THE NEW ENTERPRISE,
Madison, Florida.
THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 1905.

The man who spends his time, influence and money to build up his town or community need not fear death, for his deeds will live after him.

'Hot air' sometimes is a great help in town building but hot smoke rising from factory stacks never fails. Madison should see to it that the stacks are erected.

A big saw mill located in Madison would help out wonderfully. And we have reason to believe that such an industry could be secured at the cost of a little effort upon the part of our people.

The pomp and ceremony in connection with the inauguration of President Roosevelt last Saturday was in striking contrast to the democratic simplicity displayed by Jefferson on a similar occasion

Live Oak is jubilating because Teddy has given them a white man to officiate as postmaster in place of the "cullud gemmen" who has served the citizens of that town in that capacity for several years. Live Oak has our hearty congratulations on the change.

The first number of John Collins' "True Democrat," Tallahassee's new weekly paper, has reached our exchange table. It is a model of typographical excellence and full to the brim of fresh, spicy news and editorial matter. Right gladly do we add it to our exchange list.

Hon. Robert W. Davis, the able representative from the second Florida congressional district for so many years, is once more a private citizen, his term having expired with the ending of the congress last week. "Our Bob" will re enter actively into the practice of law at his old home, Palatka, and we wish for him plenty of clients with big fees.

Some wag has paraphrased Shakespeare's seven ages of man as follows: "The stork disappears and we look into the cradle and behold a male child. After running the gauntlet of measles, mumps and chicken pox, he enters school. At the age of ten he is a red-headed, freckle-faced boy and the terror of the neighborhood. At 12 he is an apprentice in a printing office. At 18 he has acquired two cases of long primer and an army press and is the editor of a country newspaper. At 20 he is married. At 30 he is bald-headed, stoop-shouldered and the father of a large family. At 35 he is a corpse in a cheap pine coffin, and as 500 delinquent subscribers file past his bier for the last look they are heard to say: 'He was a good fellow, but he couldn't save his money.'"

'It would be hard to find anywhere two fresher, newsier weeklies than the Madison New Enterprise and the Chipley Banner," is the opinion of Prof. Tom McBeath, the brilliant educator and editor of the School Exponent, and for this truly expert opinion and graceful compliment we doff our hat with cordial thanks

Convict labor seems to be as valuable as free labor. The State convicts last week, on competitive bidding, brought to the State $207 per capita per annum, including men, women and children. This is an increase of $50 per capita over what they brought last year. The lessees are Barnes & Co. of Jacksonville.

Tallahassee is entertaining the Grand Lodge Knights of Pythias this week, the annual session having opened there yesterday. This is one of the strongest fraternal orders in Florida and the sessions of the Grand Lodge are always most pleasant and instructive to those who attend them.

A Chicago Alderman Owes his Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.
"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Schebeck, 220 So. Peoria street, Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign I caught cold after being overhated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and I thank this medicine that I won my seat in the council." This remedy is for sale by D. G. Smith and all druggists.

Call for Mass Meeting.
Acting upon a suggestion of the Town Council, I hereby call a mass meeting of the qualified democratic electors of the Town of Madison to be held in the court house at 7:30 p. m., on Friday, March 10th, 1905, for the purpose of nominating town officers as follows, viz:
One Mayor,
One Clerk and Treasurer,
One Marshal and Tax Collector,
One Tax Assessor, and
Two members Town Council for two years each.

Blank tickets will be furnished for use at the meeting, candidates for all offices to be voted for on same ballot. Those candidates receiving a majority of all votes cast to be the nominees. The registration book of the Town of Madison will be used in the voting and only those citizens whose names appear thereon as duly registered and qualified voters will be permitted to vote in said meeting.

Night prowling Thieves.
Croup and whooping cough come like a thief in the night, stealing in to fasten the fangs of mortal disease upon the children as they peacefully sleep in their little beds. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar, the new discovery for coughs and colds, will drive out these death dealing demons before the doctor can arrive. It protects the lives and health of the little ones. Contains no opiates. Keep it handy. Sold by W B Davis.

PROCLAMATION.
In accordance with the Charter and Ordinances of the Town of Madison, notice is hereby given that an election will be held on Tuesday, the 4th day of April, 1905, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 5 p. m., at which officers will be elected to serve the Town of Madison for the ensuing year. The officers to be elected are as follows, viz:
One Mayor,
One Clerk and Treasurer,
One Marshal and Tax Collector,
One Tax Assessor and
Two members of Town Council.
Given under my hand this March 4th, A. D. 1905.

COLUMBUS B. SMITH,
Mayor Town of Madison.
