Kennedy's Laxative Cough Syrup is the one that children like so well to take as it tastes nearly as good as maple sugar. It is different from the others, as it does not constipate, but on the other hand it acts gently yet freely on the bowels and thereby it drives the cold out of the system. It is sold by W. B. Davis.

The memorial exercises of the Woodmen of the World were held in the cemetery Sunday afternoon and the grave of Sovereign W. J. Witherspoon was decorated with beautiful flowers. The members of the order met at the lodge room and from there marched in a body, headed by our excellent band, to the cemetery where the exercises prescribed by the ritual of the order were pleasingly carried out. Dr. Mickle delivered a most beautiful and appropriate address which was greatly enjoyed by the Woodmen as well as by every person in the large assemblage which had gathered to witness the ceremonies. The local lodge or camp of Woodmen is a strong and flourishing institution and the members take a lively interest in its affairs.

At the home of the bride's parents in Live Oak, Fla., Wednesday evening, 10th inst., Gordon P. Wadsworth of Madison was happily united in marriage to Miss Mary McGriff, Rev. Father Lynch of Gainesville officiating. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives of the contracting parties and there were many costly and beautiful wedding presents. The young couple came directly to their home in Madison. Mr. Wadsworth is one of Madison's most prominent and popular young merchants and a son of the late Senator Burton D. Wadsworth. His bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. T. McGriff of Live Oak and is much beloved in her home city. The New Enterprise extends its heartiest felicitations to the happy young couple and wishes for them a life of happiness and prosperity.

Telegrams received in the city early Monday morning conveyed the sad intelligence of the death of Mrs. J. Frank Lines which occurred suddenly at her home in Quincy Sunday evening. From the very meagre details we learn the death of Mrs. Lines was due to an attack of acute indigestion. She was well known and greatly beloved by our people with whom she made her home for many years. She is survived by a sorrowing husband and several children and grandchildren with whose tears are mingled those of many sorrowful friends. To the bereaved family we offer our sincere sympathy. The same telegram which brought the news of the death of Mrs. Lines also told us of the marriage of her daughter, Maye, to Mr. R. E. Blitch of Quincy. This wedding was to have taken place yesterday and cards of invitation had been issued. It is thought that Mrs. Lines, feeling her approaching dissolution, requested the marriage of the daughter to the man of her choice before death claimed her.

Economy and Want

are seldom or never companions. Thrift is the word for those who would not only keep the wolf from the door but have a dollar or two laid aside for old age. See how we help thrift! We allow 4 per cent. annual interest on the smallest deposits—$1.00 or more—and compound even that. Particulars for personal or mail inquiry.

S. J. ELLISON,
Tax Collector Madison County, Florida.

Misses Eula Hassell and Eva Overstreet are visiting Mrs. Sutton at Perry.

Clifford McCall came over from Monticello Friday and spent the day with his mother, Mrs. J. P. McCall.

J. B. Thomas who has been quite sick for several days past, was out on the streets for a little while Tuesday. The many friends of this gentleman hope that he will rapidly recuperate his usual excellent health.

James P. McCall, one of our most popular and promising young men, left Monday for Columbus, Ga., where he has gone to enter for a combined business and stenographic course in the Massey Business College. James is one of our best young men and will make his mark in whatever vocation he may choose as his life work.

Mrs. Arthur Vann is the local organizer and agent of the Woodmen Circle, a fraternal and beneficial auxiliary of the Woodmen of the World, which latter order has such a splendid local camp. Mrs. Vann wants to organize a Grove of the order in Madison and invites the ladies of the city to see her and talk the matter over.

Professor and Mrs. Walter B. Cate who expected to have left last Thursday for Tennessee to spend the vacation days, were prevented from so doing by the illness of the professor which has kept him confined to his bed for a week past. We are glad to know that he is now convalescent and gives promise of being speedily restored to his normal good health.

I have opened a real estate office in the rear of the old bank building. I have 5000 acres of excellent farm lands, about 20 acres of town property and 3 dwellings with lots in town for sale. I will make a specialty of collecting rents on farm or town property and other accounts. In my hands are all accounts of J. G. Kent, lately a furniture dealer here, and of Adaline McLeary. Persons owing either of these parties are requested to call on me and settle up same. If you have property of any kind for sale or rent list it with me and I will endeavor to dispose of it for you. Correspondence solicited. Ryrd Belote.

Walter Bunting has gone to Economa Spring for an outing of a few days.

C. M. Davis of Live Oak, where he is a popular young business man, spent Sunday in our town.

Miss Stephana Dial, the attractive young daughter of Capt. and Mrs. W. H. Dial, is at home for the vacation days from her college in Richmond, Va. En route home the young lady stopped over with friends for a day or two in Jacksonville and arrived here Monday accompanied by her young friend, Miss Roselle Cooley, of that city, who will spend several days as Miss Dial's guest.

Read the page advertisement of W. M. Taylor, the popular dealer in clothing and gente furnishings.
