Walter Williams of Graceville, was in town Friday.

M. L. Dekle was over from Marianna, Wednesday.

Dr. Coleman was called to Vernon on business Monday.

C. O. McGhee of Brewton, Ala. was a business visitor in the city Friday.

T. A. Dekle and wife of Campbellton, Sunday here with homefolks.

Rev. D. H. McNeil conducted a series of meetings at the Bonifay Methodist church last week.

Mrs. F. L. Strickland of Holts, was the guest of Mrs. A. D. Campbell here a few days last week.

Dunk McQuagge was over from Clarksville, where he is now located, and spent Sunday with his parents.

Rev. D. H. McNeil was called to Hartford Tuesday night on account of the death of the little of his crother.

Attorney W. O. Butler attended court at Blountstown a day or two last week, where he represented clients.

Sheriff Allen and Deputy J. W. Williams are looking after their duties in the county court at Vernon this week.

H. T. Jones of Excell, Ala., is here this week, having been summoned to be with his mother, Mrs. T. C. Jones, who is very seriously ill.

Rev. E. P. Smith of Fernandina, was a visitor here several days last week, and preached at the Baptist church Thursday and Friday evenings and Sunday morning and evening.

Every man is a part of his town. The town embraces the fortunes, and in some measures at least takes on the character of the man. So loyalty to one's town is no more than loyalty to one's self in the line of a well shaped human nature. Therefore, it is right to say that he who does not stand up for his town is in some way dwarfed. There is something wrong about him. His fellows will pass judgment upon him, and the chances are that while he may add to the discomfort of others, he will not escape making himself unhappy.

Heaven help the man who imagines he can dodge enemies by trying to please everybody. If such an individual ever succeeds pass him over this way that we may have one look at his mortal remains ere he vanishes away, for surely earth cannot be his abiding place.

Roosevelt Wounded By Assassin.

Col. Theodore Roosevelt was shot in the breast by an assassin as he was leaving his hotel to go to an auditorium to make an address in Milwaukee, Monday night.

Notwithstanding the wound was a serious one, the Colonel insisted on going to the hall, where he delivered his speech. After the speech he was placed on a special train and carried to Chicago and placed in a hospital.

We are told the county commissioners at their meeting last week ordered an election to determine whether or not a special tax road district shall be created and bonds issued to build a hard road from Chipvey via Wausau, to the base line. We would like to see a good road to the Bay, but we do not believe the property owners will vote to create this special tax road district and issue bonds just to build a road to the sand hills and there stop. The Banner is an ardent an untiring advocate of good roads, and is always ready and willing to render whatever assistance possible toward securing good roads but in this instance, we are opposed to the proposition as it is proposed.

An untrained memory may be of little service; but, if the following be true, the time will come to many souls when it would be far better to have no memory at all: "It is said impressions once made on the mind will never be effaced. Memory will revive every event in past life when called upon to produce them. May we not suggest that memory will be God's witness in the great tribunal, when confronted by the perfect law? Will we not then be reminded that we have not used the precious ointment of love and charity when we had the opportunity." How are we training our memories?

G. A. Danley has our thanks for a generous portion of very fine beef which he killed last Friday. To show that it pays to raise good stock and take proper care of them it is only necessary to say that the beef Mr. Danley killed was a calf, not quite seven months old, but when dressed the four quarters weighed 321 lbs. This is more than the average scrub cow will weigh when it is seven years old.

Opportunities do not come to us with the values stamped upon them. Every one must be challenged. A day dawns, quite like the other days; in it a single hour comes, quite like the other hours but in that day and in that hour the chance of a lifetime faces us. To face every opportunity of life thoughtfully and ask its meaning bravely and earnestly is the only way to meet the supreme opportunities when they come.

This bit of advice from the Carrabelle Topics should be remembered by citizens of Chipley: "Patronize the merchant that advertises in your home paper; he is the town builder and wants your trade, being glad to serve you at all times and ready to meet prices with competitors; call on him and you will have change to carry home out of your dollars that he saved you.

Hon. Emmett Wilson, nominee for congress from this district, U. S. senator, N. P. Bryan, and T. F. West, nominee for attorney general, were here Thursday enroute to Lynn Haven where they made speeches at the big Democratic rally that day.

Town Topics.

There are no tomorrows in the calendar of the person who DOES things.

At the present price of pork and ham it is a compliment to be called a hog.

The county court mill is grinding away at Vernon this week. The docket is heavy.

About all the members of the local bar are in attendance at county court this week.

The hog may not have gone very far in mathematics, but when it comes to the square root he is there, the hog is.

If we were as silent with respect to our achievements as we are concerning our mistakes, what a silent world this would be.

Usually, the man who has not the courage of his convictions is called a hypocrit; and the one who has it, is a tyrant. So what is the use.

Eat six times a day, if you want to be healthy, says a New York doctor. But where is the spondulix coming from to pay for these eats.

About 600 bales of cotton has been ginned and marketed here so far this season. The total for the season will probably reach about the 1,300 mark.

Every thought you send out is an invitation for certain conditions that will react to your detriment or good. Guard, then, your attitude of mind.

Something like forty or fifty took advantage of the excursion over the B. C. & St. A. railroad last Thursday and attended the Democratic rally at Lynn Haven.

Protracted services at the Methodist church will begin Sunday. The pastor, Rev. D. H. McNeil, will be assisted in this meeting by his brother, of Alabama.

The B. C. & St. A. railroad is having its passenger cars repainted and otherwise overhauled so the public traveling over that road may have best service and comfort possible.

The ladies of the Baptist church have arranged to hold a Bazaar some time about the middle of November. The proceeds will be used toward the purchase of new carpet for the church.

Studebaker
Laboratory Tests
Eliminate
Faulty Material

Every lot of material for Studebaker wagons must pass the rigid, searching test of the laboratories.

Physical and chemical tests discover inferior paint, varnish, iron, steel and wood. Material not up to a high standard never becomes a part of a Studebaker wagon.

Let us tell you more about the Studebaker—get acquainted with the Studebaker construction before you buy any wagon.
