles are over and the successful ones are patting themselves on the back while those who were defeated are telling their friends just how it happened.

Our announcement column continues to grow and all the candidates are not yet in. Come forward, gentlemen. If you want the voters to know your desires the columns of this paper offer the best medium we know of to tell them.

Attention is called to the announcement of Hon. C. A. Hardee which appears in this paper. Mr. Hardee is well known in Madison and Madison county. He is a candidate for the position of States Attorney for the Third Judicial Circuit.

Mr. Will Bauskett, the gentlemanly and efficient private secretary to Senator Taliaferro, accompanied that gentleman to Madison last Thursday. Mr. Bauskett is an old friend of the editor of this paper and we were pleased to meet with him again.

The revival service was commenced at the Methodist church Sunday morning. Rev. J. L. Morrill, the evangelist in charge, is a preacher of power and very plain spoken. The attendance at the services is large and considerable interest is being displayed.

Mr. Tom Caulk, who has been very low for several weeks, died at his home four miles from town Tuesday evening. Mr. Caulk was a good man, well liked by all who knew him, and his walk in life in the midst of all friends and connections, and they are many, will be sorely missed. He was buried at Piney Grove church Wednesday evening. To the bereaved family, to the connection and his friends we extend our condolences.

Orders have been issued by Capt. W. H. Dial to the men composing the Madison Guards, Co. C, 1st Infantry, to prepare for inspection. The company will be inspected at the armory on Wednesday night, 23rd inst., 8 o'clock, and the inspecting officers will be Adjutant General Foster and Lieutenant Colonel Stevens T. Norvell, of the United States Army. It is commanded that every member of the company be present promptly on the hour named. The ceremony of inspection being one of the most impressive of military tactics those of the citizens who desire to attend will be welcomed.

The speaking scheduled for last Thursday did not take place. The speakers were here but as a mark of respect to ex-Governor Bloxham the speaking was postponed on account of the death and funeral of Mrs. Bloxham. Col. Robt. W. Davis, Senator Taliaferro and other distinguished democratic gentlemen spent the day in circulating among our people. We acknowledge a call from the candidates. It was decided that the gentlemen will return to Madison at some future day, yet to be decided upon, and address the people of the county.

In Close Touch.

THE officials of this bank keep in close touch with every detail of the business. By so doing, they insure correct methods, and acceptable service to their patrons.

RUNNING RISKS.

DESPITE the prevalence of robbery, a few continue to keep money about their homes. In thus doing, they are not only risking the loss of money, but also their lives. How much safer and better it would be if these people were to bring their money to this bank. Are you running such risks?
