All the Flavor Saved.

The above trade mark represents the SEAL SHIPT SYSTEM which makes it possible for our customers to enjoy the world's best oysters right here at home.

It is the only system by which you are positively assured of oysters that are fresh, that have the true oyster flavor, and that are in the prime of the season. It protects our oysters every mile of the way from oyster bed to you.

In shipping other oysters, ice is put into the tubs with the oysters. Resulting is the loss of the true oyster flavor. As the ice melts, it puts in more ice—railroad ice. This melted ice is the "liquor" which is sold to you at oyster prices.

Crescent City News

Personal and Social.

The merchants of the place did a tremendous business last week.

Crescent City orange growers have made big money this season.

Miss Ruth Herlong is home from the Judson college at Marion, Ala., to spend the Christmas holidays.

The colored people of the A. M. E. church had a Christmas tree and a very happy time on Monday night.

There was quite a number of our young people to attend the dance at St. Johns Park last Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Herlong and children of Barwell, S. C., are the guests of Mrs. V. J. Herlong.

Miss Addie Bailey leaves Monday for Crescent City where she will spend some time as the guest of Miss Jessie Burton.—San Mateo Item.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. Appleby of South Carolina are spending the Christmas holidays with their father, Mr. J. P. Appleby.

Next week will be observed as the week of prayer at the Presbyterian church, with services every evening except Saturday.

Mrs. J. J. Horton of Attleboro, Mass., instead of coming to Crescent City as usual, has gone to southern California for the winter.

The little son born to Dr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Calhoun, on Saturday, the 17th inst., died on Tuesday the 20th. The sympathy of the community is with the bereaved parents.

The Williams groves have shipped over 11,000 boxes of citrus fruits this season, and there is more for later shipments. Mr. Williams states that prices have been very satisfactory.

Rev. D. D. Dieffenwerth, the new pastor of the Howe Memorial Methodist church will officiate for the first time here next Sunday. He will be welcomed by a large congregation.

Miss Lillian M. Appleby, for several years an efficient teacher in our high school, but now teaching in St. Augustine, is spending the holiday vacation with her father, Mr. J. P. Appleby.

A New Year's dancing party is to be given at V. I. A. hall next Monday night, with music by the St. Johns Park orchestra. The people of the place are invited to attend. Spectators will be charged 25 cents.

Mrs. A. W. Seaton of Saugerties, N. Y., arrived last Friday and is a guest at Grove Hall. Mrs. Seaton purchased a valuable residence site last winter on south Prospect street, adjoining the Williams grove and running to the lake.

Mayor Borson, who recently purchased the Howe property on the east side of south Prospect street, has recently sold 200 feet to a gentleman from Davenport, Iowa, who will build a home thereon. The property sold at $15 per foot front.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Rowe and daughter of Attleboro, Mass., arrived last week and are occupying the residence of Mrs. J. J. Horton, Central ave. and Summit street. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe will be pleasantly remembered as winter visitors here several years ago.

Mrs. W. J. Norton, for upwards of 20 years president of the Ladies' Aid Society of the Presbyterian church, has resigned because of failing sight. The ladies of the society recently presented her with a beautiful easy chair and rug as a slight token of their esteem and love.

The Auditorium was well filled last Saturday evening, to witness the Christmas tree exercises of the Presbyterian Sunday school. The children gave a very pretty program entitled "How the Brownies Fooled Santa Claus," which was followed by the distribution of presents from the tree. The happiness of the little folk was reflected in the faces of all the adults present.

Hutto Braddock a former citizen of this section who went to Texas some twenty-five years ago, has been here this week on a visit to relatives and friends. He has also been visiting relatives in other parts of the state. He was the guest over Christmas of James Padgett jr. Mr. Braddock formerly owned a very pretty grove a half mile south of Huntington.

C. A. Cheatham, the well known and prosperous real estate dealer of Jacksonville, spent the holiday season here with his uncle, Mr. Harwood Mathis. Mr. Cheatham has arranged to purchase the residence of Mrs. J. L. Maul on north Prospect street as a home for his mother, who will move here from Huntington in a short time. Mrs. Cheatham lived here in the early 80's, when she kept a small, but excellent hotel.

"Miss Fearless & Co." a comedy by Belle Marshall Locke, author of "Breezy Point" and other dramatic successes, will be presented by the young ladies of Crescent City, under the direction of Mrs. H. C. Pomeroy, at V. I. A. hall on Friday evening, January 13th. The play is given for the benefit of the chapel fund of the Presbyterian church, and judging from the personnel of the cast, promises to be one of the most enjoyable entertainments of the entire season.

The civic committee of the V. I. A., of which Mrs. Borson is chairman and Mrs. Eaton Cliff is also a member, urge that property owners make an extra effort to keep their premises and the abutting streets clean. It is not possible for the town authorities in a small place and covering so much territory, with the funds available, to do all on the streets that is needed to make them look as they should, therefore the Woman's Club civic department urges that citizens help to the extent of keeping the streets around their own homes clean.

A GASTRONOMIC JOY.

Old English Recipe For the Famous Soupe a la Crecy.

In the "Illustrated London Cookery Book," by Frederick Blatton, late cuisinier to St. James' palace, Earl Grey, the Marquis of Stafford, Baron Rothschild, Earl Norbury, Captain Duncombe and many of the first families of Great Britain (1852), we find this recipe for soupe a la Crecy:

"Cut half a pound of lean ham in dice, three onions, four turnips, twelve carrots (the outer side red only), a head of celery, a fagot of sweet herbs, two blades of mace, six cloves, a bay leaf and half a pound of salt butter. Fry all down in a stewpan until they get a little brown; then add some second stock and stew until all the roots are quite tender; then rub it through a tannin sieve or tammy cloth with two long spoons. If very thick add more stock. Season with cayenne and black pepper and salt and a good bit of sugar. Send up on a napkin some nice fried bread cut in small dice and not greasy."

This is far less elaborate than it sounds and is, indeed, in the main the recognized recipe for the royal soup. The spice is, if anything, a trifle overdone, and the carrots want to be well chosen, as the slightest stringiness destroys the homogeneity of the compound. The bread dice are important and should be fried in the very best butter or superlatively good olive oil.

There are curious refinements of cookery among the Akkuyu, an East African race of whom Mr. W. Scoresby Routledge writes in "With a Prehistoric People." It seems that the favorite animal for slaughter is a full grown ram that has been kept in the dark under his master's bed for three months and fed on sweet potato tops. "He is the only animal in the country that ever gets really fat, and his tail, whereon his fat tends to accumulate, grows to the size and weight of one of his hind legs."

Wheezing in the lungs indicates that phlegm is obstructing the air passages. BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP loosens the phlegm so that it can be coughed up and ejected. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Ackerman-Stewart Drug Co., and J. H. Haughton.

San Reighley, of Mowcau, Ill., was shot and killed at Hot Springs, Ark., by Patrolman Wilcox Ford, while resisting arrest. Reighley was arrested for being disorderly. It is said he recently inherited considerable money, and had come to Hot Springs in search of his health.

Vice-President Edward Van Wyck Rossetter, of the New York Central lines, died at his home in Flushing, L. I., of a complication of diseases. His life had been despaired of for several days and his wife and family were at his bedside. Mr. Rossetter spent his life in the service of the New York Central.

John J. Smyth, a bartender, who shot and killed his wife and young daughter at their home in Norfolk last August, was electrocuted in the penitentiary at Richmond, Va. Jim Sit, a negro, who murdered a 70-year-old white woman in Rockingham last August, was also put to death.

Seven men walked into a tenderloin gambling club at New York, held up the twenty-five inmates and robbed them of all their money and valuables. The amount of the haul is not known.

Heartburn is a symptom of indigestion. Take a dose of HERBINE in such cases. The pain disappears instantly. The bowels operate splendidly. Buy one feel fine, vigorous and cheerful. Price 25c. Sold by Ackerman-Stewart Drug Co., and J. H. Haughton.

FOREIGN The municipality at NEWS Brest entertained the American battlefleets on a great scale. Delegations of French sailors, soldiers and dockyard employees were invited to meet the Americans, and the guests were distributed around the city, no one restaurant being large enough to accommodate all.

The Swedish steamer Cedric has been wrecked near Gelfe, a seaport of Sweden. Twelve persons were drowned, including all the officers with the exception of the captain. The Cedric, which was of about 1,100 tons was coal laden.

It is announced at London that negotiations have been completed for the amalgamation of the Western Union Telegraph Company and the Anglo-American Cable Company.

The Duchess of Orleans underwent an operation for appendicitis at Wood Norton, Everham, on Saturday, but has passed a comfortable night. Her condition is considered critical.

Children take BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP willingly because it is so pleasant. There is a better remedy anywhere for children's coughs, colds and bronchitis. It's a good medicine and easy to take. Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per bottle. Sold by Ackerman-Stewart Drug Co., and J. H. Haughton.

Not the owners, tenants, occupants or building inspectors were responsible for the factory fire of a fortnight ago in which twenty-five girls lost their lives, but the laws of the state of New Jersey. Such was the finding of a coroner's jury.

The schooner Gladys, the first to make the trip on a new line established between Galveston and Lake Arthur to ply the merchant trade, reached Lake Arthur Saturday. Regular trips will be made between the two ports in future.

In a shooting affray J. M. White, a prominent resident, was killed at Oakdale, La. Ward Claybough, charged with the shooting, is a fugitive from justice, and Ed Howard is held as an accessory. The shooting was the result of a brawl.

After many years in the license column with twenty-one saloons and several clubs enjoying the privilege of liquor selling, North Adams, Mass., has swung into the no-license rank by one vote.

The senate has confirmed C. C. McChord, of Kentucky, and B. H. Meyer, of Wisconsin, to be members of the Interstate commerce commission.

How Old People May Prolong Their Lives

At advanced age the organs act more slowly than in youth. Circulation becomes poor, blood thin and watery, appetite fitful, and digestion weak. This condition leads the system open to disease such as Coughs, Colds, Grippe, Pneumonia, Rheumatism, etc.

VINOL is the greatest health creator and body builder we know of for old people, as it supplies the very elements needed to re-build wasting tissue and replace weakness with strength.

A case is recorded in Albany, N. Y., of a woman who felt she was breaking down by age and was doomed to the weak and feeble condition of old people. She had no strength and the slightest exertion tired her, but VINOL made her well and strong, and she states that she feels ten years younger than she did before taking VINOL.

We ask every aged person in this neighborhood to try a bottle of VINOL with the understanding that we will return their money if it does not prove beneficial.

FAMOUS STAR GROUP.

The Constellation Orion in Legend and Literature.

The constellation Orion is mentioned in the literature of all ages. In Egypt it represented Horus, the young of rising sun, in a boat surmounted by stars closely followed by Sirius, which was shown as a cow. It has also been found sculptured on the walls of Thebes 5,000 years ago. And on the men of that early time it shone down from the same position and with the same brightness as it does on us today, a striking example of the unchangeableness of the heavens.

From the days of the early Hindus to the present the constellation has for some reason borne always a stormy character. Allusions to its direful influence are found everywhere among the classic writers. Thus Milton wrote: "When with fierce winds Orion arrived, Haith vexed the Red sea coast."

The loss of the Roman squadron in the first Punic war was ascribed to the fleets having sailed just after the rising of Orion. The group has also been employed as a calendar sign, its morning rising indicating the beginning of summer, its midnight rising the season of grape gathering and its early evening rising the arrival of winter, with its attendant storms. In recent times the group has always represented a great hunter or warrior. Its present title came into Greek astronomy from the Euphrates and originally signified the light of heaven.

GROTESQUE NAMES.

Burdens That Innocent English Children Had to Bear.

In England, as in other countries, thousands of people go through life cherishing a grudge against their parents for giving them absurd or incongruous names. It was most natural that a demure and pretty girl in a north suburb should feel resentful when she had to answer to the name of Hussybody, given in honor of the winner of a race fifteen years before. Among the names registered at Somerset House are Alms and Graces and Xun Nicer, which were innocently borne by two little girls who found them most embarrassing in after years.

The appalling name of Wellington Wolsely Roberts was borne by a young man who, in disposition and appearance, was anything but militant, and as little likely to win fame on the battlefield as his predecessors Arthur Wellesley Wellington Waterloo Cox and Napoleon the Great Eggar.

However, even these names, inappropriate as they may be, are to be preferred to Roger the Ass, Anna (sic) Domini Davies and Boadicea Basher.

To parents of large families the advent of another child is not always welcome, but it is scarcely kind to make the unexpected child bear a token of disapproval. It must be rather terrible to go through life, for example, as Not Wanted James, What Another, John Fancy William Brown, or even as Last of 'Em Harper, or Still Another Hewitt.

And yet these are all names which have imposed on innocent children.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Deep-seated coughs that resist ordinary remedies require both external and internal treatment. If you buy a dollar bottle of BALLARD'S HOREHOUND SYRUP you get the two remedies you need for the price of one. There is a HERRICK'S RED PEPPER PODOBUS PLASTER for the chest, free with each bottle. Sold by Ackerman-Stewart Drug Co., and J. H. Haughton.
