City Happenings and Personal Mention.

Mayor Davis is in New Orleans on a business trip.
Mrs. W. C. Carlidge of Huntington was a visitor in the city Wednesday.
W. H. Cribb and C. M. Livingston of Johnson were in the city yesterday.
E. B. Olmstead of Pomona was transacting business in the city Wednesday.
H. H. Bard of Norwalk was among the up-river visitors in Palatka Wednesday.

St. Johns Lodge, K. of P. gave a big oyster supper for the members in Castle Hall last night.
Major J. L. Burton of Crescent City, was in the city Wednesday with the box from his precinct.
W. C. Norton and his daughter, Miss Helen Norton, of Crescent City, were visitors in the city this week.
F. J. O'Hara the well-known timber operator and capitalist of Jacksonville, was in the city Wednesday.
Hon. S. J. Hiburn has been spending several days in Jacksonville this week on professional business.

The Ladies Aid Society of the Baptist church will have a bread and cake sale at Wm. Turnage's store, Nov. 19th.
Henry Clay Tucker of Interlachen has closed his home near that place for the winter and will reside at Florahome.
Paul Jacobson of the Saratoga Hotel and a pupil in the high school, is one of the latest to acquire an auto. He has a Brush roadster.
Prof. G. A. Stephens of the high school was the lucky winner of the $3 at M. S. Brown's clock unveiling last Tuesday night.

Deputy Sheriff P. M. Hagan, who has been ill for a week, was able to visit the court house yesterday. He had a severe cold.
The Palatka Hospital Association will meet at the Board of Trade Rooms on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 16th at 3 o'clock, when important business is to be considered.
The "Man on the Box" at the Howell Theater last Monday night was one of the most clever productions of its kind shown on the local stage in several years. Those present enjoyed the play to the full.

George R. King of New Orleans, representing Dixie Motoring, the Magazine of Quality, and as booster for good roads, has been in the city much of the past week in the interests of that magazine.
Cards have been received by friends in this city for an anniversary "at home" by Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Cummings at their home in Rodman to-night, and many will avail themselves of the opportunity to enjoy the hospitality of these worthy and bountiful entertainers.
F. J. Fearnside will be in Jacksonville today in attendance upon the meeting of the state Democratic executive committee. Mr. Fearnside did not attend the recent rump meeting of the committee called by Mr. Dignan. The present meeting was called by Chairman Price.

Miss Mabel Bassett after an extended visit in Maryland and Virginia, has returned and will resume her music work. As a guest of Miss Elliott at her delightful house party, she is loud in her praise of Salisbury hospitality and the lavish manner in which the Palatka trio were entertained.
Hon. James M. Chesser spent Wednesday in the city getting the returns. He is again a disappointed man. Once before—in 1902—Mr. Chesser came within a few votes of realizing his ambition to a seat in the legislature. His failure this time is his first misfortune. It is thought Mr. Chesser will try again.
J. H. Houghton of the city drug store has recently returned from a tour of his home a set of views of the fire ruins of Palatka in 1884. These views are from different angles of the burned section and the series give one a clear idea of the devastation in the business section wrought by the great conflagration of more than a quarter of a century ago.

The board of county commissioners on Wednesday refused to reimburse Tax Assessor Bullard for money paid out for help and other necessary expense incurred in doing extra work made necessary by action of the board. Mr. Bullard's bill amounted to a little over $50, and all who have examined into the matter feel that his claim is not only reasonable but just.
The Cooke Comedy company of seven pieces is making lots of fun for patrons of the Orpheum Theater this week. The new Edison picture machine is also giving some wonderfully clever moving pictures. The Orpheum will soon be enclosed and complete, the lumber having arrived yesterday. The Orpheum habit is still growing.
Miss Leslie Wilkie has returned to her home in this city after a delightful season at city traveling. She went abroad in the spring with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie N. Wilkie, and on their return to New York, Miss Wilkie visited England states and New Jersey before returning to her home in this city. Miss Wilkie is one of the most popular girls in the society set.—Times-Union.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. W. Hutchinson reached here Wednesday night from New York and will spend a few days with Mr. Hutchinson's parents, County Clerk and Mrs. Henry Hutchinson. They are on their way to their home in eastern Cuba, where Mr. Hutchinson is in charge of the sugar interests of the United Fruit company. They will also spend a few days with Mr. Hutchinson's aunts in Crescent City.
The big team attached to the Southern express wagon ran away up Lemon street late Wednesday afternoon and for a time it was thought that some serious damage might be done. This was averted, however, by the heroic action of a young colored boy who caught on to the wagon, climbed up into it, seized the reins and stopped it near Hagan's grocery. The horses started from River street.

The steamer Cliven of Savannah, will be the companion of the steamer Crescent between Crescent City and Jacksonville during the orange shipping season and will start on its up trip Monday. This will give the Beach & Miller line a daily boat between this city and Jacksonville and Crescent City. This popular line is bound to take care of the business of its patrons.
The address of Mrs. Nannie Curtis of Sherman, Texas, at the Court House last Saturday night is said by those present to have been altogether the most forceful and eloquent delivered in Palatka in many years on any subject. The big court room was crowded to the doors and many were turned away because of inability to secure seats. The music by the Tilgham orchestra and the grand chorus, was another inspiring feature of the evening.

Dr. E. W. Warren has just purchased a handsome touring car of the Rambler agency in this city. Dr. Warren was the first man in Palatka to purchase an auto. His first car was a Ford runabout, which was hardly heavy enough to cope with the heavy country roads. With his new car he will have no troubles of that kind. And then the good doctor will look so much better in his new car.

Mrs. Louis F. Rosignol died at her home in this city last Saturday after a brief illness. The funeral was held on Sunday with many friends present. Rev. H. Duffell of the Methodist church officiated and the interment was in West View cemetery. Mrs. Rosignol is survived by her husband and a little child some nine months old. She was a lovely character and much sympathy is expressed for her bereaved husband. Mr. Rosignol desires to thank all for their sympathy and help in the time of his affliction, and especially does he thank Rev. Mr. Duffell.

On last Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Howell A. Davis entertained a number of society young people at an informal dancing party at their pretty home on Laurel street, in honor of Miss Gracie Hall, an attractive young lady of Bridgeport, Conn., who, with her grandmother, Mrs. Imogen A. Boughton, has been a guest at the Davis home during the past ten days. The affair, though informal, was nevertheless a most delightful social gathering. Delicious refreshments were served. Mrs. Boughton and Miss Hall terminated their visit Wednesday on which day they left for Bridgeport, Fla., where Mrs. Boughton will open her pretty home, after an absence of some three or four months.

WANTED HIS PAY.
The Husky Jamaican Didn't Care to Work For Nothing.
An English naval officer tells of being on a war vessel which took provisions to St. Kitts, one of the British West India Islands. A hurricane had left many of the inhabitants in a destitute or even starving condition. Hungry crowds gathered at the wharf, but refused to help unload the food that was to be given to them unless paid for their work.

A similar story sheds light on the Jamaican negro. Some years ago a hurricane devastated the island, and a large relief sum was raised, much of it in England and the United States. The committee having charge of this fund sent a wagon load of lumber to a husky black man whose house had been scattered over the parish. He and his family were living in a rude shack, made out of odds and ends. "What's that fur?" he asked of the men who were unloading the material in front of his patch of ground. "That's for your new house," was the reply. "It's from the relief fund and won't cost you anything." "Who's goin' to build mah house?" "You are, if anybody does." "Who's goin' to pay me fur mah work?"—Waynesboro Record.

An Old Garret on a Stormy Day.
I know no nobler forage ground for a romantic, venturesome, mischievous boy than the garret of an old family mansion on a day of storm. It is a perfect field of chivalry. The heavy rafters and dashing rain, the piles of spare mattresses to carouse upon, the big trunks to hide in, the old white coats and hats hanging in obscure corners like ghosts, are great! And it is so far away from the old lady who keeps rule in the nursery that there is no possible risk of a scolding for twisting off the fringe of a rug. There is no baby in the garret to wake up. There is no "company" in the garret to be disturbed by the noise. There is no crochety old uncle or grandma, with their everlasting "Boys, boys!" and then a look of horror.—Donald G. Mitchell.

The Baby Camel.
The baby camel is a curious looking little creature, but one which you would hardly select as a household pet. Like all young beasts, it is playful, but in a modified, solemn sort of way, and is as clumsy as it is odd to look upon.

Eczema
is an inflammation of the skin accompanied by great burning and itching, thick scales and blisters containing a watery fluid, and causing the sufferer untold agony.

Plant Juice Eczema Remedy
has been a godsend to sufferers from this terrible affliction and the many testimonials on file show how well it does its work.
