THE WELCOME TO PASTOR ROGERS

Four Pastors and Flocks United In the Services.

AT FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH.

Methodist, Presbyterian, Episcopal and Baptist—Pastors Spoke—Pleasant Time.

The Protestant Christian Churches of no city in the State follow a more beautiful and Christian-like custom when a new pastor comes to one of the churches, than do the churches in Gainesville.

The custom is the coming together of the several pastors and congregations for a Sunday evening union service—a welcome service—when ever a new pastor comes to one of the churches. This practice has been in vogue here for several years. Every time a new pastor comes to one of the churches, the first Sunday evening service is held at the church to which the new pastor has come, the other churches are closed, and the several pastors and flocks unite in welcoming the new pastor.

The services have been very beautiful, pleasant, and have had many persons who are not members of any church at all to form a high regard for the Christian spirit manifested by the church people here, and have, in that way done much good for the cause for which they all stand.

One of the most delightful of these welcoming services yet held in this city, was held at the First Baptist church last Sunday evening. For about six months, the Baptist church had been without a pastor, and Rev. S. B. Rogers, of Marianna, one of the most prominent Baptist divines in the State, and president of the Baptist State Convention, having accepted a call to the pastorate of the church, began his labors here Sunday. According to the beautiful custom already spoken of, the Methodist, Presbyterian and Episcopal churches were closed Sunday evening and the pastors and flocks attended the welcoming services at the Baptist church. In the choir were splendid singers from the various churches, and the music was good—old familiar hymns being used.

Rev. W. J. Carpenter, pastor of Kavanagh, Methodist church, and who has served as a pastor here longer than any other pastor now in the city has, conducted the services.

Robert McClellan, senior deacon of the Baptist church, in behalf of himself and the church welcomed the new pastor in words that were appropriate and touching.

Rev. Thos. P. Hay, pastor of the First Presbyterian church then spoke for himself and church, and assured pastor Rogers that they all extended a hearty welcome. Mr. Hay said the custom of welcoming new pastors by all churches is done in Gainesville was a new one to him, when he came here, but the custom he thought a good one, and one from which he had derived much pleasure.

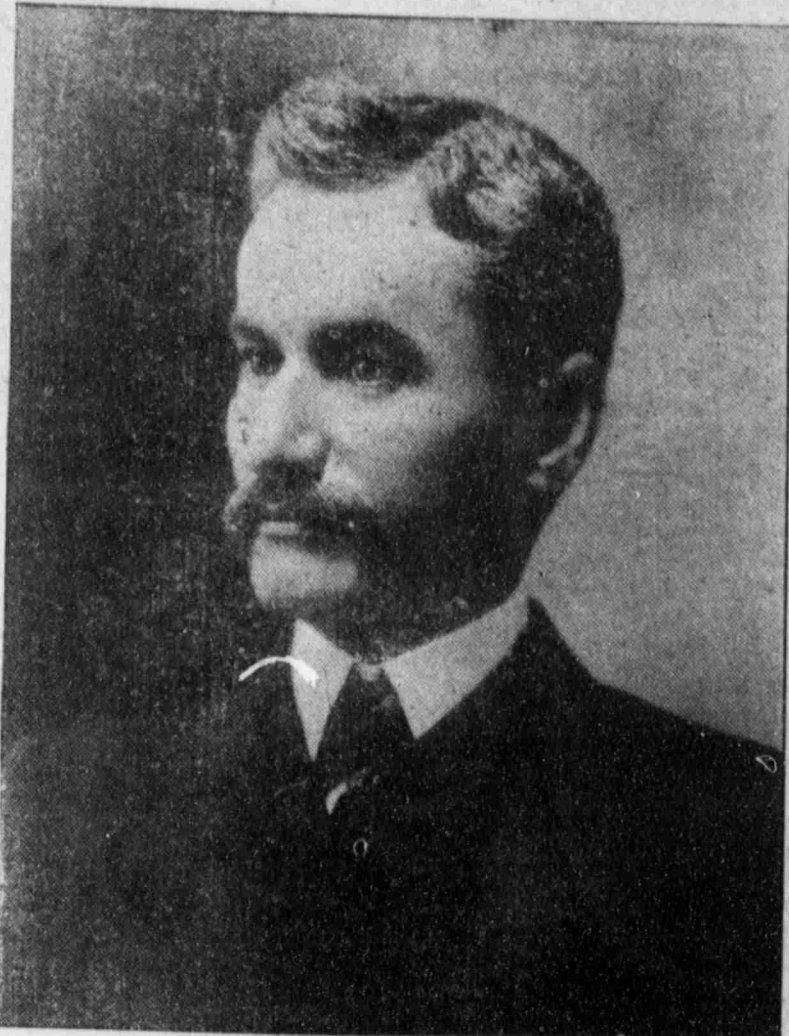

At the conclusion of Mr. Hay's address the choir and congregation sang "Blest be the tie that binds our hearts in Christian love."

Rev. F. H. Craigbill, pastor of Holy Trinity Episcopal church then welcomed the new pastor in behalf of himself and the members of his church. He said that while the different churches differed in no essential things, but all believe that Jesus Christ is the son of God, which is the one thing not only needful but indispensable.

Rev. W. J. Carpenter, pastor of Kavanagh Methodist church then welcomed Pastor Rogers in behalf of himself and flock. Mr. Carpenter said too many things to be repeated here, but they were all good and to the point. During the three and a half years he has been in Gainesville the good people of all denominations have learned to love him, and his work and manners have forced all to respect him. He don't wait to get in the pulpit to fight the devil, but he don't seem to have any better sense (?) than to jump right on the old imp wherever he meets him, and his welcome to the Baptist pastor was in about the same spirit that he usually goes about things.

The concluding remarks were by the new pastor, Rev. Rogers, who declared that only on the occasion of his marriage had he ever before had such a peculiar feeling as this welcoming service had caused to come over him. Said if the people continued to treat him as nicely as they had started out to do he would write for Mrs. Rogers to come at once. He thanked Pastors Hay, Craigbill and Carpenter, and their people for the cordial Christian welcome that had been accorded him, and hoped they all would get along as Christians should, and that new greater things for the Lord than had yet been experienced in this city, would come as a result of the united efforts of the church people to do Christ's will.

At the close of this address the choir and congregation sang "God be with you and keep you," and the meeting was closed with prayer by Rev. W. J. Carpenter.

J. N. C. STOCKTON,

The People's Friend, and Candidate for the United States Senate.

Vote for him, and thus elect as your Senator a man who is the friend of the men who toil—the men who make the wealth of the country but enjoy less of it than many who labor not. Vote for the man who would rather shake the rough hand of the plowman, or the axeman, than the gloved hand of the millionaire.

Board of Trade Re-Organized.

About thirty-five of Gainesville's prominent business men met Monday to re-organize the Board of Trade.

Temporary organization was perfected by the election of Hon. W. G. Robinson chairman and B. F. Hampton secretary. Chairman Robinson was authorized to appoint a committee of five to nominate officers for the ensuing year, after which the meeting adjourned to convene again at the council chamber Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

A great spirit of enthusiasm marked this meeting, and it was evident that the gentlemen had come together with a determination to work in harmony for the best interests and advancement of the city's interests.

MASTER'S SALE.

Under and by virtue of a final decree made and rendered on the 28th day of January, A. D. 1903, by Hon. W. S. Bullock, Judge of the Circuit Court of the 5th Judicial Circuit of Florida, in and for Alachua county, in a case there pending, on the Chancery side of said court, wherein Rachel E. Jamerson of Alachua county, Florida, as administratrix of the estate of James A. Brock, deceased, late of said place, and J. L. Jamerson, her husband, are complainants, and Henry F. Brooker and Drew Brooker, his wife, are defendants, wherein I was appointed as a special master, in chancery to execute said decree, I will sell at public outcry, before the court house door, in the city of Gainesville, in Alachua county, Florida, on Monday, the 6th day of June, A. D. 1904, being legal sale day, between the legal hours of sale, the following described real estate situated, lying and being in the county of Alachua, State of Florida, and particularly known and described as follows, to-wit:

The west half of the northeast quarter of Section sixteen (16), Township nine (9) south, Range fourteen (14) east, situated in Alachua county, Florida, together with all and singular the tenements, hereditaments and appurtenances thereunto belonging or in anywise appertaining.

Said property levied upon and to be sold as the property of said defendants, to satisfy and pay said decree, fees and costs. Terms cash.

This 26th day of April, A. D. 1904
W. S. BROOME,
Special Master in Chancery.
CHRISTOPHER MATHESON,
Complainant's Solicitor.

Big lot of good work mules for sale cheap at W. R. Thomas's stables. Call and see them and if you need any horses, wagons, buggies, harness, etc., call on Thomas.

Does Your Watch KEEP TIME?

If not we'll cure it, and when we get through with it you'll wonder why you didn't think of us long before. All work guaranteed. No hasty slipshod job leaves our shop. None but the best material used, and you will not grumble at the prices either.

H. C. Stevens,
JEWELER,
High Springs, - Florida.

Division A. C. L. Watch Inspector.

Try Fagan's market for best meats.

W. D. Blitch of High Springs was in the city yesterday.

W. A. Dunagan was in the city yesterday from High Springs.

If you want to buy, rent or sell a house—See Moyers.

Col. W. S. Broome made a professional visit to Newberry the last of last week.

Messrs. Thos. R. Owens and J. C. Newberry were in the city, yesterday from High Springs.

Col. Chris Matheson returned Saturday from a trip to LaFosse, Alachua and other points in that section of the county. O. P. Cannon, candidate for County Commissioner, and one of the county's best men, was in the city Saturday from Rocky Point.

Just received, the latest shopping bag, we have them in black, brown, tan and grey, they are usually sold at $1.50, our price $1.00. L. C. Smith.

Miss Christine Richards has returned from Raleigh, N. C., where she has been attending college, and her many friends are delighted to have her home again.

Wonder what those young men think about the reception, they received at the Sink pop now last Sunday. If they will attend church next Sunday, they will be treated better.

SNAPPY styles in shoes and oxfords that please the eye as well as the foot; can be found in our shoe department. We make a specialty of comfort shoes for women who consider comfort first, and can fit almost any foot in soft easy shoes. L. C. Smith.

Major W. R. Thomas has installed in his feed and livery stables up-to-date electric fans which add greatly to the health and comfort of the place. Not only do the fans keep the stables cool and pleasant, but they keep out flies and other insects, so that when a horse is driven in town from the country, and is put up at this stable even for a few hours, he goes out rested and greatly refreshed.

Mrs. Madie Cloud, an estimable lady of High Springs, was in the city yesterday, and dined with Mrs. Edith Hunter. Mrs. Cloud left at 2:30 p. m. via the Atlantic Coast Line, for Jacksonville. From Jacksonville she will go to Williston, S. C., where she will spend a few weeks. Then she will proceed to Asheville, spend the summer months there, and return to Florida in the fall.

HAIR GROWER.
Brooklyn, N. Y., April 21, '99.
Dr. S. B. Giddings,
Dear Sir:—Will you kindly inform me by return mail if you can send your soc. bottle of Hair Grower the Unparalleled (Trade Mark) and if so I will send you a postal note for the same. Please inform me the amount of postage if it can be mailed.

When in Florida the winter of 1897 and 98 I used five bottles of the twenty-five cent size and produced a nice growth of hair where it had been entirely bald for fifteen years, and now I would like to try it once more if I can get it.

Yours truly,
J. W. HAYNES.

Personally appeared before the subscriber, a Notary Public, in and for the State of Florida, at large, S. B. Giddings, who being duly sworn by me depose and say that the above testimonial was sent to him by mail by J. W. Haynes, a man whom he had never seen or heard of, also that he had no knowledge of the man ever having used or procured the Unparalleled Hair Grower, and as far as he knows no one had influenced him to send it, and that the man has never received anything for sending it.

Sworn to and subscribed before me this 12th day of November, A. D. 1902.

COMMUNICATION FROM MEXICO

Two Former Alachua Countians Heard From.

PETTIT AND MEXICAN HERALD

Pettit Defends the South—Olmsted For Broward, Barrs and Stockton.

The following is from Mr. George P. Olmsted, an old Alachua county boy who is now in Mexico City, Mexico, and was intended for our last issue but came too late:

Mexico City, May 30, 1904.

Editor Star:—I enclose you an article by N. C. Pettit of Waldo, now living in Mexico City, in reply to an editorial in the Mexico City Herald of the 27th inst. This Herald is owned, as dozens of other "great" dailies, by the corporations. This being controlled by the Mexican Central Railroad of Mexico. Such slanders as the enclosed can come only from trust controlled newspapers, and should be read with interest by those Florida voters who are supporting the Times-Union candidates. So long as the people of Florida read and support such corporation-owned periodicals as the T. U., so long should they be forced to pay more than their share of taxes to support the government controlled by the aforesaid corporations. Am sorry indeed that I am not in Alachua county to cast my vote for Broward, Barrs and Stockton, the best friends the people of Florida have had in a quarter of a century.

Yours truly,
GEO. P. OLMSTED.

MR. PETTIT TO THE MEXICAN HERALD.

To the Editor of the Mexican Herald: Sir:—"The latest Standard Oil dividend is satisfactorily to Shareholders. Mr. Rockefeller will have to keep on educating those poor children of the Southern states. He is doing an immense amount of good in putting the means of a modern living in the hands of neglected children. The recording angel must be devoting extra hours to the pages of his ledger apportioned to the oil king."

From the tone of the above, Mr. Rockefeller is, in your judgment booked for heaven. Let me say to you that all the thieves in every prison in the United States have not taken from the people of the United States as many dollars as has Mr. Rockefeller by his crushing methods. You well know his plans would have been condemned by your father and mine. I will not assume to say what a righteous father's judgment may be or what the Recording Angel may write. As to the children of the South, you evidently neither know their fathers nor their mothers. I am a Southerner by adoption only, but long enough and true enough, to resent the eulogies over ill-gotten wealth, and I want to assure you that, while the Southern white of my own State is educating his own, and the negro's child also, he does it at more than double the per cent tax on his own holdings, or property, than does the citizen of Massachusetts.

Let me say further that for brave men, strong minds, and good souls, and subjects for Heaven, the Recording Angel will in the future, as in Christ's time, look to the poor, not forgetting the "widow's mite."

N. C. P.

Two Dry Towns.

Gainesville and Cedar Key are two dry towns, and last Friday an excursion was run from the former to the latter place to convey the members of the five Sunday schools of Gainesville and their friends on a Sunday school picnic. There was nothing unusual or very strange about this, of course, but where the rather strange and very unusual part came in was in the fact that no accident marred the pleasure of the occasion. Not an intoxicated or angry person was seen—either on the going or return trip, or at the Key—among the one thousand picnickers, and it is safe to say that had Gainesville and Cedar Key (or either of them) been saloon towns there would have been some trouble in the air.

NOTICE.
Notice is hereby given that at the Spring Term, A. D. 1903, of the Circuit Court of the then Fifth Judicial Circuit of the State of Florida, in and for the county of Alachua, I, the undersigned, was tried and convicted for the crime of assault with intent to murder, and was sentenced to the Penitentiary by the court then presiding.

I intend to apply to the Honorable, the State Board of Pardons, for a pardon.
WILLIAM RICHARDS.

Real Estate.
